Inquiry About A Personal Relationship ~ Waith Relays Past Life Connections

I would like to have a little more information on my relationship with the man I am with. I know we have been together. I just feel that. About our interaction ~ when one is well, the other loses it a little bit. When the other is fine, we just kind of ping-pong. When I am up, he is down. And when he is down, I am up. How are the dynamics? How come we play that way?

You already know the answer to this question. You are looking to me for confirmation of something, that you feel a connectedness with this man. Of course there is. You have shared many lifetimes together. Your lifetimes have had pleasure and difficulties as life on the earth plane is. You are very good balances for each other.

This particular issue of illness comes from a lifetime of perhaps five thousand years ago when you were a member of royalty and he was the court doctor, and he was charged with the responsibility of keeping the royal family well. He had come onto the earth plane many years before you had in this lifetime. You were a young, blooming woman when he came into the court to tend your father in that lifetime. He was the head of the royalty, and you had many brothers and sisters. You were the favorite.

You became smitten with him, and you used to fake many illnesses so that he would pay attention to you. You were unaware though that he knew you were doing this. However, he did not mind because he loved you. You were never able to bring the relationship to the fruition that you would want because of the age difference. However, because of the playing of being ill when you were not and an element of deception, it created somewhat of an imbalance for you with him. And you have had many lifetimes together since then, although that particular balancing has not been an issue in other lifetimes. You have balanced in other areas. You have learned other lessons more critical. And in this lifetime you have decided to tackle this, and so you are playing again with each other in a most delightful way actually.

You react to each other with a soul memory because of wanting to get attention from each other, because during that lifetime he would play your game and he enjoyed very much being able to sit by your bedside and hold your hand and listen to you tell him how miserable you were. And in this lifetime you are having to do this with him, and you are finding this to be rather interesting, not altogether discomforting to you. You rather enjoy holding his hand, if you will, as he is moaning and groaning about something. You have a most beautiful interaction. There is a bond of love between the two of you that has come through from many lifetimes and your pattern of reincarnation is well established. He is a soul mate. He is not your twin flame although there is a very close bond between the two of you. Does that satisfy some of your curiosity?

Yes, some. When was that lifetime of royalty?

That lifetime was in what is now referred to as the Middle Eastern countries. There was much wealth. You were very pampered. Your physical manifestation in this lifetime is a direct result of this particular lifetime. You had tremendous grace and stature physically. At that period of time the human form was very tall in this part of the world and you have come into this lifetime with essentially the same physical characteristics. It is part of your attempts to balance and you are succeeding. Hold you head high. Do not slouch.

Inquiry About Relationship With A Husband ~ Waith Relays Past Life Connections

Waith, my husband and I enjoy each other very much in this lifetime. Can you tell me if we were in a previous lifetime together?

Of course you were. These connections do not just happen. They are the result of many shared experiences over several lifetimes. In your particular case you have been husband and wife, wife and husband, in six different lifetimes in recent history ~ that is to say, within the last ten thousand to twelve thousand years. And you have grown very comfortable in the relationship of husband and wife, wife and husband. You have switched these roles and because you have done this in the past it has given you a greater sensitivity to each other and the needs that each of you has as evolving souls.

You have also had relationships where you were not husband and wife, where you were simply friends. During the past ten thousand to twelve thousand years, you have been, in whatever your relationships, very close. You have been friends. You have been brother and sister in one life. And you are very fortunate in that you do not have balancing to achieve with this entity. There is much harmony between you. You both though have considerable balancing to achieve with other relationships and have chosen to be together in this lifetime to give strength to each other and to help each other in the balancing that you have to achieve in other areas of your life. It is a most satisfying interaction that the two of you do not have debt between you. You can draw on each other and upon each other's vibration and energies to help one another.

Your most recent life was approximately two hundred years ago. You were in the country of America, as Indians. You were female and he was male. You had many children in that lifetime ~ you had fifteen children in that lifetime ~ you were a busy little woman. Many of those children are back with you now in this lifetime in various relationships with you. There is a considerable amount of balancing that needs to be done because there was a group incident that occurred that has created some imbalance for all of those who were your children in that lifetime. It is nothing that is dramatic or monumental in its dimensions. However, because there were so many children you were not able to give attention to them in the ways that you would want to and that they would want to. They were left to fend for themselves, as the saying goes. There was some resentment on their part because of this and so those who are in this lifetime now in various relationships with you will be making demands upon your time, wanting to have you spend time with them and attend to their needs.

You must be careful of this because, you see, in this lifetime just passed, there was nothing wrong with your behavior. You owe them nothing. However, they feel that you do and it is therefore their problem. Part of the lesson they need to learn is that you do not owe them anything and that they must work this out themselves in terms of developing their own souls, and learning to fend for themselves. You were in actuality attempting to give them a sense of independence and they did not understand this. There is one out of this bunch who understood. She is with you in this lifetime in a very close relationship. I like so often to tease you with information and rather force you to call upon your Higher Self to come to some very direct answers, for I know that your question uppermost in your mind is, "Who is this one?" I am debating as to whether to continue to tease you and force you to figure this out yourself, or give you the answer. Do you have any sense of it, my dear?

Yes.

Then who do you think it is? (The name is given) You are partially correct. She was one of your children then and was very close to you and understood primarily your behavior. She does, however, have a residual feeling of being deserted. There is another very close to you. And I will encourage you to get to your Higher Self through your meditations or through your dream state. This could be a good practice for you ~ to call upon your own instincts ~ your own knowledge of your own past. In doing this, I would like you to come to your own answers, and I will be more than happy to confirm or not what you feel to be the truth.

Inquiry About An Uncomfortable Situation At Work ~ Issues of Balancing

This uncomfortable situation I got myself into at work ~ should I get out of it immediately?

We, at this end of the vibration, look upon the earth plane with amusement sometimes because of what everyone gets themselves into. And I will not make light of your situation because it is something that you have chosen to enter into for a lesson to be learned. It is important to know that when you, each of you, chooses something, it is done because of a lesson to be learned. Some of you need to learn that lesson over and over again before you are able to get it to stick.

This particular situation of which you speak is something that you need to analyze somewhat. You have chosen this for a very specific reason. It relates to a life that you had many, many thousands of years ago, perhaps twenty thousand years ago, that you have left unresolved all this time. And because of the particular circumstances on the earth plane at this time in earth history, you as well as many other souls, have entered to do some cleaning up of loose ends, as we like to refer to them, knowing that this is an accelerated time of learning as you approach the potential Shift of the axis.

It is something that you should not belabor. However, you should look at very closely and analyze why you entered into this situation. You need to understand who the people are who surround you, as it relates to the situation. Through your meditations you must reach the answer yourself as to what you are going to do. You have a slight imbalance here, which relates to your ego.

Twenty thousand years ago during the second phase of Atlantis you were what might be called a street urchin. You were left on your own. You were quite happy ~ you learned how to manipulate others. You were considered very cute and you used this to your advantage to gain money, as it is called today ~ that terminology was not used then ~ and you would beg on the streets. And because you were so good at it you developed what would be called today a nice little business. You presented the appearance of a street urchin well beyond reality of the situation.

You formed a partnership with someone, who is now with you in this lifetime, and who you are dealing with in this situation to which you refer. And in this partnership, your ego took over. You did not want this other individual to overshadow you. You were the shining star. You did not like to be overshadowed. So you used to do little prankish things. You were standing nearby this vat which was filled with grapes that had been used for the crushing of grapes and there was much liquid in this very large container. You accidentally pushed her into this and so she was covered with grapes. This was just prior to your going out onto the streets. You did not want the competition. She was not able to go out with you and do these kinds of things very frequently.

So you have some minor balancing to do. However, it is not a big issue. It is something that held itself for twenty thousand years. You decided that it was time to clean up a loose end, and this is what you are dealing with. You have one particular individual in this situation, and she is from this lifetime, and you owe her and she knows this and she is collecting. Get it over with as quickly as you can without belaboring it. Seek some answers from your Higher Self as to what made you behave in this manner and how you can actually balance yourself.

Inquiry About A Young Son Who Has Passed On ~ One's Requirement To Study Records

My son passed on in 1972 and at the age of eighteen. (His name is given). I have been told by clairvoyants that he studies the Akashic records. They call him the "old soul".

My dear, everyone in this dimension is required to study the records at some point in their stay. It is part of the learning process when one is not on the earth plane, when one is not on another planet, or specifically assigned to certain things.

Give me one moment to locate him. Yes, I have found him. He is in school, as we would refer to it. I am currently communicating with those around him to gain an understanding of the reason for this nickname. His vibration has been on the earth plane many, many thousands of times. He has had far more than the average incarnations on the earth plane. He is an old soul. His age as a soul has little to do with the evolution of the Soul or the strength of the Soul. He has spent so many of his lifetimes on the earth plane, in either playing or learning only one lesson, rather than coming in at a time to learn several at a time, which accounts for why he has had so many lifetimes, and indeed is an old soul.

His advancement as a soul needs a great deal of work, and he has finally matured as a soul to the point where he has agreed to go to school. We use that phrase here for those who are given specific lessons to learn ~ to be taught so that they then will come back on the earth plane and see if they have indeed learned them. Part of this is that he is being exposed to the records. For him it is the first time that he is being exposed to these records and he is quite anxious about it. He is very happy. It is going to give him a solid foundation on which to work when he comes back on to the earth plane. He will probably not return to the earth plane for perhaps, in your time frame, perhaps another two hundred or three hundred years. He has much to study. He is a very good student. This name that he has, the "old soul," is appropriate for him at the vibration at which he is now located.

The Importance Of Asking For Help In Transitioning From The Earth Plane

My father-in-law was trapped on the earth plane, and I hope and pray to get him out. And I was told that he was out of that, and I would like some confirmation if I can. (The name is given)

He has just barely made it. There is still an entrapment here though it is not an entrapment from the earth plane. He is still in a dimension that is now allowing him to be free. The reason for this is really quite simple. He has not had anyone to help him through. This happens so often that when the transition occurs there is no one here for a particular soul. There are many reasons for this. We have located him and we are able to help him. When a soul is trapped on the earth plane, as I have said before, we are not able to affect any help. It has to come from other areas. However, where he is now we can help him. We need only to be asked. We do not do it without being asked.

By him?

No, it must come from those on the earth plane who were directly connected with him. You can be a part of it. There needs to be several other people who were directly connected with him who need to also ask. It is very simple. You do not need to be in my presence to ask. You simply call upon me. They must believe that, in their prayers, calling upon The Creator and asking The Creator to allow us to help ~ it must come from that kind of direction, and then we simply will help. We will ease him through and do the necessary exercises to help him through. They are not easily explained to you on the earth plane, what we do here to assist souls in the transition. It becomes even more complex in a situation like this. Simply know that we can help him and help him through.

It is so very similar to the birthing process on the earth plane, a pushing through a barrier to come onto the vibration of the earth plane. It is very similar. There is a vibration that surrounds him that he is not able to break through, and he needs some assistance to push himself through so that he then gets into the correct vibration for his particular soul. We can help him with that. Do you understand what I say? And it is clear to you who these individuals must be.

Yes. Thank you.

Pray to The Creator and ask The Creator to allow Waith and Company ~ there are seven of us ~ we will take care of it. The Creator denies nothing. It is simply a matter of asking.

A Husband And Wife Having Intense Relationship ~ Issue Of Being Twin Flames

Can you maybe explain to me why my husband and I have such an intense relationship from the time that we first met?

The intensity of course comes from shared experiences. You are twin flames, my dear. That is the reason for the intensity. It of course comes from shared experiences. Having to explain those shared experiences is unnecessary, knowing that you are twin flames. That in itself creates the intensity. It is a bond, of course, that is impossible to break. Why would you want to break it, because you are twins? Being twin flames does not necessarily mean that all is well, that all is in harmony. It simply means that you are each other's other half. There will of course be times when you will disagree. You will be at opposite ends of The Spectrum in philosophies. This is normal with twin flames because you are opposites, yet you are one.

You are both struggling to not only learn the lessons that your soul individually has to learn, also by being together on the earth plane experience, choosing to do that. You are also having to learn lessons as twin flames, those experiences which will eventually bring you into Oneness, which will then bring you into Oneness with The Creator.

We see that the intensity of your relationship is actually very beneficial for your growth, and that while you at times want to run away from each other, you will not do so. You have made a commitment to each other both at the Soul level and at the conscious level. We see you keeping that commitment to each other. We see you together when The Shift of the axis occurs, deciding together whether or not you will stay. One of you will make the decision and then both of you will abide by it so that you will both either stay or you will both go. You will not leave each other. You have already decided that one of you will make that decision. You will not sit around and haggle about it. There will not be time.

It would be good for the both of you to pursue more seriously this endeavor that you are thinking about doing together. It would be beneficial for you to work together in this particular endeavor, and we would encourage you to pursue it. It will strengthen your vibrations together and help to reaffirm your commitment to each other. It will not lessen the intensity of your relationship. That will remain with you through The Shift. And if you decide to stay after The Shift, the intensity will begin to mellow somewhat. By the time The Shift occurs, the lessons that you have needed to learn will have come to an end. They are very near their end at this point. You have only some minor lessons to be learning together. Do you understand?

Most of it, I think.

What is it you do not understand?

I am not sure what you mean by working together in some endeavor that we have been thinking about. My husband is one of those people that five minutes, it is one thing, and ten minutes later, it is the total opposite. Then five minutes later, it is something else. So that would be hard for me to figure out which one he has been contemplating.

Yes. This is part of your lesson. In attuning yourself with him you must concentrate and communicate with each other, because there is one particular endeavor that is dear to his heart that you can help him with. He wants to share it with you, has felt that you are not interested in anything that he wants to pursue because of this attitude he has. You must show him that you are truly interested and go through all the different thoughts he has, all these different ideas, until you come to the realization of the one that will be the one of which I speak.

Inquiry About A Relationship With A Friend ~ Establishing A Pattern Of Reincarnation

I would like to know what my relationship with my friend is. (The name is given)

You and this friend are meeting for the first time in this lifetime on the earth plane. You have not had earth plane lives together until this lifetime. You have, however, had many lifetimes on other planets together. You have been on one of the Water Planets ~ that is, life exists under the water. It is a very carefree type of life, and very particular kinds of lessons are learned by souls who go on to the Water Planet. There are several of them.

You have had much time spent together in other dimensions. You have not had much time on the earth plane, either one of you. You have had only a few lives on the earth plane, and you have decided to come onto the earth plane at this point because of the impending Shift and certain abilities that you both have that will help those on the earth plane now in their spiritual growth. You have both decided that you will spend more time on the earth plane.

You are one of those entities who will be assisting in the projected one thousand years after The Shift, where only certain vibrational levels will be allowed to enter the earth plane. You are one of them. You will stay after The Shift for a short time, and you will leave because your work will be finished. And you will be allowed to re-enter the earth plane very quickly after that in another role, which you will choose. You will then take up your residence, if you will, on the earth plane and spend a considerable amount of time ~ many lifetimes ahead of you, on the earth plane.

This relationship with your friend in this lifetime is the beginning. You have already now established a pattern of reincarnation with him. This is the first lifetime, and you will be companions in many lifetimes ahead. The difficulties that you are having with him in this lifetime are not to be concerned about, for you are both adjusting to being with each other on the earth plane for the first time, knowing at the Soul Level the connection that you have with each other from other planets and knowing that you are establishing this pattern of reincarnation. You have much ahead of you, the two of you, and you will make decisions together as to what relationships you will have with each other as you enter into your future lives together. Those will be decisions between the two of you, very personal decisions, based upon your own soul's growth and the pattern of growth and the lives that you want to have with each other. Welcome to the earth plane.
