Waith Ends The Year With Open Questions Session ~ Beginning Next Year Will Be Topic Sessions

We are, in this session, opening, shall we say, the floor to questions, for once that which is the New Year begins, we will address very specific topics each session in which we speak with you. And thus, as we end a most important time frame on the earth plane, we would address questions that you would have, many of which will serve as topics for further discussion as we go into that which is the New Year. We would address in the next public gathering that we will have the topic of vibrational color and sound. That will be our first discussion topic for that new year and new vibration on the earth plane. With that now said we will take questions.

A Discussion Of Physical Encasements Adjusting To The New Electromagnetic Field

I would like to ask a question about my mother's health. Her laboratory readings are in an abnormal range. She is under a doctor's care and feeling fine with the help of an acupuncturist. There is confusion from the medical field as to why this is occurring. I would like your comments on this and whether herbs might be an option.

We are not in the practice of responding to personal questions in Public Sessions. However, we have allowed this to be answered for it will serve for public information, that which is the answer. There are issues here that many of you have begun to encounter and will face even more so as time progresses toward The Shift, and that is that the physical encasement and the electromagnetic field that surrounds each encasement on the plane is in a period of adjustment for The Shift, and as the Planet Earth, the physical Earth itself adjusts its vibration to meet The Shift that it will encounter, so too, do each of you have responses to that.

When there are major encasement energy field adjustments, that which is known on the earth plane as science or technology is unable to explain certain phenomena, for all of these instruments are not able to read the body, if you will, correctly because of the energy force that emanates from the electromagnetic field. Such a situation is occurring with the entity of whom you speak. All will settle shortly, for there is simply a very major electromagnetic-field adjustment occurring. The encasement is fine. It is simply that the instruments do not understand what is occurring, and once the adjustment has occurred completely, it will settle in. However, the instruments will, while recording perhaps what is considered normal, it will be relatively normal according to the instruments. As is the case that you already are aware of with the entity, the feeling, if you will, that this entity has is accurate.

So, forget about the chemical treatments that the doctors want to do.

You must be very careful, my dear, in making decisions yourself for another, and you must work with the entity in the decision making process toward this end. The information we have given to you is reflective of an electromagnetic phenomena that affects the physical encasement. There are other underlying issues that continue to need to be addressed with the entity's own lessons to be learned, and therefore this entity, upon hearing of the information we have given, must then make a decision as to the direction to go after hearing the information and must go within Self to make the decision. As is our common discussion throughout our time with you all, one must make decisions and answer your questions from within. It is wise, of course, to receive information from other sources. However, the final answer must be that which feels proper for the entity.

A Question About One's Ability On Earth Plane To Go Within Self For Medical Issues

Supposing a person is seriously ill, and classical medicine will come with classical approaches, where you then would recommend that the person should rather go within Self to seek the answer about whether this approach would be appropriate for them. I think it is difficult for a person to retreat from the classical medicine and try to seek the answer in Self. I can visualize a person is under tremendous pressure and being forced to go with whatever treatments are available. And I feel it is almost impossible for a person who is not familiar with spiritual treatment to really sit back and say, "Wait, I would rather meditate a couple of months and try to seek the answer." Maybe you can comment on this.

Yes, indeed. Understand that many of you gathered here are very aware of your spiritual development and work at a conscious level toward its growth. It does not mean, however, that another entity who appears not to be consciously and most visibly working toward spiritual growth is not aware of their own spiritual growth and is not aware at some level of that which relates to their mission on the plane.

Understand, once again, as we say that each entity is on their own path and at their own point on a particular path, and while it may not seem to you to be feasible that an entity would be able to make decisions regarding the course of action for them as relates to healing or medicine, it is not for you to judge ~ it is not for you to understand, but rather, it may simply be that part of what the entity has come in to learn, or to teach, is to allow certain types of medical procedure to occur in what appears to be imposed upon to the entity for whatever the reasons may be.

It may be for balancing, for example. The entity may be balancing from another lifetime experience in which they may have imposed upon another and now they must undergo the experience of that which they gave to another, or they may be helping another entity to balance in that very area, or they may be here to help entities to learn how to heal, and the only way for an entity to learn how to heal is to attempt healing. And thus, many entities allow themselves to come in and be used, as you might say, guinea pigs.

This is all predetermined by the entity before entry, what they will be doing. While at times the actual way in which it will be done is not known, the fact that certain lessons will be undertaken is all part of the Soul's own destiny as it designs it itself, and thus, it may appear that an entity is helpless, lying, shall we say, in the hospital bed. And while we would say that it would be appropriate for an entity to go within for those answers, you all have the answers already before entry as to what you will, and will not do, and the way in which you respond to those answers comes from the Soul at some level, be it conscious to the world around you at the conscious level or be it not conscious. A matter of simple inability to respond to the external environment in a way that would allow the entity to directly give the answers to their own treatment does not mean that they are not giving the answer, for oftentimes that very appearance of inability to respond is in itself an answer.

It is much more complicated than it appears, as is all, you see, but at the same time of utter simplicity, for if you each allow the fact that all entities are responsible for their own destiny, and that each knows the path it must take, and if you each devoted your energy and time to the development of your own path rather than worry about the path of another, and/or judge the path of another, you would then be equipped to Be of Service to the world around you, for as you strengthen Self and feel confident of your own direction, you are then able to Be of Service when called upon. When The Universe sends out the message that you are needed, you are then able to respond.

The problem develops when there is so much attention given by one entity toward another's path, that when The Universe calls out to you to Be of Service, you do not hear it for you are so concerned about the imposition of judgement upon another that you do not hear the call from The Universe. This is the way of the earth plane, however, you see. This is why all are on the plane, in order to enable you to begin to hear The Universe, to understand the ways in which you will be able to hear The Universe loud and clear.

Waith Talks About Differences In The Holiday Season ~ All-Encompassing Love And Joy

I am very concerned about this community's unwillingness to lift up Jesus of Nazareth during the holiday party. I was wondering if you would comment on that.

There is not, my dear, the elimination of that but rather the encompassing of all that relates to Amelius. Amelius is the entity who leads this particular kingdom of which we are all a part. He is one of the five leaders that head up The Universe, and they each have their own kingdom, you see. Amelius is the energy that encompasses all of those entities who have entered onto the earth plane and formed the great religions of the earth plane, including the ones of which you are all familiar with now. And as we enter into the ending of a particular year on the earth plane, it is a time traditionally for major religions to honor that which is the energy generically known as The Creator. Now, Jesus was one entity that sprung from the Amelius energy form. The founders of Christi ~

Excuse me, Waith, I was wondering if you could tell me what other religions celebrate at the end of the year, as you just said. I have been confused about that, before you go on about Jesus.

Yes, indeed. We are not specifically saying religions that celebrate, but rather, the spirit of the celebration of The Creative Force and that the spirit of celebration at this time at the closing of each year, as a frame of reference for all of you, is peace and love and joy, and that theme comes from all those that are religions, or all that seek a spiritual path.

And we have not indicated that the celebration that Community of Terra Lux will now have will negate that who was Jesus, but rather, we encompass all who would want to have the religion of which they feel very comfortable with to be included as part of the celebration, you see. There is no exclusion. There is no denial, for, you see. The purpose is the seeking of the spirituality, and each entity has its frame of reference from its time of origin on the plane in this incarnation. And some entities will feel very excluded if they are not allowed to bring into the celebration that which is what they consider their heritage.

And thus, the Community of Terra Lux is an open community with no membership requirements, simply that you would come in with that which you believe as your base, and then to expand upon that in your own spiritual growth without the imposition of any dogma that comes from other beliefs, you see. This is not a situation where imposition of beliefs but rather the seeking of one's own truth in harmony with the seekings of truth from other entities.

That means we can sing Christmas carols.

Oh, but of course.

But it presents Christianity. So, we were confused. Perhaps I brought on this confusion.

Well, my love, there are other songs also that can be sung, you see. This is why Limera in her announcements asked for suggestions from others, for many are unfamiliar with the songs, the harmonies, that come from other frames of reference that would be most welcomed as part of the Christmas songs. Ah, there is much to be shared, you see. It is a way of extending out, and bringing in, and therefore making fuller the heritages of all who would want to share. You see, for example, the American Indian is a very, very powerful spiritual heritage, and they have much in the way of vibration through song that can be shared in harmony, and the celebration through song and merriment and laughter. This is the goal, you see, and as is always we are with you in spirit during these celebrations.

The Moon Takes On A Different Appearance ~ It Has Completed Its Cleansing

Has the earth in the past week or so been going through another vibrational change?

Indeed, it has. It is a minor change. There will be a major vibrational shifting occurring beginning in a very short period of time and continuing through that which is the end of the year. You will notice that the ~ that which is called the moon takes on a different appearance now. The moon has completed its cleansing. There are some elements of the planet that have completed its cleansing, and its vibrations are now ready for when the final shift occurs, you see, and the pulling of the forces that come from the moon have aligned themselves with certain elements of the planet that will bring about this next vibrational shift and advancement of vibration of the planet.

Waith Discusses The Blue Aura Of Clouds, And The Air That We Breathe, As Energies

The long skinny clouds that I see, with a small blue aura, is that a special cloud, or is it something that people are seeing as just a cloud?

All clouds are special. They are an energy in and of themselves, and are reflective of energy vibrations of that which is called the air. You see, air as you breathe it, has an energy, and has a life and it creates residuals from it. The color blue is in harmony with healing, the color green in this particular instance, and what you see simply, is a residual of the cleansing that the air is attempting to undergo, and the blue is, shall we say, the sloughing off of certain poisonous elements that were contaminating that particular portion of the air and it reflected itself in the color. This occurs infrequently but will begin to occur more frequently now as the poisonous elements are absorbed by the cleansing effort.

What does the pink hue represent?

That is not related to the cleansing issue of which we have just discussed. It has another application and relates more toward a sound vibration, and indeed, when we begin to elaborate on color vibration and sound this topic will present itself once again.

A Discussion Of The Illusion Of Earth Plane Time ~ All Occurs Simultaneously

Understand that at other dimensions, indeed, there is no time. Where we are, there is no time. It is part of the reason when we are asked specifically for timings, it takes us a bit to do this. We have become much better at it as we practice it from this dimension.

You see, the earth plane is a training ground that encapsulates time. It defines time. It takes that which is definable for movement from one point to another point by showing a definition in concreteness to it. You see, time in and of itself, simply does not exist. It is not there. All occurs simultaneously. However, in order for the parameters of that which is the earth plane to occur and be represented. there must be the time element. And thus, it is only an illusion, you see, time.

For understand, each of you views time differently, and while you may have these clocks and these calendars that tell you that it is a particular time, each of you views the passage of time differently, the usage of time differently. It is used only as a standard by which to measure completeness on the earth plane movement from one point to another. You see, it is an earth plane phenomenon. It is most interesting, you see, that when you are on the plane you think that the world, The Universe, revolves around the world in which you find yourself, and that all must occur as you know it on the plane, movement, for example. Movement is also an illusion, you see. It does not exist. Energy simply is.

And, you know, we have discussed at an elementary level the concept of energy, that each simply is, and we will, of course, discuss it in a more advanced arena as time progresses on the plane. You see, as we use that phrase so often, AS TIME IS MEASURED ON THE PLANE, it is also to help us to keep our perspective as you perceive it on the plane, you see. So, energy does not have form ~ it simply is, you see.

Waith Talks About Levels Of Attainment Within Each Of The Different Kingdoms

In The Animal Kingdom, Do They Have Their Own Form Of Angelics?

Understand that in each of The Kingdoms ~ Animal, Mineral, Vegetable, Human, not necessarily in that order ~ there are levels, and within the structure of The Universe there is order to those levels, and there are, therefore, levels of attainment within each of the kingdoms.

That which is referred to as The Angelics is not of a particular kingdom but rather of the general kingdom, the overall kingdom, and thus it is that The Human Kingdom, for example, does not have a level of Angelics. However, once you have achieved completion within the arena that is designated for The Human Kingdom, you then have eligibility to advance into The Angelic Kingdom. It is in and of itself a kingdom, you see, though accessible to any who would choose it, as is all the kingdoms. You all can go into any of the kingdoms and move through in any way that you would want, though most entities do not choose to go into many kingdoms. They may choose only one or two kingdoms and then move into, if they so choose, The Angelic Kingdom.

Understand that The Angelic Kingdom does not signify special, or elite, or any, is not to be given any type of honor as you might think. We are no different than any of the other entities in any of the other kingdoms. We all have our lessons to learn, our path to follow, and within each kingdom there are very defined types of tasks to accomplish, and so it is in The Angelic Kingdom. We have certain duties assigned to us. We are defenders. We are protectors. We are guides.

So, you see, in The Animal Kingdom, you might find an entity in that kingdom who is gentle, and of what you might call Angelic qualities, and it simply is an indication of a level of attainment that that entity has achieved and that it may indeed be eligible to move into The Angelics, you see. Now, within The Angelics we encompass many entities who have gone through many different training grounds and kingdoms, as well as entities who start out and only are in The Angelic Kingdom. This is also going to be presented, as time progresses, in advanced information. We truly have given elementary information during these four years on the plane.

Can Spirit Guides Ever Reincarnate To The Earth Plane, Or Are They Strictly Up There?

Oh, no, no, no, indeed. Spirit Guides fall under many different categories. Some have completed their sojourn on the earth plane and some have not. Those who have completed their sojourn on the earth plane may indeed now be working in other dimensions, on other training grounds, and able also to devote their learning in Guide School, if you will, and are at perhaps graduate level of Guide School. There are many of the Spirit Guides who have gone into Guide School without having completed yet their sojourn on the earth plane. They may be nearing completion, and they are able to go in as apprentices, shall we say, and they begin doing their work, for they may be, as you would call it, exceptional students and able to go onto college work, shall we say, while still completing courses in high school.

And thus, they will be a guide to you while still having work to do on the earth plane. Additionally, you may find that particular entities who are Spirit Guides have never come on the earth plane, and they have special kinds of missions that they are assigned that relate to issues that you may not be involved in ~ or they may not be involved in at the earth plane, but rather, to assist you in spirit types of situations. Spirit Guides, when they have attained a particular level of Guide School are able to manifest at will on the plane, as many of them do, as many of us from The Angelic Kingdom are able to do and do so often.

Amelius Enters In And Sends His Energy To All In The Room

The energy of Amelius has entered into the greater vibration of all of us of this dimension and prepares now to enter into my vibration, and will then, through me, send an energy to all of you through the energy field of Mushiba and I in combination. It is a very powerful energy, and we will return to give you the parting blessing. In the way that is best for each of you, and as you feel most comfortable, breathe in and prepare to receive the blessing from Amelius, and he will present the total spiritual being of all of us. (A pause while the energy is sent)

You are loved by all. Love all around you. We have been most pleased to Be of Service to you. Call upon us in your meditations. We send to you all the very Highest of the White Light from the very Highest of the Kingdom of Amelius. Farewell.
