ANNIVERSARY SESSION

Waith: For the coming year on the plane, our discussions in open session will be devoted exclusively to the earth plane experience and the changing illusion about to occur. That will be what we will discuss, and that will bring about very strong increased awarenesses.

Anniversary Session

We send to you the very Highest of the White Light. You are protected during this time of vibrational exchange that occurs on the earth plane periodically. We gather with you now to participate in the celebration of the vibrational change for each earth plane year this occurs. From our end it is a vibrational alteration, and we view it differently than you would from a time perspective.

We are with you now for several reasons. First, we wanted to share with you the vibrational exchange and to give to those of you gathered here added strengthening, for the vibrational change will affect some of you very dramatically. We also wanted to share with you a concrete manifestation of your celebration of the energy exchange, and we have prepared soon, for us to discuss with you, this concrete manifestation. And finally, we simply wanted to be here with you, for it is a time of great expansion that is on the earth plane now as this vibrational exchange occurs now.

It brings about, for many, many, many vibrations on the plane, an expansion, a new awareness. And part of the gift that we give to you in this gathering is a help, an energy source that can assist you in your own expansions, and this expansion will continue until The New Illusion comes about. And for many of you, you have chosen accelerated growth, and as a result of your accelerated growth, you occasionally look for accelerated assistance, and we are here to help you in that.

It is also a time, however, during this exchange of energies that is occurring, a subdued time, and you must take advantage of that which you would feel to be low key, for by a very short time measured on the plane, you will be very, very active in your activities, and will be finding new directions based on new awarenesses and expansion of your own understanding.

Now. We would explain what we have for you as our gift to you, and (Name given) will be assisting us in our presentation. We have, you know, asked Mushiba to help us in this, and we did not tell her the end result. We simply said, do this and do that, please. And thus, she created what you see here without knowing of course why, but rather, that it simply would be. And thus, we now begin. We have, my loves, what you see here as a tray. Now, the gold and the purple ~ (Waith is standing very close to candles that are burning in the window, and she moves the candles to the floor) ~ you assist in more ways than one could imagine, my love. ☺ We have no feel of the encasement.

Now. It is important that the visualization of that which is purple, or lavender, or violet and gold be a part of the imagery in which you, in your seeking for assistance in awareness of Self, manifest this color, for it is one of strength and one of special energy in spirit. My love, you would take this tray, please, and hold it thus. Thus, now, within each of these small gold containers is what is referred to as amethyst on the plane, and there is placed into it a gold star. Each of you will be given one of these. I infuse it with an energy now that comes from the Highest of the White Light that will enable you to connect with this energy. (There is a brief pause)

Now. The purpose of all of these gold stars is to help in the imagery, that as the year continues on the plane, those of you gathered here, as well as those who would come would have the opportunity to also receive an amethyst with energy that we have placed into it, and that they would simply pick one of the stars and that is their, shall we say, passport to coming to the community members and asking for an amethyst. It will be placed in the record more explicitly in a very short term as to this process.

Now, we energize this now and it is going to be a part of a group energizing that will be conducted at the time of the energy exchange which you know as midnight on the plane. It will be not quite midnight on the plane when we do our exercise with you, for we look at vibrational waves rather than time.

And so, my love, would you please move about, and each of you please take one of these containers. You would do this now, my love. (There is a pause while this is being done) It is much like spiritual hors d'oeuvres. 😊 The energies are the same in each of these amethysts, so there is no one energy that is better than another.

This energy is happiest in sunlight and as much sunlight as you are able to give is appropriate. Now, it is important that when you utilize the energy from this crystal that the gold and the purple be very much a part of your image and that you bring the gold and the purple energy into that which is your meditation, and with the gold and the purple there will be accompanied the White Light. And if there is no White Light that accompanies the gold and the purple, challenge the gold and purple, for it may be deceptive, as we know. Those little rascals try to get in, in any way that they can now. Thank you, my love. Do you have yours? And ~ place.

Now. In harmony with expansion is that which is the calling for help, the assistance asked for from each of you to your guides and your Angelic protector. Now, we have a symbol to present to you, for many, we know, need concrete symbols in order to understand that which they are learning at spirit. And thus, we have come up with another idea to help you in this. And my love, would you assist me once again, for that which is at the lower level. Yes. (Referring to the bottom shelf of the stand)

Many of you know that there are times when Mushiba uses certain words with me when she becomes a little annoyed when I ask her to please do something, and the cutting out of these doves took some time, as you would say, and you would perhaps do me a favor and upon Mushiba's return tell her what a wonderful job she did ~ 😊

Now. You would, my love, hold one of the small ~ so that they may see. The symbolism here is the search for peace. The symbolism is the love and the expansion of Self that when that occurs, the love comes more easily. Now, it is not an easy task to ask for assistance. Correct?

Yes, we have had many a conversation with numbers of entities on the plane that all you need do is ask and we will come to your aid. However, to ask in meditation, we have found, creates in some entities a sense that they are not really doing it, and thus, we present to you a symbol in which you may ask, and you then know assuredly that you have indeed asked. And thus, we have this which is the dove, and it is in conjunction with the container that is on the low level here, the floor, that ~ you need another hand, do you not? (Speaking to Waith's helper) Yes. Very, very well done, my love.

At the location, which will be the Community of Terra Lux, will be found this container, and this container with the small doves, and what you only need do is to come and take a dove and put on the word HELP and put your name. Any name will do. Put your name. Place it into the box, and at the same time, take one of the stars that are in the container and place that into the box, visualizing, again, the gold and the purple energy and the strength that comes from that. And by doing this, you have placed into the reservoir a call for help. And if you need lots of help, then you simply will fill in lots of doves.

My understanding is, what you say, a task force will be developed for the cutting of doves. ☺ So, you see, all works in harmony as there is the need for expansion and the assistance that is needed. As you find yourself moving from vibration to vibration. If you find yourself going into a vibration that is not harmonious to you, take the amethyst with you, and it will serve as a reminder of the protection that you do have.

This now could be placed onto the floor, my love, and you would hold the larger dove up to show. Yes. We found ourselves becoming oriented to symbolism and concreteness as a way to end one vibration and begin another. For the coming year on the plane, our discussions in open session will be devoted exclusively to the earth plane experience and the changing illusion about to occur. That will be what we will discuss, and that will bring about very strong increased awarenesses.

What this presents to you is an opportunity to show that you have been a part of that which has occurred in this session. You would each, before leaving, take one of these and as many signatures as you are able to receive, there will be as much time as you need to do this on the plane, and to have the reminder that you were a part of this. And thus, it will be available for you, and also the smaller doves will be available for you each to write down your word if you so desire.

Before we begin the energy connection that I will bring you all as a group into, are there questions relating to that which has been just now presented? (There is a long pause) My, my. How unusual. We will begin the process. It will take a bit of rearranging. Let me describe first what will occur and then you will be able to rearrange your encasements in a way that will enable us to do this energy.

In the transference of energy, there can be a sense of dizziness that is created within the encasement that is simply a response to high voltages of energy coming through at a particular vortex. This particular geographic area being one which receives energy for a new structure is such an energy field, and there will be then in this coming transference, which is about to occur, a sense of lightheadedness. The energy exchange that we will present to you will in effect smooth out your energy fields, for you are in a very high energy now when you are in this geographic area, and this will enable you also to call upon this energy that you receive in this session for future times when you would begin to feel the effects of energy transference which occurs more rapidly and in an accelerated sense now.

We will gather into a connected grouping. We understand that a circle may be a bit difficult, the perfect circle, but it does not need to be perfect, as long as there is connection, and that we will then, once you have formed into your connection, give you the next step. So you would want to now ~ there is no hurry. Do not feel that you must move rapidly. Begin to realign so that you are all connected, that there is no disconnection. If you want to be with a particular energy, do so now. (There is a pause while this is being done and Waith checks the connections) This energy must be connected. This energy must be connected.

Ah. Breathe in deeply through that which is the Solar Plexus. Breathe out, slowly. Breathe in once again. Breathe out slowly. Envision the very Highest of the White Light, the very highest of the protective Light. It moves slowly into the center of that which is your Energy Circle. Feel the energy. Understand what this energy feels like to you, White Protective Light. It brings now the gold and the purple energy charged with special protection of those who would gather in the Community of Terra Lux. Feel the energy of the gold and the purple surrounded by the White Protective Light. Feel the energy ~ (some words inaudible) through me. Feel that energy.

Now visualize the crystal that has been given to you. Give to it a name that is special between you and that energy. Now is the time to make the bond. And you will call upon this crystal energy by name in meditation. Feel the energy that is Self surrounding that which is the heart, giving Self the energy of love. Send that energy of love to your new crystal friend whom you have named. Receive from your new crystal friend energy from its heart center sending you love in return. Feel the love from you to your crystal from your crystal ~ (some words inaudible) Slowly now, begin to envision the gold and purple energy surrounded by the White Light moving around your encasement and soothing that which is your energy field. The energy transference ~ (some words inaudible) and will be comforted and stabilized. Feel soon the beginnings of new energy that are a part of that which has been transferred.

Slowly begin to bring yourselves back into the concreteness of the illusion, without disconnecting until all have returned. When all have returned you may disconnect but not until then. (Someone has disconnected before the right time) Connect. Now, hug each other. (Group chatter) Ah. Feel the energy exchange. The energy exchange.

Welcome to the beginnings of The New Illusion. We would be most pleased to engage in dialogue if that is so desired.

What will we be seeing in the very near future of The New Illusion that will show us that the beginnings have begun?

The beginnings have begun. They will just become rather obvious in this time of expansion, for with increased expansion and awareness within Self comes the realization of things that you thought were, are not, but you are not able to see that unless you have a certain level of awareness, and you will see very obvious awarenesses of entities changing and accelerating. We will have much to say as this time frame on the plane continues regarding connections with the planet and how to work with the energy that is the planet as the illusion moves from one stage to the next and into that which is new, clean, uncluttered.

Will this new energy help us in the blockages we might have?

Which new energy do you refer to?

That you just gave us with that we are going to experience?

It should give you some assistance. It will not be that which you call the panacea for your answers. It will serve as a tool, among others, that you must utilize to gain understanding of the blockages that you do have, each of you would have. It will enable you to work with specifically, though, the blockages that come from fear of letting go, for, you know, a cleansing means letting go. Once letting go occurs, you look back and you say, "But of course. That was easy." But before doing it, it is not as easy. There will be spiritual cleaning, as well as physical concrete cleaning of environment of all that you find yourself connecting with energies. Your interconnections, there will be cleaning.

A question related to the movie called Defending your Life. How true was that?

As true as you would want it to be, my love. You must understand we have ~ you know, we have said this before that there are ~ there is information coming from many different sources aimed at different audiences, and that the Highest of the High does not come from someone like me necessarily, but that valid and very essential and helpful information for awareness and growth comes from many different sources and that those who you would call writers receive information from higher sources, either from their own Higher Self or from those outside of themselves, and they utilize that information to share with certain audiences, and that not all entities on the plane would be exposed to any one type of information coming in, and that is why as many different ways of saying the same thing as can be given will be ,so that at whatever level of awareness an entity happens to be at any given point in their path, they would always have some source of information to which they could reach out and gain greater awarenesses. Thus, the need for so many who have what you might call enlightened thought.

Can you give a few highlights of activities on the material plane that will be occurring in the next year?

You have your list of questions, my love, as you would ordinarily have. We are pleased that you are in the vibration for the session. We are not in the position of predicting, for this is not our role. There are others who do this, for their own reasons, that are acceptable. We would indicate to you, however, an elaboration of that which we have given in our previous discussions, and that is that there are two significant land masses that will break away from that which is their point of reference now. It does not mean necessarily that they will be nonexistent. It means they will break away.

Also, there will be a dismantling of that which is a very familiar comfortable institution in this coming time frame that will make way for energies of a very enlightened level to bring in a changed way that will show new-illusion tendencies. It will not be apparent immediately to most on the plane, for there will be no point of reference in that which they would see and that which will become the norm.

There will be, this year coming on the plane, of dramatic change, very dramatic, but, again, it is nothing that cannot be handled, if you will. One would seek the assurance from Self of strength and survival, for all is meant to be spiritual, and all that is on the plane is simply a physical manifestation of lessons to be learned at spirit, and that that which we have given to you in this session will prove to be concreteness for you, symbols that you really do not need in order to gain in strength and increased awareness, but will help you as events around you begin to seem overwhelming. You call upon the strength that is Self and you utilize that strength of knowledge that nothing will be presented to you that you are not able to respond to. You are, each of you, strong. You would not be in this gathering if you did not have a degree of strength. Other than outright dates, time and location, my son, that will have to suffice.

When we use the help doves, how will that help?

That will be an automatic connection with your guides and with your Angelic protector. It is almost what you would call ~ this frame of reference where you push the programmed number on ~ telephone? Automatic dialing. Yes, you see, it is as if you had pushed the button and went directly there, you see. It is connected with the amethyst that has been given to you and any who would want to utilize the doves for automatic dial ~ Limeria, you would make note of that for usage ~ would need to have an amethyst because that is the connector, you see. You do not need that dove. However, it may help in times of stress or in times when you feel you are not getting through to your guides. They may not. They may ~ sometimes they take naps, you know. They get tired, and so you have to simply wake them. And sometimes they do not hear you when you are in your meditation, so they need a little bell, and this would serve that purpose.
