A Discussion From Waith That The Community Has Just Won A Major Battle With Some Of The Dark Forces, Making The Community Stronger And More Cohesive

Well, what a joyous gathering of energies there is in the vibration for this session! We are most pleased. There appears to be a lightening of spirit for many of you. It is the result of the winning of a major battle that has just been fought with some of the dark forces, and the Community of Terra Lux has won. (The group claps)

Yes. Yes, indeed. Courageous and brave warriors that you are. ☺ At that, indeed. It is a major victory and there was much from the dark that came into the Light as a result of it. You see, this is why it is such a major victory. And, of course, the dark is not very happy right now. However, there must not be a sense of complacency, for you know that the dark will continue to strike and try to take back onto their side, but you have such strong resistance, and you are all so resolute in your abilities and your talents and your brightness. And you learn now to call upon each other for assistance when the battle begins. So, you see, you have come quite a distance in your abilities. We at this dimension rejoice, and if we could, we would flap our wings ~ envision that we would, as you would clap your hands in joy, we would flap our wings in joy. Yes, indeed. Yes, indeed.

We understand that there is a member of The Mineral Kingdom to be presented. We will not rebuke you. (See Waith Class Transcript August 14, 1990)

Thank you. I cannot take another week like last week.

Now, our last session was necessary to prepare many of you for the upcoming battle that occurred, you see, in which you all won. If we had not spoken as we did in our last session, those of you who were a part of the battle would not have been able to have achieved the victory as you did, you see. It caught you all off guard now, didn't it?

Present the crystal, my love. (There is a long silence) The energy within the encasement of the crystal is quite vibrant. That which encases the crystal is inappropriate for its energies, and it would be better served without the entwinement that, in essence, suffocates its energies. But, for those of you who participated in its selection as a community crystal, you have done well. And it is now brought into the community vibration and placed with those that now surround ~ and after this entwinement has been removed, it would be appropriate for this crystal to be placed into the mother crystal for rejuvenation. You see, it was not so bad now, was it?

No. Thank you very much, Waith.

(A child approaches Waith with a crystal)

Ah! So, the young entities ~ yes, indeed. This is allowable, however, for this is a crystal, dear one, that is going to assist you and your brother in his healing, and you will help him. You will help to heal him, my love. And this crystal has an energy, and when he returns to you, my dear son, place this into his hand. And the two of you sit in your room together and promise each other to help each other to learn what needs to be learned, and to heal each other in those areas that need healing. We are with you.

Thank you.

Now, we are going to present something different to you. We indicated the battle that had been won. As a result of this, the energy field of Mushiba has been drained quite extensively. And because of this, we are not going to remain in the vibration for much longer, for the energy field needs to be rejuvenated. And understand that Mushiba is exhilarated now from this victory. However, as in all intensity of energy exertion, there needs to be a rejuvenation.

And thus, we are going to suggest a situation to all of you that will give you an opportunity to become more cohesive as a community, for as we have indicated to you in other times, it is Waith and Company who serves the Community of Terra Lux. And you must be cohesive among yourselves and not rely on us to bring you together, but rather, to find the similarities of each other that will bring you together, so that we then can serve you in the way that is most appropriate.

And thus, we would want before we depart to speak with those who are the Inner Circle, and we would need to discuss things with them relating to the battle that has occurred so that they may be of assistance to Mushiba.

And what we would like to see now is that you would, those of you who would want, to gather in the abode of one of the community members, and that you would then depart to that place, and you would gather and discuss what you would want to discuss. Perhaps have a meeting of ideas on what you feel you would want the community to represent, and how you each feel about the community and its representation and its mission, and to have an opportunity to gather without Waith and to gather your ideas together. And thus, we would perhaps remain here to hear who might want to volunteer to move this gathering of entities to your abode so that in doing so we may then work with the energy field of Mushiba to rejuvenate it.

☼ I volunteer ~ my abode.

☼ We would also like to open our home to whoever would like to come over.

Well, then there are two selections, and you could certainly divide up if you wanted to, or you could all go to one, or you could all go to this uh ~ Friendly's?

Friendly's. Yes. ☺

We can go to the other house. I renege my abode.

Wherever the best food happens to be, is this ~ it seems to be the determining factor here.

- ⊗ We could all stop at the store and pick up something to drink, some coffee or something, so they do not have the burden of feeding us all coffee ~
- ⊗ There is plenty. Not to worry.
- ⊗ Or juice, or, you know, whatever.
- ⊗ There is plenty of parking in the plaza across the street.
- ⊗ Those who have been to the tag sale know where we live.

Perhaps a little caravan. Well, now, that was an easy decision that you all made as a group. Let us hope that future decisions as a group are as easy. The beginnings of the crystal selection showed group decision making.

There are a number of you who Mushiba will be contacting shortly, for she will call upon you for assistance in certain situations. We just prepare you for the request from her for spiritual assistance, for a part of what has occurred now is that Mushiba has brought in the Higher Self, and it is the Higher Self that you deal with now with Mushiba. And as a result of that, she brings into the vibration the ability to cleanse spiritually and to heal spiritually, and this will be provided now from her when needed. And she will be able to assist you to bring in your Higher Self for part of the healing process.

We have waited until the final merging occurred, as it has, and now you will have Mushiba's Higher Self who you will be speaking with. It will still appear physically to be the earth plane persona, but you will know by looking in the eyes that it is a higher soul of the entity.

Now, we are most joyed, as you know, and we would want you all now to carry this joy and this happiness with you, and we will be with you as you gather. Receive the blessing. We send to you all the very Highest of the White Light from the very Highest of the Kingdom of Amelius. Farewell and blessings.
