An Electromagnetic Shaking Up That Is Related To Astrological Alignments

I have been having a very hard time this week, and I do not know if it is physical, or what it is. Could you tell me if I am supposed to be learning something?

You will find, many of you, because of astrological alignments at this particular time on the Planet Earth, the time of the season creates a pull in the vibration of many that has nothing to do with that phenomenon known as the full moon. This is something very different, and there are several of you in this environment now, in this vibration, who are sensitive to, because of your own planetary alignments, that bring certain events into your life that are for lessons of very specific nature. It is not to be alarmed about. It is not an attack from the darkness. It is simply a realigning of certain electromagnetic fields, and you, my dear, have a particular vibration that has plugged into this changing electromagnetic field.

And what actually occurs is that there is a rippling effect and an unsettled time. And much as you could compare this to simply a shaking of a box in which that which ~ if you were to take a box that had all of your toys in it, and they were all neatly arranged, and you knew where they all were in their right position, and something came along and started shaking your Toy Box, and creating some of your toys to move about, it would create for you a sense of, or a lack of alignment in your life. This will pass very quickly. It will perhaps be on earth plane time, another two weeks, and after that it will settle down.

It is something to know, that it will occur each year. It is a yearly event. It happens to all, you see. There is a continual kind of electromagnetic shaking up, depending upon your own astrological alignments determines how you feel and plug into that rippling. It lasts anywhere from three to four earth plane weeks out of each year. If you know about it in advance, remember back when it started for you, and if you know about it in advance, then you can prepare yourself for it each year, so that it is not quite as dramatic. You can, as you might say, ready the fort, so that you know your Toy Box will be shaken and you can make arrangements to have protection, so that the shaking is not quite as dramatic, and the toys perhaps can be bolted down, figuratively speaking. At least, having some kind of anchor grounding.

A Feeling Of Unfairness When Others Who Lie And Cheat Seem To Be Winners In Life

As a young boy I was always told to speak the truth and be a good person in life. However, I began to realize that people who are speaking lies, fraud, hypocrisy, they are the winners. You may say that the wicked ones will pay a price, but of what consolation is that to the virtuous person? The damage is irretrievable or irreversible. The truth is not necessarily supported, so in the process, there is an exploitation against another. The virtuous seem to be punished. I do not see any easy remedy because it is done in a deceitful way.

First, to address a particular area of your soul's path, we will in the session that you have planned to speak with me for personal questions, we will discuss in private many of the issues that surround you now, that create for you, this cynicism that you have. And it is quite prevalent now on the earth plane. You are not alone in that which you feel.

It is very difficult for many to understand the Laws of The Universe, and the fact that what you give out, you will receive back, and that there is no such thing as irreversible, that all that occurs, while it may appear to be of a negative way and that harm is done, you must remember, that it is far more complex than it appears to be, for there is a balancing of so many souls, and it is not an easy thing to say that if a particular person has done what you would consider harm to you, that that person will get what they deserve. For it may in fact be, that you were the one who needed the balancing, and that it was that person who was helping you to balance.

It could be that that person has, in fact, done ill to you, and while you may never see the result of it, that energy will have to balance. It is a part of your own soul's growth, each of you, in the understanding of the Laws of The Universe that there is balance, and that part of the learning and growth that you actually achieve is in a faith, in an understanding of this basic Universal Law. It is not something that we defend. It is not something that we can explain. It simply is, and your sojourns on the earth experience are meant to help you to understand eventually that Universal Law.

If in the meantime, while in your manifestation, you see injustice occurring and not seeing any retribution for it, this is all part of your own understanding, eventually. You may not in this manifestation come to full realization of what this Universal Law means. There are many who do understand it, however they have spent many, many lifetimes working toward an understanding of this. It is not easy to, at the earth plane level, to accept the fact that you see harm being done to you and to those who are near and dear to you, and who are the victims, as it might appear to be, but there are never any victims in the Universal Laws, and that there are those who would lie, and who would cheat, and who would be deceptive, and it appears that they are the winners, but you must remember that this is short-term, and that in order to understand the greater picture, there must be the understanding of the long-term, and that it may not balance for thousands and thousands of years, but it will balance.

It is not the purpose on a particular manifestation, to have complete balance. Imbalance may occur, and therefore, have to be taken care of at a future time, and not necessarily in this particular manifestation. It is hard for many to accept this, but all will balance eventually.

When we speak in private session, we will address certain issues of your soul that have brought you to this point in your questioning, my son, that perhaps will help you and relieve some of the feeling that you have, and to help you to understand that Light does prevail, but you may not see it in your own lifetime. It may not be that in your particular manifestation, this very particular earth plane manifestation.

And this applies to all, of course, that you may have taken on a lifetime in which you want opportunities presented to you that will force you to seek the knowledge of The Universe, in the understanding of balance. And it may be that it is only at the time of departure of the earth plane that you achieve that goal, and that it is in the manifestation itself that you seek and question and worry about those issues. It is all part of the earth plane experience.

A Member Asks Whether He Is Receiving Certain Information

Yes, is the answer. Remembering, each of you, that the information that is necessary for you to have, your soul provides to you, and that nothing is given to you that is not easily, according to your soul, digestible, and when you are ready to hear certain information, it will be provided to you.

It may appear at times that information being received is overwhelming and not easily understood, but that is only at the conscious level, and that it requires then that you truly go within yourself, to your soul, for if you understood everything that comes your way, you would have no motivation to seek inward, for the Soul, of course, has the knowledge at an advanced level, relative to the conscious level. And so it is in the meditation, the asking of the Higher Self that is so critical to your own growth.

Someone Has A Dream Which Is A Past-Life Recall Of Another Cleansing Time

I had a dream that I think it was concerning The Shift. I remember a feeling of fear or panic, and then I remember a feeling of control and of getting things organized. Would you comment on this?

You were having a past life replay. You have been in several cleansings. You have manifested at the time, for the experience of it and the growth that naturally comes with that time frame. And, what is happening at your Soul Level is a balancing of the feelings, for you. The first time that this happened ~ you have gone through three cleansings ~ and the first one you were absolutely terrified and ended up not staying for the complete cleansing because it just affected you so much, even though you were vibrationally able to stay for that particular cleansing. This was, oh, four hundred thousand years ago. And then the second cleansing that you came in, you felt a little better because you knew what to expect and you were preparing yourself, and you felt a little better control, and not the fear, and you did stay during that entire cleansing. And then the third cleansing that you went through, you had an even better sense of it, for your soul memories were strong and you felt a greater sense of what it meant, that it was not destruction but rather rebuilding.

And so, what occurred was yourself talking to yourself about the upcoming cleansing, and you were actually cleansing your own soul memories so that you would not have any residual fear for the upcoming cleansing, and that you will see it in its true perspective, and that you are now a part of a community that will be assisting others in the cleansings. You were always a part of a community but you were being helped by the leaders in the community in understanding what was going on. You will now be one of those who will help those that do not understand. You are ready to take your place at that realm, and you were just getting rid of some garbage.

There Is Nothing That Cannot Be Asked In Your Meditations

Waith, in reference to the Earth changes, what part does the Angel Michael play? I do not know where he fits in.

There is no need to know at this point where he fits in. That will be given as the time approaches. That is information that will be given when it is appropriate.

Is this something that I can ask for personally, and will I get the answer?

Most definitely, most definitely. There is nothing that cannot be asked in your meditations. It is not time for the masses to be given the information. You must realize the difference between the information that I give out and the information that is always available to any of you. If you have the abilities you are able to tap into the same source that I tap into. It is in your own blockages that this is prevented.

I had attempted to, but I had a little communication which I did not quite understand why I had received it.

And the message is that you need to plug in a little bit more. Remember that many of you will receive advanced knowledge and will have the wisdom that will be of a greater dimension than that which I would give out publicly. You see, there is a timing to everything that is given out in the public, as it would be called, to the masses. It is not time for that to be made known to the masses, the role of all of the Archangels, and specifically certain of The Warrior forces. However, for many on the earth plane that information is being given to them through their meditations. And there is nothing, and I emphasize this once again, there is nothing that you are restricted in asking for. This is Universal Knowledge. There is nothing that says you cannot ask in your meditations for any information.

Questions About The Shelters For The Shift

In regards to the buildings of The Shift, Waith, some of us have had dreams, and we were comparing them. And then a big question came up. Will we have thousands of people in the shelter? Is that our understanding? Many people will come to the shelter?

There will be many that will come to the shelter. It is part of the responsibilities that all of you have taken on as builders of the community to provide the room for those who will be seeking, and they are those who will, of course, be allowed to stay. Remember that those who stay will only be those who are vibrationally attuned to the new earth vibrations. And yes, they will come. They will know. They will be given the information in the appropriate way. And many will have already been exposed to the community and will know that this is a safe area and that the shelters are available to any and all who would come. There will never be a restriction and there will be enough room, we will see to that.

You do not need to worry, for when the time is right we will begin to give that information to you. It will come in several ways. It will come through the meditations for those who it is appropriate for them to have certain advanced types of knowledge that are not necessary to be given to the public domain, but simply the triggering of their own soul memories, and then there will be that information that will be coming through me and The Company to help those who would be the helpers of The Builders. It is all falling into place now. And, there need not be any anxieties about getting going, for we will help you in understanding the Universal Flow with this.

Waith, for several years information has been coming to me about shelters, and I have been knowing that it is necessary before the end of the century to construct shelters. And before I came into this group, I was getting a little anxious, figuring the time is very near and how am I going to do this myself. I am very glad to have found a group, and it is all fitting together like a puzzle.

Yes indeed, it is. And you are one of The Builders, of course. That has become evident. Know that. I will give you just a bit of reassurance here, that I have said before, that the shelters will be underground, and know that that is already begun through forces that you will understand when the time is appropriate.

I have been going through a couple of bodily changes. Metal is turning my skin all different kinds of colors. I am getting zinging in my head, and in my third eye especially. When you mentioned the underground shelters already started, I got a tremendous jolt. Are we already helping build these shelters at the moment?

The answer to that is yes. And, I will leave it at that only because I want it to serve as an example of what I have said earlier, that the information that comes from me can be so very overwhelming. There is so much that you all are unaware of that happens that you do other than in your earth plane experiences and your physical manifestations. It is not a static situation. Your energies are doing things that ~ several of you already understand what I am saying, without my even saying it. Others of you will receive this information through your meditations. And when the time is right, it will be given out as information to the masses, when there would be the point of understanding. Your vibrations are changing. Thus, the bodily changes. Do not be concerned about them.

Waith Comments On A Book By Richard Bach, Called One

Waith, I just finished reading a book called One by Richard Bach and he talks not only about parallel lives, but it all happens at the same time, and if you expand it, we are all One life. And he just brings it home again, the idea of Oneness.

He is a most advanced entity. The message that he brings is not easily understood and he is presenting it in ways that for certain segments of the earth plane would be easily understood, at least at an elementary level. The concepts are vastly complex, and even those who would read any information that he or any others would provide on this subject of Oneness, it would still appear to be overwhelming, and many will get from that what they need to in understanding. They will not get the whole concept. Few will get that, but the information is there for the future so that as you begin to gain in your own awarenesses, you may then return to the various sources of information and glean from that additional knowledge and wisdom. All that you need to know is already available.
