Meditation To Send Light To An Angelic Warrior Currently Incarnated

We would first like to begin by asking for a gathering of the Light from all of you, for one of my warriors is in need of some Light. He has incarnated into the physical body and is experiencing the usual difficulties that go along with implantation upon the earth plane, and so if you would all join hands and follow in my directions ~ remembering that there must be no broken links in the gathering of the hands here. Is everyone connected at some point? Yes.

Now, each of you, please, close your eyes and direct your closed eyes to where the third eye is located in the center of the forehead of the encasement, and envision Light, envision it as a sparkling type of ball, and concentrate on that part of your spirit. And now visualize yourself taking a large handful of this white bright sparkling Light, and envision also that which you would of The Angelics, for my warrior is of The Angelics. And that which you envision as Angelic, whatever that might be, place this picture into your minds, and take this handful of Light that you now have and throw it upon The Angelic form. Throw it in a joyful, loving, manner, all of you, for we will send it to him from you.

And now, bring yourselves back to your consciousness of earth plane reality, away from the third eye, back into your own comfortable position. And when I indicate for you to open your eyes, after you have done so, go to the person on your right, and hug that person, and to the person on your left, and hug that person. And also, the one in front of you, and the one in back of you. Hugs are truly wonderful. And now, my dear loves, open your eyes, and join with each other in love.

We of The Angelics thank you for coming to the assistance of one who has come in to help you all, in his own way, and it is a learning, for regardless of dimension and regardless of advancement, we help each other. And while you may feel that one of The Angelics, and especially one of The Warrior Force, would not be in need of help from the earth plane level, we have just shown you that quite the opposite is true.

And so it is for you all to remember that regardless of where you are on your path toward Oneness, and regardless of the advancement of the Soul, you are all here to help each other. We are all One, and when that is known and recognized, there will be much greater peace within the individual, as well as peace within the earth plane environment. Recognize that you have all helped another entity, regardless of the level of advancement, and thus it is with each of you. We thank you.

A Continued Discussion Of The Pyramids

We thought that this particular session that we would discuss a particular topic. We will begin our discussion of this topic. We have touched upon it in the past and feel that there is a greater need for a discussion now, and it relates to the topic of the pyramids and the coming structures that will be designed and built. There seems to be much interest. We have given a Special Topic Session on this particular issue, and find, from our own investigations of your needs, that it is a continuing topic of, shall we say, fascination. We will give you some further information and then we will allow you to ask questions that we know are on your mind and would like to have placed on the record.

We have stated that the pyramids, as they are now, are conductors of energy, and that their purpose is coming to the fruition that it was intended when built approximately six thousand years ago. These structures, and we refer to them as structures rather than specifically as pyramids, change in their form from cleansing to cleansing, depending upon that which must be accomplished during that particular time frame. The current structures on the earth plane are these that you know as pyramids.

When the cleansing occurs and The Shift of the axis comes, they will serve as energizers, and there will be a connection of very intense energy. They are positioned at what are called critical points on the earth plane, remembering always that the earth plane is made up of more than just Planet Earth. You would refer to previous sessions where we have discussed what is actually made up of the earth plane. And all of these structures were designed by a very select group of entities who have now returned to the earth plane to gather about them a new group of energies and to teach them how to transfer the energy from the pyramid structures into the new structures which will be built once the axis shifts.

The pyramids, as you now know them, will simply dissolve. This is how they are designed. It is of a design and a molecular structure that is really unknown to all from the earth plane, though it gives the illusion of that which is known by the scientists. It is not. And they will dissolve, and the new structures will be constructed. And there will be new critical points on the earth plane. Planet Earth itself will have twelve critical points, and there are twelve leaders who know who they are.

The new structures will serve to contain the energy that will be needed for the new time frame on the earth plane, to help those who enter the earth plane in the lessons that need to be learned and the very specific types of energies that will be required and the vibrations that will be needed.

There is a direct correlation with The Mineral Kingdom and the cleansing structures, as we refer to them. Crystals will have new programming as a result of the new structures. As we have indicated in the past, this area known as Enfield is one of the twelve critical points, and one of the missions of Mushiba is that of one of the twelve who will serve to help in the structures that will be constructed.

They will be of a shape ~ many of you have been anxiously awaiting what the shape will be ~ we know this ~ and you have been guessing and presenting speculation, and we will say to you that the new shape will be quite different from the old shape, and that it will have a smoothness to it, rather than this sharpness of what is pyramids, and that is really all that you need to know. It will be smooth. That will be known as they are being constructed, for you see, those of you who will be a part of the community, here in the safe area, will be here as Mushiba directs the twelve who she must select as her builders, and you will all see them being constructed. You will see your very own structure here in the land that will be for the structure.

It will be as these current structures, large, and it is constructed through the mental processes, not at all the way many of the renowned scientists have indicated was the possible way that the pyramids were built. There is nothing mysterious about it. It is an ancient power, but it is a very powerful power, and one which comes in for use only for construction of the structures.

And so Mushiba and the twelve will have this ability when the time is right, and not before, and when the task is accomplished, the power will cease, for it is a very specific type of energy that is transmitted to those who have taken on the responsibility and the tremendous task of construction. And you will all, who become part of the community, be enlisted to help the twelve workers, as we would call them, whom Mushiba will select. You will each have certain abilities given to you to assist, in varying degrees, thus setting the stage for many of you, when the next cleansing occurs, to be a part of the twelve.

We anticipate that many of you will want to be very strong participants in this process that is about to occur. It does not take a very long time, as known on the earth plane. The construction of the structure takes what might be referred to as the blink of an eye, in time, for there is much to be accomplished after the structure is in place, and thus it is not the type of activity that one would devote years of energy to, for it is a quick type of process, so that the structure can be in place, and it will be in place simultaneously with the eleven other structures. It will all be done simultaneously. The connection and the new energy and the new vibration will be in place, so that the work can be done, after The Shift, to prepare the Souls who would enter for the next six to ten thousand earth plane years.

It is not, therefore, a coincidence that so many come into this land known as Enfield. If any of you were to question why you are here, of all places, many of you will find the answers from within now, that this land has been, in the past, used for a similar purpose. It has been a critical point in the past, many, many millions of earth plane years ago. The land mass has a vibrational memory that now permits us to use it as a critical point, for it has attained a spiritual advancement that will allow it to be strong enough for the next time frame, for the building of the new energies, and the new vibrations.

It is counseled from us that none of you worry about where you should locate yourself, but rather, allow that which will flow to occur, remembering that your souls have chosen a particular mission, and that many of you are here to help with The Shift ~ after The Shift as well as before, and that many of you will choose not to stay after The Shift, but rather will do your work before The Shift, so that you may then go on to other types of activities and return when the time is appropriate, into the new vibration.

The community will begin to build the shelters within perhaps, what is on the earth plane, five to six years coming. There is still, as you measure time, significant time before the structures need to be built, the shelters, and we will be guiding you at all times ~ and knowing that you will be in the range of the new structure is for you to realize the immense energy that you will be living with. It will provide to you a tremendous source of power. It will be a good source of power that will provide to those of you who have chosen to remain after The Shift the ability to help and to rebuild at a physical level that which needed to be cleaned, and thus you will all be engaged in a great deal of physical activity as well as spiritual growth, and you will receive your energies from the structure which will be quite literally in your own back yard. You will all find yourselves habitating around this structure, but we will have more on that in the future.

Will There Be Transportation After The Shift So We Can See The Other Structures?

It will not be necessary to see the other structures. They will be situated in very great distances from this particular structure. Transportation as you now know it will be altered, and for the immediate time after The Shift there will be a very rudimentary type of transportation available, and just as occurs after every cleansing, there becomes, once again, the building up of the experiences and the energies coming back onto the earth plane and bringing with them their knowledge and their experience and starting all over again, as we have talked so very often about.

There will be those of the twelve who will have the vision of the other structures, but there will be no need to physically visit the others for they will be of the same shape and have the same purpose, and by being with this particular structure will connect you with the other eleven automatically.

Will Some Of The Buildings Remain After The Shift?

Some will be left and some will not be. It will be situational, for you to know at that time. You will be given the guidance. You will know, for there are leaders among you who will be given the information as well as your own abilities through meditation to understand. Again, because we emphasize to you all the importance of meditation and your own abilities to reach your Higher Self and to tap into the knowledge that all has available to them. There will be, of course, some who just naturally are the leaders who will assist the rest of you in understanding that which is happening and keeping the peace and calm.

When The Earth Shifts On Its Axis, Will Our Orbit Be Affected?

That which is referred to as the orbit will not be affected. It is an illusionary type of situation to begin with. What it simply means is that there will be a shifting of the physical planet that will create opposites so that which is North becomes South and that which is East becomes West. It is why we have indicated that this geographic area in which you find yourselves will become tropical. It is why you are experiencing changes in your own physical encasements. Many of you are finding less of an ability to tolerate the cold and are finding it more comfortable to be warm. This is a natural vibrational adjustment. The Soul is responding to that which is about to occur, and it is working in conjunction with Planet Earth.

Remember we have said in the past that all are connected and that Planet Earth, while it has been treated so very badly at the physical level, is attempting to help all of you in preparation for its final shaking off of the pollution and the dirt that has encased it, both at the physical level and at the spiritual level. And so, Planet Earth is growing in itself spiritually because of its attempts to help all of you to adjust to the changes. The orbit of which you speak will remain. There will be no changes. That type of change occurs infrequently and is not scheduled for change for quite a number of thousands of years, so it is nothing for any of you to be concerned about at this time frame.

Will Human Nature As We Know It Change As A Result Of The Shift?

Is what we know and understand as human nature is going to change? Looking back over history you can see certain patterns in humans and in the rise of civilizations, and there seems to be moral decay and then they decline. Is this pattern going to continue, or are we going to be changed as a lifeform? Are we going to be able to maintain peace and not chaos?

The pattern will continue. There will be a slight elevation of spirituality, and there will be a period of time in which those who have remained on the earth plane will be of an advancement spiritually that will maintain a peace and harmony, but the purpose of the earth plane, as we have said so very often, is for accelerated lessons, and it is illusion and that illusion is created by those who enter in The Mass Consciousness. And thus after a brief period of anywhere from five hundred to one thousand years there will be the beginnings once again of the buildup which will, once again, precipitate a cleansing, remembering that this takes anywhere from six to ten thousand years and sometimes longer depending upon other types of situations.

Those who are not spiritually attuned when The Shift occurs, as we have said before, will not be allowed to stay. However, they will be allowed to reenter the earth plane after approximately five hundred to one thousand earth plane years, and thus they will have spent time in attuning themselves and raising their own vibrations in other dimensions, on other planets, in other schools, other training grounds, and they will enter once again on the earth plane. They will be spiritually attuned to the earth plane's own vibration at that time. However, the lessons that need to be learned when they left will remain, and thus you will find by the time the next cleansing is ready that there will be similar types of issues that you currently find yourselves embroiled with. It is as it is supposed to be. It is not a negative. It is a very positive thing, for it is the learning ground of The Universe. The earth plane is the most difficult of the learning grounds and the most accelerated, and as we have indicated before, it is for eternity that the earth plane exists. And each time there is a cleansing the physical planet, as well as the spirit, earth plane advances.

It is not a dramatic advance, as many of you might think you could consciously see. Suddenly there will be enlightenment! That is not the way that it occurs, for it occurs in the same way that each of you find enlightenment. It is a gradual, slow process, with no pressure for time built into it, by the way. The earth plane has as much time as it wants, and it is here to serve just as each of you have a purpose to serve ultimately, and in the serving, we all serve each other, whatever that might be.

For the time period immediately following The Shift there will be some confusions, quite naturally, but it is during this time that those who are charged with the responsibility of constructing the new structures will be those who will keep order in the confusion. And because those who remain will be of a certain vibrational attunement, there will be the understanding, for the preparation prior to The Shift will have been significant and there will be no fear. There will be some confusions and some disorientation, for that which you have known will be altered at the physical level. However, you will all have maintained order at the spiritual level and there will be a harmony for a lifetime which you will complete, and thus you will leave this present incarnation in a state of what could be called harmony and peace.

Will There Be A Trigger That Will Actually Start The Shifting?

Oh, it is not an external element. It will not be a particular person. It will not be a particular thing. It will be, rather, a series of events and a series of behaviors by individuals that culminate in the final imbalance. There has been information that has come from other dimensions ~ there has been information that has come from other sources that indicate that there may, in fact, be a destruction, a war as you know it. We use the term war differently from where I am as compared to where others at the spirit level may be. We do not interpret the events as what you would call a war. We interpret them as mini-cleansings and that you have of course already begun to see the mini-cleansings and that it is the beginning of the elimination, shall we say, of those entities who simply will not be vibrationally attuned for this series of events to come, and they simply have decided that it is time for them to leave.

And thus when you see such events as earthquakes and other types of mass destruction, it is simply a cleansing, it is simply that which is taking place. And then there will be the final shift which will sort of act as a shaking out of that which is left, for in actuality there will not be that much left to shake out, for the cleansing is already taking place and many, many entities are called back now. Many of them also are returning to the spirit dimension in an effort to help at spirit level when the cleansing occurs, the Shift occurs, for while they may not be vibrationally attuned for the new earth plane, they are of a high enough level where the sending of their own Light and their own vibration will be of benefit to those who remain on the earth plane.

And so there will be a series of events occurring and you will all know as the time approaches and we, of course, are here to be of assistance. That is part of our mission. Much of what we are here to do has yet to be revealed and is gradually being revealed and will be revealed within the appropriate time frame to come. You will not be unprepared. You will be ready.

Are Mass Departures In Airplane And Shipping Accidents Related To The Shift?

There are instances where that is the case. There are other instances where those types of accidents are for Group Balancing and may have some relationship to the cleansing effect, but in actuality it may have a greater meaning for the Souls involved in terms of Group Balancing. Or perhaps in some instances, these particular groups, this particular group of souls came in specifically to, as a mission, to leave together in a dramatic way to teach.

This space craft that exploded with all of the entities on it, the first such dramatic incident, was meant for lessons to be taught. These entities came in and before entering agreed upon a very specific unified mission and they accomplished it and they are currently awaiting The Shift so that they may serve as walk-ins, for there will be many situations for walk-ins at the time of The Shift. They are all very advanced entities, these who were in the space craft.

Is There Going To Be More Negativity And Hostility In Politics Before The Shift?

Yes, there will be much more of this. Remember that I indicated to you all earlier that it does not matter who is elected in this particular election, for they all have the same mindset as it is referred to. There will be much more of this before it gets better, and you can expect from now until very close to the time of The Shift, these types of situations. It is a sifting out. Do not be distressed by it, except to know that it is a part of the cleansing, and it is very necessary, and it will soon be gone.

Is There A Way To Protect Ourselves From All Of The Negativity Of Politics?

You protect yourselves in the same way that you protect yourself from other negativities, keep yourself surrounded with the Light, recognizing that this is all a part of The Shift, and that while there may be some short-term impact upon your lives, it will not have a long-term effect.

A Discussion Of Those Who Have An Interest In The Darkness

I watched a television show on Satanism, for education. I do not know what to believe of it and what not, but it seems that some of it must be true. Is there something we can do to neutralize what is happening with some of these people?

This is all part of The Shift and the cleansing. The interest in the darkness, of course, comes from those who are of the dark, for they are disciples of the darkness. And as we have indicated before, because of the cleansing approaching now at a momentous rate, it is upon us now, the forces of dark and Light assemble themselves at an accelerated pace. You would refer to the many readings in which we have addressed this issue, and this particular program of which you describe is nothing unusual in the scheme of what the dark does.

It is advised that you do not distress yourself with this. If you choose to, shall we say, watch these types of programs, before you do so, meditate and recognize that this is something that is of the dark. For some of you it would not be advisable to even watch. For others, it would be advisable, for it will enable you to help when others who have watched it are confused and upset, might come to you for guidance.

You can give them Light and help them to understand what this is all about. It is why we would advise that you meditate before, to receive guidance from yourself, from your Higher Self and your own guides as to whether you should watch this type of event, or not. And if you choose to watch it, after doing so, to meditate once again, just so that you are able to keep yourself cleansed and surrounded with the Light.

Discussion Of The Work Being Done By The Warrens, Who Are Of The Light

I saw a presentation given by the Warrens. Could you comment on these entities?

These souls of whom you speak are very much of the Light. They have done much to bring awareness to the earth plane of energies that are not of the Light. There is a tendency with some to want to disregard that which is of the dark, and they serve a purpose, these two entities, in helping to bring to, shall we say, a respectable level, an awareness of that which is not of the Light, without it being what you might call spooky but giving it within a spiritual context, you see. Very important to understand.

This presentation that we saw regarding the Warrens left us feeling that there are diabolical forces for which we worry about encountering, being drawn to us. During the presentation, I felt that I was attacked psychically while we were there. I do not know what I am asking.

You are asking a question that is well documented in not only that which we have given for information, but also amongst others who are charged with similar responsibilities, knowing that as you grow Lighter, you are more susceptible, and that you simply, as part of the learning process and your growth, learn to protect yourself so that it does not become an issue. We find a bit of concern here that there is almost an obsession with all of you about the darkness. You must not be concentrating so much on the darkness, but rather, concentrating on the Light and not be thinking, this is dark, this is an attack, but rather, each day, you simply protect yourselves.

We have said this so many times before. It is why we continue to stress meditation, it is the only form of protection on a long term basis. When you stop meditating, you begin to dilute that protection which you have built up. It is not something that you can do from one day to the next, and skip a day and think that you will be all right. It must be done regularly, continually, and as you grow in your own brightness, you will, in your own meditations, increase your own levels of protection and it will not become an issue.

You must, of course, be always aware the darkness is out there, and that for the most part, that which you speak of at the diabolical level is not of your concern. For those of the Sons of Darkness, of which we have spoken, battle with the Light at a very different dimension which only some are to be exposed to. The majority of you here, and those who would read these transcripts, will not ever encounter this high level of darkness. That is for those at different dimensions and greater advancements.

Do not worry though, for as you advance, you too will be given the opportunity to fend off those of the higher darkness, but that is not for a significant amount of time, as you would know it, perhaps, for some of you, ten thousand years, or fifty thousand years, you see. It is not to be concerned about in this manifestation. Remember that you, while you may have some attacks from the darkness, they are no more than what you are able to fend off, and they are not at a diabolical level, as you might refer to Satan. That level of darkness is not for any of you to be concerned about.

A Daughter Connecting With Those Who Have A Fascination For Satan Worship

My daughter is coming in contact with those who have a fascination for Satan worship. They are playing with fire. She understands the danger. Is there any advice that I can give her? Should she try to help them?

She must extradite herself from these people. She must not be associated with them. At this time, her own Light is such that it needs nurturing. She is at a very critical point in her own advancement, and at a time in the future, she would have the strength to help. At this time, it is not advisable that she attempt to do this, but rather, use her energies to develop and strengthen herself, so that she may be able to help them in the future, but at this time, her energies are not in that area. She will resist you somewhat, and call upon us for guidance in your meditations, and we will assist you.
