

All Energy Forms Begin As Light

Mushiba: When seeing the behavior and attitude of some people, the title here may be questioned. As Waith explains, however, there are qualifiers:

Waith: “All energy forms begin as Light, and then as the path toward Oneness is begun, and the lessons that need to be learned, and the tests that need to be faced are presented, the way in which the energy form responds ~ for there is free will ~ determines how their Light glows. And when a test is not met, or an energy form does not learn a lesson, and is actually defiant and says, ‘I do not want to learn this. I will do what I want,’ the darkness begins to envelope the Lightness and the Light begins to dim.”

When thinking of the Spectrum of Light, and viewed as linear, it clearly has Light and dark at opposite ends. Yet, as nonlinear, it shows gradations of Light and not dark. Depending on our lesson-learning journey, each of us exists at some point of gradations of Light. When we are ready to return to The One, we will end as we began ~ an energy of Pure Light!
