

How Spirit Guides Are Assigned

Mushiba: The topic of Spirit Guides is vibrant and diverse from: what are Spirit Guides, how to contact and communicate with Spirit Guides ~ to even as a descriptive for a guide to spirits (alcohol). While Waith frequently discusses the role Spirit Guides play in Self's journey, in Playtime on the Earth Plane, he responded to a question about How Spirit Guides Are Assigned:

Question: “Do Spirit Guides have issues with Lightness?”

Waith: “Oh, indeed, yes.”

Question: “So, would I, as a serious person, get a grumpy Spirit Guide?”

Waith: “You could. Spirit Guides are assigned to help in whatever the issue happens to be in a particular serious of incarnations ~ or a specific incarnation. If you need to have, as you call it, a grumpy Spirit Guide to help you work through a particular issue in that serious of lifetimes, so be it.”

“Spirit Guides are simply in a different training ground. And, some are still doing their sojourn on the earth plane, and when they are not on the earth plane, they are in Guide School. When they learn a certain lesson in Guide School, they come out and try to apply that lesson ~ that concept.”

“Your Spirit Guides are not arbitrarily assigned to you ~ you choose your guides. You say to the leaders of Guide School, this is what I need to learn.”

“There are no A, B, C or Ds given for learning ~ you simply learn as long as it takes to learn. You tell the teacher what you need to learn ~ you are not told by the teacher.

“Thus, you will say, for example, ‘I need to have the learning of seriousness in the next ten incarnations on the earth plane, so I need to exaggerate and need two lifetimes where I am very, very serious.’

“You may then say, ‘Give me a Spirit Guide who is at the other end of the teeter totter to help me come to balance.’ Or you may say, ‘Give me a Spirit Guide who is at the same level of learning, except at a greater awareness, that can help me to get through this lesson.’

“So, if you have a grumpy guide, it is your own fault.”

Question: “Can we trade them in?”

Waith: “Yes ~ this is entirely your decision. It happens more as the rule than the exception, for as your vibration changes, so too, do the needs that you have for guidance change ~ and the interconnection of other energies to Be Of Service to you changes. It is appropriate to have a continual changing of energies around Self that respond to what your vibration happens to be at that point in time.”

The question about having a grumpy guide is one of my favorites. What was a seemingly silly question, Waith turned into a discussion about lesson learning ~ how we learn our lessons is not random. The Universe is organized and so too must be our learning.

Of course, there is a Guide School ~ where any of us can attend (or not) and learn how to formally guide others.
