Waith Responds To Written Question From Abalma

For this session, we are prepared to respond to certain questions that were given to Limer, and this will be the subject for this session.

Limer: Shall I read them now, Waith?

Yes. You would read them one at a time as he directed you.

Limer: These are questions from Abalma ~ "Is it mandated, written in stone, that the community be located on Lynch Terrace?"

Well, first of all, there are no mandates, only particular situations that exist at particular times for particular issues and for particular energy transferences. So, we would say in response to this question that there is no mandate, it is not written in stone. However, there are qualifications that would be made to that particular statement that we have just given. That qualification will present itself in a moment. Continue.

Limer: Question ~ "Then would not be a truth that is held as Self-evident? I petition you, that would it not be more conducive to spiritual, physical, growth to be situated in a locale space that becomes a haven, safe house, stronghold, representing a true spiritual community for meditation, learning, expansion of Self, communal commitment, in a place that can be surrounded by true believers of Light and energy, ones that can unite forces to protect from and combat negative forces as a true warrior community would band, not in areas, territories, surrounded by enemies, darkness, but a fortress of souls where the community is isolated, protected and the killing zone field is open?"

Yes. (There is a short silence) ☺ Of course, Abalma will not let me off this easy. You must understand, many of you, what a sheer delight it has been being assigned to Mushiba and Abalma, and as many of you begin to reacquaint with Mushiba and Abalma at earth plane, you will understand the joy of the mission. The mission that we of Waith and Company are a small part of is so very, very strong and powerful that we are most pleased to be a part of it.

We, in Waith and Company, have a particular role within the mission that Mushiba and Abalma have been directed through Amelius to perform. And thus it is, that at this time on the earth plane with the cleansing about to occur, that certain energy transferences and certain energy connections have needed to be placed in a particular cycle. It was necessary to establish vibrational connections with the Underground Community that is assigned to this particular safe zone.

Understand that the safe area that we have given out many, many, many sessions ago is still true. That has not changed. Also, the Underground Community builds now, as you all are with us. The land, as you would call it, that you find yourself situated on is the land that above the ground protects the shelters below. It was imperative that the forming of the Community of Terra Lux have its beginnings in this particular geographic location for the purpose of providing certain types of energy transference to the underground. It was also necessary to dissolve, if you will, certain negativity that surrounds the above ground geographic area.

Many of you are familiar with that which is called neighbor, that whom Mushiba, much to her own disdain, yelled rather unspiritual words. This is what makes it such a joy to be with Mushiba and Abalma, you see. It was all very necessary. This is a Son of Darkness. This is an entity who is a part of a very planned group of the Sons of Darkness whose sole mission is to destroy Mushiba and Abalma. This is the greatest warrior lesson for the both of them, you see. They have effectively met combat at spirit and in Mushiba's own way, at physical. It is not mandated that Mushiba and the community gathering any longer be situated physically on this, as you would call it, property, for what has been done is what needed to be done in terms of providing the vibration for the underground to begin the shelters.

What will occur, you see, when The Shift presents itself, is that the shelters will be made available, and all those who would be in the radius would flock to this particular area and would know that this is where the shelters are located. It is no longer necessary, therefore, for Mushiba to remain in this particular vibration. That which was established with the Son of Darkness will continue in terms of battle, and as we would say in the spirit world of battling, all of the rounds have been won by Mushiba and Abalma, and they now take on a different level.

When I mentioned that there was a qualification to the first question that Abalma asked, it is simply this ~ that Mushiba and Abalma now must make a decision at earth plane, in conjunction, of course, with their plans at spirit, as to whether or not they will move the community into another part of the safe zone.

The purpose now of the community becomes more strong than before, for the earth plane aspect of the community has been set in motion, and there is much discussion by Mushiba and Abalma as to the availability of space, as you would call it, for community members to gather, to be able to seek solace in this space, to become more cohesive, to feel the freedom to come to this place at any time without interfering with the living of Mushiba.

The establishment of permanent community gathering home, one in which you would all feel comfortable and feel a part of and would place into this your vibrations of beauty and love, one in which you could have a haven, you could seek the vibration of another community member, and that you would, indeed, have an area of safety surrounding you without the fear, if you will, of being attacked from the negativity. This is the concern of Abalma.

And thus, Terra Lux is a Warrior Community. However, in order to fend off the negativity, the darkness, you each must feel strength within Self, and you each must feel a sense of protection, and must feel that you have a place to go in which you could seek safety from the forces of dark, both at earth plane and at spirit, thus, the concern of Abalma and Mushiba. It will now be their decision as to the direction in which they will now go.

Preparations for The Shifting accelerate. From our end, understand, there being no time measured, The Shift is upon you, and you all grow very strong, very beautifully, and you now are ready to truly become a community, working together to Be of Service, working together regardless of differences, remembering the conversation we had a while ago, to seek the similarities rather than the differences and to work in an atmosphere of love and harmony, for if you do not have each other in that respect, you will surely have difficulty in the greater illusions on the plane with those who would not understand.

And you will always have the strength of Mushiba and Abalma for that protection and that security, for in their eyes, none of you can do any wrong, and that is the security that they offer to you, and that is the love that they give to you in this, their final incarnation. Enjoy them, for they have planned quite deliberately this incarnation. Enjoy them as we do, for their mission is to protect and love and assist and teach, and they learn at very different levels.

We would entertain questions based upon this topic area.

Waith's Definition Of The Location Of The Community Of Terra Lux

You keep saying imminent. You know, a while ago, you said the core community would be a building, but not for about ~ well, now it would be four years. Does that still stand?

My love, I think you have misinterpreted what was perhaps stated. The core community is made up of energy forms ~ each of you. Wherever the core community is, is where the building is, and vice versa, as you would say. Thus, if you were to stay in this particular location, this is then the core building, you see. It does not need to be where Mushiba is physically located, for the core building surrounds the community. Mushiba may be situated in another facility, shall we say, so the core building does not surround Mushiba. It surrounds the community.

You are saying then it is not a real building, that it is spiritual.

It is both, my love. The core community is made up of spirits, all of you, in which you find yourselves housed as a community in a particular facility. That is the core building. It will change in its definition and dimension as time on the plane progresses and upon the completion of The Shift, it will be a new illusion completely, but that is not for discussion now.

And you say imminent. Now does that mean about eight or ten years?

That is correct.

A Question About The Hard Times Community Members Are Going Through, And The Fatigue

The hard times that some members of the community are going through and the terrible fatigue, does that have to do with accelerated growth, or is an individual physical problem?

It varies from entity to entity, my love. Reference is made to that which we spoke of in the last session. The information contained in that will give you some guidance as to what is referred to as The Cycles of Learning Lessons and what must be done to go from one stage to another. In addition to this, there is the issue of acceleration at spirit affecting that which is the encasement. Yes, it does have those effects. It varies from entity to entity, you see, and we would need to address that specifically with an entity so that we could provide the specialization of that to you as it would differ with another.

Meditation To Determine If Psychic Attacks Are Due To A Specific Problem

How can you tell if physical or emotional problems are due to psychic attack or due to some physical problem?

That is a difficulty, my son, and one in which most often can be determined through a meditation. However, being able to understand that in the meditative state comes with practice in meditation and comes with the development of trusting in Self, trusting that what you are receiving for information is true, and that it is coming from the Higher Self, so that you would be able to differentiate between the two. And it is a very difficult area of differentiation, and one that is not easily achieved by some entities. For others, it is more easily achieved only because they have worked at this in many incarnations.

For those entities currently a part of the Community of Terra Lux, be it at the core level or in the greater community membership, there will be attacks made by the darkness simply because you are a part of Terra Lux. At spirit, you have agreed to undertake this so that you will grow and strengthen, and also it will enable you to Be of Service to the greater Universe. Call out to your guides in meditation to help you to understand the difference and then to help you in working through the situation, be it one of an attack from the darkness or one that is related to a particular issue that would involve the physical encasement.

The Effect Of Earth Day On The Earth And In Relation To The Shift

Could you tell us what kind of reaction the earth had on Earth Day? Was the consciousness being raised for that day?

The earth, the planet, is anxiously awaiting its cleansing. It awaits with great joy the cleansing. Understand also that many sessions ago we also indicated that the earth as an energy form has such tremendous love for all of you that it has allowed itself to be placed in the situation that it finds itself, for it is Being of Service and it does so with tremendous joy ~ the outpouring of love at a very planned and specific time.

Understand that the gathering of energy forms who then simultaneously send a thoughtform, or a vibration, into The Universe is much stronger and more powerful than an individual thoughtform. We have emphasized many times the strength of groups, and thus it is, that much is served in this endeavor, for that which is called Earth Day set a beautiful message and very strong vibration to the planet that even though it did not need to be thanked for Being of Service and providing pain to itself so that others would learn, it is appreciated by the Earth that so many gathered. So many gathered on a particular time frame to send love and energy.

On the other hand, it was also an opportunity for many, many energy forms to unite and to give their energies to each other in support of the planet and the love that the planet gives, and it is in preparation for the time after The Shift when all will be cleansed, and all of this madness will begin again. We use the word madness in a humorous manner, for every illusion must come to an end with a cleansing before it starts The New Illusion, you see.

Should we make a more conscious effort to send the Light to the earth in helping it, although it is anxiously awaiting The Shift?

Any love and Light that you would send to the planet will be most beneficial for you, as well as the earth, for remember that when another energy form sends love and Light to you, you feel the effects of it at some level, and it will be reciprocated by the earth to you, for many of you have the ability to communicate with the earth and with that which is called nature. It is a conscious energy.

What About Strengths Of Unified Energy Directed To The Earth From Large Numbers Of People?

I read an article about the strengths of unified energy coming from a gathering of people. The writer raised the question whether unified energy of ~ we have now five billion people on the earth ~ would be stronger than the desire of the earth to shift, because we all know that energy forms from human beings can be very powerful. On the other hand, there must be an existing energy which will shift the earth. This spiritual person was saying there could be a moment, or a time, where this unified energy would be stronger than the desire of the earth to change its pole in The Universe.

Understand that there are a number of flaws in this theory, for the theory is based upon very earth plane conclusions. First of all, and above all, is the fact that this is the end of an illusion that is coming up and it is simply ~ this is simply what occurs at the end of an illusion. This is a major cleansing. There are minor cleansings that occur and that those minor cleansings within the time frame of a particular illusion have, on several occasions, been eliminated.

The need for it was eliminated because the basic theory of energy overcoming energy is that if there is a powerful energy, it can, in fact, overcome a less powerful energy, and that, in theory, and in a few situations in practice, the energies incarnated on the plane at a particular time were able to gather themselves in strength to convince the earth that it did not need to cleanse itself, for the earth felt the energy, and it was the energy from the masses that eliminated the need for the cleansing.

Now, you see, the difficulty in this theory is that you must have a strong unification, and this is very difficult to achieve, only because every energy form incarnating on the plane is at a different point in their path, and many do not have the ability to provide the strength that is needed at energy level. Others do not have the desire to do this, for they are at a particular point in their path where this is not a part of it.

The theory, at times, is workable, but has many flaws in it. As we said earlier. In this particular situation this is a major cleansing. It would not matter if all energies currently incarnated were to band together for even an instant in time, for the energy would still not be powerful enough to overcome the energy of The Universe in an illusion transference. Do you understand?

Yes, but I think it was never in time a case that the earth plane was so highly populated as in this final period of the major cleansing, so there is ~

You do not know that, my son. You base your information only on that which is being allowed to be given to those on the plane in this particular illusion. There are only so many openings on the earth plane, you see. Some illusions will have ~ they will fulfill the maximum openings. Other illusions will take in perhaps one-half of the allocated openings. This particular illusion that is about to come to conclusion has not filled all of its allocations. It has chosen not to, in agreement with The Universal Consciousness. At any time in the illusion on the plane, any number of spots will be filled. What you have now on the plane is nowhere near what has been in many, many millennia past.

We have much more to say in regards to what will be in The New Illusion, and it will come in its proper time, you see. You will be prepared properly, and you will be prepared to get The New Illusion going, shall we say. It will be a most interesting experience to move from one illusion to the next. Many of you have not experienced this, and you have chosen this time frame to do so for the experience of it. Many, many of you, however, have ~ you have experienced the changeover from one illusion to the next.

Except we do not remember.

The Soul memories will present themselves at the appropriate time.

Would you say more people in the community have experienced it than not?

With the current composition of the community members, more have experienced the changeover. That will begin to diminish as the community at large grows and the core community establishes itself and becomes the nucleus that percentage will change.

Is that why some people are frightened when they think about The Shift and others may not be? Some are looking forward to it and some are frightened by it.

That is correct, my love. That is correct.

And some do not believe that it is going to happen.

That is correct also, my love. But we are not here in any way to have to convince you of anything. We simply give you information, and you do with it what you so choose to do with it. We do not have to justify anything.
