Topic ~ Forgiveness

We speak with you in this time now regarding forgiveness. Forgiveness is a very easy concept to discuss and a very easy concept to understand for all of you on the plane. However, it is not quite so easy to do, and one of the prime conditions of the earth plane is the issue of forgiveness. It is where this concept takes its hold most strongly, more strongly than any other of the training grounds that The Universe provides for learning.

Forgiving Other Is Easy To Do ~ The Most Difficult Issue Is In Forgiving Self

The most difficult issue of forgiveness is not forgiving others, for that is so easy to do. It is what we would refer to as forgiveness of Self, for until you as an entity understand that there is nothing to forgive, you will constantly battle with the idea that you have done something wrong and therefore you must forgive yourself. Now, this is not something that entities want to do. You each want to keep torturing yourselves, saying, "Oh, I did not do this correctly. I am bad. I do not deserve growth. I do not deserve Light. I do not deserve forgiveness."

Understand that at The Universal Consciousness level, no entity can do anything wrong. This is a Self-imposed condition, for all that is done is to be for the particular path that each entity chooses, and therefore, rather than to concentrate on forgiving yourself, for this is in actuality a negative, one would want to concentrate rather on looking at behavior and if that behavior is helping you along your path.

Through Meditation, Connect With Your Higher Self, To Know Your Own Answers

Now, this is where the difficulty comes in, you see, for unless you are able through your meditations to connect with your Higher Self, and therefore to know your own answers, you will find it difficult to connect your behavior with your path's progression, but this is what coming onto the plane is all about, for if you were able to connect perfectly and to understand perfectly, the effect of your behavior at any given moment with your path's progression, you would be finished with the earth plane, you see. And thus it is that part of your sojourn on the plane, for as many lifetimes as it takes, is a continual attempt and a continual fine tuning and a continual advancement of Self to the Higher Self.

The concept of forgiveness has been given through from our dimension through many different sources so that it serves in this particular illusion as a frame of reference, a standard, and we have on many occasions discussed with you this issue, and that you must forgive yourselves. And for many, many, it is appropriate that they understand forgiveness of Self in relation to the way in which they are able to forgive another, but what we present to you now in its beginning form is a higher level of the concept. It is a level that, for many, may not be understood right now, and this is fine, for as we indicate, the information that we give to you all is for many to read, and to hear, as the illusion continues on. It is not simply information given at this particular session and it ends there and that all of you would understand, comprehend, believe what we say, but rather, it is information for reference of Self as Self develops in awareness.

Entities Are Hardest On Themselves, And This In Itself Is Part Of A Lesson

Entities are hardest on themselves, and this in itself is part of a lesson. As soon as you let go of analyzing every little thing that happens and just allow The Universe to work in conjunction with your own energies, you will find then a freedom that even if you do not behave in a way that you particularly liked, it is nonetheless your behavior. And because you are a beautiful energy, your behavior is your behavior, and must be for many different reasons that have connection, not just with your Self, but with the other energies with whom you interact on the plane, some at a very direct level and some at an indirect level.

For remember that as energies you interact at many different levels and not just at the physical, at the earth plane, and while you may be behaving in a certain way here in the concrete, a part of your energy is connecting with another energy at some other location quite probably. You could be, as you would say, miles and miles away from another encasement and still be able to connect through energy, and at the plane level you may not even know the encasement, but you know the energy, you see.

Remember, Whatever Your Behavior Is, In Some Way, Affect Every Other Energy

And thus, you need to begin thinking in a more positive manner that whatever your behavior is, it in some way affects every other energy, and that rather than concentrating on forgiving yourself, concentrate rather on doing what you feel is right for Self, for then you will be truly giving to others, for when you do what you feel is right for Self, you do what is right for others, but it is the understanding of this fine line that needs the meditative state, that needs each of you to be able to gain the awareness through the Higher Self and the Higher Self reaching into The Universal Consciousness. There is much discussion to come in future times regarding this, for we simply will not say to you "The issue of forgiveness is something that you can forget about," you see. This is not true at all. It is very valid in its parameters.

However, there are higher levels of understanding which we have begun now in this session to present to you, something for some of you who were beginning to get a bit bored in your meditations, something now that you can begin to concentrate on, and, as many of you would do, you will now go into meditation and you will fervently say, "I want to know. I want to know. I want to know. I want to know. I want to know. Hurry up and let me know. Now. On my terms." ☺ We understand this. And thus, we will show you, as time progresses, the way in which the issues of forgiveness are interwoven with so many of the other concepts. You will begin to understand and be able to use this information as a way of letting go of this pressure that is placed on Self and to greater understand The Flow of The Universe and the energy.

Forgiveness Is A Judgement

Understand that it makes it not more easier, for the lessons still, for many of you, are difficult and hard and the pain that must be felt so often, either the physical or the emotional or the mental, is still a part of the lesson itself. What it does by Flowing with the Energy is to place you into a different type of energy flow that is positive, and therefore, making you capable of understanding that Self is Self and does not need to be forgiven, just as no other entity needs to be forgiven, you see, for forgiveness is a judgement, you see. And have we not emphasized nonjudgement? Now, we will terminate our discussion of this topic now with that little statement ~ Forgiveness is a judgement.

And we will want you to think about that which has been presented. And in your meditations, many of you now will receive some information that will help you in digesting what has been said, as will be the case when others would read the transcript. And there will be much opportunity in the future for elaboration of what we have presented, as well as the answering of questions, for we will not take questions on this topic, for there would be too much confusion, and you would not truly know what it was you needed to know until you have digested and thought about what we have indicated to you.

Waith Comments On Planet Earth's Current Vibrational Adjustments ~ Some Are Able To See

We would now remark briefly on a particular phenomenon that a number of you are experiencing. That is, you are seeing what you might call energy vibrating in that which is called the sky, and it is pulsating. For some of you, you see colors, others of you have seen simply the white energy. What is occurring is that, as we had indicated in our last session with you, that the earth itself is experiencing vibrational adjustments, and as it experiences these adjustments there are certain electromagnetic occurrences that manifest themselves in what you might call energy that can be seen.

And what a number of you have found happening is that your own attunements are changing and you are becoming more attuned to the planet itself, and because of your own attunements, you are now able to see these sparks of energy, and for a number of you, it is a new situation. And thus, you are being given the opportunity to visualize the planet's own changes and it gives you the opportunity to connect. It is also an opportunity to utilize the time that you see this energy to give you extra strength. Call upon it, for it will give you extra positive energy. Well.

Do others outside of the group see it too?

Oh, indeed. Indeed. It is a phenomena that is occurring throughout the Planet Earth, for just as there are groupings here of entities who come into the vibration of the Community of Terra Lux, so too throughout the Planet Earth are many, many, many, many other such groupings. And as there is a more concerted effort by energies to increase their vibration to be in harmony with the planet so that assistance with the coming shift will be given, so too will these sightings of energy be available to many, many entities, you see.

We are ready now to depart, and during our next session we will have an open question session so that you can prepare ahead of time for questions ~ not of a personal nature, though we know how good some of you are at sneaking them in, in the guise of the Universal message. However, we will take questions in our next session with you.

It Is Important To Not Withdraw From The Group, While Feeling Overwhelmed By Situations

We are most pleased to have been able to be with you in the vibration and the sharing of the Light, and we would remind you that as you begin to feel overwhelmed by certain situations, you would be careful about withdrawing from the other members of the community in which you find yourselves a part of, for it is the time that you need the support and the love of the community members more than ever, and by withdrawing, you allow any of the dark that are attempting to pull you away to succeed.

Remember that the purpose of a community of loving entities, regardless of how structured or unstructured that community is, is to provide love and support to each other and to help each other through times that are difficult. It is much too easy to be there in times of good, and ease, and comfort. It is not as easy when you find yourself overwhelmed by a particular issue. This is what community means. This is your way of being a microcosm of The Universal Consciousness, for all energy is One and all energy therefore is connected. Remember this and love and support each other rather than talk among yourselves about another who may be having difficulties. Go to that entity's support and help.

As we depart, focus yourselves now and envision the White Light that is your beauty and love surrounding the Heart Center and feel the warmth of your love within Self. And now, begin to spread this warm love of Self throughout your encasement, filling every spot. And now, begin to visualize it moving out of the encasement and now commingling with the energy of all in the vibration now and surround each other with each other's love and Light, and prepare now to truly Be of Service to The Universal Consciousness. We send now to you all the very Highest of the White Light from the very Highest of the Kingdom of Amelius. Farewell.
