How Do I Know If I Am Flowing With The Universal Energy?

There is no book of guidelines for each of us as energies to know that the flow is occurring. First of all, of course, is the absolute necessity for connection with the Higher Self through meditation or through other forms of connection that have been developed. It is very easy, however, to say that one must connect with the Higher Self, for then the answers will simply come. Others would say, "Well, that is easy enough for you to say! You are at your Higher Self so you know what is being said. What of us here at a concrete level, who may not indeed be connecting with the Higher Self, or know even if you are connecting and how to go about that connection?"

Meditation, of course, is the absolute way for that connection, and of course one must meditate to learn how to meditate better. If one stops, then of course one can lose ground in the progress made toward reaching the Higher Self. However, that is all well and good if you are able to make those connections, but for many on the plane, they find themselves so very much grounded onto the earth plane activities ~ the illusion that presents itself ~ that there is the concern that there is a need to know if what you are doing is right, or not. Our response to this may, at first reading, appear to be flippant but we will qualify what we say. You must understand that everything that you do is meant to be happening. There really is nothing that you can do wrong. Now, this may appear all too simplistic, so we will qualify that now.

Part of the learning of lessons is to indeed know the difference between the ego controlling and the Soul ~ or The Universe ~ controlling behaviors. And the only way for Self to learn that difference is to indeed act upon that which is happening and being presented. And it is very easy to say, "If it feels like it is correct, then I must respond to it." But if you are unsure of whether it feels right, or not, what do you do at that point? You know, all you can do is what you do. This is a Universal Truth. And the anxiety that you may feel about whether you are doing something right or not is part of the learning of the lesson to Flow with The Universe, for once you are able to fully trust in The Universe, you no longer have the question of whether it is right or not, for you will know that if you do it, it is appropriate.

You know, what might appear not to be a correct behavior by another entity is not your concern ~ none of you. It is not your concern. It is the path of that entity, so that there is on the earth plane now, considerable amounts of behavior that entities perform that you would call abhorrent ~ the killing, if you will, of another. Understand, of course, that one does not kill another. It is time for that energy to leave, and so the illusion is presented for the balancing and the issues to be learned and taught, that one takes the life of another. It is simply not the case. No other energy can take the life of another. It is an impossibility. Energy controls its own destiny.

And thus, it is that whatever is presented to you, and the way in which you respond, is the way in which you are supposed to respond, even if it is a response that is in conflict with the Higher Self and the Soul. As we have discussed on many occasions, blockages occur between the Higher Self and the Soul to let Conscious Self be aware of what is occurring. Even those blockages are meant for lessons to be learned. It is part of the total experience that an energy takes on.

And that our ultimate word on all of this would be to relax, my loved ones, to relax, and at the same time to take very seriously your path, that which you have come to learn. But also, to know that all happens as it is meant to be happening. As difficult as it is, and even your own resistances to what is happening is part of what is supposed to be happening. It is all prearranged by all of you. Remember, no external source controls the energy. It is the energy that controls the energy, in harmony, then, with others. For all is connected to The Universal Consciousness.

Discussion Of Perspectives From Different Astrological Signs

It is very common that those who come onto the earth plane with certain planetary alignments, as you call it, the astrological signs that certain issues are designed for those particular alignments. And that sign in which you have come in, my love, and others who come in through the grounded signs of the earth, the earth signs, will find themselves wanting to have very specific step by step guidance. "If this happens, then this will happen. And then this will happen, and then this will happen, and it is a guarantee. My goodness, it is a guarantee and we do not have to worry about the next step." It is why there is such variation in the alignments of the earth plane planets, to give the opportunities to move through the flow that occurs from each of these alignment signs, and to experience the energy differences, for those who come in through an air sign, for example, do not have that same perspective. They have the perspective of wondering if they are doing the right thing, as the earth signs do, but not in the same manner.

And thus it is that the training ground of the earth plane has its reputation as being one of the most difficult and the most accelerated of training, for your lessons come to you very, very quickly in a lifetime, one right after the other. And in order to live through all of this, you must relax a bit and say, "Yes, this is what I need to be learning." And as soon as you let go of this pressure that you place on yourself, that you be able to know if it is the right step or not, it suddenly frees you, as many of you have found in the workings of this. As a concept, it is very easy.

The actual applications of this concept can be most difficult when you are in the midst of imbalance, turmoil, other energies coming at you, and it is the time to focus within Self and to know that the way in which you behave will be coming from higher sources, that you will be given the way in which you are to behave, and that if it means that you hang up the telephone on someone, for you do not like what they say, do not berate yourselves that you have acted in what you might consider an unspiritual manner.

All activity, at some level, is a spiritual activity, if one looks at it as part of the overall plan, to trust that all that flows through comes for purposes of teaching and learning. And oftentimes, you will not know whether you are teaching or learning. Sometimes you will, and as you connect with your Higher Self in greater degrees, you will have a better sense of whether a behavior you are engaged in is a teaching or a learning behavior, for the teacher oftentimes must exaggerate their own behavior in order for the student to understand.

Someone Questions The Issue Of The Killing Others ~ And The Flow Of The Universe

As the government responds to the growing homicide rate in America, should they look at it from the spiritual point and say, "Everybody who must experience this has to go, so we do not do anything. We just let it go?" Or should we take initiatives, with laws to reduce this, take actions, regulations, whatever is necessary?

You must understand, and you have heard this so often from other sources throughout the recorded history of the current illusion, that the earth plane is simply a stage in which different scenarios are acted out. We have jokingly told you of how we sit at the television of The Universe and click from one scenario to another as if we were watching this television, you have and watching the different plays, and the playing out of different scenarios.

There are many on the plane who have very conscious awarenesses of what we have just given as a response to this question of all that happens is happening as it is supposed to. Most, however, on the earth plane are at very different levels of awareness of the Universal Forces, as it is supposed to be, for if everyone was aware and was able to respond at a spiritual level to The Flow of The Universe, there would be no need to have the earth plane as a training ground. What you have then are entities who are here to help work through their own issues, as well as those others with whom they come in contact, so that if an entity is part of a government and part of an institution that is designed to create laws for society, then that is what they will do, and some will do it at higher levels of awareness than others.

And thus, you have the ongoing conflict between those who see a situation in a very different way from another who may see it in a more earth plane way. You can use as examples from your own life ~ individuals who you meet ~ and you look at a situation from different eyes, for you have certain awarenesses of why things are happening and more accepting of why things happen, and you flow with why things happen, whereas another would want to analyze it.

And it goes back to the point of this question ~ of this analyzing it. And there are many on the plane who agonize over whether they should do one thing or another, and the making of laws and the governing of societies is not excluded in any way from those agonizing decisions, and indeed is part of that process, that learning, that training ground.

So, understand that in this particular geographic area, this country known as America ~ as we have stated very early in our information dissemination ~ that it is inhabited primarily by those who were in Atlantis ten thousand years ago when the illusion had a major changing. And many have learned over the ten thousand years on the plane, through their own experiences in other lifetimes, and others have not learned. And, as we have indicated, when there is an illusion change, the lessons do not go away, the lessons do not change, but the way in which they are presented do change. And thus, certain lessons of abuse that mandated entities to leave at the illusion change ten thousand earth plane years ago are still part of The Menu, The Toy Box, if you will, that entities have, and they are now in this country, and they may be the ones who are doing the killing, or they may be the ones who are trying to solve the problem.

Understand that in an illusion change, as we have so often said, exaggeration occurs, acceleration occurs, and that this country has the very highest rate of killing is not to be a surprise, for it is an exaggeration of a lesson. But the other side of that is also that there is an exaggeration of equal proportion by those who would want to eliminate, so that the exaggerations are indeed on both sides. It is not, as you might think, out of balance. You must understand that The Universe at its highest level is completely balanced. There is no disharmony at the ultimate levels of The Universe. The only place that imbalance occurs is in the training grounds, the earth plane being one of those training grounds.

And, yes, it must be exaggerated. There must be imbalance in order for the lessons to be learned. It is the safety net, if you will. In spite of the difficulties of this training ground, or any training ground, you are ultimately safe. Nothing is going to happen to any of you. Nothing ever happens. You do not get put away some place. You may be entrenched in the darkness, but you are in existence. And without the dark, what would the Light have to do anyway? There would be nothing to do. And thus it is that the dark and the Light create the imbalance so that there is something to do, you see.

A question About The Doctrine Of Predestination Versus That Of Free Will

Much of this sounds like the doctrine of predestination, but where does the concept of free will come in?

Well, you know, this philosophy of predestination has been diluted over much time, for it is now believed, this word predestination, first of all, to be negative, and secondly, that it implies that each energy does not have any will, has no control, that some other higher force is controlling it. And you must understand that at its essence, the purity of this concept states that all entities have control over their own destiny, but that that control is dictated by the Soul. And where the dilution has occurred over time is that we now bring it onto the earth plane perspective ~ earth plane where ego reigns supreme for so many ~ and if the ego does not think it is in control and that the Conscious Self feels that it is not in control, it cries fowl, for the Soul is always in control. It is the Soul that determines the destiny of the concrete experiences.

And so, yes, predestination of you at the concrete level is very much a reality. Predestination of the Soul, however, is not. The Soul, in conjunction with The Universal Consciousness, which means ultimately in conjunction with every other energy, determines what will occur, and indeed, determines what will occur in particular scenarios on the earth plane or in any of the other training grounds. So that at concrete level, as we have indicated so many times, concrete Conscious Self is not in control, my dear ones. But nothing outside of you is in control.

Just because concrete is not in control does not mean that you have given over control to some external source, for indeed, concrete would want to. And this is the ultimate battle between the Higher Self and the Soul, that concrete wants to blame something else outside of itself, and soul, each of your souls, has the higher wisdom and knows that responsibility must be within the entity, and that there is nothing external to the Soul. It is quite clear.

And it is, however, the reason why you come onto the earth plane. As we say, the Soul is the direct connector to The Universal Consciousness, and it is very boring if everything is going as it is in harmony. One must get out of balance in order to have fun and have something to do, and that is why you are here. You have chosen to come onto the earth plane to experience imbalance, to experience the joys of thinking that you are in control when you are not and then getting very upset because you are not in control and then blaming something outside of Self. It is part of it. You see?

Question And Discussion About Earth Changes Occurring As A Result Of The Cleaning

Can you give us a February 1994 earth planet change update, especially considering the earthquakes and the fun weather?

Well, what would we say that would be any news to you that the earth planet itself is cleansing? And when we were last in to speak with all of you publicly at the time of the anniversary of our speaking through Mushiba, we indicated that the earth was now going into its ~ as best as can be given to your frame of reference ~ its next to the last stage of cleansing.

There is, as we have indicated on two other occasions in public in recent times, a major drying of the planet that is about to occur, and that areas that are receiving much moisture will continue to do so, and areas that have been receiving less than normal, over what you call an extended period of time, will now begin to receive even less. The geographic area in which you find yourselves now, this particular Vibrational Zone, will have a major drying period.

What you call the West Coast of this America is not to be here for The New Illusion. You do not need to hear this from an Archangel. It has been indicated by many, many, many

~ not even coming from other dimensions ~ but your own scientists on the earth plane. Many of course have been ridiculed for their predictions.

However, what you see now occurring will be very accelerated and very dramatic. And there will be now the realignment and the reconfiguring and the restructuring of land and water. And those areas where there have been land will be eroded with water, and where there has been water because of the drying that will begin soon, will have less water. So, in some parts of the earth they will receive much more water and moisture, and in other parts of the earth, they will receive less. This will continue for several of your earth plane years.

And one cleansing activity triggers another. We have so long ago indicated that it would be earthquakes, hurricanes and tornadoes as those major vehicles by which the earth cleans itself, and that each of those, then, trigger other kinds of earth activities that will relate ultimately to the realignment of land and water on the plane. So, you would not want to be at all surprised by the news, on a regular basis, that comes to you of the changes in the land and the water percentages and configurations.

This is an accelerated time that you are in now and it will accelerate on the acceleration very soon. You will see this what you call weather ~ you know, I am harassed by Mushiba on a regular basis now because of this cold and this snow, and she likes to whine where this is concerned, and we try to reassure her that it will not be for much longer and that, however, what will come after it is just as difficult to work through. It is meant to provide cleansing.

You must understand that even when we speak of exaggerations in the killing arena, that all that occurs is part of the cleaning out of the energy, and that energies must leave the earth plane. There simply will not be allowed certain vibrational energies on the earth plane once The New Illusion comes in. There must be a realignment of energies, and so, this is why many are leaving, and it could not occur at the moment of The Shifting. It must occur gradually, for even The Universal Consciousness goes into overload if there is that type of mass departure of energies.

And thus, you will see very large departures of energies, and not just the human energies. You must understand that when the earth is cleaning itself now with earthquakes and such, that earth energies are leaving, not just human, and that sometimes the mass departure is not even visible to the humans, for they do not see that many in The Mineral Kingdom, for example, leave as a result of an earthquake. Many in the various other kingdoms all leave.

And thus, there is much to live through now in the coming time before The Shifting, and you would want to simply rely on your own understandings of what is occurring to be able to work through these Earth Changes, not just the earth itself but the institutions. You know, this institution known as insurance company will soon be reconfigured as a result of physical earth cleaning itself. You do not need to have a high level spook telling you this. You need only use your own logic, your own intuitions, your own awarenesses, to know that all that is occurring now is the crumbling of the old to make way for the building of the new. And thus, relax about it. Relax.

Is what we call sea level going to go up or down?

It will reconfigure. Once the water has reconfigured, you will have a difference in what you now know as sea level. It will not be referred to that in The New Illusion. It will have a different type of reference point, but to answer your question from your current frame of reference, the sea level will change. To say up or down would do this an injustice, but it will most assuredly change.

A Question Regarding Current Activities Within The Underground Community

About a year and a half ago, we talked more often about The Underground Community working on the new structure which will provide shelter for people who will survive the earth shift. Could you give us an update on the latest developments?

Ah, update you on the latest developments relating to what? They are busy doing many things. What specifically would you like to know what they are doing?

You were saying that they are working on the new structure of The New Illusion.

They are helping to store the energy that is being transferred from one of the current pyramid structures to this area, so that when it is time to construct the new structure the energy will be ready to plug, if you will, plug into the new structures. So, they are not constructing that new structure. They simply house the energy that transfers on a now daily basis.

And the Souls who will survive can then utilize this new energy?

The purpose of the underground structures, and you must differentiate between the underground structure and the energy structure, for they are different. The energy structure is part of a twelve system process of maintaining the energy illusion on the earth plane that one of which will be constructed in the safe zone that Terra Lux guards.

The space under the ground, if you will, is meant to be the temporary shelter during The Shifting, and that is in readiness now. It has been prepared. And it has been done ~ you know, it was not going to be one of these things where you would get your pick and shovel, and on a sunny Sunday afternoon, go out and dig a hole and start making some shelters and bringing food in. That is not what is occurring for this particular geographic area.

There are other shelters around the planet in which that is actually occurring. They are physically preparing shelters. This is a very different energy area and The Underground Community has done its preparation. It did not take long. It was also done in conjunction with many who have helped. When you have been in the dream state, if you will, you have gone into an energy form that allows you to go into the underground safety area, and that underground area is all under this safe area in which you find yourselves now with Terra Lux ~ the Safe Zone, as we have called it, giving the configurations.

It is all under there and, you know, they all have lives to live on their own. They are a society just as all of you are, and they were given the construction job. They did it. And it waits now, just like any of you would be given a particular job to do. You would build it, and you would sit it there, and let it wait until it was time to be used. And that is exactly what has happened. The work is done and they now await the next stage in which the actual shifting occurs so that the new structure goes up in the blink of an eye, if you will, and the energy is transferred immediately so that there is no disconnection from energy structure to energy structure. So, they have been busy little gnomes.

Communication Abilities Of Dolphins And Whales ~ A Discussion of Transitional Kingdoms

It is fascinating the way dolphins and killer whales communicate, and how autistic children are working with dolphins. Is this the preparation somehow for The Shift, for the way we are going to be communicating in the new shift, a further form of communication, the way autistic people communicate with dolphins?

We would first respond to the description of the whale. We would not want the descriptive of killer whale to be used, for this is at a Soul Level a very gentle energy that has its purpose within the scheme of what are called Transition Kingdoms. And the whale, as you know, and the dolphin, as you know it, are the emissaries of what is called The Transition Kingdom. And The Transition Kingdom, very briefly stated ~ and we will discuss it in greater detail at another time ~ is a kingdom in which energies who are moving from one kingdom to another can find refuge.

This becomes, then, a haven for entities who may be having difficulty in moving from, let us say, The Human Kingdom into The Mineral Kingdom, or The Mineral Kingdom into The Plant Kingdom. And this particular Transition Kingdom is really not what you would call of The Animal Kingdom, or the mammal, as it is called, for your scientists have never really quite figured out what they are. And they are not animals and they are not humans. "What are they, for heaven's sakes?" And this is primarily what they are. They serve as a way in which to learn new ways of communicating which will be evident in a new kingdom. So, the way that you communicate in The Human Kingdom, for example, is very different from the way in which you communicate when you are in The Mineral Kingdom. And thus, there is, as easy as we can say it, a transition time that occurs at concrete level. This is different from transitions that occur in other dimensions at spirit level.

We will give much more discussion on this, if not in this year on the plane, certainly in the year to follow, as it becomes more understandable, and, of course, easier to accept, for much of what we would have to say we do not, for it is not time to give out the information, until a level of awareness and acceptance and understanding is reached. So, we would say at this point, they are indeed not what they appear to be, and they are very gentle and loving and have communicative abilities beyond anything that you would understand at this point in your awarenesses ~ most on the plane, not all, but most. And we speak of The Human Kingdom when we give that directive.

Is autism a kind of a transitional stage when you are in the human?

No, it is not. It is meant for particular lessons and particular situations. And again, when we speak of health issues, once again, if that question is brought up, we would certainly discuss it within that realm.

A Question Of Whether One Can Leave Their Body Before An Impending Death

Could you speak about energies leaving just before a violent death is to happen so that they do not experience that death? For instance, at The Shifting and other cataclysmic events that are happening before that, are they able to say, "Yes, I know it is about to happen," and then just leave their bodies, and then the bodies go through it, but they are not experiencing, feeling it? Is that a common occurrence?

It is an accepted practice. It does not always occur, however. It occurs if the energy says "Yes, it is time to go. I know that I must leave." For example, at the time of The Shift. As we have indicated, and many others who speak from other dimensions have indicated, that not everyone is going to hang around here when The Shift occurs, and that one must be vibrationally attuned to remain, and that if one is not vibrationally attuned to the new energies of the earth, then you must leave. Now, some may fight this and say, "No, I do not want to leave." And others may simply say, "Yes, this is what we will do." Those who are letting go and saying "Please, now, it is time for me to go," will not experience the physical pain. The body will indeed go through it. The energy will leave before the actual occurrence, so that the Soul then does not feel the experience.

However, for those who would be stubborn and resist, in most cases, they will feel the pain. They will experience the death, as you call it. And this will imprint upon the Soul for future time, so that it will, therefore, help in the trust of The Universe the issues of trusting. And when it is time for the Soul to leave, it will leave regardless of what Conscious Self tries to do, and it would be Conscious Self that is saying no. Soul knows.

This type of situation, then, is accepted behavior for any kind of departure, whether it is violent, as you would perceive it, or something that is very, very easy. When you know of an entity who, as you say, dies in their sleep ~ this is a very gentle way of leaving ~ and not all entities experience this, for they must experience the pain of the impending departure, and others do not need to experience it. And so, it becomes an individual issue, if you experience it or not. And even departure during the sleep state is not always gentle. There can be difficulties even within the sleep state as movement from one dimension to another begins to occur, you see.

So, it is very acceptable behavior and will occur with many at the time of The Shift, for there are many who have already acknowledged that they will not stay for The Shift. They know that they have maybe not been on the earth plane long enough to have the vibration to bring them into an illusion change. Or others who simply have said that they know they can stay but they do not want to stay, and therefore will simply leave.

It Is Inconsequential Where Someone Lives As To Whether They Will Stay Or Not After The Shift

We would reinforce a particular point here which we have not stated in public for some time ~ and this is an appropriate time ~ that regardless of where an entity is located on the physical plane at the time of The Shift, if you are to stay on the plane, you will, and if you are not to stay on the plane, you will not ~ so that the safe areas, as you hear them discussed, simply relate to the land mass as being evident, not the fact that you are on a particular land mass, you see.

For those in Atlantis, when Atlantis went into another dimension and water covered it, many who were there on that land mass left and many did not. They simply found ways to get to land masses. The geographic area that we have given out that Terra Lux guards is a land mass. It does not mean that if you are here, that you will stay. If you are not to stay, you will have to leave, and that even going into one of the shelters does not guarantee you a ticket to stay. It simply is a shelter while the flying debris settles down.

The shelter does not mean that it protects you from being moved out of this earth plane dimension. One must realize that. This is a cleansing, and only several million earth plane concrete energy forms will remain in the human encasement. And so, there are all these other billions of encasements that will have to move out of this dimension, and that is a topic for another discussion, but we thought we would reinforce this.

Do not be concerned, for many questions have come of "Well, my relative lives in Florida. Should I get my relative to move to Enfield?" ☺ You must not be concerned that the land mass known as Florida now is going to be reconfigured ~ we have indicated that ~ and that everyone who lives there will have to leave the earth plane. This is not true at all. It simply means that the land mass will disappear, and that some of you here will find yourselves in different land masses around the planet, and that this land mass that Terra Lux protects is simply going to be a spot for The New Illusion to start up again. That is all that it is.

We would sense that the timing is now creeping up on us for departure, and you know, we enjoy the open questions. We have not done this for quite some time and will do this throughout this earth plane year.

We are in no hurry to leave. Are you?

We are in agreement with other forces that the one hour, as you call it, is appropriate. When we are here to talk of meditation, however, soon, then that will have a longer time frame. The source that dictates to us is she who allows me to speak through her and I would not want to upset that in any way. You know, the old saying on the earth plane that we will give you a little taste of what you would get so that you would want to spend more time with us, and we will certainly hope that perhaps those requests would be frequent enough that, as you call it, the demand for us is such that those who help the running of Terra Lux would say, "Yes, we will do longer." This is a little promotion for myself now. ☺

So, we are now ready to depart. And we are very hopeful of more and more bright entities coming to ask the questions.

So, then, we will depart. We would give to you all a very fluffy lighthearted energy that you could take with you. Remember that you must lighten yourselves and give yourselves permission to be gay and lighthearted and happy and joyful, just as what we call this fluff ball, this bright energy. (He refers to the dog) So, receive our energy of joy and happiness, and we send to you now the very Highest of the White Light from the very Highest of the Kingdom of Amelius. Farewell.
