Energy And Oneness ~ Energy Simply Is ~ The Universe Is Energy ~ The Universe Simply Is

Our topic for this session is energy, Oneness. We have addressed this topic in other times with you. However, we have a special focus in this session that is now important to be discussed. We would begin with a brief description of energy, for it is very complex, yet very brief and simple to understand. Energy simply is. Energy has no encasement. Energy is simply a lifeform. It exists in every facet of every aspect of that which is concretely referred to as The Universe. The Universe is energy. The Universe simply is.

All is One. Every speck, every encasement, is part of the total Universal Consciousness. We are all One. We all come out of The Universal Consciousness and become separate, yet never losing the very delicate thread that binds us all to each other, to The One. We each are the reflection of each other. We are all equal. All energy is equal regardless of the encasement in which it finds itself.

The differences result from levels of awareness that the energy has. It has, however, nothing to do with superiority. This is a misconception among all who encase, for encasements take on every aspect around you on the earth plane, and spirit itself is an encasement. We are encased in The Angelic Force. All, except being in The Universal Consciousness, are encased. For simplicity's sake and your understanding, The Universal Consciousness is an encasement.

Energy simply is. It is all powerful which means that each of you are empowered with the same degree of power as the other. No energy has more power than another energy. It is simply a difference in the ability to use that which has been given to each energy, and it is a part of coming out of The Universal Consciousness into concrete forms, lessons to be learned, and paths to be followed, that the issues of who might have a better use of their power than another comes about, and it is the abuse and the spiritual use of power that accounts for the balancing that must occur for the equilibrium and the ultimate return to the empowerment that each has received.

(There is a loud motor sound coming from outside) We are aware of earth plane disturbances. If you could envision a disruption in the flow of energy from other energy, we are more sensitized now to this on the plane than in the past, as we have adjusted our own vibrations.

The Energy Known As The Planet Earth

We discuss in this time with you now the subject of the energy known as the Planet Earth, for this is part of the mission that so many of you find yourselves here to work with, to help the energy of the planet to return to an equilibrium. And all who are a part of the planet currently incarnated now are responsible for in some way assisting the planet to return to its equilibrium. Some incarnated will take a stronger role and take on greater responsibility than another. However, all who are on the plane now have in some way a responsibility.

It is simply energy that is connecting with energy, and there needs to be an understanding in its simplest form that each of us are connected to the other, and we therefore have the responsibility, regardless of whether we would want to take this or not. It is simply a given. Since we are all part of each other, we have the responsibility to each other regardless of whether you are encased in The Human Kingdom or whether you are encased in Animal, Mineral, Vegetable, and any other kingdoms ~ The Air, The Water. All the elements are each encased.

You sit now with each other on energy that is encased which sits on energy which is encased, which sits on energy which encased, and so forth, for it permeates throughout the entire energy field of that which is called the earth, and goes to the very core of the earth, and spreads itself out. The energy of the earth begins at its core and permeates throughout, each having an encasement that encases upon another that moves upon another. Each of The Energy Kingdoms on the planet Earth are equal. They are equal in their empowerment. They are equal in their power alone.

There Is No Energy In Any Kingdom Better Than Another

Because you are of The Human Kingdom now does not make you superior. No kingdom is superior over another. This is a very common misconception, not just on the earth plane but even in spirit, for as the lessons are learned and the enlightenments increase and the awarenesses become greater of The One, it becomes clearer that there is no energy in any kingdom better than another.

There Is No Order To Entry Into Kingdoms ~ There Is No Lower Order ~ There Is Simply Order

It is a most humbling fact for many energies, especially in particular kingdoms, and as we have indicated before, there is no order to that entry into kingdoms that one would take, that one would be a plant, and when you finish with that kingdom you would move into animal, and when you finish with that, you would move into human, or mineral, or whatever. There is no higher order. There is no lower order. There is simply order within the kingdom.

And thus, The Human Kingdom has as part of its learning scenario set-up to have certain awarenesses blocked of its equality with other kingdoms. And thus, it is set up that energies coming into The Human Kingdom initially think that they are superior to all other energies and that indeed only they of The Human Kingdom have the ability to think, to what-you-would-say make decisions, to have an indication of what has been and what will be, as well as what is in the present.

This is purposely given out for The Human Kingdom, this sense of superiority. The humbling fact, however, is that a blade of grass, a grain of sand, a drop of water, the carpet on which you find yourselves now, all have the same abilities. It is just not as you know it, for all energy has as its prime directive to Be of Service. Now, how that service takes its form is not known totally to you, my dear ones. It is known totally only by The Universal Consciousness, total awareness. And any of us outside of The Universal Consciousness do not have that total, complete awareness.

You said that all kingdoms are equal in energy, so when we incarnate, do we start at one kingdom and progress to another, or do we incarnate into the others as we choose?

There is no order in which one must move from kingdom to kingdom. There can be, for example, the decision made by an energy form to work only within one kingdom, and one kingdom alone, and then return to The One. Others may decide after they have done one or two kingdoms that they want to do more. What occurs is simply this ~ upon coming out of The One an energy decides to go into a kingdom. Once entry into that kingdom has been achieved, incarnation occurs only within that kingdom until the time of completion of the lessons that that particular kingdom has to offer has been completed. At that point, the energy moves out of the kingdom and has the decision to either go into another kingdom to reflect and decide whether they want to go back into The One, or to simply move about and in spirit for a while until a definite decision, if you will, has been made.

Now. There is no order. There is no kingdom that is a progression of the other. This is a most difficult concept for those of The Human Kingdom, encased in The Human Kingdom, to understand, for it has been a part of the programming that has led many to believe, in The Human Kingdom, that they are highly evolved from another species. This is not correct in the way it is viewed on the plane currently, which is about to change.

This is part of our reason for being here during this time frame, to begin to present new understandings of awarenesses that will present themselves in The New Illusion ~ difficult to understand by many ~ at this point in their path. It is easier to understand as time progresses. However, it simply means that one kingdom has its own set of lessons to be learned, and another kingdom has its own set of lessons to be learned, and all kingdoms, however, are to Be of Service to each other, regardless of what their mission as a kingdom might be.

There are some, for example, who have chosen to incarnate into The Human Kingdom, and when they have finished with The Human Kingdom, upon reflection, decide that they would like to see what it would be like to become part of The Animal Kingdom or The Mineral Kingdom. And thus, energy, the energy that is the essence of that which you would call yourself, has the freedom to move from kingdom to kingdom without any designation as to one being superior over another.

It is simply that once you go into a kingdom there is an order of progression through that kingdom. However, you are not able to, while still in The Human Kingdom ~ let us say, this incarnation you are human, and then you decide you want to be a butterfly in the next lifetime, and you go into a butterfly encasement. That is not possible. You must have completed all the assignments that you take on for a particular kingdom before moving into another.

Relating Most Directly To The Planet Itself, It Is Time For A Shaking Up Of Awarenesses

Now. The time has come in this game we call The Universe, and the earth plane, for a shaking up of awarenesses. It happens periodically on the earth plane, and it relates most directly to the planet itself, for at the time of each illusion change, the planet undergoes very strong vibrational changes. It simply changes in its vibration. There are times when it increases in its vibration, and times when it moves into another realm of its vibration. For your purposes of knowledge for now, you simply need to know that it increases in its vibration and that in order for this increase to occur, there must be tremendous amounts of effort being given by The Human Kingdom toward this movement forward for the vibration of the planet.

The planet calls out now. It has been a most beautiful energy and has served well and has served the selfishness that is inherent in The Human Kingdom toward the earth. This is a part of the scenario of The Human Kingdom, and it is an agreement that is made with the earth's energy. The earth will maintain The Human Kingdom because of the very specific lessons that need to be learned by The Human Kingdom and the energies who would incarnate into The Human Kingdom for very specific lessons. Not all energy comes in to The Human Kingdom. Understand that.

It Is Time For Specific Activities At Spiritual And Physical Levels To Work With The Planet

Now. It is time for very specific activities, both at a spiritual and at a physical level, to work with the planet, and those who would read this information in the future would know that the prime directive from The Universal Consciousness has now been put in place. It has been awaiting a certain condition, and the planet has given its vibration now and has activated that which requires the call to The Human Kingdom. Some of you have begun to feel the call. Some of you will now hear the call, and it will be very strong for some. There will be an indication of tremendous need to do something for the earth. It will not be done with great flourish and magnitude. It will be done by individual entities, and it will be done by groups of energies who will have periodic vibrational gatherings in which there will be energy sent to focal points.

The geographic area in which Terra Lux has been founded is one of the twelve energy points for The New Illusion. It now has begun receiving the transference of energy from one of the other twelve of the pyramids that will soon, with the illusion coming, dissolve and give the new energy to the new structures. It is in this vibrational area that there will be periodically presented energy attunements for the planet.

Terra Lux means earth light, and Terra Lux is charged with the responsibility of helping the small groups of The Human Kingdom who would seek to help the earth during these final times of cleansing. It will entail something as simple as taking portions of the earth, and its various kingdoms, such as dirt and grass and weeds and rocks and water, and in combination, sending it energy that will then permeate throughout the Vibrational Zone that is the Terra Lux responsibility, which will then connect with the other eleven zones designated on the planet, so that the entire planet then will now begin to receive energy to aid in its own vibrational balancing.

The Human Kingdom Is A Guest On The Planet

A part of the result of this will be what you have begun to see already, and as best referred to as a regurgitation. You will see the waters giving back that which has been put into it for millennia. You will see the earth giving back that which has been put into it that has been man, woman, child made, human made, but all a part of the scheme of what must be, my loved ones. It is all part of what must be, lessons to be learned by all energies, the earth, and all those that the earth allows to be a part of its energy. For first and foremost, my loved ones, remember this, The Human Kingdom is a guest on the planet.

The earth plane is made up of the planet Earth as well as many other dimensions which we will begin to give you information about as time goes on. The planet Earth has invited The Human Kingdom into its own vibration and its own energy field. It is time now for the guest to pay back and to be a friend to the planet. It is time now for this to happen.

In Giving Back To The Earth, Are You Speaking Of Negative Things That Have Been Done?

You said that it is time now for man, woman and child to pay back what they have given or taken from the earth. Are you speaking of negative things that have been done to the earth?

It is in both arenas, my love. There has been much of a positive nature. The emphasis, however, at this time is in the soothing of that which has been taken. Taken, not worked with, but simply taken, and that is where the balancing occurs. And the awarenesses will change now, and there will be a remembering of the source of all energy, and that the planet itself has given and given, and The Human Kingdom now will begin to remember what it is like to give also to the planet. There are very specific groups on the plane now who have the awareness of how to give to the planet. They will share this with others. It is all part of the scenario set up.

I have heard it said by some people that the earth is like an organism, and the human people are a cancer and that it has caused a lot of the destruction of the earth, and I was wondering if you could comment on that.

As it is best portrayed in the current technology of the medical field on the earth plane, that is a most accurate analogy, though it is a bit harsh to refer to one particular kingdom in such a strong and sometimes apparently negative way. It is accurate to envision that The Human Kingdom has created a disease in that which is the planet, and that it is time now for this cleansing to occur, and that The New Illusion presents itself. Each time the illusions change, you will find these conditions on the planet, that there is a state of disequilibrium.

Do the planets operate autonomous from the whole? Do we operate autonomous from the whole?

There is no such thing as operating autonomous from the whole. All works in harmony. It is an impossibility to be separate from the whole. Even though there would be separate encasements, all energy is bound with what can best be described as thin threads.

I would think that the human decision to act as more of a disease for the planet would be more of an autonomous one than a harmonious one, a selfish one, than one looking at harmony.

Understand that because of the lessons that the whole seeks to learn, it is imperative that there be disharmony, and that disharmony does not mean that it is working against Self. It is simply that the entire energy, the whole, in coming into its own form in order to learn concrete lessons, and not simply to be, but to become, must be out of balance, for then there would be nothing to do, you see.

Then fulfillment does not mean the absence of struggle, but the presence of love.

That is correct.

You mentioned that the earth would regurgitate poisons. Is that what you mean?

Yes.

We in Connecticut are facing problems with the disposal of nuclear waste, which is the most poisonous of all earth's substances. If the earth is going to regurgitate and cause a cleansing, is some supernatural occurrence going to diffuse this energy? What can we expect will happen? Will it float up in the air and diffuse and we don't have to worry about it?

We could answer yes to each of the questions posed in that sentence. There is much that goes on here that ~ it is not the total responsibility of The Human Kingdom for the balancing of the planet. It is the responsibility of all of the various kingdoms on the planet, as well as The Protector energies from The Angelics. There will be a significant occurrence soon in relation to that which you speak that will highlight the, what you can best call, synchronicity of the various kingdoms toward a particular cleansing.

There is much that The Human Kingdom does not know about energy, and a part of that relates to the electromagnetic field that surrounds each energy form, not just in The Human Kingdom, but in the plant and the air and the water, and it is in combination with various spheres, is the best way that can be described, of energy that will help in the dissolution and the diffusion of certain toxins. Understand that the earth has also working with it that which we have referred to as the Underground Communities. These are the energies that help prepare the shelters, for example, around the planet, as well as other tasks. They will work in harmony with the prime directive that we spoke of earlier.

There will be significant change that will occur in a geographic sense as a result of what you would call leaking of these toxins. However, it is not going to be in the devastating manner in which your frame of reference, given the earth plane's knowledge of technology at this time, limited as it is, would then give it credence to the consequences of that leakage. It will not be as devastating. And yes, you could say that there would be some supernatural forces intervening. You see, I have tried to overcome what you just said, my son, by giving a very long and detailed explanation of what is actually a yes to one of your long questions. 😊

What Is Meant By The Biblical Statement That Man Is Given Dominion Over The Earth?

You must understand that much information that came through at points in time on the earth plane were meant for certain behaviors to be implemented, and that the information has been interpreted by The Human Kingdom and not interpreted correctly. Thus, there is the attitude that The Human Kingdom has dominion, and that indeed the male gender has dominion. And its statement that God is a man is all part of that which is to be dissolved in the new awarenesses. The only dominion that occurs over another is Self over Self. That is all. No other energy has dominion, as it is defined on the plane, over another. The Universal Consciousness is all of us. It is not held in dominion over anyone. If it were, then it would simply be an indication that we are in dominion over ourselves.

Doesn't it also refer to service rather than superiority?

Yes, of course, for by being ~ by having the understanding that all are One, then if you would indeed want to grow yourself and improve and strengthen, then it is only natural, then, that you would Be of Service to Others, for Being of Service to Others means you are of Service to Self, and when you are of Service to Self, you grow. And when you grow, you are of Service to Self and to Others.

A Question About The Mysterious Large Circles In Fields In England

The energy that is making all those circles, can you comment on that? It is obviously a highly intelligent energy.

All energy is intelligent. Remember this, my loved ones. All energy is intelligent. There is no ignorant energy, just simply not able to be.

The circles are a manifestation from The Underground Kingdom. That is why they are not able to be detected, you see, being made, for they are made from The Underground. And those of the energy field in The Underground, you see, are building certain structures underground, and these are the roofs, if you will. The best way to describe it. And it is always interesting to watch technology of The Human Kingdom fluttering about attempting to make sense out of something that is obviously not of their understanding, and rather than trying to break through the barriers of their own understanding and say, "This is something that is not of our understanding and yet it is occurring. We would need to look in a different way at this."

They attempt to solve the problem in the old ways, in the ways in which they are accustomed to solving problems. And it is only in the opening up of the energy fields of awareness, that many of the situations currently, and about to be presented on the plane, will be understood. And it is all right if it is not understood, for the structures serve a purpose, and this is one of the vibrational attunement points on the planet. As time progresses on the plane, there will be similar types of phenomena occurring at the other vibrational focus points, not in the same configuration as you have just described, my love, but unexplainable.

Will there be some in this area?

This is one of those areas. So, yes.

What Is The New Illusion That You Spoke Of?

The New Illusion is simply a new vibration that brings about a change in the concreteness that you have become familiar with, the structures of which you have become familiar with, the tools that you have become familiar with in the working through of lessons on the earth plane. It can best be thought of as ~ the last illusion was that of Atlantis in which there were abilities and technologies, and essentially, what you would call artifacts and other tools of the illusion that were used to help work through lessons. When it was time for that illusion to end and a new one to begin, there was a cleansing. This is what occurs now with The Shifting of the axis about to occur on the plane. All that you know now will change. There will be a new set of blocks given to you to play with.

Would it be like we are merging, integrating, levels of our Higher Self with our conscious Self?
Would the earth, the planet itself, the energy is merging with another level of itself?

That is correct.

Can You Give Us An Update On How Far Away We Are From The Pole Shift?

As it is ~ it is most difficult to give specifics of time from this dimension. However, in all of the workings, and the cooperativeness of all of us who in some way or another speak from this dimension into the dimension of the earth plane, it is best estimated of eight to twelve earth plane years. We do not want to be held to that. It is not just us. It is all who speak through and give this information. But there has been, from our own abilities to plot time, and that is nefarious at best of time, we would say to look at no later than what you would say fifteen years' time. By that The Shifting will have occurred. Yes.

It will be a much happier group of entities after The Shifting has occurred. It is much like having a headache now. ☺ This is how you can best think of it. It is a dull ache that you would feel, and that gradually, you take cautions. You do things to help get rid of the headache, and this flu that you might have, and your body will reject certain things, and it will take in other types of medications. It is a slow process of healing, and that eventually, there is a final vibrational moment in which it is all gone. But it takes time for it to work its way through the system, and this is what occurs now. The Shifting will mean that the flu is over.

I Have Heard That The Earth Will Be Less Hospitable After The Shift. Is That True?

It would depend on your definition of hospitable. There will be a time of settling in that will occur for a brief time after The Shifting. There will be a time of rebuilding certain aspects. There will be, however, upon return from the shelters, wherever they may be, a different illusion, one that is not what you saw going into the shelters. The vibrations remaining on the plane will be of a vibrational attunement. It is the only time on the earth plane, the beginning of a new illusion, where there is as close to total and perfect harmony as can occur.

It very quickly starts moving towards disharmony, but this is the way of the plane. This is what the earth plane is all about. It is specifically designed ~ it is a school of disharmony. This is simply the way it is, and it is when, you know, much like going into a new grade, and the first day of school the teacher is very nice and sometimes gives you a false sense of security, thinking that "Oh, this isn't going to be all that bad after all. It will not be as hard to learn this language as I thought it would be ~ or to learn this new body of knowledge."

And then you begin to see the complexities of it, and you understand, then, that it is far more difficult, and that is when the imbalances begin to work themselves through. And any of the issues that you had left unbalanced before the illusion do not go away. They simply come back in new form. So, if you left the old illusion and you had to balance with a spouse, for example, the spouse may go away but the issue will not. ☺ The spouse will return at some point in The New Illusion in some form or another, or any others in terms of balancing.

So, all that we have discussed of having to return time after time to balance is done within the context of various illusions, and it just becomes, shall we say, boring after a while, you know, to have the same illusion. And so, we change the illusion. For all, all energies, it is time to start having new encasements to look at. It would be a bit different than now, and just new ways of dealing with the same issues. The issues of the human superiority will remain. They will have smoothed themselves out a bit at the beginning of the illusion, but by the time of the end of the next illusion it will be the same thing.

How much of the old illusion is retained in the memory banks of The New Illusion?

Oh, in the Soul memory, all. In the conscious memory, it will be dependent upon numbers of circumstances and situations. For all going into The New Illusion they will have some memory, but this will be discussed at times coming. We will have a time in which we speak of The New Illusion in greater detail as it is time. The important thing to remember about The New Illusion and energy is that the energy is not disconnected at all from one illusion to the other, and that The New Illusion now is being prepared for by significant numbers of entities on the plane within their own energy fields and that very specific energy focusing will now begin that will serve as points of entry into the significant energy fields of the earth that will help in its cleansing and its vibrational changing.

We are preparing to depart, and as we begin the preparations we would ask you all now to focus your energies upon that which is the Heart Center, and draw into the Heart Center that which is your own energy, and feel the protective White Light that surrounds the Energy Center and surrounds that which is your energy. And begin to feel this energy slowly moving throughout the encasement, slowly, slowly moving through the encasement and filling all of the encasement.

Slowly now, bring this energy out of the encasement and into the focus of the group gathered, and feel the merging of Self with all the others in the gathering and imagine The Oneness that this creates and the strength of The One. And take this One energy now and disperse it into the electromagnetic field of the planet giving the planet your love from the heart, Unconditional Love. (There is a pause) The planet receives the Unconditional Love. The planet thanks you. And we give to you all the very Highest of the White Light from the very Highest of the Kingdom of Amelius. Farewell.
