Waith Discusses The Underground Community And How They Are Able To Manifest

My daughter wanted me to ask you. There is this movie called Willow. It was showing little brownies in this movie, and they are saying the brownies are real, that they found in Ireland. The question is, are they real?

There are most definitely small energy forms living below the earth who on occasion will appear above ground, shall we say, and will manifest themselves in a particular physical encasement. These are real, though the way in which they are being presented has an element of exaggeration, for what actually occurred is that the energy forms manifested themselves to those who were charged with the production of this movie but did not agree to be the stars of the movie, or be in this movie, but rather allowed themselves to be duplicated, and thus they are duplicates of reality.

They will be manifesting as the time of the cleansing draws nearer, for they are charged with assisting in the building of the underground shelters and they begin now to come above ground to acclimate their own energy fields so that they may work hand in hand with those who build the underground shelters, so that they may remain above ground for a period of time in order to assist at that level and to bring you below ground.

Are they all over the world?

They are.

As The Shift comes closer will we be more able to see fairies and things?

Some of you will. They show themselves not to everyone but to those who need to work with them. And incidentally, they do not like being called fairies.

What do they like to be called?

They enjoy a name within their own realm of ~ let me spell this first before I pronounce it ~ U-R-A-T-H-A - U-ra-tha.

That is an unusual name ~ better than fairies. Have they encasements that we have, Waith?

They are able to manifest into any encasement that they would consider pleasing to those with whom they must work so that they do not offend. The encasement, the physical encasement, that they generally find comfort in below the earth, if seen by the majority, would be considered offensive ~ though, of course, it is not. There are many on the surface of the planet who, of course, are so highly evolved spiritually that they would not view any energy form as ugly ~ and thus they do present a body form. They immediately go to the image of that with whom they will be dealing, the mental capabilities, and establish immediately what would be a harmonious sight. Uratha. They are most beneficial for the coming time frame.

Have we already met some of these people?

Yes, you have, but you knew that. Somebody did. For the question to be posed, somebody did.

What about gnomes? Leprechauns?

They fall within the same category ~ different name. They are all manifestations of the times in which they appeared as helpers.

As The Shift comes we will all live together?

There will be a time of harmony in living. They will, of course, be very, very present in the underground time of existence, and they will help in the passing of the time during the underground living stage, and then when it is time for upper-level Planet Earth inhabitants to return, they will help you in that transition, and then they will remain below ground, for that is where their energies are best served.

What do they do under the ground as a living mode?

What do you do above the ground as a living mode?

Well, then they do the same. Do they project ~ is this physical or do they just ~

They are energy forms just as you are an energy form. They take on a physical encasement just as you take on a physical encasement. They have lessons to learn as you have lessons to learn. There will be times when they manifest themselves on top of Planet Earth. There will be times when those who have manifested on top of Planet Earth will go below and manifest. It is all part of the earth plane experience, and so part of getting through the earth plane experience is living above and below.

So, have any of us experienced that?

Some of you have.

So, you cannot say that these are more highly advanced or less advanced. They are the same?

They are simply as all of you on your path toward Oneness. Being below or above does not indicate advancement, or not advancement, at all ~ absolutely nothing to do with it.

Have they been involved in trying to keep some of the pollution that we have dumped on the earth over the centuries? Have they been involved in trying to keep that under control?

They have been affected by it ~ that which goes into the planet surface as opposed to that which goes out into the atmosphere, upper atmosphere, lower atmosphere. Below ground they do not have any particular strategy, if you will, of attempting to maintain a balance. They are, in fact, at this time rather helpless, and their environs are polluted just as the environs above ground are polluted, and when the cleansing occurs, you see, some of them will stay and some of them will not, for the cleansing will affect the underground as well, as you are experiencing these events called earthquakes. There will be a cleansing below ground also. Those who are below ground who are vibrationally attuned to the new earth vibration will stay and those who are not vibrationally attuned will not stay. It is the same. It is just a different dimension. That is all.

Waith Talks About The Arrogance Of The Disbelievers And The Scientists

There has been quite a mass cleansing occurring this past week, huh?

Oh, yes, yes. It should come as no surprise to any who have come to understand The Shift, and you will see the signs now very clearly. There is nothing subtle about this now, and those who would continue to deny it will simply be those who will continue to deny it.

Waith, it would have to come to a point when those who would deny it now, it would ~

They will deny it to the end, my son. They will deny it as the earth is shifting, they will deny it.

The combination of the Mt. St. Helens and the earthquake in Canada, it is rare ~.

Of course.

Denial.

Yes, indeed denial.

I saw on television recently that N.A.S.A. is trying to put something up into space to see if the earth is rotating, is tipping on its axis. I think I was correct in seeing this huge thing. Are they really going to put money into that?

Oh, yes, indeed they are, for they want to ~ they think they can control this and stop it from happening for they feel that they have the power to do this, arrogant as they are, and they will be allowed to spend their money and spend their energies and time, for it is necessary for them to do this, but of course it will have no effect.

Well, then, does that mean that they accept that this is going to happen?

No. They simply realize that the earth is a little bit unbalanced but they do not realize that it is a spiritual phenomenon. They feel that if they can view how exactly it is out of balance that with their tools and their great knowledge, that they feel they have, that they can fix it.

Like pumping water into the San Andreas Fault?

Yes, yes. They feel that they can control Planet Earth, and these arrogant individuals over the millennia, of course, have lessons to learn, that they cannot control Planet Earth. It is a hard lesson for many, however one that needs to be learned. Some will come out of this shortly before The Shift occurs, and they will have realized their own inabilities, and realized their own place within The Universe in relation to the planet, and will become vibrationally attuned to a level that they will be able to stay if they want to. Others will, right up until the moment as the earth is shifting, will be denying it and saying, "We can control this, we can control this." And as they are saying this, we are pulling them out of their bodies.

A Question About The Details Of The Movie, The Neverending Story

I saw an interesting movie called The Neverending Story, a movie that addressed different levels, different ages, children, and adults. And it was amazing to me as I watched the movie all these profound little stories about The Nothing and Fantasia and especially the relation between the boy on earth and the connection with the Fantasia and the power that, the connection that he had. I was going to ask you who was involved in the making of that movie?

There was some energy form. It was channelled through, and the specifics of it are not important, but it is a form of information to reach certain groups of people, to trigger certain awarenesses. There are many ways in which we find it necessary to get through to you all. One source is not sufficient.

Issues of Male/Female Energies, A Special Topic Coming Soon

It seems more than coincidence, but I just want to preface this by saying that I am not a total chauvinist, ☺ but why did those in the inner circle decide to come in all as female energies?

That is a very good question.

Does that have to do with the atomic structure of the female vibration being attuned with the vibration of the earth?

It has to do with certain lessons that those who have chosen female form in this incarnation, be they dominant male or not, have in relation to the male energies, and as I have indicated that there will very soon be a special-topic session on male/female relationships and what the male energies have chosen to undertake by coming in as male during this very particular time as it approaches the cleansing.

That is a response to your question in a general way, a Universal way. More specifically, they all in the inner circle have a particular harmony with Mushiba, and also with me, and have certain missions that have been determined and because of the harmony work well with Mushiba. And in the female vibration there is a connecting with a certain energy that comes from Mushiba and I that is not present in the male energy when it manifests on the earth plane, not in male energy in spirit form but rather as it manifests in physical form, and thus there are those specific reasons for the all-female energies for the inner circle.

Many Of The Animals Need To Learn To Live In Enclosures

Waith, I would like to thank Waith and Company, I am not sure who is exactly responsible for guiding my cat home. Right after we moved she got out.

Yes, we know. It was Francis.

I thought so. I really thank him for that. Everybody was frightened.

Yes, we know. It was a hard lesson for you. You realize the lesson, do you not?

Yes, I think so.

Learn it well, for if you have not it will happen again and you will not have her back.

Is it better to let them become house cats?

Yes. It is not allowed for them to be other than that for now. Many of the animal vibrations must learn to live in enclosures, in restricted environments. It is part of what they need to learn, for many of them now will, in fact, be with you when The Shift occurs.

I think they are beginning to get used to it.

They will.

They do not seem to sit by the door so often.

They will learn just as each of you learns to adapt. Animals have the ability to adapt. They just are not given the opportunity by those who would control them.

Killing Of Animals And The Issue Of Balancing

About the animals. There are so many alligators down in Florida that they say they have practically taken over every piece of water that they can find. And in Connecticut they say that the deer are so many of them. Does this have to do with The Shift?

It absolutely does have to do with The Shift. There will be as part of the gains of The Shifting an overabundance of animals. They, too, must learn lessons. They, too, will have a certain vibration to which they must be in order to remain, and it is also a lesson for those of The Human Kingdom. It is all balancing out. Nature, as it is called, balances itself. It does not need The Human Kingdom to do it for it. It is a lesson, however.

I know that they showed on television that the people are going out and killing those crocodiles. It is just what they do all day. It is their job, I guess.

Yes, indeed.

I did not think that was too pleasant.

And they will have to balance that behavior in another lifetime, for when one kills an energy form it affects the entire Universe.

What about hunters? The same problem?

Absolutely.

But so many people think that that is the most ~ I do not think so but they think that is the way it is.

Of course. It is all part of lessons to be learned for the animals as well as The Human Kingdom. We do not judge it, for it is not to be judged. It is simply a scenario that needs to be played out by whoever is taking it on for lessons to be learned and in understanding that when one does a certain type of thing such as hunting that it needs to be balanced.

One cannot kill without having to balance. Some do it in the manifestation in which they have taken on the hunting, shall we say. They stop and they balance in some way. Others though, and this is generally so, simply will have to go into another several incarnations in order to balance it out, and it is as we have spoken so often before, the gradual evolution of The Human Kingdom in understanding the connectedness and in not doing harm to energy forms and that it is a gradual evolution.

Does that mean we are balancing by not eating the meat?

That is correct. That is correct.
