

Communicating With The Mineral Kingdom

Mushiba: As I sit writing this Reflection, I am surrounded by a multitude of friends from The Mineral Kingdom. They want me to emphasize that Mineral Kingdom members like to communicate with us, and thus, seek us out regularly, even though many people simply do not hear them. You might ask then, “How can I begin to hear them?” Waith has an answer:

Waith: “To communicate with a Mineral Kingdom energy, you simply need to have the desire to do so ~ which is the easy part, of course. Then take an energy from The Mineral Kingdom that you feel a connection with. Begin the process of bonding with this energy by holding it within your hands. Focus on your Heart Energy Center into the equivalent Energy Center in the mineral, for The Mineral Kingdom members also have Energy Centers, different from, yet similar to, The Human Kingdom.

“Do this until you begin to feel a response. There is no definitive response we can give you as an example to know that the connection has been made. Rather, as with true communication, it is simply a sense that there is an understanding.

“Once you are able to connect with that particular mineral energy, you will then find yourself able to communicate in ways you may regret later, for many who communicate with The Mineral Kingdom would tell you that once minerals can communicate with you, they want you to take them everywhere with you and you end up having The Mineral Kingdom all around you ~ they are like that! And because many of them are so small, they feel that they could just come along for the ride and will not be noticed ~ they are a most delightful and joyful kingdom.”

Once communication is achieved with The Mineral Kingdom, there is a new ability that must be developed to which Waith only alluded ~ we need to learn how to ‘tune out’ from their sometimes constant chattering ~ constant! Believe me ~ from my own experience. Sometimes I succeed and then sometimes...
