What Mushiba's Colors Of Gold And Purple Signify

Waith, what does the gold around the radiant body of Mushiba signify? Like the radiant body is the purple, and then there is like a sparkly gold around the radiant body.

Indeed. It is the essence of her personality. What you see in the purple is the Soul, the spirit that manifests in color, so to give you the indication visually that she is with you, and the gold represents that part of her that is still earth bound, the personality that you know. It gives you an interconnectedness between the spirit and the flesh, so to speak. This occurs with many who are using this type of symbolism to show themselves to you. It is a transition type of behavior, for once Mushiba leaves this earth plane, and will no longer be bound to it, she will no longer use this way of showing herself to you.

So, it is only those that are present on the earth plane in physical form that present themselves in their radiant body?

In the way which you know it, yes.

Does the gold signify the female vibration, and would a silver signify a male vibration?

Not exactly. The gold represents, rather than female, per se, as you would identify it, gives to you an essence of spirit ~ Mushiba being the dominant female of the total energy ~ Abalma being the male of the total energy. The characteristics of female have been manifested strongly, and the gold simply signifies that that which needed to be learned at the female has been learned. It does not indicate, per se, gender, but rather that that which the dominant energy needed to learn was learned, and the gold is used by many, many ~ it is not unique to Mushiba. The particular shade of purple that is shown to you is unique to Mushiba. There are many shades of purple, of course.

You will see many colors with gold around them. You will see many colors with silver around them. Silver represents a rather halfway stage to completion of that which is needed in the flesh, realizing, of course, that an energy needs to reach a certain point in the path before they can begin to manifest as you are seeing Mushiba. There will be occasions when the gold will be very vibrant and sparkly. This simply signifies a particular mood, for there is still mood built into the manifestation.

The Harnessing Or Caging Of Your Animals

I purchased a harness for my cat, and I was wondering if you could ask Francis if it would be appropriate to let the cats out on a leash once in a while.

Francis, as well as all of us, are not particularly pleased with the idea of harnessing an animal, and feel that it could, in fact, damage the spirit somewhat of the animal. Think of it yourself as being harnessed and held restrictive in an environment that you would like to be able to be free in. It is better to not be in the environment than to be held captive in the environment that you would like to be free in. It is simply that the cat for now should not be outside. It would not really be appropriate, dearest one. Keep it inside.

One cat is not having any problems being in, but the other one is constantly crying to go out. It is still having a hard time.

Yes, indeed. Lessons to be learned. For if this entity were to go outside now, it could create greater damage to the Soul, for there would be the attempt to escape and run, and there needs to be learning in that area.

Would that go for a cage also? For, you know, if you had like a ferret or that sort of an animal that sometimes it is not safe to let them run loose in the house because they can get into trouble. Should you just not have a ferret?

If you were not able to have an animal run free in the environment in which you would like to place it, it is best not to have that animal. Much damage is done when there are these types of cages. Realizing that there are certain environments that are needed, for example, when you have those of The Fish Kingdom, for example, but they are in water. It gives them their appropriate environment, you see, and a cage is not.

I have been keeping my rabbit in a cage because I thought she's pregnant, and I was afraid of letting her loose and having the babies where the cats or the other male rabbit could get them. Is she indeed pregnant, or is that just something I assumed?

At this time, she is not.

Ah, well I can open her cage then.

At this time. It would be beneficial for the entity to be given freedom, and just as you see the animals here coexist, so too, if given the opportunity to coexist, they will.

Yes. They all get along fine. I was just worried about ~ I thought she was pregnant, and I was not sure if the other animals would get the babies that she's not having. That was my concern. Has Francis been over there opening her cage?

There has been some activity, I understand, from those in The Company, for none like to see animals caged.

I came in one day, and I saw the cage open and one rabbit in and the other one out, and everybody said they did not do it. I kind of wondered. Okay, when I go home, I will let her out. She is used to the freedom.

Yes. It would not matter, cagewise, if there was ~ the babies expected, for they would be taken care of in the way that is meant to be.

A Question About A Group Balancing At Work

I have been curious about the people I work with. Is that a regular example of what group reincarnation or karma is about? Or am I in a particularly special close situation with these people?

Ah. That which you speak of is a particularly interesting balancing occurring with a group, and you are a part of it, in that you are attempting to help them in their Group Balancing. There are many dynamics here, and there are among all of them approximately fifty different incarnations that have occurred that have not been together. Some have incarnated with others on several occasions since the initial imbalance occurred, and thus giving all of these different incarnations.

Your purpose at this time, is to act as a mediator and to help each of them to understand their own relationships with each other, and to help in soothing them. So often this will be needed as conflicts occur. They are all very, very dedicated at the Soul Level to balancing. They agreed upon entry into the incarnation that they would work as diligently as they could to achieve balance. You have a connection with each of them individually, and you do not have the Group Balancing as part of what you need to achieve. Thus, you are able to be the outsider, so to speak, to observe and to help them.

At the Soul Level you work in very strong ways with them, for they seek out your guidance at spirit. You have many, many meetings with them at spirit level, and it will explain sometimes these feelings that you will have as you go into the sleep state, and you come out of the sleep state, of being a bit out of equilibrium and perhaps feeling that you are not quite on the earth plane. And you are joining them all. You gather them, shall we say, for periodic meetings to discuss what occurs and how they are progressing.

That is very nice. I felt a definite, kind of like the outsider, I guess, with these people, yet very much a part. The people are coming to me quite often. I have become like the library source for the people I work with.

Indeed, it will increase.

I just wanted to make sure that that was my path, becoming so involved in doing this with these people because I seem to have kind of freeform at work, and it makes me wonder if this is the way it is supposed to be, or if I am imposing. I try not to.

No, you are not, my dear. Not at all. You seek the guidance at spirit level from your own guides to assist you in this endeavor, and they work very closely with you. So often when occasions present themselves at the physical in which you must make a decision as to what to say or not to say, you will be given the guidance.

The Physical Body Adjustments Needed Due To The Changing Weather Patterns

This flu that I have been combating ~ so many people are having bouts of sickness. Could you comment on the problems that everyone is having with the sickness?

There is, of course, the extremely accelerated weather patterns that are changing, and this time frame of winter has been so very different than the people have been accustomed to, and you go through what many will be going through during the coming years as the weather patterns change and this area becomes more tropical. It is simply your body adjusting. It is not accustomed to certain vibrations, and it is reacting at the physical level. It is not to be concerned about, for it is very similar to what we talk of when we say that Mushiba's cells are being worked on, the cellular changes.

Each of you will be having your own kind of cellular changes that will help you to adapt to the new weather conditions that we speak of. It is, in essence, a cleansing that occurs and makes your body much stronger, the physical, so that for some they will be experiencing this soon, now, as you are. For others it will be not felt for perhaps another season, as it is said on the plane. So, you have taken this on rather early in the time frame before The Shift so that you can get it over with and be able then to deal with other issues.

Now, that would be myself. Now what about the masses? Would they be the same?

They are in varying degrees of cleansing, some of whom will cleanse to the point of vibrational correctness and some will not.

Are there other ways that this cleansing will occur besides these illnesses?

Indeed, there will be, my dear. We will not discuss them at this time, for you are not ready to hear them. We want you to adjust at the physical to certain types of changes that are easiest for you to understand and to accept and to deal with, and when it is time for the other types of changes that will be necessary, you will then be ready, for you will have gone through this first stage.

Can this first stage be avoided through meditation and in keeping balance?

It would not want to be avoided, dearest. It is a very necessary physical cleansing that is needed in order for you to be able to be attuned at all the levels necessary for The Shifting.

Feeling A Greater Sensitivity To Certain Geographical Locations

Could you explain to me what I had just gone through? Was that to help me be more aware not to be in that geographical area?

You will find yourself, and many of you will find now, that when you go into certain geographical areas, a greater sensitivity. These are areas that will not be remaining after The Shift. And as your own sensitivities increase, you will become aware of areas that will give you a sense of coldness, and this is simply that they are not vibrationally attuned.

It does in no way mean that you have to avoid these areas. It simply means that you now have a better idea of knowing when you are traveling, perhaps those areas that will be vibrationally correct and those that will not, and that when you begin to feel an area to not coincide with your vibration that you simply surround yourself with protection more than normally, and send out as much of your Light as you can, and you will be fine. If you were to avoid all of the areas that will not be safe, you would find yourself rather restricted now ~ and this is not to be for this time period, for you must all go out beyond the core and bring in those who need to know and who are ready to hear.
