Playtime On The Earth Plane ~ The Toy Box Of Lessons One Has Chosen

Now. We, in continuing our topic for the earth plane year of Playtime on the Earth Plane, give to you in this session a discussion of The Toy Box in greater detail as it relates to playtime. Now, you know, to say Playtime on the Earth Plane, immediately conjures up an impression that it is all frivolous. And while there is that component, there is also the component of the earth plane simply being another game that must be played. And, in order to play the game, you must know the rules. Now, no one has set up the rules outside of yourself. There is no external source that has said, "These are the rules." The Universe has established the rules. The Universe is The Universal Consciousness, and as you all should know, who makes up The Universal Consciousness?

We do.

So, who makes the rules?

We do.

That is very good. Now. This is the responsibility that each of us as entities outside of The One must assume, that we are responsible for the rules. And just as we easily make the rules, we easily can change the rules.

Now. The groundwork has been set. The rules have been established, and you each, now, in this gathering, and those who would read this session, have chosen to come onto the earth plane. And prior to selection of the earth plane as a training ground, you were given the entire selection of training grounds. And you were then told by your Angelic Protector and the guides who are charged with helping to select training grounds, the pros and the cons of each training ground, and the rules that had been set up for each training ground, and the ways in which lessons are learned on each training ground.

They differ from training ground to training ground. Some training grounds are less intensive. Some training grounds do not have the acceleration that the earth plane has. The earth plane is considered by many, many to be the most difficult of training grounds. Others consider it difficult but no big deal. Others would rank this as the most difficult. It does indeed provide to you the opportunity for accelerated growth.

Now. Coming onto the earth plane can be a very serious business. As you all know, you are all so very serious about the lessons that you choose, with the help of your Angelic Protector and your guides. Now, to give you the flipside of this seriousness, we refer to it as a Toy Box, and in your Toy Box are the lessons that you select, your toys. You have each selected the toys that go into your Toy Box, with the help of those who would guide you. Now. With each toy comes a set of instructions. Now, who do you think has designed the instructions?

Us. We have.

But of course. Now. The fact that you have each designed your own instructions means that you each, then, have responsibility. It is not being imposed upon you. You are not being forced. You have selected your own toys and you have participated in the writing of the instructions on how to operate the toy, once you come onto the earth plane. Now. How do you go about selecting your toys? There is a very big toy store. This is the frame of reference that we would give to you. Now. You go to this big toy store and you press your little nose up against the window, for you are a new bright energy about to come onto the earth plane. It matters not the amount of experience you have had outside of The One, having gone through many different training grounds. You are new to the earth plane, and therefore, you are bright and bouncy. You have been given the pros and the cons of the earth plane, and you have believed the pros.

Now, you look with great delight into this store, and you have all of your toys from which to select. Now, some of you have more to learn than others. It means, then, that you must select more toys than others, for you may be, indeed, just coming out of The One, about to start your adventure in the Universal arena, or you may have been out for some time and simply need to have a bit more lesson learning. So, you look in and you have in one little wing that which are your passes that have been given to you by your Angelic Protector and your guides, that indicate the lessons that you must seek out to learn on the earth plane.

Now, those lessons take many, many forms. And the toys that you may gather for each lesson can vary from one major toy to many hundred toys, depending upon the depth of which you must learn your lessons. You go into the store, and you gather up all of your toys and you place them into your Toy Box. Now, they are to play with, as we have discussed in an earlier session. You have your favorite toys that you use in a particular lifetime, and you have your toys that are of descending order in favoritism in a particular lifetime. Now, having the toys is one thing, but how do you select these toys? How do you actually get to that toy store with the designated lessons? Who has made you do this? Who?

Ourselves.

You have each said to yourselves, "This is what I will do." However, it is not quite as easy as that, for you see, you must go into the archives of lessons learned from past entities. It is The Universal Consciousness that is available to each of us. And much research is conducted, with the help of your Angelic and your guides. Now. You go in and you look at the way in which another has taken on a lesson, for these records are available to all, and it is much as we describe this flicking of channels as we watch the earth plane go on ~ we will flick our channel and watch what is going on with Terra Lux. We will flip our channel and watch what is going on with Barjan, and ~ much like watching this television that you have where you flick to see how each story is going. You are able, then, to look at the way in which entities who have learned their lessons did it, and who helped them ~ how they did this ~ how they actually went about doing it.

Now, the trick in all of this is that you are able to see, much as you do on this television, what is going on. However, you do not feel. You are not aware of that emotion that the entity feels as they learn a lesson. And thus, when it appears that you may have taken on something that is very difficult, it looked easy enough when you watched it being done by another, but when you are actually doing it yourself, it appears to be much different.

And thus, you watch how others have done these lessons, and this is primarily the way in which you determine which ones you want to consider learning. The important word here is CONSIDER, for you now take an armful of books, as you would, or as can best be described, you know, your catalog of course offerings. For those of you who remember school on the earth plane, you had all of these different selections, and they occur on different training grounds, not just the earth plane. And you begin, then, to look at where these different lessons are offered and the intensity of the training ground that it will be offered in. And then, you have an opportunity to know who is the major teacher of that lesson, for The Universe sets up major guides who have been especially trained to oversee all of those who help in the teaching of each particular lesson.

Now. What becomes so similar to your earth plane experience ~ and remember the earth plane is a physical manifestation of a Universal Concept ~ you may like the lesson ~ you may like where it is being presented ~ but, by golly, you do not like the teacher. But you have no choice. You must attend that class, if you will. And The Universal Consciousness has a reputation building of who this teacher is. You go to all these other entities and you say, "What did you think of that teacher? And that teacher? And that teacher?" And you must form your own opinions as you interact, and that part of the learning of a lesson is in who helps you to learn it, you see. And that when you first begin learning your lesson, you have not much choice in who is going to help you learn that lesson, be it on the earth plane in physical, be it in another training ground, or be it in a spirit training ground.

As you advance in your awarenesses, you begin to have the capabilities to specifically select who will help you to learn, as you complete that Cycle of Learning and are, therefore, charged with teaching those who would teach. And we give you reference back to our discussion on The Cycle of the Learning of lessons (See Transcript 04.17.1990).

Now. What happens when you come onto the earth plane to learn your lesson? You have seen it on the big screen in spirit, and you think, "This will be very easy." And then, like you would take any new class in school, you think on the first day, "Oh, this is very easy. I will not have any problems in learning this subject matter. It is all so basic. There is not much that I need to learn here." And as the lessons begin to unfold, the complexity begins to make itself known to you.

Now. The selection of your lessons, then, is in a continual state of evolution, for we know at the levels of our awareness that The Toy Box selection is done with this concept of "The eyes are bigger than the stomach." It appears that we can take on much more, and we understand this. And while you are first beginning your journey with your Toy Box, you are not aware that you can empty your Toy Box at any time. We have implanted that into your soul memories so that you have at that level an awareness that you can take the toy and put it away, give it away, if you want, at any time. If it is in the Soul memory, it ultimately will not be destructive to you if you were to let go of something, you see.

And thus, what you need to remember is that in the selection of your lessons, you are responsible from the very first time of awareness of a lesson to the letting go of that lesson. You can at any time say, "This is not what I want." Or at any time you can say, "I want to go further than I had anticipated, for I find this to be much more interesting and challenging than it appeared to be."

Now, we have the serious lesson learning and we have the flipside of it being joyful, for it is joy filled to learn your lesson and to know that you have selected this lesson yourself. How do you come to choose all of these? Well, how do you choose anything? You can select ~ there is nothing that says you must choose this, and you must choose that. Upon immediately entering out of The One into the encasement of The Universal Consciousness, you start playing the game. And what another selects is of no concern, for they may select many, many lessons and you may select one. That one may be a very big one. It may be a very big toy, and you carry that toy from training ground to training ground. Now. What types of questions might you have on what we have thus far indicated?

Is It Possible To Eliminate A Lesson That Was Initially Chosen?

Let us say the toy you have chosen is patience ~ or the lack thereof. You say one can exchange, or get rid, of that toy. How do you do that?

Yes. It is as simple as that.

Yes, but does that mean you have to take another toy?

Not necessarily. What it simply does is reconfigure the percentages of all the other lessons or toys that you have taken on. So, for example, if you let go of patience as an issue, and let us say ~ we go back to the percentage issue ~ let us say that you determine to take on for your earth plane sojourn ten percent of the total learning of patience, and thus far, through your various lifetimes, you have achieved five percent of that ten percent, just for rounding off now. Thus, you still have five percent. What happens, then, is that five percent out of one hundred has been achieved. The five percent goes back into your total, thus giving you ninety five percent, however, of patience to be learned. However, what then happens is that that five percent that you gave back on patience must be absorbed by the other lessons that you are currently carrying, or the other toys. So, the space must be taken care of.

Now does that mean that in another lifetime I am going to have to do the patience all over again?

No. What you have essentially said is that you are finished with patience on the earth plane for any lifetime. You have done five percent and that is enough. And the other ninety five percent that you have determined to take on will be learned in other training grounds.

So, it must be learned eventually.

Eventually.

So, in other words, I might have chosen thirty percent to be patience, just to get it over it.

Indeed.

Indeed. Which would be a big mistake. ☺

Some have taken on higher percentages. There are some among you. But understand the point here, that the five percent that you had left to do for patience on the earth plane has now been placed back into the Universal ~ your Universal component. You still have five percent of a lesson, however, missing from your earth plane sojourn. That must be absorbed by, let us say, the issue of Unconditional Love, that you have determined to take on your earth plane sojourn fifty percent out of the total.

And in this particular lifetime you have accumulated thirty percent, meaning that you still have twenty percent of Unconditional Love to learn in your earth plane sojourn. That five percent of patience must then be distributed, so that you could indeed choose to have that five percent go to Unconditional Love, thus making you now thirty five. You have completed thirty. You need twenty five percent more because you have added in your patience. Or, you could take one percent and place it into forbearance and one percent into any of the other issues that you might take on.

It Is Through Meditation That One Can View Progress Of Their Lessons Growth

Is it possible to have a kind of map of what toys your selection is? Would that help in your daily task? In other words, if I had about thirty percent patience and ten percent trust ~

You do. You do have this. When you open your Toy Box, there it is. It is a progress chart. It is your growth chart, just as you have on the earth plane the little notches that you achieve as you grow taller, and for some of you, wider. You have the total growth of your physical encasement. You then have the total growth of your energy.

And this chart is available to you through your meditations. This is another reason why we emphasize so much the seeking of the answers from the Higher Self. The Higher Self, remember, is the key to the Soul, and in the Soul lies all of the information, but it is very easily obtained through your meditations. You simply would ask your Higher Self, ask your guides and your Angelic Protector, and "Show me my chart. Give me an idea of where I am."

One's Ability To Renegotiate What Toys You Have In Your Toy Box

You know, renegotiation is the theme of The Universe. Everything is changeable. As you come into a situation to learn, it is not written in some type of stone that it must be that way, for energy fluctuates. Everything is interdependent. And as you all now gather, the gathering of your energies has created fluxsation, has created a difference. You leave this gathering different from when you entered it, simply because of the exchange of the various energies. And your perceptions of what you need to learn, and how you need to learn them, changes. And you look into your Toy Box, and you say, "I have outgrown this particular toy." Or "I need to have something that will accommodate my growth in a different way." And you simply renegotiate.

It may appear to you that upon entering the sojourn of the earth plane, you need to take on the issue of patience. We will use this again. You need to really concentrate on patience, for from a distance it appears to you that it is such a major issue, and that, for you, you feel you must take on accelerated learning on the earth plane. Upon entering the earth plane, after several experiences with patience through many lifetimes, you step back and you say, "This is not quite what I expected it to be ~ it is not quite as difficult ~ and I would rather spend my time on another area ~ that now that I have entered into the energy of the earth plane, I see things differently, for this is not television. I am now the character. I now feel it. I now know it. I interact with other energies who also experience."

It is an interaction of the highest acceleration on the earth plane, where you have opportunity at physical level to place out in the open, spiritual awarenesses. This is not true on many other training grounds. There is not the awareness of the connection between the spiritual and the physical. This is the joyful part of the earth plane, that you can actually, physically feel and touch, you see.

Toys Versus Gifts ~ You Have A Minimum Of One Gift From Your Angelic Protector

Are gifts, like in the gift of music, considered toys?

Oh, yes!

So, a toy and a gift are the same thing. In other words, different people are given different gifts to take with them. I mean, is there a distinction between a gift and a toy? For example, is there a difference between the gift of healing, per se, and the toy of patience?

Gift and toy. The toy can be a gift ~ just as you are given on the earth plane the gift of a toy, a plaything, from someone who would want to give you pleasure, so too are you then given gifts from others. They are different from the toys that you would select yourself. They nonetheless give you pleasure. Remember that toys give you pleasure. However, a gift is special, and it has with it a special energy. And each of you is given at least one gift from your Angelic Protector. Some are given more. It depends on how much ~ what is the phrase that I could use that Mushiba uses? It is how much you would play up to your Angelic Protector. What do you call this?

Buttering up.

Buttering up is a very good phrase. My love, thank you. If, after I depart, you would ask Mushiba the phrase she uses with her students, you would understand why I have chosen not to use that phrase. ☺

Now, you receive, then, a gift from your Angelic Protector of a particular toy. And it is through the minimum of this one gift that you spread joy as you go from incarnation to incarnation. It is that which is the overall Lightheartedness that you possess. Some have much more Lightheartedness that they have developed than others, but each has a very minimum Lightheartedness that helps to spread the light and the joy.

Now, the gift is a spiritual manifestation of a lesson. So, thus, you could be ~ we will go back to patience as a lesson. You have this lesson of patience. But the gift that has been given to you ~ and we will be specific for examples here ~ for Barjan, the gift is sound, and the gift is being able to hear sound in ways that soothe the energy of Barjan initially as the issues of patience come into existence, and also, the gift to spread the sound to others who would have difficulty in learning lessons, not necessarily the same lessons of patience, but the ability to spread Lightness through sound to help others in their learning of lessons. And Barjan, you have already exhibited this capacity with your music and will continue to do so. It is a gift.

The gifts usually present themselves in ways that are creative, as you would perceive it on the earth plane, that usually relate to color and sound, and relate to the ways in which the illusion is presented to those around each of you, that which is concrete, the ability to bring beauty into the environment. And each of you has that ability to bring beauty into your environment. You have the minimum of one gift, and that gift comes from your Angelic Protector and follows you through every incarnation on the earth plane. In some way, it is there with you.

It is the underlying current, if you will, that makes the earth plane bearable and makes it a playground at times, for you will periodically be given the gift of a Play Lifetime on the earth plane, in which you concentrate on your gift. This is what comes through the most. And it works in harmony, then, with each of your toys. Some of you will have several gifts that work in harmony with various toys, but always remember you have a minimum of one gift from your Angelic Protector.

Is there a correlation between the numbers of toys you are choosing in your entry and the number of gifts you are getting? So, the more toys you choose, the more gifts you may get to make it easier for you to work through the issues?

Not necessarily, my love, for you may not have buttered up your Angelic enough. You may have ten toys, and really, really worked on your Angelic and have ten gifts, or simply one gift, or five. It really is up to each of you, you see. We are not immune from being bribed. ☺

How can we do that?

Well, it is very easy.

What is the best way to butter up an Angelic?

We do have our price. ☺

Can we get gifts after we have entered the earth plane?

Oh, indeed. You see, once you learn the game, be it the earth plane game or the spirit game, you learn from others who have buttered up their Angelic, and you meet another entity and you say, "My, you have so many gifts! How did you get so many gifts? I only have one gift." ~ "Well, this is how I did it. And this is what you have to do and say to your Angelic." They all respond to similar kinds of stimuli.

You do it with your earth plane teachers, do you not? You learn what the hot buttons are. We are no different. You know, because we speak from a higher realm, a realm that you cannot physically touch, it does not mean that we are any different than the physical realm that you have experience with, your frame of reference. The frame of reference has been presented to you so that you will understand the realm in which we operate. There is nothing mystical about us. And thus, you can get as many toys as you want once you come onto the plane. You see how others do it. We rather enjoy being bribed. We have a wish list.

We always like the attempt. That is the joy. It is the attempt at buttering us up that we enjoy, and the fact that you attempt to do it is guarantee that you will do it, you see. It is not taking us seriously. An Angelic has a serious mission of protection, but also has the mission of Lightheartedness. And there is nothing mysterious about us. There is nothing foreboding about us. We are just as you, except with a different mission. And our awarenesses have been gained through experiences that you can choose to have or not. We rather enjoy the game, and we will be talking more of the earth plane game in a session to come soon, at your local theater. ☺

Can We Go Overboard In Wanting To Learn A Lesson, It Then Becoming A Compulsion?

Ah, my love, spoken from the Virgo perspective of the astrological entry. Yes. Compulsion is a lesson in itself, you see, and each toy has a compulsion aspect to it. And, you know, it goes, again, to the teeter totter. We use toys to help us illustrate the lessons. The teeter totter, you must go up and down, up and down, to balance. And compulsion is an extreme, and in order to balance, there must be the extremes. You must go up ~ you must go down. You must go up ~ you must go down, until you finally come to equilibrium.

And thus, if you find yourself in a compulsion, be it for the entire lifetime or only on a particular situation, or a particular time frame, do not be angry with yourself, but rather, to view this as progress in the learning of your lesson as you reach equilibrium. But also, to view it in the perspective that when there is the up and down, the highs and the lows, it creates a tremendous amount of energy expenditure, and that the goal is to achieve as near equilibrium as possible, but that the compulsion may indeed be for the entire lifetime.

Selecting any of the astrological signs, as you know them, those entry energy times, have, as you have come to know them, the good and the bad, and that each of those energy configurations you must balance. You know, it is all not negative. And being compulsive, you see, also, to you, may not be compulsive. To another, they may view that as compulsive. And thus, it takes on relativity. If you view it as compulsive, then it is. If another views it as compulsive, but you do not, then it is not. It is only when you view it, for then you know that you are in a state of disequilibrium.

And thus, growth is occurring as you strive to achieve balance, if you know this and you say, "I am being compulsive. I know I am being compulsive. I do not care that I am being compulsive. I work on being compulsive. It is my compulsion, and I will be it if I want to be." You have acknowledged it. If someone else says to you, "That behavior I think is very compulsive." And you say, "But what do you mean?" Then there is no issue except that the other entity has an issue. We deal with this with Mushiba all the time. We know of what we speak in this area.

Are All These Decisions Made At Conscious Level, Higher Self Level, Or Soul Level?

Oh, they are at all levels, my love, but initially they are at the very highest of the Soul Level. The Soul makes the major decision. The Soul makes the decision as to "This is The Menu that we will take on." The Higher Self, then, becomes involved in being the agent for negotiation, for then the lower levels, including the conscious level of which you find yourselves now, are the chief negotiating levels. And they use the Higher Self as that negotiating tool with the Soul.

This is another reason why we say that connection with the Higher Self is so critical, for it is the Higher Self that listens to the Lower Self when these negotiations take place. And it is the Higher Self that then says, "Yes, I will go talk to the Soul." So, it is so important that you have a good working relationship with your Higher Self. All the levels get involved, however. It is not just one, one level making a decision for the entire energy that you are.

And, you know, speaking of negotiation, Mushiba has not stopped negotiating with us for the time on the plane, you see ~ and so, understand that we plan to be with you for A good number of earth plane years. However, the negotiation is still taking place there. And you are all able to do that with yourself, to negotiate and to change your game plan, to reconfigure that which is in your Toy Box.

Can The Lessons In Your Toy Box Be Traded In?

For those of you who would be honoring us with your presence in our next session, we will have a playtime. It will be a celebration of the changing of the seasons on the earth plane, and there will be most interesting earth plane changes coming now as the acceleration accelerates on the planet. And we would ask you to bring with you your favorite toy, and we will not define for you, toy. You may bring your favorite toy ~ you may dress as your favorite toy ~ you may act as your favorite toy. But we will play with you, as your toy. And we will have for you a vibrational Toy Box, and it will be an opportunity for you to perhaps select a new toy and put back an old one.

You can trade ~ like in a flea market.

Yes, you can trade. We understand this frame of reference, and you could do this. You could bring in something that is old and used and not of value to you anymore, but may be of value to someone else, and put it on the block. We will have all in The Company with us at that session, the other six, ready to play and negotiate also. And all of your guides and Angelic Protectors will be in focus during that time. It will be a most energy filled session, and much negotiation can occur, if you so desire.
