A New Illusion Update, And Seeking And Sending The Light Within Self And Others

We are aware of certain decorations that adorn Mushiba's encasement, and we find this to be vibrationally harmonious, you know, to the spirit of the occasion, as we, not coincidentally, of course, timed our entry into the mission to be in harmony with the ending and the beginning of earth plane time frames known as years. We use this occasion now to give you what we would best like to refer to as The New Illusion update, to give you a status, shall we say, of the vibrational changes that are occurring and to also provide for you a Lightheartedness that, as we are well on record, is essential for spiritual growth, to have the Lightheartedness.

The theme that we would project for at least the coming earth plane year is what you now find yourselves surrounded with, and that is the finding of the Light within, and especially to focus on finding the Light within Self, for once you have found the Light within Self ~ whatever degree that would be ~ enables you then to see the Light within others. Others are not to be confined strictly to the human encasement, but would be expanded to include all that is, all energy, whatever encasement that energy would find itself, and that the more Light you see within Self, the far greater your ability to see the Light within others.

The planet now approaches its final cleansing stages. It moves now into what can best be given as a frame of reference for you all as the next to the last stage of cleansing, and that this will take a few earth plane years before the final stage will be upon the earth. What is occurring now is that the layers of vibration that the earth has surrounding itself are shedding and the Light begins to come through, and as symbolically as you would hug these artifacts that have been given to play with here, these symbols of the earth, so too would you hug Self to bring out the Light.

And in our attempt to help you to find the Light within, and in our acknowledgement of the need for many to have symbols of their growth ~ be they symbols such as the lighted candles or other types of artifacts that enable an entity to concretely identify with their own growth ~ we will present to you in this session, along, of course, with the others in The Company who will each come through, a gift that Terra Lux will put together, shall we say, and offer to the public in the months to come. We will give to you the sample, if you will, of this particular symbol that is a combination of herbs and crystals ~ from those two kingdoms ~ that coupled with the earth itself, as part of the symbolism, and particular wording that will be provided to you, will serve as perhaps a concreteness within your own meditative state and simply as a symbol of finding the Light within.

Each of The Company will come in now and give you their part of this particular gift and then when each of them has finished, I shall return and give you the final vibrational attunements to this, as well as to give you vibrational attunements to The Mineral Kingdom gift that has been given to each of you for being here with us in this session.

All In The Company Come In With Blessings And Sending Light And Comfort To The Earth

Bathusela: We send to you the very pinkness that comes from the vibration of understanding of gender and the difficulties now on the plane between the genders. I am Bathusela and I have for you a particular potion, and first, is what we call the master crystal of the pink that represents gender, and pink is used to represent both the male and the female. And my purpose in The Company has been, and continues to be, assistance in the working through of issues relating to genders and relationships between male and female, male and male, and female and female. And it is especially appropriate in the working through of gender issues to look for the Light, to look for the similarities and not the conflicts.

We have this herb which we will place ~ could you, love? Thank you. We will place into this container. It will be mixed with others as they come in. These containers are for show only. They are not very functional. We have placed our energy now into this master crystal that will serve as the energizer for all of the future herbs that will be used to come from my particular vibration. They will meld with the others that come in now and will culminate in one total vibration that Waith will give upon his return.

As you focus upon the gender, and you would specifically look to find the Light within another in a relationship ~ be it male or female ~ that is important to you, focus on the words "We are One. Gender is an illusion, and gender is meant to help in the issues that we face outside of The Universal Consciousness, and that we have chosen our gender with love, and that we look at each other as also having chosen their gender with love, and it comes from love." Focus your Light now on the essence of your gender ~ and find the Light that emanates from your gender and stand proud of the gender ~ and understand the love of gender.

Jacques: I come to you as Jacques. I am represented by the color green, and my purpose is to Be of Service in the healing of individual of Self. And as you look within yourself to find your Light, it is a healing process. And we give to you then an energy of Self-Healing that will enable you to then seek out and Be of Service to Others who are on their own healing path.

We take the master crystal ~ which does not want to come out. Yes. Bathusela was correct. She warned me. These are nonfunctional containers. My love, you would assist me perhaps. We place her on the spot now. It will truly be vibrationally attuned now as it goes into the herbs. We have the master crystal now and we place ~ this should be easy now, shouldn't it? We place into the container then our component from The Herb Kingdom. As you meditate and would want to call specifically upon the Healing of Self, in your attempt to bring into yourself the Light, focus on the green energy, and fill it into that which comprises the entire Energy Centers, from bottom to top, and from top to bottom. And fill the Energy Centers with the energy of green.

And if you have a particular issue that weighs heavily upon you that would want to have healing, or at least a lightening of the issue, visualize that issue within that which is the Solar Plexus filled with the green, and allow the Self-Healing and the Light of Self to fill this Energy Center. And simply focus on this and it will soothe that issue, and it will be a guide as you seek the answers from the Higher Self. This has been energized. Call upon us for Self Healing, for that is our purpose.

Farena: Hello-o-o. Guess who? I am Farena. See, mine came out real easy. I am purple, and I am here to help lighten and give you music and help you with color, and for that occasion ~ ah, where did it go? (There are clanging sounds) Doesn't this make such a racket? But it is also to play with. It is simply to remind you that it is fun, that we are here, all of us outside of The Universal Consciousness ~ is that the way it is done? ☺ I am coming from the memory banks to have fun, and so, we give you this as a little play toy. (Clanging sounds) That is for Buema. Hi, Buema! (Referring to the initial transcribing by Buema)

We energize this master crystal, and we ask you to stay lighthearted and to look to the color and look to the sound around you as helping to bring out the Light, to recognize the Light within Self and within others through music and all the other sounds that make up your environment. And color, to surround yourself with the color that is harmonious to you. Surround yourself. Visualize your color, whatever it is. We take now what is predominantly purple, but has other colors, and we will do this ~ (wooden sounds) ~ because Mushiba stuffed it in there. Different colors to represent not only purple, which is us ~ she does not play anymore with me. I used to be able to get her to play. Here. Here. (Farena is referring to the one assisting her)

As you take on the seriousness of your path, remember the Lightheartedness that must balance it and accompany you, and as you feel so full from the seriousness of what you are here to learn and what you are here to teach, think of your color and think and visualize the Light springing from within you. And take the color that is your favorite color and take the sound that is your favorite sound. Surround yourself in your meditation and focus on your favorite color and your favorite sound, and bring yourself into your Higher Self, and feel the Lightheartedness. Bye bye.

Francis: We greet you with the joy that comes from the connection of The Animal Kingdom. I am Francis. And we are most delighted for the energy of animal that joins all of you in this session and the gentle spirit. We are here in our mission with Waith and the others to guide in the issues related to The Animal Kingdom in particular, but also, we are further expanded in our mission to aid in that which is community development, and by that, we mean not simply a small grouping of human encasements who form a grouping but all of the kingdoms that make up community, and that a community is only complete by its inclusion of as many from other kingdoms as can be possible, and that gatherings would include many different energies from many different kingdoms. This can be difficult at times to live with on the earth plane, for it brings in, of course, all of the issues of community, that personalities, and as you know, humans are not the only ones with personalities. You find all of the kingdoms to have personalities. And thus, the bringing in of the Light is essential into the groupings of community.

We have our master crystal. We place into this an energy that will aid as Planet Earth brings itself into harmony, as all of the kingdoms that make up Planet Earth clean and harmonize, for Planet Earth is the symbol of the unity and the harmony of all the kingdoms. And it is only when there is harmony and unity among all the kingdoms that you feel a sense of balance.

The Human Kingdom is not in charge, and it is time to give up the idea that The Human Kingdom is in control of the earth. We are here to help in that giving up. And as you find the Light within Self, you would focus on Self ~ we must do this as Farena did, for Farena is our lightening up agent, as many of you know ~ thank you, my love ~ As you focus, you must focus on Self as a part of all and not the master of others, but to seek the harmony of other kingdoms. The Animal Kingdom has been very specifically brought into a particular vibration during these final stages of cleansing to aid in an understanding of the interconnection of all the kingdoms. Surround yourself with The Animal Kingdom as much as you can. Focus in your meditations that which is the planet, and the focus of all the kingdoms that make up the planet, and the light within, and the Light within others.

Call upon us in your meditations as you attempt to release the feeling that occasionally may come that The Human Kingdom is better than others in other kingdoms. And if you have particular difficulties with an Animal Kingdom member, then most assuredly call upon us. We will be able to give you guidance as you seek your answers. Farewell.

Jenjura ~ I am Jenjura. I am not let out very often. I am the Librarian, as it is called. It is I who researches the records in The Universal Consciousness as you ask your questions, that I may then give you the answers as you would need them, and also, my service is to Waith and the others in attempts to interpret your questions that come to Waith and the others, to scurry about in the computer banks, as you would best reference this frame.

We now go to this. We are yellow, as our color. This is new for us to place energy through Mushiba into The Mineral Kingdom. It is delightful. And we now must do this task. We follow the example of the others and that is the pouring in. Thank you, my love.

We do not tell you what to do. We are here to Be of Service as you ask the questions, and we find the guidance for you. As you go into your meditations, you ask the questions of the Higher Self. You ask the questions of your guides. They do not always know the answers. That is what we are here for, for the information is stored so often far away in the memory banks of Self, purposely, that if it is deemed appropriate for the information then to be given to you, it is our job, along with many others who perform this task. There are many of us in the library, to give you the information that you seek. What you do with that information is entirely up to you. We simply are given the permission to provide the information as you would best need this information. Understand that the process of information through Self must come through the Soul. If you ask of us information, we do not directly give you the answer. It is filtered through the Soul, which then gives the information to the Higher Self, and the Higher Self, then, with the guides, gives it to Conscious Self.

Visualize in your meditations the color yellow and place this color into that which is referred to as the Third Eye. This is the ability to see that which is higher information. And place the question into this color of yellow and visualize that which is needed for information to come through. We place this back to its container. (The herbs) Do not hesitate to call upon Jenjura. Our role in this mission is to be in the background. We do not enter in very frequently, and we are most pleased to be in all of your vibrations. Call upon us at any time. We are always available. Farewell, for now, until we have a question.

Susan: I am Susan. My purpose is to help in Group Healing. This is working in coordination with Francis and with Jacques, as we heal the individual and we heal the group. There is no entity on the earth plane who is not involved in some type of Group Balancing. That is part of the path. We are here to help in that balancing of group and the healing of the small groupings.

We are represented by the color blue. Jacques was the only one who had trouble getting his crystal out. It will be something that we may all, as a group, work through as we remind him. We do this, you know. We are Group Balancing also. We energize the group balance energy and place our contribution of the blue herbs. Thank you, my love. As you find yourself in a group balance, where you feel the Light is needed ~ and what group balance does not need it ~ visualize the blue. The blue represents a diffusion of color that encompasses all the different members of the group. And visualize harmony within the blue energy. Simply feel harmony. It will ease the seriousness that may be part of the issue you find yourself with in a particular group.

Many of you have several groups in which you find yourself balancing. Rejoice in this, for it brings you closer to The Universal Consciousness, as you gain higher awareness of others with whom you have grouped. Look for the similarities, not the differences. Focus on the similarities and focus on the love that the similarities provide. And look to the differences as the opportunities to grow in the love of Self and the Light that comes from that love. Call upon us whenever you need guidance in your group. It does not need to be in a meditation. It can simply be as you gather in the group, to say, "We need guidance and assistance as we gather in our group," and that is all it will take, the asking to find the Light within the group. Where is the Light within the group? Farewell to all of you.

Waith: Well, now, they have all spoken to you, and we are now here to give you the final component of this. We like to be a bit dramatic. You may have noticed in the past. And with the assistance of guess who for this particular instrument ~ the bowl. Thank you, my love. This was Farena helping to do this. Just for to give you symbolism, each of these herbs now become combined with the others and they form an energy that is symbolic of that which has been given to you for information. It also contains now an energy from each of The Company that is representative of the different issues that they each are in charge of. Now, we have one final component. This is the earth. And this is the earth that comes from that which surrounds Terra Lux, as Terra Lux is an Energy Vortex, this has the representation of the earth, and there is a rock. You would hold this, my love.

As the earth was gathered, there were two rocks wanting to be the master rocks, and we agreed that we would let them share the responsibilities since they felt that they needed to both be in combination. These are energized now as needed, and the final bit is placed into the brew, as you might call it. Some of you may find this a soul memory coming through from other times of many other interesting combinations.

Now. We place this small container which has the chips from each of the master crystals that have been energized, and this container then has each crystal, and we would then take and combine into this that which is the combination of the crystals and the earth. And this gives to you then a symbolism of finding the Light within, for it represents the earth and all of the kingdoms within the earth. And it can be used as a reminder of the connectedness of all. And as you would call upon any in The Company, or simply to want to call upon the Light within, where a particular issue is concerned, you could visualize this, and actually, for the sense of touch, place it into your hand, be it from one of the herbs or be it from the crystals themselves. It is yours as symbolism, to hold, and then the container to place back. It has the energy that comes from us.

And we have a mineral that is a representative of the earth in its colors and in its composition which we now energize that will take its place with the other crystals and Mineral Kingdom members that provide a constant flow of energy to this vibration. And this can be held by any of you, much as you would hold the symbols of the planet that now adorn the gathering. This is to be held, to hug the earth. Hug the earth as much as you can. Just as when you are feeling ill, it is comforting to be hugged, if not physically, at least emotionally. Do this with the planet. Hug and hold and love. We now would energize all of the crystals that were gifts to you for being in this gathering, and we give Light within the energy.

We have completed this part of what we wanted to share with you, and we would take questions now, especially if they relate to what we have presented, or questions that you would have relating to finding the Light.

What Are The Herbs That You Used?

They are representative of the various color components that are symbolic of each member of The Company. They have been selected because of vibrational attunements, that can best be described to you as harmonious to the individual entities. So, for example, that which is the rose for Bathusela was selected by Bathusela when Mushiba was going to find these herbs. It is she who decided that this was what she wanted representing her. There is no, what you would call, Universal significance to the herbs being particularly important for various functions, as many herbs are. They are more to be conductors of the energy that comes from the particular vibration of each of The Company members.

So, the color vibration had more to do with the selection than any pharmacological reason?

That is correct. It was the color vibration. And also, a sense that the herb itself was harmonious, vibrationally, to each of The Company members, you see.

Waith Gives A Visualization To Use For Planet Earth's Healing

Can you please suggest any visualization or focusing techniques that we could use if we recognize a part of the earth that seems to need healing or special attention?

Indeed. You would take that part of the earth into your complete Energy Center, and it would be appropriate to visualize as Jacques had indicated, the color green, throughout the entire Energy Center as a healing, not only for the earth but for Self, for if you recognize in another ~ be it the earth or any other energy ~ that there is a healing needed. It is indicative that you also would need the healing that would accompany it, and thus, there would be then the harmonious healing, so that it is very simple to visualize within the entire Energy Center, moving up and moving down, as it would be on a slide of water ~ soothing, up and down, a comforting ~ and that it would also then comfort Self and enable Self to visualize the hugging of that particular component.

Why are you emphasizing that the earth needs specific attention, because we are under the impression that the earth will go through a cleansing period, so why is specific attention necessary from our side in this particular time frame now?

Now, my love, how long have you been listening to our words? How long have you been hearing that it is critical that attention be given to the earth? This is not a new idea that we present. This is simply now an acceleration as the earth goes through its final stages that we had indicated very early in our time, when we first began speaking, that the earth needed attention. And it has now reached the point where the earth now is about to go into its final stages and needs as much help as it can get. It must, of course, do its own cleansing by itself, just as each entity must, but it can be helped through its pain as it cleans and rejuvenates and becomes whole once again and clean. So, we do not present any new ideas here. We simply are elaborating on that which has been presented.

We near the ending of our time with you in this session and, you know, this session was designed primarily to give you an uplifting of that which is about to occur and the earth is in now greater need of assistance. And the update is, that all is going as it needs to be going, of course, and that The New Illusion is already presenting itself. There is much already around you that is part of The New Illusion, for it comes now in waves overlapping. And there will be times when you will see the sky, for example, in a way that is different from what you are accustomed to. It is an indication of that illusion of the sky for The New Illusion as the cleaning occurs.

And we will be focusing much of our discussions in the coming year to your questions in our Public Sessions. We will devote much of our time with you to your very specific questions rather than to a particular topic. And thus, we would welcome the opportunity then to delve further into those questions which are of greatest concern as you seek the Light within yourself and seek the Light within others. We are here to give guidance. Your answers will not come from us. And that is perhaps one of the most difficult issues to accept often, that you are responsible for your own behavior and your own answers.

A Question About Time Frames For The New Illusion And Changes Occurring Now

When you talk about acceleration, what do you expect when counting the years? This looks like it takes place more on the spiritual level. How would we experience events which we can relate to what is going to happen? Can you see anything specific coming in the next three hundred and sixty-five days?

The events that are occurring at the physical plane occur in such a way that you assimilate each event without it becoming such a, what you call, big deal. If you were to look back at physical events in these past few years, you would see rather cataclysmic activity, and yet you are all still here in one form or another. And this is simply the pattern that will be followed. There will be nothing that is presented that, at the physical plane, you will not be able to deal with.

And there is nothing to predict that has not already been predicted, and that is, that institutions will continue to redefine themselves. Many will collapse so that they can rebuild. Geographic areas will be redefined. Some will go out of the illusion and others will come into the illusion. You are already seeing this occurring in this land mass known as America. There are now large areas of water where there used to be land. That will be the pattern, and it will happen in ways that, until the actual shifting, will be considered all right to deal with. You will not have anything you will not be able to deal with.

We have already indicated that there is soon to be a dry time on the planet, and it approaches that time as the planet now goes into its final stages. As it redistributes the moisture component, there will be areas that will be very, very dry and will not have precipitation, and others that will be inundated with precipitation, as the earth redefines itself. And as we have also indicated, it will be hot when it is normally cold, and cold when it is normally hot. That will continue to accelerate and define itself. And you will find that the earth will simply be redefining itself in ways that will seem very natural on one hand, and on the other hand, you will look in amazement at how the earth is cleaning itself. There is nothing major to predict. It does not take a spook from The Angelic Kingdom to tell you that things are happening, that there are changes occurring. That is a very obvious situation now.

What we are here to do is to give you the guidance to help you in the balance between the physical and the spiritual, and to recognize the higher purpose in all that occurs, and to recognize that all that exists is not simply this physical plane, and for you to work through this and to become vibrationally prepared for the final cleansing moment when the earth shifts in that very brief moment. It is a brief moment in time, you know ~ The Shifting ~ for then things will settle back and the illusion will start up again, and all the old STUFF will be there, except packaged a bit differently, you see.

So, it is simply a time of transition and not a time of ending ~ and cleaning out, rebuilding, redefining ~ and a time for optimism and hope and not a time of pessimism and despair. It is a time, however, when the forces of the dark would want to creep in and have you believe that this is a time of despair. It is not. It is a time of seeking the Light, for as the earth goes into its final stages of cleansing, it is cleaning off much of the muck that surrounds it now, and the Light shines through. So, the cleansing is a bringing out of the Light that has been, in many cases, hidden from dense vibrational coverings. Clean. Welcome anything that enables you to clean your vibration. Welcome it, for it brings out the Light. And help others to clean in their own vibration, for it will help them to see the Light within themselves and for you to see their Light also.

It is time for us now to depart. We have been most pleased to have shared this time with you, for it is representative of the time in which Mushiba and I reconnected in our own vibrations and our own mission, and we are pleased to have shared this with you. In our next gathering we will take up the business of the mission in full once again, as we welcome open questions on any topic.

And we are most, most pleased to have shared with you, and we ask you all now to gather into Self the very Light of Self and to bring it into that which is the Heart Center, and to massage the Heart Center with the beauty of the Light within, and to visualize this beauty of Light within coming out into the total gathering and merging with each other's beauty of Light within. And as we depart, visualize the interconnectedness of each other and the beauty of the Light, and we now send to you all the very Highest of the White Light from the very Highest of the Kingdom of Amelius. Farewell.
