About Suicide, Are There Any Ramifications To A Soul Who Chooses To End Their Life?

Indeed, this is a really interesting question, for there is much misunderstanding in the illusion as it is currently presented on the plane as to this subject of suicide. And what must be understood, you see, is that every ~ everything that occurs has been set up to occur by the Soul in some way, and that there is order to The Universe, and that there is no such thing as evil. We have discussed this in the past most recently. Evil is a concept that is a part of the current illusion, and there is only degrees of darkness or length away from Oneness.

Now the issue of suicide, then, revolves around an entity's own desires for the way in which that entity will leave the earth plane. It is determined before entering the life, the manifestation, what needs to be accomplished. Oftentimes, the entity will learn upon entry that it is going to be far more difficult than they had anticipated, and it can therefore create a certain predisposition, shall we say, to behavior that is not what they had planned to do ~ understanding that the forces of dark can influence the entity to the point of not behaving in a way that they would want to behave, but rather being influenced by some other outside force, that they can be convinced that to take one's own life, if you will, is the only way out of the situation of feeling that they have not accomplished what they came in to do.

There is in no way a stigma attached to an entity who would choose to do this at the Universal Level with The Universal Consciousness. It simply means that the lessons that were not ~ that the entity chose to take on in the incarnation were not learned perhaps and that further lessons now need to be learned because of this acquiescing to the influences of the darkness. However, there is a flipside, and that is that suicide may also be planned before coming into the incarnation as a way of teaching and that it is not, therefore, the influence of the dark.

It goes back to what we have said so many, many times, that one must not judge any other entity on the plane or, shall we say, second-guess what they are on the plane to do, for to attempt to do this means that you are working with insufficient information. And you have no right to look at another entity and judge their actions, for it is only The Universal Consciousness that each entity must give final resolution to. And thus, any behavior, any activity, that an entity takes on could, in fact, be planned and meant for lessons to be taught. But on the other hand, they may not. But it is the business of the entity only, and its agreement with The Universal Consciousness.

And yes, if it is an influence of the darkness, then when the entity returns into the spirit, there are other entities with whom that entity is then accountable to, and there will then be discussions as to what happened and arrangements made for future incarnations that will balance that particular situation. Most entities, by the way, at one time or another in their journey on the earth plane have done this. We here at this level do not consider it, as you might say, any big deal. It is simply part of the sojourn.

If Someone Dies Without Leaving Burial Instructions, What Is Appropriate For The Body?

Oh, illusion, illusion, illusion. Once the Soul has left the encasement, be it of the human encasement, the mineral, animal, whatever, the encasement is no longer of any value, and thus, it simply takes up space, as you might say, on the plane and then simply becomes a matter of, as you would say, your own feelings regarding what to do with the encasement. At the Universal Level, if you were to destroy this encasement as is a common practice called cremation, it would have no ill consequences in any dimension, you see.

There is a qualification to this, and that is if an entity specifically states that they do not want to be cremated, and they are, then those who participated in the destruction of the encasement will have balancing to encounter with the entity to whom they did this in some future time, for you go against that which is requested, you see. Do you understand? However, if there is no specification then you must do what you feel to be the best.

What Can Be Done From Scientists To Help With The Pollution Problem On Earth?

Well, all that is being attempted now is, of course, for lessons to be learned by certain, as you would call, scientists, much of which is an attempt for them to learn humility. At this point now, for all purposes, the earth is in its final stages of cleansing ~ The Shift being the final act of cleansing not the beginning. What has occurred, therefore, is that the physical environment of the planet is now beyond that which can be corrected by those currently on the plane with their limited intelligence in this area, all set up for purposes of learning, for other illusions have created greater levels of scientific achievement than this particular illusion that you currently find yourselves in. The crystal power of which you speak is quite real and will take effect once The Shift has occurred.

You must understand that The Shifting is imminent. You see the signs of it accelerating now. There is nothing that will stop the acceleration now. It is in its final movement. After The Shift, those areas that are safe, as has been discussed by many besides us, will have then the responsibility of stabilizing the environment of the planet. And that which, as you call now, pollutes the environment will be dissipated with The Shifting. It will bring, however, this shifting, other reconstruction activities. And when the new structures are built that will replace the current pyramids, as is always the case in these energy conductors, crystals play a central role.

You will be ~ those who survive The Shift and who are taking on the task of rebuilding, will come from many different areas of expertise, as we might say, and you will then draw upon the knowledge that is at Soul Level currently in areas such as the scientific, for, my son, you have soul memories that bring you back into illusions where scientific application was so superior to what it is now that at this time now, while this illusion is in place, you would not be able to apply it and it would be a source of frustration for you.

Once The Shifting has occurred there will be a New Illusion. This is a major shifting, a major cleansing, meaning a New Illusion coming about. You will then have the Soul information, the Soul memories, not just yourself but all those who choose to remain after The Shift, to help in reconstruction and the development of The New Illusion. So, we would say to spend your energy now in preparation!

Are We Going To Start Getting Glimpses Of The New Illusion?

You will not have glimpses of The New Illusion. That is not appropriate, for it will create great difficulties. There are a few on the plane who have been shown The New Illusion but they are a part of the building of the new structures and it is necessary for them to know what The New Illusion is. You will know in plenty of time, for while you are in the shelters you will be shown The New Illusion, and you will be prepared for your work once you come out of the shelters. We have a whole portfolio, if you will, which is a good word ~ a Portfolio of Illusions, you see.

A couple of months ago I saw two moons! I think that you have said at one time that there was more than one in this illusion.

There are a number of what you would call moons in this illusion. Some of you see one and others see more than one. It is really of no real consequence, if you will, to how many moons, stars, planets, whatever, that you would see. We have The New Illusion all picked out, ready to go. ☺

Illusions, you understand, last approximately anywhere from on the plane, what you would call, ten to twenty thousand years. And thus it is that this particular illusion that you find yourselves in is approximately ten thousand years in duration, and that it changed with the cleansing of that which included the period of Atlantis. This illusion has not been around for, oh, millennia, and now it will go to the back of the line, as we say, and the next one up has its chance. Understand also that The Universal Consciousness is the controller of this and thus it is that all of you have a say in what the illusion will be.

I put in my order for The Candy Planet. ☺

Yes, indeed. We have understood also certain entities currently on the plane are requested to be in that form on this Candy Planet.

A Discussion About Human Sacrifices, Animal Sacrifices, And Cannibalism

Some have said that the Mayans did human sacrifices. I understand that those of the dark must have been involved, but I do not know if that is the right conclusion.

Indeed, it is not. The tradition, if you will, in the illusion currently in the plane is that ~ and this is a part of the scenario of this particular illusion ~ that human, as you would call it, sacrifice, and also animal sacrifice, and also the consumption of human, as you would call it, cannibalism, as is practiced in many current cultures on the plane, and those who have been on the plane, actually have a spiritual base to it, for it is believed that the energy of the entity that is being sacrificed or consumed can then be taken into the energy of those who are doing this. And thus it is in their thinking, in their own perceptions of energy transference, that this is a way of gaining energy.

Now, understand that, again, these behaviors relate to lessons to be taught and lessons to be learned. It is always lessons to be taught and lessons to be learned, and the frustration that all feel, of course, is in not knowing what it is, and isn't that too bad that you do not understand what an entity is all about.

Now, my love, in some cases there can be a strong influence of the dark that creates in the mind of an entity the illusion, again, that they can in fact gain energy by consuming another. Humans who consume animals have at the base of their soul memories with the sojourn on the earth plane that energy is gained in some way by consumption, or in human or animal sacrifice the taking of the blood, and a common occurrence is to drink the blood from the human sacrifice or the animal sacrifice. This brings into the consuming entity, energy. This is, however, not correct. This does not occur, for one energy is unable to consume another energy ~ it is merely an illusion of such ~ and that we see now on the plane evidence of this thought that finds itself in the consumption of anything on the plane, that energy for the encasement is achieved. And thus it is part of the illusion.

Understand that in other illusions the encasement needs no nourishment. Understand also that you need not fear that you would be therefore considered a cannibal because you eat. It is all part of the illusion ~ it is necessary for what you have chosen to take on in this illusion.

There are many entities also who have chosen not to come onto the plane during this particular illusion. They are waiting for the next one to come along. They decided this was not one they wanted to be a part of. You all have that choice, you see. And thus it is that for many of you who might feel a discomfort in this incarnation there are strong possibilities that you chose to come in at the end of the illusion, and that you have not been in during this illusion, and rather have spent your time in other illusions and sat out this one, but decided for growth that you would come in at the time of the illusion change. So, fear not if you consume. It is as it is.

Eating Meat Versus Being Vegetarian, And Judgements For This

If someone consumes animal, which has a consciousness, is there an exchange of consciousness with the animal?

No. That does not occur. Consciousness is not exchangeable. There can be a meeting of consciousness but it is not exchangeable under the normal circumstances.

Are you saying that it is not necessary for people to be vegetarians in this illusion to grow spiritually?

Oh, indeed, my love. You understand ~ and we have addressed this in other times, other sessions ~ that the issue of what is consumed is strictly for the individual, and that you must not feel that if you are not, as you would say, vegetarian that you are not progressing spiritually. This is incorrect, most incorrect, and again, it is judgement that you must all be very, very careful of, for if you are to observe an individual who you see apparently addicted to many of the earth plane situations, and you were to say, "Well! That person is certainly not very spiritual. This person eats meat and consumes caffeine and nicotine, and all the other little wonders of the illusion, that this person is by no means spiritual. I am far more spiritual, for I am a vegetarian." This is very incorrect, for remember, that many, many highly evolved entities enter into the plane specifically to teach and take on the persona of that which is not what it appears to be.

And thus, as the Community of Terra Lux, you all are quite unique as a group, for you will accept anyone. There is no entry qualification, and if you choose to have certain preferences in consumption patterns, that is fine, but you must be careful of imposing that upon others and giving the appearance that you are better than someone else if you do not consume certain products, if you will. Be very, very careful.

It is not to say that when you are, shall we say, serving food, that you serve what is appealing to yourself, and that when others are guests of yours, that you have a number of choices. You can simply serve that which you feel is appropriate for yourself, and think that they must then consume that, or you can offer variations. If you know that your guests prefer something other than what you prefer, then you are being, shall we say, hospitable by finding their needs, for if you are the vegetarian and you go to dine with one who is not, and they decide to serve you what they feel is appropriate for themselves, and they serve you meat, then what do you do? And thus it is that you must look at the way in which you are perceived, and the way in which you perceive to understand this issue, and you must always be looking to Be of Service to Others, and what is the best way to Be of Service? Is it to provide the food that is appropriate for yourself, if it will not in fact offend the other, or is it more of service to provide the food that is appropriate for the other while it may not be appropriate for you, you see. It is not an easy thing we tell you now, is it?

A Question About The Ultimate Crime In The Universe ~ A Discussion Of Absorption

Here on the earth, we have certain structures, certain laws, that are appropriate to us. Do you have similar structures where you are?

Understand that in The Angelic Force it is an ancillary type of situation where we are helpmates to all of the illusions, the earth plane being one of many, many, many, many, many billions, if one were to put a number on it, of illusions throughout The Universal Consciousness. We do, however, have structure in the Universal, and all is illusion, all. The illusion is an illusion.

What I am asking, is there something at spirit level that would really hit at the core that would be perceived as a crime, if you will, as we would perceive it on earth?

As you would perceive it on the earth plane illusion, there is a very, very high level of darkness that none of you except for Mushiba and Abalma deal with, for it is of the very highest of the dark and it is a battle that The Angelics wage on a continuing basis. It is part of our function to protect all energy forms who are currently incarnating and who, upon completion of a particular incarnation, would be especially susceptible at the transition stage from physical to spirit of having a particular type of attack waged, given from the very highest of the dark down the line, and we have described that line function.

Now, it is far more complex, and dark, than is understandable for most of you currently on the plane. What it means is that there is a particular instant in the transition from physical, and this is any illusion, be it the earth plane or any other, coming back into the spirit, that an entity is especially susceptible for what we would call absorption. This means that the dark can, in fact, absorb ~ not merge, for there is a very distinct distinction here, difference ~ to absorb an energy, and this is what you might call the greatest crime, and we of The Angelics are held responsible to The Universal Consciousness for the protection of all energies against this particular type of behavior. It is our responsibility.

There is nothing that another energy form can do to protect themselves against this particular behavior, and once the absorption occurs, then, it then becomes our responsibility to keep track of that entity that was absorbed, and it is our responsibility to help that entity become its own again, and thus it is the greatest of crimes, if you will, at spirit that does occur. This particular topic is one in which we do not give much information about, for it is not easily understood by those of you on the plane in the illusion. You understand it when you are in spirit, and there is a rallying at spirit as entities move from physical to spirit to help those of us in The Angelics to protect.

We have now gathered many from outside of The Angelics to stand ready for the tremendous number of entities who will be entering spirit when The Shift occurs, for as we have mentioned in the past, there is a tremendous battle that occurs with every major cleansing, at spirit level, between the dark and the Light, or more definitively, between The Angelics and those of the highest of the dark, and we will have quite a task in the protection of those who will be leaving at the time of The Shift, and this is what we mean when we say that it is a tremendous battle, for we must protect from absorption.

The Five Kingdoms All Communicate And Work Toward The Same Goal

Could it get confusing for an entity that has left and that essence is from Amelius' Kingdom, but yet those of the earth plane are calling upon another kingdom to help that one through? Could there be a confusion there?

There is no confusion, my love. The kingdoms, of which there are five in the current illusion, all communicate, and even though there are distinct kingdoms, they all work toward the same goal, and thus it is that there is an interchanging and help that occurs, and there is, because of The Universal Consciousness, an infinite and continuous connection, you see. And if Amelius must deal with someone from another kingdom, that is easily achieved, as if someone from Amelius' kingdom were to call upon another, that is also, for all is of the good, the heads of The Kingdoms.
