Irreverence And Lightheartedness ~ The Stupid Questions Session

We are ready now for your questions! We have been, all in The Company, looking forward. Given the fact that we have no sense of time, we certainly have been anticipating this session, and all in The Company are gathered. And we have our plans also. So let the games begin! ☺

Do you like the little ghost behind you? (A ghost windsock)

We helped you find that, Limer. We also would give you a name for it. It can be a symbol now of whenever we enter in, in Public Sessions. And, you know, we have a nickname that Mushiba gave to us in the same time frame on the plane that she gave me this name Waith. It also went along with another little cutie name called Athie. (Pronounced with a long "A" as in angel) Athie. A-T-H-I-E, Athie. Athie, The Spooky. And now you can bring this back to the Terra Lux meeting place and it becomes a permanent part of especially what we plan to do for the coming year. Play.

Does that mean you are going to spook everybody?

We already do, my love, in more ways than you can ever imagine.

I am wondering if Jacques is here and if there is any way that he could maybe give me healing. I have ~

What kind of feeling? What kind of feeling, my love? ☺ There are many kinds of feelings that we are quite capable of giving out.

Healing, not feeling.

A healing feeling. ☺ What kind of healing feeling would you like to have, my love? These are your questions to be asking. Now, my love, this is a time to ask your stupid questions, not in the Public Sessions as you so are accustomed to doing. Now when we are having a Stupid Questions Session, you ask a serious question. Now, get your act together!

I get mixed up!

You gave us an excellent stupid question in the last Public Session. It would have been much more appropriate for this meeting.

I asked that because there were other people there and I thought they are thinking ~ I thought I would ask it to clarify.

Yes, well, we did. We did give you the dimensions of the Energy Circle.

It could be as big as you want it. Or as big as it is. What is, is.

Jacques sends to you now that little feeling.

A little feeling would be appropriate.

At the appropriate Chakra. ☺

Which one is that?

That is for her to know and for Jacques to instigate.

I hope Francis does not hear all this.

Francis has lightened up considerably.

Are you looking forward to moving?

Yes. Wherever Mushiba goes, we go, whether we like it or not.

Ah. Elijah! (Spoken as Elijah brings in some chairs)

What are all these crystals that Mary ~ Mary is receiving a crystal a week ~

A crystal a week. It is a new plan we have. The crystal of the week club. Do you have a question about it? Or simply a statement?

Well, she is receiving them and she says every week she will show me a new crystal, which appears.

And?

Someone is playing games.

Do you think so?

Yes. They are giving us crystals. She should be using them. Yes, I do think so.

Ah. And so, they should be functioning then? They should have a reason for being?

Well, no, not the crystals, but they keep appearing and appearing and appearing, and I think, wow, there is a lot of crystals that fly around!

Wow! Yes.

Waith, my crystal does not grow.

Yes, because you watch it.

No.

How would you feel if you were being watched all the time, to grow?

No, I look at it once every three months.

That is too much. 😊

Maybe it is in the wrong spot, does not get enough light, or too much light.

Why do you not give it light?

Maybe you do not pay attention to it.

Ah, indeed. You have ignored it. You give it the wrong kind of attention. You expect it to react to one of your formulas, you see.

I measured the width and the weight and the diameter, and that is it.

Yes, indeed.

It does not do anything.

No, it will not. Out of spite. Let it be, and know where it is, for starters. Then pet it.

Should I put it on a pillow?

You could. Then, do not measure it. It does not like to be measured.

Then how do I find out whether it is growing or shrinking?

Are you not able to see? To feel? Hmmm?

That is relative.

Ah, it is indeed relative, is it not, that which is so abstract? Yes. That is what makes our work so much fun, when we present the abstract to those who are concrete.

Waith, while we are on crystals, I have the crystal with me, it has been a few months in the incubator, and I am trying to figure out how to use it.

How would you like to use it?

I know the purpose, but I do not know the use.

The use. What do you think is the use?

To help me see what things are going to be like when The Shift and how I can help prepare.

Ah, such a serious use, now, isn't it! Yes. Ah. You must know what it is, after this illusion is gone, what the new one will present. Oh, yes, and we must ~ perhaps it would be this crystal ball then, and you could get a little sign and sit out on the sidewalk ~ ☺

⚙ And quit your job.

⚙ And quit my job. Yep.

And we could get a little bandanna for your head, and (Name given) could do a number of things since she is with the crystal of the week club. It would be an ongoing ~ you could develop a little following here. See what The New Illusion will be like, only fourteen ninety five! ☺ Introductory offer, between now and the year two thousand. After that, it is a rummage sale.

Waith, long underwear for men are on sale until Wednesday. ☺ Is it going to be cold this winter? I need to know that by Wednesday.

By Wednesday. How much is it worth to you if I give you that information? ☺

And there is a glitch in it. If you tell me it is going to be cold and it is not really cold, then I will send you the bill. 😊

Ah, we have a payment for you! 😊 Now. The weather, as you call it on the plane, is going to be quite peculiar during this coming time frame, and there will be weeks of time in which you would need to have this underwear, and then there will be weeks in which you will not, but we tell you nothing we have not already indicated, that it will be hot when it is ordinarily cold and cold when it is ordinarily hot. But also remember that there is a standard of reference here when we say cold and hot comparatively. So, yes, go and spend some money, with our blessing.

How about the weathermen? Are you going to tell them? 😊

We purposely do not tell them, for some of them they need to have the lessons in ego. Thus, oftentimes The Universe will deliberately go against that which has been so scientifically planned out, and suddenly, in working with Mother Earth, something very different comes out of the atmosphere, and this will continue more and more.

Will there be a lot of snow, Waith?

What would you consider a lot?

Enough for skiing.

What is that, now, enough for skiing?

A couple of feet.

Give me numbers here.

- ⊗ A foot.
- ⊗ A couple of feet.
- ⊗ Up to your waist.
- ⊗ Two feet. Three feet.
- ⊗ Three or four feet. Okay ~

You apparently are not all agreed on this particular definition of A LOT.

- ⊗ It sort of also depends on whether you would downhill ski or cross country ski. 😊
- ⊗ Well, when you think of last year, we had hardly any snow. We did not even have a decent storm. Are we going to have more than we had last year?

Ah! Not even a decent storm! Oh.

We really had snow but that is January, February, and then ~

But that would be when you would expect to have snow.

- ⊗ You know, we like it at Christmas too.
- ⊗ Could we put our order in now? 😊
- ⊗ To ski we need between three and five feet.

Ah, now, between three and five feet.

This tall.

As tall as Mushiba, hmmm. How many of you here ~ raise your hand, would want to have a lot of snow? Raise your hands. How many of you would not want to have a lot of snow? Raise your hands. Then we will give you a lot of snow. 😊

Day off snow days ~ weekdays.

We never said it was worth buying a snow blower.

- ⊗ We have Elijah.
- ⊗ Is your snowplow working?
- ⊗ Yes.
- ⊗ You will have to come to Coventry because I just have a shovel. That is all.
- ⊗ In Atlantis, did they have all the kinds of weather like we do? Was it the same weather?

What kind of weather?

Well, with the weather like this? Or did they have a whole ~

Like what? Define THIS.

Seasonal.

What is seasonal?

Four seasons.

Four, hmm. No, they had twenty-three point two seasons. 😊 They did!

Did they have a typical fall?

They did.

They must have had the same. They must have had the same.

It was a different illusion, my loves. The illusion is four seasons in this geographic area. The illusion is a number of other seasons in other geographic areas. It was very controlled in Atlantis. We have indicated that before. There was climate control mechanisms that enabled whatever was needed to be presented, and it was, of course, this ultimate power that was abused that brought about the ending of that illusion.

How many seasons in the next illusion?

Oh-h-h, a serious question! It will be most dependent upon where you find yourself situated on the planet Earth. You must be more specific. We never said we would be easy in this session with you all.

How about in the area of the safe zone?

Which safe zone?

The one we are in now.

Ah. You see, you must learn, my loves, to frame your questions correctly because otherwise you open yourselves up for me to give you nebulous answers. Ah. In the geographic area in which you find yourselves, this safe zone, there will be one type of climate, tropical.

So, why so much underwear? 😊

We indicated that there would be a rummage sale available once it is time for The New Illusion, and you see those who are not going to stay would be the ones convinced to purchase these particular items, and you will all know better, of course, that such items will not be necessary when it comes time to move into a new dimension.

Excuse me, Waith, can you do me a favor and keep Mushiba's feet off the floor because the tapping makes ~

Does that create a sound disturbance for you, my love? (Waith stamps his feet as he rocks in the rocking chair)

⊗ No, not at all. Thank you.

⊗ I have a question for Jacques.

Now, you must ask!

May I speak with Jacques?

Jacques: Hello, my love.

There are a couple of people here you may remember from when you were here.

Jacques: Indeed. I have the energy remembrance.

(Names given). You used to give him shots when he was a kid. (Jacques was their physician)

Many.

Jacques: What is your question, my love?

I know that sometimes you are sent on missions of healing in spirit, and I do not have a very clear understanding of what that would involve. Once we are in spirit, how do we help heal? And if you heal in those who have physical bodies or do you heal in other spirit realms?

Jacques: We are not allowed to answer serious questions. My love, I am quite serious. We are not allowed to answer such a serious question. It will be most appropriate to be asked in a Public Session, on healing.

Waith: Told you!

Are your sandals made out of sand? (A child's voice)

A question?

Are your sandals made out of sand?

We are not understanding the question.

Are your sandals made out of sand? (An adult's voice)

Out of sand. Are those sand sounds you hear, my love? (Waith taps his feet louder as he rocks back and forth)

Loud sand sounds.

There is a chemical compound, my love, in which the materials that have promulgated the composition of these particular attire for the feet encompass a bit of sand.

- ⊗ What can we do to aggravate you?
- ⊗ That is worth questioning. I would like to know that too.

We have a very high level of tolerance.

There must be a limit. There must be something we can do.

You could certainly try.

Can you give us a hint?

Give you a hint? The only one who has come close to aggravating us is Mushiba. We do slap her around a bit, in spirit, of course.

I have a question from (Name). I might as well do it and get it over with. I have been elected to ask his question. It is not mine. (Name) wants to know, when will horny ole' (Name) fall in love again? That is his first question.

We will take one at a time. Tell him that on the twelfth night of the eleventh month of the thirteenth hour of the year two thousand four hundred and ninety one, he will fall in love again. He asked a stupid question. (Name), you got a stupid answer!

His second question. He wants to know, is masturbation a sin?

How would you define masturbation?

I knew you were going to do that. (Group laughter and chatter) You remember when you were on the earth plane!

- ⊗ I think there is a link between his questions. 😊
- ⊗ Only if he is in the male encasement!

We must know the definition of this word in order to appropriately answer, after all.

- ⊗ Access the library. 😊
- ⊗ Ask Jenjura to look it up.
- ⊗ And why don't we call up her. She has Webster's Dictionary.

Who is this? Who do you want?

- ⊗ What is that librarian's name?
- ⊗ Jenjura.
- ⊗ Jenjura, yeah, she should check it out.
- ⊗ It is a he.

Get your genders correct.

Jenjura is a male.

Ah, but, you see, there are so many definitions. We are not certain which one you would want us to respond to.

The earth plane one.

The earth plane one! Hmm. Self pleasure. We remember that. 😊 But of course, it was from an Angelic perspective. It was spiritually motivated. Well, actually, anything that achieves a sense of wellbeing in Self comes from a spiritual motivation, and if you were to say it is a sin ~ and this word sin, you know, for some is thought to be negative. Others, the more the better, the more the merrier. Sin, sin, sin. If you think it is, then it is. If you think it is not, then it is not.

So, if it is also spiritual generated, how come that somewhere in the plan the variety between male and female libido has been so unevenly distributed.

Ah, because we want to make it more complicated for everyone. We certainly do not want to make it easy or have pat answers that would say, oh, for this one, it is this, and for this one, it is this. We add a little extra component into the formula, lest the formula become too predictable. Yes, my engineer?

- ⊗ Yeah, here.
- ⊗ Waith, I have something that I found when I was on backpacking on the Colorado River, and I often thought that if it could talk, maybe it could tell us stories about where it is been. And I was just wondering, do you know if this duck might have any wisdom to share with us?
- ⊗ Quack, quack.
- ⊗ It is for our tub.

Yes, it does! ☺

Do you think that you would like to maybe be kind enough to share any of it, where it might have been, with us?

Nope. ☺

Nope. Okay. I thought it might have felt a little irony because it got backpacked out through the desert in Kangaroo National Park, so there was a duck on a backpack in the desert, and we kept it.

He is where he needs to be, this energy form, with you.

He was my consolation prize. My companions went ahead and saw golden eagles and I got a plastic duck.

Ah. This makes him feel bad.

Oh. No, I was delighted!

This is an energy. Remember, all has energy.

Waith, you really caused a confusion in me already for a long time.

Good.

Perhaps you could comment on that. You gave out two contradictory information ~

Oh, not us!

⊗ On (Name given) and me. Of course.

⊗ Yeah, you did.

Not us. No.

(Name given) and me being twin souls, and/or soul mates. I am totally confused.

Oh, no, not you!

Yeah, I really want to know.

You really do want to know.

Yes.

It is so important to know. Yes.

Yes, I work on this already for many months now.

Oh, it is such a serious question!

Yes, it is, for me. Yeah.

Oh, it is going to be a topic before we end this earth plane year, in Public Session that relates to the fact of twin souls having soul mates.

Oh, it is something special.

It is new information that we will give out, but is much too heavy to talk about now. My goodness. Lighten up!

So, it is somehow correct that I say, and/or?

No.

No. Oh, my God, now I am more confused!

Yes, indeed.

I do not know now what ~

You see, you set yourself up, my love, by asking that question now in this Silly Question Session. And now, we will create more confusion. And the best thing to do, love, is to let go of it, for your answers will be there as you need to have them. And in the scheme of life on the plane, what does it matter anyway?

No, not really. It is still nice to know.

Sometimes it is not.

Does chocolate bring a connection with our Higher Selves?

Ah! It is an addiction. It is an addiction, and a very good one, I imagine. You know, certain foods work to harmonize the Energy Centers, or that which you call Chakras, Energy Centers, as we like to call them, and addictions are not always related to what is believed to be the lower Energy Centers. They can, of course, have a very high spiritual motivation to them in working with that which is the Higher Self Energy Center. Chocolate, however, is rooted right at the base of those Energy Centers. 😊 Do you have a chocolate craving, my love, right now?

I guess my lower self wants to get down and boogie.

Ah.

Waith, as Halloween approaches, is there going to be a lot of spiritual or a lot of reaction or excitement?

Oh, there always is.

⚙ Could you be more specific?

⚙ Nope.

No. But would we? Yes. There are certain times on the earth plane that have been predetermined to create a certain vortex of energy, and it is a popular time of departure on the earth plane, that which is called in earth plane terms Halloween in this culture in which you find yourself. And as a result, it is a time when the Forces of Light and dark are seated at the portal and come through and, "That one's mine. That one's mine." We grab 'em.

So, that is a popular time for departure, or talking about departure?

It is a popular time for departure, of all the energies, not just the human. You know, you are not alone in your energy encasements. And, and this particular vortex that is about to approach you will have a most interesting combination of energy departures. And, the food energy, very good. Very good. We also wear our hats on this occasion. We have special hats that we wear to identify us as those of the Light. Now, in addition to our hats, we have special uniforms that we wear. My love, you will appreciate this, as we dress up in a certain way. You see, we wear certain clothing. We have certain vehicles that we move around in.

Brooms?

We have brooms. And depending on whether we are boys or girls determines the color, pink or blue. That way we are easily identified. You know, we certainly would not want to look at energy as a way of identification. We would want ~

(Comment is inaudible)

Yes. Yes, indeed. And we would not address the serious end of this question, for it does very much have a serious side to it. It is a time of ~ any vortex is a time of vigilance. Ya!

⊗ Can you tell ~ go ahead.

⊗ No.

⊗ No, go ahead.

No, you go. No, you go.

Can you tell me when (Name given) and I will get the ~ (word inaudible) goat, as we so lovingly call it?

It is already here.

But where is it?

You are not looking in the right places.

Where am I not looking?

You are looking in the obvious places. Now you have to look in the not so obvious places.

Like what?

It would be too easy if we told you, now, wouldn't it? Ask a stupid question, you get a stupid answer. This is not an easy lesson for the two of you. You are having much difficulty, and we are enjoying the fact that you have it right in front of you and you do not see it. There is much that is in the front of all of you and you do not see. You see things only from your current perspective without taking off those energy blinders you have that do not allow you to see something different from what is presented to you.

Ah! Time. This is why we play in the time to come, to help you remove those energy barriers so you will see things that are different. Do not take yourself so seriously.

Waith, am I really a nag?

(Name) thinks so.

Am I, or am I not?

(Name) appears to think you are.

Yeah, but he is teasing me all the time.

Do you think so?

Yeah.

Well.

Do you think there is something going on with these two?

I will not comment on that. 😊

Because he lives right next door and I am away on a trip quite often. I do not know what is going on.

Well.

Could you supervise them? 😊

You would not want us to be the supervisors!

Waith, I always wanted to know. Would it be helpful for me to look through some colored glasses, wear colored glasses of some particular kind?

You already do.

Which one am I wearing, the pink ones?

It would be very helpful for you to wear some very finely shaded green with pink and purple polka dots.

But the glass is green. Is this right?

She takes us seriously now! She is going to now go out and buy green shaded eyeglasses with pink and purple polka dots.

The frames.

The frames, ah, they should be orange, plastic, iridescent, and they should be filling the face and have strings that come down to just the waist level.

Looks cool. 😊

Cool. Ah, the colloquial cool! Yes.

Waith, can I speak to Farena, please?

Well, I do not know.

Why not?

We might let her come in and speak, for we understand you do not think we are very photogenic. You think Farena is far more attractive.

You got it!

Do you know how much you have hurt us, my love?

Well, you move around too much!

We are deeply hurt with this.

No, you are not.

We feel so neglected, and we feel that we are not appreciated and that all you want is Farena.

Aw!

Farena: Hello-o-o!

Hi, Farena.

Farena: Hello-o-o. Do you like this pretty, pretty, fluffy ~ oh! ☺ Ah-h-h.

She is getting ready to jump up.

Farena: Well.

- ⊗ Are you being serious?
- ⊗ She is never serious.

Farena: I am always very serious. You wanted me! Here I am!

- ⊗ We just want to see your beauty. That is all.
- ⊗ You know, Farena commented, but she is really the one that helped with making all the clothes and now she is making believe, oh, they are here!
- ⊗ Say something.
- ⊗ I did.
- ⊗ Did you just want to take her picture? ☺

Farena: Wait now. Let us align energy.

Well, then I will have to switch my lens. You should have told me that ahead of time.

Farena: Are you ready?

No, not yet. Just looking.

Farena: No. Oh, the energy field. Oh. Ah-h-h. There.

I am getting there. Stay there. Do not move.

Farena: Hurry. Hurry. Hurry.

Hurry up!

Farena: Hurry, hurry up.

Okay.

Waith: Now, we have returned since you have taken this photograph of Farena.

You have not learned your freeze action yet.

Freeze action. Freeze action.

I mean the ~ (A click as a picture is taken)

Ah, it comes from the Soul. We have just given you a little hint about something.

Oh, okay.

Oh, okay.

Waith, when we thought up this Stupid Questions Session, we were also thinking it was a time for people to ask personal questions. It seems that they may be a little intimidated if their question is serious because you are going to laugh at them.

Well, when you said stupid question, you had to make certain of its definition.

We did say, if people had personal questions and ~

Indeed, and they may certainly ask personal questions.

(Comment is inaudible)

Us?

No.

You see, now, it is a lesson in learning to define appropriately. You know, we have talked so often of the difficulty of this communication of language on the earth plane. It is part of learning lessons, and we will help you to see the difficulties, and we do this through humor rather than through the serious, for you said stupid, and we went into the memory banks and the memory banks indicate stupid to be silly, frivolous, and therefore, we responded. Now, if you wanted it to be a time of personal questions, you should have said personal questions.

Well, we did. We announced it that way.

However. Your written communication indicated otherwise, and therefore, you find yourself in the paradox of complication to communication.

As usual.

You see?

Can't you be flexible?

We said we would answer personal questions.

Right.

You set yourselves up when you ask one, though.

They are trying to fix the tower of Pisa over in Italy ~

Food? Pizza?

Pisa, the one here that is falling down, falling down. They are trying to build, to fix it, and I cannot help but keep thinking, it is supposed to be falling down, and it is going to fall down finally when they have ~ the earth goes flip. Am I correct in that?

Is there a question in this? ☺

Why is it slipping? The tower keeps going down, down, down, and is this supposed to be something that indicates something, that the earth is going to eventually ~ when it falls the earth will do its complete turn?

You make such a complexity out of something that is not. My goodness, that was serious! It will fall when it is no longer needed.

Oh. What's it used for now?

None of your business! ☺ It has its own path ~

Very good stupid question.

~ by giving ~ it is a very good stupid question, for you see, it is an energy form that is on its own path, and just as we would not give information about any of your personal paths, we do not give information about this particular energy's personal path.

It is not a public point then?

Did ~

It is a public monument.

Am I still speaking this English? ☺

- ⊗ No, French.
- ⊗ Waith, I have got a wart on my thumb. Does that mean I am becoming more stubborn? ☺
- ⊗ Now, that is a stupid question!
- ⊗ That is perfect for this ~

Now, you know, for (Name given) this is not a stupid question. This is a very serious concern of hers that has been ongoing for quite some time and has been brought up on numerous occasions, this wart on the thumb.

No, no. I have a wart over here. That is the one I asked you about before.

Ah, but warts spread now.

That is why I said, does it mean I am becoming more stubborn?

Yes. ☺ More stubborn than ever!

Waith, do you speak any other language besides English?

Yes.

What?

It does not matter.

Why not? I think it matters. I am just curious.

I speak, if need to be, absolutely everything. But now if I spoke other than English ~ oh, it is bad enough I have to speak English. It would be too confusing for the public to which we are assigned to address.

But can you speak languages that Mushiba cannot speak? I mean, if in her body while you were ~

Yes, I am able to do this, but it requires an energy shifting, and we have done this where others are not aware.

That is just what I was wondering.

Yes. It is not for public consumption. That was a rather serious question which ~

I know, but it just popped in my mind because she said "French".

Not all that stupid.

But you answered it.

For we have come through in a particular persona. Yes.

Is it possible to have a portal to The Underground in your bedroom? ☺ For crystals? I had to ask. It is a stupid question.

There is, now, very definitively situated a rather large hole of energy, and it is connected to the vibrational dimension that you know as The Underground. And every once in a while, one of the little people just put their little hand up and ~ (Waith makes a slurp sound). They can do this wherever they want.

But they give them back sometimes.

They do this to annoy you.

Well, it is not annoying.

Ah. But they try to annoy you, you see, and then when they do not, they give it back to you, and sometimes they think, oh, we cannot do anything to get her upset, but we are working on it. We have given them some tips. ☺ And wherever you go there will be this little energy hole that will follow you. Wherever you go. It is here now. It is right behind you.

So, watch out when you go to the bathroom because ~ (Inaudible) ☺

It is bigger than you realize. (Waith makes a slurp sound again) Sucked out!

There have been certain animals that seem to have volunteered to be around people from long, long ago, like dogs and horses ~

Fools that they are!

Yes, yes, probably maybe to serve us, and I was wondering about the role of the house fly. Does that have a special spiritual mission?

The role of the house fly.

⚙️ What a question! 😊

⚙️ And slugs. Any tips on loving a slug?

Farena: "The Role of the House Fly" by Farena. 😊 I am a house fly. I am here to fly around your house. I serve the purpose of annoying you. I am the house fly. The end.

Thank you.

Waith: Indeed. Now the slug, 😊 the slug is a very highly spiritually evolved entity.

Oh, come on. Give me a break!

You would doubt what we say? And it was immensely attracted to your vibration, Limer. 😊

How did I get out of the garden barefoot without stepping on them?

We were actually quite serious. In The Kingdom Of Insects, this particular manifestation is very highly advanced.

That is why it eats flowers.

(There is a silence) The silence. Is he fooling us or is he not!

It may be a silly question. Are carnivores more highly evolved than herbivores?

Now, you know, this is actually a most serious question.

I know.

And we simply will say, you must go into our material where we have indicated ~

You said you would answer these questions.

~ where you have indicated ~ we have indicated and given a response to this whole issue of those who eat meat and those who do not, you see, and it is quite serious and goes to all of these issues of elitism, that one would think one is better than the other because they do not eat certain foods.

But yet, both are eating foods.

Yes, indeed, they are.

Both are ingesting on the earth plane.

If one were to not consume on the earth plane, one would not be able to live on the earth plane, for all is energy, even air, and thus it is that you each choose your point of consumption, and that it is appropriate to whatever you consume. If you consume animal and someone else does not, then what is the big deal?

Except to the animal.

Ah, but air, you see, is being consumed now as you all sit here, and it is no less an imposition, if you would, upon air as it is upon animal. You see? But this is the way of the earth plane. Gobble, gobble, gobble. Eat up. It is part of lessons to be learned, of course, but this is also part of how we will finish up our Public Session time as the Earth plane Connection, where we will give some final words on this very heavy discussion of consumption. You see, you are all being consumed by higher energies. Aha!

And that, you see, we will tease you a bit with that, and in our next Public Session ~ we have two remaining Public Sessions of this Earth Plane Connection. We are all ready to give you some very interesting information.

- ⊗ I do not think the mosquito was wanting to be left out of the discussion.
- ⊗ The fly was mentioned, so why not the mosquito?
- ⊗ Are mosquitoes here for another purpose?

All is here ~

Other than to annoy us?

All is here for purpose. They are here to drink your blood! ☺

But they must have a higher purpose than this of annoying people and drinking blood.

Oh, do you think so?

Yeah, I think so.

Do you think that all energy has somehow a higher purpose? Only you as human entities have a higher purpose? Would it be even a question that all energy has a higher purpose? The mosquito has the same Energy Circle that we discussed in the last Public Session.

How big is it?

It is very itty-bitty. It is itty-bitty to fit the itty-bitty mosquito. Itty-bitty.

They have to bite dogs and give them heartworm so we can go to the vet and pay good money.

Yes. You see, they have a reason for existing.

⊗ Waith, who is going to be the next president?

⊗ It is going to be a stupid answer.

As we indicated the last time this question was asked of us, it does not matter, for this is not the individual who will lead into The New Illusion.

Who will lead into The New Illusion?

That is a secret.

You said one day that there will be a president who will lead the society into The New Illusion.

That is correct.

He just said that.

This is not the one.

1996 is the important one.

We have not said that. We have not given a date. We have simply said that this is the individual not leading into The New Illusion. That individual is being prepared now.

- ⊗ Is it a woman?
- ⊗ Is he or she aware of it?

Indeed, at spirit level.

You think this could be a woman. I would not be surprised. Yeah.

It would depend on whether you speak of energy or encasement.

- ⊗ Encasement.
- ⊗ We would never hear the end of it.
- ⊗ Would this person have had a traumatic experience this time about two years ago?

We will not comment any further. There is ~ because, you see, it is not important. You know, all who are being prepared to lead into The New Illusion know at spirit, and many know already at conscious level, you see. But for another time. Years from now.

I guess we have to wait another four years to ask that question again.

We did not say that.

Why does Mushiba always wear the color purple?

The color purple. Just to annoy you. It is the vibrational color of the energy.

Of Mushiba's energy?

Indeed.

Do you have a vibrational color of your own?

Not that you would recognize. Vibrational colors are only necessary for usage on certain training grounds, and the earth plane is one of those training grounds. It is not used in other training grounds. And we are going to talk about color a lot coming up. And we have a particular color lined up for you, my son ~

Yeah. Bright orange.

~ that we will spring on you when you least expect it. It will go with your little sidewalk stand. 😊

(Name) is afraid to ask. But she would like to know if you could tell her, her vibrational name.

Now, now, now we are going to have some real fun! Now, many of you know how much of a difficult time we give you when you ask us to tell you your vibrational name. Now, when you ask someone else to ask us your vibrational name, what do you think would be our response to that?

Tornado?

Doth you have a voice, my love?

Well, he beat me to it.

He beat you to it. Beat you to it.

Yes, can you tell me my vibrational name?

No. ☺

Will Farena?

If I am not going to tell you, you think Farena is going to tell you?

I am checking each avenue. ☺

Each potential.

Do I have it right?

You are most close to it. You are off by one letter at the end.

One letter at the end?

Is there an echo in here? ☺

- ⊗ Maybe we can help you. Why don't you tell us? Is it a vowel in it?
- ⊗ I will do it myself.
- ⊗ I will buy a vowel. ☺
- ⊗ You will buy a vowel!
- ⊗ Is it a vowel?

That would be giving you too much information.

We would appreciate the discussion in this vibrational area to cease, for it distracts from what we are attempting to do. Thank you, my loves. (Waith refers to noise coming from the background)

We would say to you, my love, that if we were to give you the vowel or what you call consonant, we take all the fun out of us observing you trying to figure it out.

- ⊗ I will figure it out. Okay. Okay.
- ⊗ This might be more of a quick question for Farena, but are there spiritual benefits to tickling, as long as both parties are ~

Tickling.

Farena: "Tickling", by Farena. I wish that I could be a tickle, a tickle, tickle, tickle, because to be tickled means that I ~ 😊

You lost a line?

Farena: I forgot!

Are you tickled pink?

Farena: Purple is my color too. That I ~ I forgot! Waith, I forgot. I did not really! 😊 Do you all feel tickled? Cause that is what happens when you get tickled. It just makes you feel silly. 😊 The end.

What is Francis mostly working on these days?

I do not know. What is Frank mostly working on these days? Is he still hanging around?

I helped carry his statue yesterday, so I figured I would ask to see what he was doing.

Yes, he put an especially heavy energy into it.

I know he did. Then (Name given) parked it six blocks away.

Does he like his spot? They did a nice job.

He enjoys the vibration of the spot, yes.

Maybe there is too much sun over there.

Well, we have given him the proper suntan lotion so that his energy does not get burned up to a little crisp, for then to have a crispy Frank ~ ☺

I can just see the look on Buema's face when she starts typing all of this up. Garrett will come around the corner wondering if there is something wrong with her.

Ah, and Buema will give you a little more interesting things to think about, but that is between you and I and Garrett. That little energy feeling.

Oh, you are all so serious! You are no fun.

Is it an indication that you have reached a block when you fail to toast your marshmallow evenly and it catches on fire? ☺

Absolutely, my love. This is a most serious issue that needs to be addressed for it ~ the underpinning is an inability on your part to balance, and the marshmallow is the physical manifestation of that inability to balance, and when it oozes out on one side, that is the side of balance that you must pay attention to.

⚙ Thank you.

⚙ And what if you like it burned?

Then you are in serious trouble, my love. We make it sticky at times.

Is the marshmallowivore a higher level than the herbivore?

You would repeat the question, my ~

Is the marshmallowivore a higher level of energy than an herbivore?

That is a really stupid question. We like that question. That is most stupid.

The most stupid?

Yes.

Not yet.

No.

Do duck's feet get cold in the winter when the water is cold? 😊

Why don't you ask them?

I did. They did not tell me.

You did not hear them. They were telling you. They were.

How do you know?

We know. We know so much. 😊 And we cannot tell you so much that we know. We know the answer to that.

⚙️ Yes, yes.

⚙️ Thank you.

⚙️ You see, somebody helps me.

Limera puts words in my mouth now!

Waith, these books that are written by famous people on etiquette, is that imposition? How does the earth plane view that?

Etiquette?

Yeah, I am not saying my word correctly.

Etiquette?

Manners.

Manners?

You know, the books that they say that these should be done differently, that different ways of being, you know, are more acceptable than others. Is this an infringement?

Not if you do not feel it is an infringement, only if you feel it is an infringement. Modes of behavior to maintain the culture in which you find yourselves is generally accepted by the general populace of that particular culture. And once it is not, it is no longer applicable. So, you can simply accept it or not, and if you choose to not accept it, and you are in a place where picking your nose in public is not acceptable, then you will be banned from those individuals. You see, it is all a matter of choice. So, pick away. ☺

You know, it is very, very important that you use the right fork when you eat your salad. In the scheme of higher spiritual growth, it is very important! And that you do not slurp your soup. You must be very attentive to slurping your soup!

Are straws permissible?

As long as you do not slurp. You know, this is a serious question, though, for it goes to issues of imposition which relate to us discussing imposition in the past. But it is not for this session.

Can you give an example of something that is acceptable in this culture that would not have been acceptable in Atlantis?

Well, you know, it is difficult, for the frames of reference are not the same, and thus, no, we would not be able to, for the behaviors of this illusion are so different from the behaviors of The Atlantean Illusion and from all of the other illusions.

When are you going to talk about Atlantis again so that we can further ~ or you are not going to?

Now, she answered her own question.

- ☼ She saw your look.
- ☼ Will skipping be an acceptable form of transportation in The New Illusion?
- ☼ Oh, it will take on a much higher form of energy expenditure.
- ☼ I have always loved to skip.

Skip away.

I would rather skip school. ☺

Will there be such things as school or ~

There are always schools in every illusion. That is something you cannot avoid. Yes. The way in which it presents itself may differ, but the concept is always there. Schools are everywhere, Guide School in spirit form and concrete school on the earth plane and any other dimension you go into, the operative phrase is training ground. Training ground means school.

Why is it then that it is only in this century that college has been so popular among the middle class, among those who can get there? Why in the past did not it seem to be acceptable to the ~

Why not?

You see, well, most of the people evidently could not afford school.

Oh. One must only learn by going to a formal school! There is so much you do not know about what has gone on during this illusion, for we have simply, with The Universe, erased records. You see only what you are meant to see, my loved ones. This is the entire concept behind what we give you for information. You see only what you see. You do not look beyond. You accept what you see as the truth, and that is as serious as we will get about that, for now.

So, what is the point in studying history?

Ah, what is the point?

Or archeology?

What is the point? It is for growth. Everything has a reason. It is ~ you know, the stupid question I was asked many, many years ago ~ "With The Shift coming, do we still have to pay our bills?" But of course. There are reasons for all that occurs and one must continue working on the path and studying certain issues. Subjects must be continued for that which the Soul needs to learn for future reference, or not.

The teacher was always saying history is important because that gives the high probability that people will not make the same mistake again. But that is not true. We all make the same mistake again and again. So, maybe we do not need history.

Is there a question here? ☺

- ⊗ No, that is an answer.
- ⊗ Yeah, it is a question.

What?

I do not what the real question was, but just a remark.

An unreal question.

- ⊗ An indirect question.

- ⊗ Is snoring an indication that an individual has taken on deep lessons in their sleeping phase as well as, you know, the lessons of the person next to them who is trying to sleep? 😊

We have given a remedy for snoring, and it will soon be coming out for you to utilize, and if it does not work, then you have more blockages than you realized relating to it.

Hold his nose.

We will give you a particular addendum to this remedy. You would get a small cloth of about, dimensions of inches, three by three, and you would then get what you call tape, and you would put this cloth on the tip of your nose and tape it around and make sure the tape comes down over the mouth, and that will muffle the snore.

Are there sometimes obstacles to getting the person who snores to go along with this procedure?
😊

Not if you tie their hands and feet together. 😊

- ⊗ Sounds like more lessons to me.
- ⊗ And what about, like my mom. Sometimes she snores so loud that she wakes herself up. Is that like an individual, like stopping the lesson at the right point? Too serious?

Oh! You tried to sneak in a question about your mom. Almost worked, but not quite.

Okay.

We are just a little too quick for that! Nice try though.

Oh, Waith, Farena promised us a new poem soon. Couldn't she come up with it today and present us this poem so that we know what the difference is.

No, you see, for the poems that she gave you thus far in this session were examples enough of what you have asked. And we will allow for Farena to give her appropriate poem in the Public Sessions, you see, when it is appropriate for that information, for the information in the poem, you see, is relating to the connection between The Earth Plane Connection and the discussion on fun and play. So. it will serve as sort of a bridging, you see. Listen to her poems that she gave you in this gathering, for they were truly stupid.

Is not that a judgement?

Indeed, it is. And we are not immune from that, where appropriate. We are also in our own learning mode, as you are all in your learning mode.

How do you deal with disagreements among The Company?

There is no disagreement. They all agree with me. 😊

Is it a dictatorship?

Yes.

Who is the second in command?

Who do you think? She keeps me in line. There is much harmony in the group, and I am simply the one chosen as the spokesperson, but we have great fun in our discussions. They pick on me quite a bit though. They do. They tell me that I need to learn how to fast frame ~ freeze frame. You see, I am unable to even remember, for (Name) does not like me! (As a subject for photos)

I did not say that. You said that.

Yes, you did.

I did not.

You said you do not like me, that I am bland. We heard you.

Waith, what happened to the sunshine today? It was out in the morning and then it went away.

The angel on command had other things to do.

Aw. I thought he fell asleep.

You know, it is not always to have the sun shining, for it gives you the ability to create your own sunshine.

Is that part of the purpose of the little ~ sometimes you will see puddles and oil has fallen in them, and there are little rainbows in the puddles. Is that a special beautification technique for rainy days? 😊

Do you think so, my love?

Actually, yes.

Good. It could. Why not? On the subject of rainbows, we would perhaps now prepare to depart, knowing that out of little drops of oil could certainly come great color and beauty. Ah, indeed. We have enjoyed this session. Have you enjoyed this session?

⚙ Mm-hmm.

⚙ Nope. 😊

Too bad. Too bad. There will be many coming now who will find that our making fun, or our irreverence, to be spiritually incorrect. Ha-ha-ha. We have much fun ahead of us in the breaking down of egos.

You know, Waith, quite a while ago we brought up ~ I think I said something to ask the people what they would like to discuss in further sessions that they would be interested in different stories of the Bible, and we got the feeling during that session that people would like to pursue that. And I think I dropped the ball and did not ask what would be a story from your perspective. You know, I should have asked what they would like to hear as one of the stories of the Bible and hear your perspectives on that story, and I just wondered if maybe that could be revived, and if so, if someone would like to bring out a story that is in the Bible for you in the future to talk about.

That is entirely up to all of you. We will respond in whatever you would request. We will not impose our view on what you would want to hear about ~

Well, then I would at this time would ask again if there is an interest in amongst the group to discuss any of the stories of the Bible.

We would feel you would have a much more cross sectional response to that if you were to ask it in a Public Session.

Okay. I will ask it again.

Yes.

You were there.

We have perspectives.

Well. We then will prepare to depart, and have been most pleased with this gathering for to discuss serious questions is of course very much a part of our mission, but to be able to do this is most enjoyable. And even when we discuss play and fun, there will be times when we will be serious.

And thus, my dear loved ones, gather your energies now into that which is the heart center and feel the beauty of Self surrounding that which is the Heart Center, and feel this beauty begin to spread throughout the encasement, filling the encasement with the beauty of Self, slowly filling all that is your encasement.

And slowly, now, allow the energy of the beauty of Self to move out of the encasement and into the gathering of other energies, and feel the merging of the energies of each other forming the one energy that represents the uniqueness of each gathered here. Feel the warmth and the love of each other, and slowly now, visualize this energy of Oneness moving into The Universal Consciousness, sending to The Universe love and beauty. We send to you now all the very Highest of the White Light from the very Highest of the Kingdom of Amelius. Farewell.

Farewell.
