Waith Session Held At The National Guild Of Hypnotist's Convention In Nashua, NH

Mushiba: Before I bring Waith in, I would just like to briefly indicate to you what is going to happen. Five years ago Waith, and that is spelled W-a-i-t-h, began to speak through me. There are six others that make up this phenomenon called Waith and Company. Waith speaks very frequently at our community house in Enfield, Connecticut. We have compiled over the last five years a good amount of material, some of which is in the back of the room free of charge for any of you to take and peruse.

What will happen now is that I will go into an altered state, and for a short, very short, period of time, I will be interchanging with his energy and he will come in, and when he comes in, he will do certain kinds of movements with my hands. When he has settled in, my eyes will open and he will be connecting with your energies, and he will then take control of the session. I will not be around. And he will indicate at that point what direction he is going to take and the process for the session.

(Sol is a hypnotherapist attending the convention and is helping on stage with the Waith Session)

Sol: Are you going to keep the microphone?

Mushiba: We will put it so that people can hear, because he speaks through my vocal cords, and if you are not able to hear me without the mic then you will not be able to hear him.

Sol: Then I could stay here and hold the mic.

Mushiba: Ah, you could do that.

Sol: Okay. Those of you that are in this work, send the Light up here, okay? And around yourselves. Like you are in a cocoon of White Light.

Mushiba: As he comes in the Light comes in with him.

Sol: Okay.

Mushiba: Bye! (Waith enters)

Waith: The blessings to all of you. We are most pleased and honored to be in such a vibration of beauty and love and high energy, and we would like most to speak in an area of interest that this beautiful gathering has. Our particular style is to present some basic information, at which time we would then open the discussion, for we prefer to have dialogue rather than monologue. And thus, we will very soon indicate when we would want questions to come, and please, my dear loved ones, do not hesitate to ask questions. We know that this gathering has an unusually large percentage of strength and lack of fear in asking questions. Thus, we are most enthusiastic with the dialogue that will present itself.

We speak from a very high level. We are of the Angelic. I am what is referred to on the earth plane as an Archangel. That is the frame of reference. We, however, do not go by titles here. We simply are, and we have our responsibilities. I have access to high levels of information. This is where you will hear, then, the references to certain information that you may, or may not, have already had reference to, either at your conscious level now or in your meditations.

Topic Of Session ~ Levels Of Consciousness, Altered States

We chose this topic of Levels of Consciousness, or as you might refer to it, altered states, to provide for you tools in your own work. We are here to disseminate information as the cleansing of the planet and The New Illusion that is about to present itself moves toward its goal. We are most concerned, therefore, in disseminating out the information that is needed for all energies of beauty and Light to work with, for you are charged with the responsibilities of helping those along their path, to help to vibrationally attune entities as the cleansing moves toward its completion and The New Illusion presents itself. You all work in this area now in one way or another.

The levels of consciousness are many. Yes? Yes. Yes. Illusion, as you come to know it, is a level of consciousness, and as you now find yourselves in this particular room, you are at a point of consciousness. You are in a reality in which you must operate with the tools that have been presented to you for that particular level of consciousness. Each level of consciousness, therefore, presents its own set of tools appropriate to that level, and as you move from one level into another, it becomes the learning experience to recognize first the tools and secondly to then utilize the tools.

All energy works within layers and layers and layers of consciousness. Some layers are so very close to the other that they overlap. Other layers are further away, thus, requiring a journey into with very specific tools. The layers of consciousness, wherever they are, are available to each energy on their own. Each of us has the ability to move within the levels of consciousness that are a part of our soul, our own energy. The learning experiences, however, that are required of all energies, means that one must, in learning the tools, seek assistance from those who have already learned the tools, to help them along their path. Thus, each of you gathered are helpers along the path, as you also are helped along your path into levels of consciousness. You do not need to have the phenomenon that you experience now of my energy speaking through another. You would be able to contact my energy directly through your own travels within the levels of consciousness, but this is the learning experience.

On The Earth Plane Is An Electromagnetic Field That Encompasses Approximately Ten Levels Of Consciousness

Think of the levels of consciousness as waves of energy surrounding your energy. On that which is called the earth plane, is an electromagnetic field that encompasses approximately ten levels of consciousness, if we were to put a particular number to it. This means that within those levels of consciousness there is contained the appropriate soul information that is necessary for your incarnation on this particular plane for this particular time.

Many of you have heard of the Soul memories, and that it is appropriate that that which is needed in the incarnation is contained in the levels of consciousness, and that which is not remains in the Soul, and as it is needed, the Soul brings into the levels of consciousness the appropriate information. As you work through your path in the incarnation, information from the Soul filters in through the higher consciousness and into, then, the levels of consciousness appropriate for the earth plane. We make this distinction.

The Higher Self Is The Top Level Of The Ten Levels On Consciousness ~ The Key To The Soul

Now. In order to open the Soul, one must be able to connect with that which is referred to as the Higher Self. The Higher Self, for application on the earth plane, is that top level of these ten of which we have referred. It is the level that is the key to the Soul, and it is that level to which each would strive in their incarnation to reach, so that upon the reaching of the Higher Self, it is an indication of the growth that has occurred, and the ability to use the tools within each level of consciousness, and that the tools and all the information that is in those ten layers of consciousness now are in a working order, and you are now able to begin pulling out of the Soul additional information for additional growth.

The Tool Of Regression Is A Way Through These Levels Of Consciousness

However, as you all know, this is not an easy task, and when you yourself try to work through your levels of consciousness, you can become what you would call bogged down, trapped within your own limitations of movement through your own knowledge, and it is at that point that you would perhaps seek out another who would be able to connect and help you to move through these levels. That which is called regression is a way through these levels of consciousness, and when blockages occur, that which is regression is a way in which the flood gates can be opened, and once that has occurred the entity is then able to continue working through the levels so as to reach the higher consciousness. This is appropriate for the earth plane sojourn.

Once an energy leaves the earth plane in the incarnation, it moves into other levels of consciousness. There are infinite levels of consciousness, all moving back toward The Universal Consciousness, The One, The Whole, of which we are all part of. And thus, knowing that we are all part of The Whole, The One, The Circle, it then means that your levels of consciousness overlap with the levels of consciousness of all. We are all connected, and that what one of us does affects the other, and it is in that understanding that an energy is to Be of Service to another to help in the growth and to help in the ability to expand the levels, to expand the awarenesses.

All energy has the ability to move out of a particular training ground into a spirit world while still encased in a particular lifetime. For example, you are in your life on the earth plane now, and you are able, many of you, to go beyond, to transcend the Higher Self through your meditations, through your own abilities. Many are able to do that which we do, and that is to bring in other energy forms, be it as we. or of the Higher Self. And when you do this, you see, you move out of the energy field that surrounds you within the earth plane and you move into other levels of consciousness.

If you work with this knowledge that you have, the ability to go into higher levels of consciousness, when you are in that level you seek out the tools, you call upon your Spirit Guides, you call upon all the Light that surrounds you, and you work with the tools, and you then bring that information back into the conscious level of the earth plane in which you find yourselves now, to Be of Service, to help those along the way who struggle. It comes from Self, the ability to work with the tools, to recognize the tools, or to call upon those of higher energies charged with the responsibility to help, if you only ask. It is a simple situation of asking for help, and it will be given to you.

We are, therefore, here to Be of Service and to answer questions and to help, for we would anticipate specific questions, and we are now prepared to respond.

What Can Be Learned From The Past, And How Can We Rectify The Mistakes?

To learn from the past is critical, as you know, and how you learn from the past is by accepting, first and foremost, that what has been has been, and that you must look at what has been as a signal to what will be, that you must, first and foremost, forgive Self. if there is something from the past that disturbs you. The purpose for knowing where you have been is to help in the growth for where you will go.

Now. In a particular lifetime. it is appropriate that you work with specific issues that relate to the past, for if you were to attempt to deal with the issues that have been in many other lifetimes all at the same time, it would not be possible. And thus, you must then segment that which comes from the past into that which you will work with now to grow for other times. Think of it much as the turning of a page in a book. You are on a particular chapter, and that is your lifetime now, and you move from information in another chapter, and you work with that specifically, and you concentrate on an issue, so that you would look at the past as issues that must be worked on for now, that will help you for the future.

There are situations in which you will find in this lifetime, you have only a small portion from the past to work through, to deal with, and once that is done you then put it away, and when you have put it away, that is a signal from the Soul that it will now present you with something else to work on, and from the past, then, will come an issue. You do not have to look for an issue, for surely it will come your way! 😊

Why Are We At One Level And You, The Archangel, At Another Level?

What would there be in the physical form to learn transformation, where upon the earth, there are more limitless ways to have greater access to this information? And, why are we at this level and you are already at that level?

The Universe and The Universal Consciousness is an encasement for energy. Energy simply is. Now, it gets rather boring simply being, and thus, energy requires to become. And thus, it was decided that The Universal Consciousness would be formed so that we would have something to do. Really, as simple as it is. Now. We have, then, things to do, and energy moves in and out of The Universal Consciousness doing things, playing. We really refer to it as playing. And it is determined by all, you see. All energy is connected. It was determined, this Universal Consciousness, that we would have issues and we would have things to do and that we would form training grounds. The earth plane is a training ground. It is one of the most difficult and accelerated of the training grounds.

The Earth Plane Is A Level Of Consciousness Within The Universal Consciousness

Now. All of the training grounds, and there are just thousands and thousands of training grounds, exist in various levels of consciousness. The earth plane is a level of consciousness within The Universal Consciousness. Now. When all energy is in school, and this is how it is referred to, and that is a spirit type of situation, certain lessons are learned in spirit.

You know, it is the concepts that are learned. And then, we send you into the field. We say, "Now. It is time to determine if you learned your lesson in its application." And thus, we take on encasements, and we refer to kingdoms such as The Human Kingdom, and The Animal Kingdom, and The Mineral, and The Air, and The Angelic Kingdom, and all different kingdoms. Everyone has a choice as to where they want to go. There is no mandate. There is no head person who says, "You go here and you go there." It is simply that you make the choice yourself.

So, the earth plane, then, is considered. within the school, the place to go if you really want to learn your lessons. It is the most accelerated. This is where you can really, in a short period of time as measured on the plane, learn a lesson, and then go back into spirit, evaluate it, and determine what you are going to do next. Now. Once you have completed a particular journey, let us say, the earth plane, you then have the decision to return to The Universal Consciousness or go into another kingdom, learn some more things, become an Angel ~ you can be anything, you see.

However, understand that, random as it might appear to be, it is very ordered. The Universal Consciousness indicates, then, that there will be order in the way of the illusions, and the way of the tools being presented, and thus, it presents an order of, as best as can be described, organization within The Universal Consciousness so as to aid all of the entities who want to go about and do what they want to do without organization. But there must be organization in order for you to be able to go about doing things without organization, and thus, we are a part of the higher order of organization.

Why Did You Choose Cheri To Come Through?

There are many reasons that relate to the spiritual path of Mushiba that would not allow us to give out specific information. However, understand that Mushiba has worked with us for untold millennia, and is in a training mode for certain levels of organization. And thus, we work together in this time of dissemination of information for the cleansing. And her spiritual mission is most defined and she is not hesitant at all to speak of her role in the spiritual mission. She works with us because of the strength of energy.

What Will Happen To The Earth In A Hundred Years From Now?

That which is referred to as time on the plane, one hundred years, will be in The New Illusion, and it will be at the developmental stages of The New Illusion, and we have begun to give out certain information as relates to The New Illusion. If ~ and we would prefer that you would read that which we have given out. It is available for you. It has been prepared and it is ready for dissemination. There is much that will occur, but it is really just the very beginning stages of settling in from the cleansing and moving into The New Illusion. It will be a time of relative peace and recovery from the knowledge that is brought in from the old illusion that remains into the new, and the settling in of that which will be in The New Illusion.

Will The Healing Profession Of Hypnotherapists Be More Accepted In The Future?

We are hypnotherapists and are comparatively a new phenomenon in the world of healing that is old as man. Where are we going in the future? Are we going to be accepted? Because we have tremendous pressure put upon us.

Oh, but indeed, and it is the reason why you find yourselves now at this point in the changeover from the current illusion into an illusion that will have as a mode healing that is far different than this current illusion. The acceptance that you find beginning to grow will move slowly, for remember, The New Illusion is upon us. It comes, as the cleansing will be completed in a very short time frame on the planet. So you do not have long to wait.

What Level Are You, And How Many Levels Are There?

We are always interested in responding to levels, for ~ it is not really levels that we speak of, but rather, it is simply waves of vibration that have abilities to attune to The Universal Consciousness, and that we are at a point that is very close to The Universal Consciousness, thus, having an access. We work very closely with Amelius who is considered the one in charge of, if this a word that is appropriate, for this particular kingdom. There are ~ The Universal Consciousness breaks itself into five kingdoms simply for order. Each kingdom is no different than the other. It is simply, perhaps, having five different departments within the same company, you know, and each works with their issues and their situations. We are the assistant, if you will, to Amelius. So, we are at, if you say levels, very, very high. There are several waves of vibration that are beyond us, but we are very close.

Can You Explain What Star Child Is And What Is Their Purpose?

We search out the earth plane reference to Star Child so that ~ many words and definitions are used within the language of the plane, that we make certain that we give the same frame of reference. As we understand from our connection with your energy, Star Child is a being from what is referred to as another planet. And understand that this is simply another training ground other than the earth plane, and it is on occasion that there is information that is needed on a training ground that comes from entities incarnated on another training ground. And there is an interaction with entities from different training grounds.

The abilities for all to move out of body, if you will, into another training ground are available, if you so choose to work on that talent. There is, however, no such thing from our perspective, our point, that which you call aliens, or UFOs as it is so often referred to, for all energy has incarnated on these various training grounds, and therefore, for you to refer to an energy coming from another training ground as an alien, you levy that upon yourself for you have done such also in other times.

Are Children Incarnating In More Advanced States During This Time?

Children incarnating on our planet today seem to be very brilliant. Are they incarnating to bring in the new dispensation?

There are a number of entities currently incarnating who come from advanced awarenesses, and they are specifically coming in, either as children, or as walk-ins, as it is referred to, to help in the vibrational changes.

Our purpose on the earth plane is to grow, to reach higher states of consciousness and not have to come back to this plane but to increase our potential through other dimensions.

That is correct. Part of the purpose of the earth plane is as an accelerated training ground. Thus, coming on and getting it over with.

Is There A Better, More Complete, Planetary System For Us To Study?

Understand that the earth plane is made up of far more than simply Planet Earth. It is made up of that which you call the planetary system. There are other training grounds that have similar types of setups, planets and all, as you would call a system, and each is appropriate to its mission of learning. And this is simply one of the many planetary systems, many of which are not known, of course, to any of you, for it is not necessary for you to know it at this time.

Can Tell Us What Will Help Us Right Now To Be More Loving And Open?

The most important and the only way in which that can happen is if you love Self first and foremost. If you are strong within Self, you then begin to give out that love of Self to others. and then you become more and more forgiving, for as you forgive Self, it becomes easier to forgive others. As you let go of issues that you work on, and you learn your lessons, you become more loving of Self. This is achieved through meditation. This is achieved by working with others of the Light who have achieved a certain awareness. They can Be of Service to you to help you to unblock your own feelings of insecurities and fears. It all comes from within. You know this. All answers come from within. There is no magic formula that we would give to you here that says if you do this and this, this will happen, and all will be wonderful. It does not happen that way. The earth plane is for the development of Self-love.

A Question About Archangels And Their Affiliation With Any Of The Organized Religions

What about the established churches that ~ you are an Archangel. Do you go with Catholicism? Do you go with Judaism?

An appropriate question, for we have given this term Archangel only as a frame of reference for understanding that ~ on the earth plane now, there is an acceptance of all who believe in higher beings of that which is referred to as angels. We have put on the record a number of times our position where organized religion is concerned, and if you would want to have that information you could see one of the members of the Community of Terra Lux who have journeyed here with Mushiba, and Limeria would assist you in having that information, for we do not align ourselves with any, as you would say, organized religion. We speak of higher truths.

A Question About Holographic Hypnosis

We seek out the reference. It is a tool for The New Illusion, and as all tools, there must be a time of practice, and you will find yourselves going through a time of practice now with this new tool. Some of you will find it appropriate, others will not. It will depend upon your own levels of awareness in working with altered states and levels of consciousness. It is, for many, a most appropriate tool.

Many Of My Clients Encountered Archangels In Their Session, Yet I Never Do See Them.

My love, you do not need to see. You know. It is appropriate, however, that the symbolism be seen by those with whom you work. If you ~ you are beyond needing the symbolism of sight.

You Speak Of The New Illusion, And I Am Wondering What Is The End Of Illusion?

There will be ~ you see, on the earth plane there is a Portfolio Of Illusions that occur anywhere in time frame between six thousand and fifteen thousand years in duration for each illusion, and it takes approximately, as you measure on the plane, one million years to go through the Portfolio of Illusions. Now. This is a time of the ending of one and the beginning of another. There will be, as many of you know, the phenomenon referred to as The Shifting of the axis. The earth will shift on its axis. This will be the end of the cleansing and the beginning of The New Illusion. It will simply mean that the earth has finally attuned itself vibrationally. It has cleaned itself, and all on the earth. All institutions that need to be cleaned, and all those that are vibrationally attuned to the planet, will remain. There will be much that will remain.

I allude to the other conditions that existed biblically, as called the opportunity of change, the cataclysm.

We do not view it as a cataclysm, but rather, as an event that brings about transformation, and that there will be remnants from the illusion you find yourself in now, moving into The New Illusion. You will take with you much of the knowledge, but you will also receive new knowledge, for those that are referred to as the pyramids are in the process now of transferring information into vibrationally acceptable points on the planet for new vibration, and transference of information appropriate for the tools that will be given for The New Illusion. There is continuance. There will be no end. There is no end. Everything works in harmony. And thus, you will not find yourselves sitting on a piece of ground with nothing to do, and nothing to do it with. ☺

You indicated earlier that the world is really a play. So, there is a new act and a new curtain coming up. Is that correct?

That is a most appropriate analogy.

How Long Has The Earth Been In Existence And Was It Created?

The earth has been a training ground since The Universal Consciousness formed itself. There is no time as measured by The Universal Consciousness. The frames of reference on the plane currently for scientists work with time. It is what the illusion presents for frames of reference. Into The New Illusion, there will be completely new evidences that the evolving scientists in The New Illusion will have to play with. ☺

What Is The Purpose For What We Call Mentally Ill, Like Schizophrenia, On Planet Earth?

There is a purpose for all, my son. All is for lessons to be learned, issues to be dealt with. We have said much on this topic already and will say more as time progresses, for we are here into The New Illusion. But understand that all has a purpose. It may be apparent to you, but we work with each of you and you each choose your own lessons, your own life. It is all planned out. Nothing extraneous comes to you.

Do We Collectively, The Plants And Everything, Form Our Own Planet On A Daily Basis?

It is a question that relates to The Oneness, and all are One. We continually emphasize this point, that all are One, all are connected. No matter what any of us do, in some way it affects the entire Universal Consciousness, at some ~ in some way, however small. But, all energy, regardless of encasement, is here to Be of Service to each other, and therefore, if you walk on a blade of grass, you walk on energy. You walk on an encasement. However, its purpose is to Be of Service.

Will Pollution Bring About The Destruction And Eventual Extinction Of Man?

That which you call pollution is a part of the cleansing, my loved one, and all is being cleansed now, and all that you see is a part of that cleansing.

Can You Describe What The Soul Is Composed Of?

Each energy has its unique, what you might call, blueprint, and it is what makes it different from another energy while, at the same time, keeping all within The One. And the Soul, then, is the container of the individual and unique experiences of the particular energy that present, therefore, what you call personality, what you call issues. However, the Soul of each is connected to the Soul of each other, and there is, therefore, the Universal Soul.

Will You Describe The New Faith That Is To Be Created?

To answer that, there must be a belief that there is a higher source of information that does not rely on dogma. Faith, by definition on the plane now, has certain parameters that, "This is the faith, and this is what it will be. This is the belief." We are here to help you to transcend that particular philosophy, and rather, to understand that there are truths that each energy works with, and that each of you have your truths, and that your truth may be different from another, and that you have a belief, therefore, in your own truth and not that which someone else would impose upon you. Faith has, as a definition on the plane currently, a degree of imposition from another onto you, "You must have faith in this, because I do. I have faith in this particular situation." You must understand that it is far better to say, and to relate to, what an energy's truth is to themselves.

We find now that we would want very much to continue with many more questions, but we are preparing now to depart from the vibration, for we have become very sensitized to the earth plane, and understand when we begin to see fuzziness around energies that it is an indication of heat discomfort, and we see much fuzziness now, ☺ and we would not want to overstay our wonderful visit and time with all of you because of the fuzziness.

Can You Tell Me If Your Information Is Accurate To The Best Of Your Knowledge?

As with all, my love, we work with the truth that is available to us. We do not claim to have one hundred percent information, for only The Universal Consciousness contains that. There is no energy who would speak through to the earth plane who has one hundred percent information, and any who would claim that, you would want to challenge. We give you information coming from a very high source, and that is our response to that, my love.

Will You Be Back On The Earth Plane?

Not in this illusion. ☺

We are most pleased and most honored to have been in your vibration, and you simply need to call upon us in your own meditations for guidance. We are available to all. You simply, in your meditations, if you would want to commune with us, simply call out WAITH and we will come running.

As we depart, draw into yourselves a centering. Bring yourselves into that which is the heart and focus on the Light and the beauty that is Self and surround the heart and feel the love of Self and begin to take the love of Self and move it through the encasement, filling the encasement with the beauty of Self. Slowly, feel the warmth and the love that is Self moving through the entire being. Slowly now. And now, begin to envision this beautiful Light Of Self Love moving out of the encasement and spreading and merging with the beauty and the love energy of those around you. Feel it all move slowly, merging, and loving each other with Self Love.

As we depart now, we send to you all the very Highest of the White Light from the very Highest of the Kingdom of Amelius. Farewell.
