A Meditation Visualization To Assist One In Passing Over

We would start this session by asking you all to pause for a moment, for the mother of one of our community members has returned to us, and we are in the process of helping the energy form through the earth plane mire that exists, the energy field, and into a freer dimension. There are a number of entities who are assisting in this now and as is the usual, the combined prayer and the sending of love to any entity who is leaving the earth plane is beneficial to the vibration.

And we would ask you all now to hold hands and we will have a bit of the sending of the love and the prayer that will assist the energy form. Concentrate now on the ball of Light. Visualize the ball of Light. Visualize now sending this ball of Light to another ball of Light. And say to your Higher Self, "I send this ball of Light to the entity." This is all that you need to say. And send your love.

And now begin to bring the ball of Light back into your Third Eye, and visualize it surrounding yourself, giving you the warmth and the protection. And now take the ball of Light and send it to all in the room and infuse each other with the love and the protection. And now slowly bring yourself back to the conscious state. And now before you unhand with each other, deeply breathe through the solar plexus three times. In and out through the mouth. A second time, in and out through the mouth. And a third time, in and out through the mouth. And now, hug each other.

Psychic Attacks ~ You Need To Accelerate Your Protection As You Become Lighter

We are aware that a number of you have been feeling as if there has been perhaps some attacks being made upon you from those of the darkness, and this is an ongoing occurrence. For many of you, when you begin to feel this, it means that you need to begin to accelerate your own protection, for it simply means that your vibrations are increasing. You are becoming lighter and therefore, more susceptible to other vibrational attacks.

It is nothing to be concerned about, except that it is a queue to you that the form of protection you have been using is no longer going to be appropriate, that you simply need to increase your form of protection. That is all. This will be occurring on a regular basis with all of you. So do not fear that there is any major attacking going on. At least not now. We take care of that.

There may be some attempts by disciples of the darkness to do their mischievous work, for they are entities who have given of themselves to the Sons of Darkness, to be used in whatever way the Sons of Darkness might want to use them. They know not what they do themselves in actuality, you understand. And thus, you are all able to protect yourselves in the appropriate manner.

We have a little surprise for you tonight. The vibrations that we have been working on in Mushiba's physical encasement, as well as her electromagnetic field, have come to an end for this particular series of changes that have enabled us, of course, to do certain things. And one of the things that we are able to do now is for you to talk with others in The Company much more easily than in the past. Is that not right, Farena?

The Other Six In The Company Come In And Speak Simultaneously With Waith

Farena: Hello! (Farena enters smiling, rapidly blinking the eyes)

Waith: You see, Farena is quite happy now to be here.

Farena: I am, I am so happy to be here. It is so much fun! The experience is truly amazing!

Bathusela: Hello! Hello! Hello! (Bathusela addresses several in the group and smiles)

Waith: Now do you understand what is occurring here.

⚙ It is a conference call!

⚙ Waith, it is too fast for us!

Bathusela: We are most pleased to be here. (Name given), you need a shot of energy. We infuse with you the energy that you so need and my pinkness comes through to you.

Thank you. You are beautiful.

Bathusela: Ah, it is you who are so beautiful.

Farena: Ah. This is all so new to me. Bathusela has incarnated in physical form, not coming through the birth passage, but she has manifested and she knows what it is like to see through these eyes, and she is much more adept at this. This is all so new!

Bathusela: Now, you must calm down. You must calm down.

Waith: This is all quite new to them. Especially to Farena.

And to us!

Waith: The reason that there are so few of you here in this session, you see, is ~ we wanted the others to come through in this way so that they would begin to get adjusted to it, and you are the core community in essence and we wanted you to become adjusted to them all. And another of the core community arrives now. Quite nice. (Someone enters)

Yes. You may also ~ I speak with them now. They are all most anxious to come through. Do come in and be seated. (Waith addresses the new arrival)

He has got a little problem there. (Barnabus, the sheepdog greets him enthusiastically)

As soon as the anxious one here ~ (Refers to Barnabus) Yes. He is very excited. For now, Francis will help this.

Francis: (Francis enters, raises the three middle fingers of right hand in his peace sign, he looks from side to side, speaks in soft, low voice) This is a most interesting phenomenon.

Pleased to see you.

Francis: Barnabus. They are excited. These energy forms in animal spirit are most, most beautiful.

Susan: Hello. Hello to all of you.

Hello, Susan. How are you?

Susan: I am just fine. (Susan looks around and smiles, speaks in a soft voice) Yes. Yes. If I seem speechless, it is simply that I enjoy this new phenomena as Francis has said ~ It is most interesting. Most interesting.

Does it look just like when you were incarnated, Susan? The people?

Susan: Oh. There are similarities, of course. It has not been that long in earth plane time since I left. Yes.

Jacques: I am Jacques! (Strong, deep voice)

Hi, Jacques.

Jacques: Yes, I am Jacques. Yes.

How are you?

Jacques: I am fine, I am most fine. And here to truly begin to heal now. We will be able to converse about this. We will not interrupt each other. There seems to be an eagerness to interrupt.

Waith: Yes, Jacques, you know, realizes what is going on here much more than the others, and he is going to help the others to be less anxious to pop in and out while the vibration is open. This is part of my responsibilities. You see, it is a group healing that we go through here.

Jenjura: I am the entity termed, Jenjura.

Very pleased to meet you.

Jenjura: (Jenjura smiles) Many of you have not met me! I am the researcher in the group here. You will not meet me too often to speak with. I have the subtle role of back-up for all of the others. They get the credit. ☺ ☺

You do the work.

Jenjura: I do the work.

⚙ I appreciate you.

⚙ We all do.

Jenjura: Thank you.

How do you do the work, Jenjura?

Jenjura: It is a secret! ☺ No. It is not a secret. I research the records.

The Akashic Records?

Jenjura: Yes. And many others that are not even known to you at this earth plane level.

Farena: I am back again!

Could not wait!

Farena: There, there, we come back again.

Bathusela: It will be shortly that Farena and I, Bathusela, will be with Waith in a Special Topic Session. Mushiba has set the date, and she will tell you, and we will discuss the role of the female entities to help the male entities, and vice versa.

Yes. We are looking forward to it.

Waith: Yes. We will have quite a session. Yes, indeed. Well, since they are all here now, would you perhaps like to talk with any of them?

Waith, excuse me. If I take some photographs, would it disrupt the trance?

Not at all.

This is going to be in relation to the book that is going to be prepared.

Yes, indeed. It will not disrupt anything. If we are able to tolerate these glaring lights, we are most able to tolerate this. (Refers to the flood lights used for videotaping) It is part of the vibrational change that has occurred. And we are most pleased that it will be visually chronicled also.

I have been looking to see Francis or Bathusela in pink ~ Bathusela in pink ~ and Francis, however! 😊 😊

Francis will come in, however!

Francis: Now, Waith, this is not a laughing matter. I do take on the form of what you would not expect.

Waith: You see what I mean. You must realize that while we have said that the others will manifest, it does not mean that right away, immediately, whenever you look around the corner you are going to see one of them manifesting. It will be for very specific reasons, for very special reasons, when it is felt appropriate that this needs to be presented.

We are just anxious.

Yes, we realize this. For some of you it could be twenty or thirty years before it happens. 😊 For others it might be as you drive away from here.

Is that specifically for the people that congregate here, or is that for anyone who needs to see them manifesting?

They have been manifesting throughout eternity, without others knowing it. You have been told as a group to begin to expect this under special circumstances, and the only difference now is that you would be aware of the fact that you might want to be looking for them.

It serves a dual purpose also. For it will help you to treat everyone who you meet as if it might be Francis or it might be Bathusela, and to help you in your own attempts to be nonjudgemental, especially where Francis is concerned. He will appear in any number of forms. Bathusela, also. She will always have her pinkness as a symbol. Francis, however, shields himself quite easily here. You may never know to whom you speak. We give you ways to learn. We help you along the path, if you will.

Waith, I have two questions for Francis. Francis, about the summer before last, it was in the fall, I had an experience in Hartford where a little street person crossed and met me on the corner, and kind of changed my outlook. And I always assumed it was you.

Francis: It was I. (Francis smiles)

Thank you very much. That meeting was extremely meaningful, and I appreciate it. My second question is, you do not appear to be having as much fun as I thought that you probably would.

Francis: You mean as part of The Company?

Yes. You seem so ~

Francis: ~ serious.

So serious. Yes.

Francis: Your observations are correct. It is not that I am not having as much fun. It is that my energy form is by nature more subdued and more serious. The others are lightening me up. They are so beautiful. I am able to see now by working with them that one can have the spiritual mission and be happy at the same time, and to have fun at the same time. This is part of the joy that I feel to be included in this and to be taken under Waith's wing, if you will, to learn the lightness, for it has been much seriousness in my mission over time, and I now begin to learn to be lighter.

Farena: I am helping him!

Francis: Farena is very correct. She helps me so.

Farena: I really have such a good time that being with Francis, because he teaches me his perspective.

Francis: And she is able to teach me her perspective.

When you were in as Francis of Assisi, though, I read that you had an excellent sense of humor, no problem with your sense of humor.

Francis: You must realize it was a physical manifestation that I was attempting to work on my humor and it was very difficult. This manifestation of which you speak was most difficult for me. Just as you are all learning your lessons in various ways, various dimensions of your lessons of ~ for example, you work on humility. I needed to begin working on humor, and thus, I manifested in a way that would help me to do this. For many of you, humility is a very difficult lesson to be learning, or patience, or Unconditional Love. We all, as energy forms, are at different points in the learning of all of our lessons, and you may not realize until now that humor is one of those lessons.

Where is St. Clare today? In other dimensions? Is she with you in your company, Francis?

Francis: She is not in The Company at this time. It is not for us to say where she is.

Waith: As you can understand, Francis is a bit new at this phenomenon. He has, like Farena, not ever done this. Bathusela, in one of the other ~ ten other times that Mushiba has channelled, this process called channelling, over the past one million earth plane years, Bathusela was one who spoke through Mushiba. So Bathusela is very, very comfortable in this process.

Susan has not done this before. Thus, she is ~ she is of a very High Level in The Angelics and is therefore able to adjust herself more easily.

Francis has taken this opportunity when we presented it to him to learn as he has just discussed to you, the levity and the humor and to combine that with the seriousness of mission and that the two are compatible. He needs to learn this and as he admits ~ is attempting to learn it, and you all will help him in this, you see. You and all the others who come and go in the core community.

Jenjura has channelled through other entities and is also rather comfortable in the process that occurs, but as he said, he will not be speaking very often. He is basically very shy. He does have a very good sense of humor, though, and is quite adept at what it means to speak through another. This is not something that is allowed with just any entity, you understand. There is much training that goes into this. We do not just allow anybody from this end to speak through, you see. It is all planned. But most of you knew that anyway.

Waith, there is a medium in Canada, Maurice Cooke, who is channelling an Angelic being called Hilarian. Are you aware of the entity, Hilarian?

Of course. He is from one of the other kingdoms. It is very much of the Light, of course. There is a particular mission that he has. There is a particular group of entities who he is designed to reach, and his message is basically the same as all who would come through at this time, that is to help in the preparation for The Shift and for the time after The Shift. He is under Amelius' Kingdom, but it is another kingdom. You must realize that Amelius has many, many kingdoms of which he is responsible. Yes.

Waith Explains That Other Sources Of Information Are Meant To Reach Certain Groups

Also, very much prevalent today are the teachings of an entity called Michael from the causal plane. About ten years ago the book first appeared, and it is becoming more prevalent and more people are beginning to channel the Michael entity. I am finding it very difficult in assimilating his teachings. Is there validity behind his teachings? He is coming from a different viewpoint than what most teachings come from.

It is designed to reach certain groups of people. While the perspective may seem different, it is being presented in a different language so as to reach certain groups. Those who would find difficulty in understanding it, therefore, are not meant to be reading it. Remember this with all that comes your way, you see. If you have difficulty in understanding it, it is not meant for you to be reading it. And if the point is reached where you would be meant to be reading it, you will be understanding it. For all that you need is presented to you, you understand. So, you need not have any trepidations. Realize that what might appear to be of suspect for information being channelled through, has a purpose.

So, the material does not necessarily have to be from what you would consider the dark areas. It could still be valid material from the Light areas, but still not make too much sense or not have too much of an interest for an individual.

That is correct. You may, my son, want to read the transcripts that address The Spectrum of Light. What may be Light to you may be dark to another. Depending upon where you all are in your own Spectrum of Light determines what is dark or Light to you in relation to yourself. It is very complex. Many, many entities have a great deal of difficulty in understanding this concept that what ~ you look at your own perspective and you say, "That is of the dark!" Well, to you, it may be the dark, but to another entity, it may be the Light. You are the dark compared to other entities. Do you understand? So that when we say of the dark, it is all relative. Now when we start talking about the Sons of Darkness, we get into another issue completely, you see. But we have discussed that, and we want to keep this session happy and light and not talk about the Sons of Darkness. They get too much attention as it is.

Someone Experiencing A Psychic Attack While Drifting Off To Sleep From Meditation

Last week when I was meditating, I drifted off to sleep and I was not really awakened but jarred back to reality by a very uncomfortable feeling, and I do not know if I ever really was awake or ~ I do not think I became totally awake, but I did call you. Did you hear me and what happened? It really confused me.

Yes, indeed I did come to you. I brought with me Farena.

Farena: I was there. It was most enlightening. I learned a great deal. What happened to you, my love, is that there is a particular entity who is an instrument of the Sons of Darkness who is attempting to, not knowingly - for she is being used by the Sons of Darkness, to make those in the community uncomfortable, and I was brought with Waith, for there are very strong connections with this particular instrument who is being used, with Mushiba and Abalma and I. And we are trying to help her. And thus, I was brought in. She knew not what she was doing.

Waith: As you can see, we have it under control. It was simply an attempt to make you unhappy, to make you doubt, to create anxieties. This is a typical behavior. As I had indicated earlier when I came in, that there will be some mischievousness occurring here. And if you are all strong, and you can all take care of yourselves here, occasionally when it gets a little overwhelming and you begin to have thoughts of negativity, the first thing to know is that it is probably one of them being mischievous and trying to egg you on or whatever. Egg you on! There is a phrase! ☺ ☺ I work with Mushiba's vocabulary. It is amazing at times how it comes out! ☺

And so, when you begin to have these feelings of negativity, anxiety, depression, whatever, immediately say, "I know who you are. You are trying to make me unhappy. Go away." Or simply ask them to come. "Come here into the Light. Come here little entities and let me surround you with my love and Light." And you will find them dispersing immediately. They will go away.

I also saw a man's face right after it happened. Was that you?

Yes, indeed. I like to do this on occasion. I will simply show ~ It is usually very, very brief.

It is just what you were saying here. In other words, our darker side is really in connection with the darker side. But when we get in our dark moods, and things that attack us that we would think of as being our bodily functions, or the way we operate, is really the darkness attacking you.

It is the darkness attacking. It is your own degrees of Lightness responding, you see. The Lighter you become, the more distant you become from the dark. And the more they attempt to draw you back by going to that part of you that is ~ we would not say dark, but that part of you that is vulnerable, too.

Psychic Attacks Can Work In Conjunction With Your Soul Requesting To Be Tested

Say you have an experience with depression or guilt and suddenly you are feeling a way that you have not felt for a long time, and you thought you would overcome it, and you say, "Wait a minute, what is happening here?" Is this something that you are creating?

It is. You create this many times, for you want to test yourself. There are many occasions when you may feel that you have conquered something and you conquered it years and years and years ago. And suddenly it presents itself again. You say, "I thought I had conquered this." It is simply your soul making certain that you have indeed conquered. It is a continual test. Realize that you will test yourself continually. You will ask The Universe. Your soul will only ask for that which it wants. You will not be tested for something that your soul does not want to be tested for. So, it is your soul saying, "Let us test this. Make certain that we have truly overcome it."

Then, it is not necessarily an attack when we feel something negative. Or do they work in conjunction?

They work in conjunction. For the Soul will allow the attack to occur, you see.

So, we test ourselves continually?

Yes. You are always testing yourselves. We might say to you, for example, that you will be tested in a certain area, knowing already that your soul has requested that this testing occur. We simply do not arbitrarily say you will be tested. It is not up to us to do that. We simply know that your soul has requested it.

Frank Alper And His Books On Atlantis ~ Gives Accurate Descriptions Of Atlantis

I was wondering if you could make comments on a gentleman by the name of Frank Alper and his books on Atlantis.

The entity who you refer to is very much of the Light. He is under my jurisdiction. He has been sent in as a forerunner, if you will, to present material that would assist in those of us who are now coming through. It is to present the material. For example, his discussions of Atlantis ~ and this is his soul. There is not an entity like myself speaking through him. This is he who speaks. It is his Higher Self ~ to give information so that we do not have to spend time doing it. He serves as a very, very specific purpose, and he is at a certain point in evolution of his own soul and attunement that gives him a perspective from his soul memories on his time in Atlantis. And he is therefore able to give you very, very specific information and it is very accurate.

You may find that there would be information you would want elaborated. We are here to help elaborate on that information. He has helped by presenting it so that we do not have to, presenting it to those who would want to know those kinds of specifics about Atlantis. Many, many now incarnated do not need to know the specifics. They need to know only the essence of their time spent in Atlantis.

But this entity is able to open up many who would not ordinarily want to read or discuss Atlantis. It makes for very fascinating reading, and is the source of much inspiration, that which he channels through. It is his Higher Self, and thus, you must realize that he is limited in his perspective. You will have questions, any of you who would read this information. It will spark soul memories, for as many of you who would read this information, you would say, "I know that." It is simply affirmation of what you already know. But it may help to keep you in perspective and to understand that which occurred in Atlantis.

Atlantis was a very organized society, very much governed by a set of laws that would be in today's society completely unable to be understood. The workings of the society and the essence of Atlantis and the time frame of Atlantis, the time that it was here on Planet Earth, is not at all understood completely, and there are many Atlanteans now incarnated who, of course, understand the essence of what happened in the Atlantean time.

Many simply will not be able to understand it. We will speak further on Atlantis in other times, as it becomes appropriate. We do not ~ we are not here to dwell on Atlantis. We use it as a reference point, for there are many scenarios being replayed from ten thousand years ago in Atlantis that are used for balancing for many of you who are here. But it is not the only time frame, you see. There is much, much else to discuss, Atlantis being a small, very small part of it.

Animals Making The Transition To Human Form

During the time of Atlantis and the latter part of Lemuria, was that the time where the great dinosaurs also were in existence? I seem to have several memories of coexisting with large animals, the dinosaurs. Is that accurate?

There were large animals at the time. They are not that which is referred to as the dinosaurs. Those were in another time frame. What you bring to your surface from the Soul are animals that were very, very peaceful. And they were vegetarian. And they worked hand in hand. They were highly evolved.

Were they lizard? Were they the evolved from the dinosaurs? Were they early mammals?

They had an appearance that would indicate what you would call a lizard look. Very gentle creatures. Very gentle.

Would you say you could ride them and you could actually have them pull carts? Horses do, too.

Oh, yes. They were very much of assistance in this area. They were most gentle. Most gentle.

When you say they were evolved, does that mean that they have moved on to another form of life?

They have. They are not currently incarnating. They had reached their level of evolvement and no longer needed as a learning experience ~ that physical encasement. It was no longer needed once the vibrational field of the planet changed with the cleansing ten thousand years ago. They were no longer complimentary, that physical form. And many of them that were in that physical form, that spirit, are incarnated now. Our own dear Barnabus had one incarnation as that. He was also ~ this was not ten thousand years ago, it was approximately, oh, maybe ten thousand - eleven thousand - twelve thousand ~ Ten thousand years ago when this scenario of which I speak, on occasion, Barnabus was very much a furry creature. His gentleness has been a part of his spirit form.

Have any of them evolved into a human? Are there humans on the earth plane now that were these creatures?

Yes. Yes. Barnabus is about to make that decision. He has reached that evolvement point where it will be allowed. It does not always occur. It does not become an automatic. It is something that is presented to the animal entity as an opportunity, and they realize the tremendous path they have ahead of them. It is a very, very difficult path to take. And when it does occur, it means a tremendous, tremendous number of earth plane years. We speak of millions and millions and millions of earth plane years. Yes. There is no entity now in your midst who falls in this category of close proximity. You have come in contact with these individuals.

Waith, you mentioned Barnabus. Now is that true that basically dogs or can it be any animal that can make the transition?

Any animal.

A cat can?

Yes indeed. For they all incarnate into different roles just as all of you do. In one incarnation you are a male, another incarnation you are a female, another one you are this, another one you are that, taking on the role. So too, do the animals. Barnabus has been a bird. He has definitely been a cat. He has taken on all of the available Animal Kingdom roles which is ~ many of them do not want to do this. They simply want to incarnate in certain bodies and certain roles because it is easy for them and they have a nice time about it. Others want to take on all of the possibilities so that they can advance themselves, and Barnabus has done this. Angel has done this. And Snowflake is currently taking on this opportunity. You would expect only highly evolved animals in this environment, would you not?!

Could Barnabus decide not to come back in any form in order to stay with Mushiba?

He is ~ when he leaves this incarnation, it will be, of course, before Mushiba leaves. And he will ~ he is currently making the decision as to whether to come back in human form. He has finished all that he needs in The Animal Kingdom. He may decide then to stay in spirit form with Mushiba in spirit form. He can make that decision.

And then do they look like dogs, or do they look like spirits? ☺ ☺

They are balls of Light, just as you are. In actuality, there is no substance. When we say balls of Light it is to give you an analogy for you to be able to understand. But realize that energy has no form. It simply is.

Waith Explains How He Is Simply Essence, With Ability To Project In Physical Form

Waith, do you wear clothes, so to speak, in your own kingdom?

No. We have no need for this. I do not have a physical encasement of any sort. I am simply essence.

It is difficult.

It can be. It can be difficult and this is completely understandable. We are here to help you to understand.

Emmanuel Swedenborg says in his book that he was up there looking around all the time. He seemed to say that everybody wore white.

He was given what was needed for him to see, in order to understand. We are able to do this, as I am able to show a face. To give you a point of reference, it is necessary for many entities to be given these kinds of reference points. For it would be difficult to say, "I saw Waith," when I have no substance, simply essence. And for many it would be impossible to relate to this, you see. I could, in fact, come in and speak to all of you and simply be here and communicate with you. However, the effect would not be the same. You would not understand. You would be sitting here, and you would be receiving the communication and not seeing anything or hearing anything, as you see and hear now, and this would not be understandable to the earth plane, you see.

Mushiba has told many of you that she and I communicate and it is not a talking. It is simply an essence being projected, and she knows certain things. In order for us to be understood and to be recognized, we have had to go through this process, and all who do this, have to go through this process of preparing the physical encasement, and coming through like this, being limited by the vocabulary of the entity, this sort of thing. But in reality, you see, I could simply give you the information that you need, but it would not be as much fun, now, would it?

Now is it noisy then when you have ~ when you talk? In your kingdom, is there noise? I mean there is nobody that talks like we do

No, it is all very organized. We do not talk as you know it. It is simply understood. Simply understood. Depending, of course, on the level in which you are at that moment.

Waith, we can develop that communication?

You absolutely can. Many of you have. Many of you are able to communicate with each other. You have found this. You do not need the telephone.

Many Have Chosen Accelerated Paths ~ Many Choose Simple Paths ~You Choose

I want to thank you for your help and love and support, and I continue to ask you to please feel free to infringe upon me in my soul's path at any time because I need all the help I can get. 😊😊

We would not infringe. We would simply guide you. We shall not interfere. We are not allowed interference. You, however, at the Soul Level give us permission to assist in certain ways and therefore we can do that. But we arbitrarily do not go into your path and alter it.

Whatever you are doing, thank you. I do not know what my path is. I think a lot of people are having the same problem between trying to establish, trying to differentiate between my two guides, Amelius, my Higher Self, and all of you. It is very difficult.

Indeed, it is.

And is there something that you could tell us all that would simplify this process a little?

You have all chosen accelerated experiences here. And therefore, you are being bombarded by us, your guides, and all others of the Light in The Universe who might want to jump in and help if called upon. For many, they have chosen a very simple manifestation. For each of you in this gathering, and others of the community who are not able to be here, you have not chosen simplicity, and so it will not be easy. You have chosen this for its difficulty and its acceleration for the strength of the Soul. You want to learn a great deal in this manifestation and that is why you are all here. It is why you choose to return time after time. It is why you choose to speak with all of us, and you call upon us, and we come running. There is no reason to have to differentiate. Simply, to rest in the joy that you have given out the word to so many and you recognize the help that is coming.

I can recognize the lower vibrational entities now, but it is difficult to differentiate between who is who of the Light.

You will.

It seems that the lower vibrational entities are very clear. I guess it is a sign of growth that I can at least differentiate.

The fact that you are recognizing this, you challenge them, as we have indicated so often before. You simply challenge, and if they are not of your Light, they will go away. They will not be able to withstand the challenge.

The Path Of Someone's Crystal And Why It Broke

Waith, I have my daughter's crystal that broke yesterday. Could you tell me why it broke?

Indeed. It needs soothing. (Waith takes small clear quartz into right hand) It broke, and we use this term because it is earth plane, it simply separated. It is not a negative occurrence that it has separated. It was becoming very powerful in its energy, more powerful than the daughter's energy could take at this time in her evolvment. It has simply diffused its own energy, and what will occur as time progresses, each of the halves will develop the energy level that the whole had, but it will develop more slowly and work more cooperatively with the daughter's energy, and not overpower. This is now going to be more gentle for her. Of course, it did go through a bit of trauma in its separation, as any energy form does when it initially separates. At some point in the future ~ you will not see it ~ it will be joined again.

I bought a crystal for a new resident in our home. It is a rose quartz, and a girl at school touched it, and it broke in two. Is this the same phenomenon as the daughter's crystal?

A different situation. You may need to now find a stronger crystal. It was appropriate that it be the rose quartz, but it was a crystal that was not strong enough to withstand negativity, and you simply need to ~ you might want to take a trip with the daughter's mother. She has a good way of finding the strong crystals.

Crystals Serve A Purpose With You ~ They Will Depart When It Is Completed

Would you please energize this crystal that I have with me?

For the time being. As we say so often, do not become attached to your crystals. They serve a purpose with you, and then when that purpose is completed, they will depart, quite unexpectedly. Some of you may find crystals to be with you for many, many years. Some come in just to be with you for a short period of time.
