A Discussion Of The Life, And Lifelines, Of Amelius

Could you comment on the life of Amelius? Is that where the derivation comes from?

The term Amelius is a frame of reference that is used in our descriptives to give you an understanding of an energy that is part of the what is commonly known on the earth plane as part of the running of The Universe. There are five energies who run The Universe, shall we say, and Amelius is one of those five. And each of those five has particular responsibilities, or as we have referred to them, a kingdom.

We are in The Kingdom of Amelius ~ my energy and all those who I would be charged with helping. So, when we say Amelius, it is the representation of that very high, high energy. It is not, however, to be confused with The One, for The One is all energy. Out of The One then comes what can best be described as a lineage of energies, for one energy cannot simply pop out on its own from The Universal Consciousness. There must be a tracking of lines, if you will. And it is very well organized, from your frame of reference on the earth plane, so that the five who run the kingdom then begin the lineage, and it simply splits off, you see. And out of the five who would run the various kingdoms, they have emissaries as energy forms that come onto the various training grounds.

And in this particular frame of reference, the energy known as Jesus in your most recent time frame ~ the energy known as Moses ~ the energy known as Buddha ~ the energy known as Muhammad, all come from the Amelius energy. And they came onto the earth plane for a particular progression movement of the illusion. And they are not Amelius in the totality of the energy but simply the lifeline, if you will. And we have discussed lifelines quite a bit. And it is best to frame it from that perspective, that it is a lifeline of Amelius.

Understand that the strength of the energy of Amelius is such that a lifeline of that energy is very, very strong and is given a very specific responsibility when entering the earth plane. And if you look at, shall we say, the job of each of those energies who we have named, you will see that they represented critical moments in the progression of the illusion, especially in relationship to what you know as religion. It is religion that is central to the illusion and to the growth of any energy, the way in which religion is threaded throughout all of the experiences. And whether it is called religion or simply called spiritual development, that is the thread, you see. You may indeed not affiliate with what you call the organized religions and still have a very strong sense of the higher powers. And thus it is that the job of the lifelines that come from each of the five who run The Universe have as their mission the strengthening of awareness of higher powers.

And as we have discussed in not too many sessions ago, that all religions as now are known on the plane, began with a spiritual base and then developed rules and regulations and dogma. But all come from the same exact point, and that is of the higher power that controls all that is done. That is The Universal Consciousness, or as you might, in your understanding, call this entity The One, God ~ however it is appropriate for your own understandings. The different names do not matter. It is simply the concept and the concept of the highest power. And the highest power is all energy combined. It is not some deity who has been given special privileges who says, "You will do this, and you will do that, and you will do this. And that is the way it is, and if you disobey then you are doomed." This is not the way it is. The Universal Consciousness, as we use it in our discussions, represents the energy of all, and in its ultimate is Unconditional Love.

Who are the other four energies?

The other four who run their own kingdoms have their own identities and their own missions and their own paths, and at this point in our own dissemination of information, we have not been given the permission from the five as a grouping to reveal the identities and points of reference, if you will, on the earth plane for the other four. We focus only on The Kingdom of Amelius. However, as we have said so many other times, you all are interacting in the five kingdoms. It is not that Amelius has his kingdom here in this little place and the others have their kingdoms here, and none of you get together. It is all melded. There are many in this gathering now who come from the different kingdoms, and not just Amelius. It is simply a way of organizing, learning experiences. All are fluid in their interactions.

And so, at this time in our dissemination of information, it is not necessary to have this information. When the illusion changes, when the axis shifts and you find yourselves in a different frame of reference, as you will, it will then be time for us to give out that information, for you will have a greater understanding of that information.

What Is The Difference Between Spiritual Development And Faith Development?

Could you comment on the difference between spiritual development and faith development, and at stages of that faith development? Faith, as opposed to spirituality. I have been struggling with this one.

Yes, indeed. Well, it is part of a struggle, as one moves from the dogma that is organized religion into the higher arena of understanding that has no limitations on growth of the energy. And all energy's purpose is to grow to a higher power. That is the only purpose. It is to return to The One. That is the only function of coming out of The One is getting back to The One. That is it, you see. And in the meantime, as you go from playground to playground, whether it is the earth plane as an experience, or whether it is one of the other training grounds, you are presented with opportunities to break away those barriers to personal awareness to your own awarenesses. And dogma is one of those.

Dogma results from ~ and this is where the dilemma comes in ~ dogma results from having, initially, a spiritual awareness, and that it is part of the balancing. As you have open spiritual awareness on one end of the teeter totter, on the other end of the teeter totter you have dogma, which inhibits, which says "This is the way you will think. This is the way you will behave if you are to be a good Christian, or a good Moslem, or a good anything, that is organized. This is the way you will behave." However, that is the end result of the movement from pure spiritual awareness, up and down, back and forth, as we would say, to balance.

One must go into dogma, see that it is not what you want, and spring back into pure awareness, and back into dogma, and back and forth, back and forth, until you reach a point where you can balance your own behavior with the two. To be on the earth plane means that there is what you call dogma. One cannot live on the earth plane without standards that are set for the development of awareness. And that may sound like a contradiction, but when we discuss this in a more elongated time frame, we would bring that into perspective.

We have given preliminary information in other sessions regarding organized religion, and its very critical function within the growth of energies. It will be time now to elaborate more upon that. The struggle for faith and the issues that go with that, and spiritual awareness, and the issues that go with that, are simple in its own conceptual view, but complex in its application ~ as is everything, you know. Returning to The One is a simple thing to do. Getting there is not so simple.

A Question Of Assisted Suicide

Would you discuss assisted suicide? You mentioned no one can kill somebody ~ the Soul leaves voluntarily. And yet, these people who are being assisted, supposedly, their soul will not leave. So therefore, they are having someone assist the Soul in leaving.

Supposedly, their soul will not leave. That is a very good one, my love. We always love your questions because, you know, they are so typical, aren't they? Yes. First, let us reinforce that no energy leaves before it is supposed to leave. However, there are many conditions to that statement. Sometimes, the energy is surprised that it is time to leave. "Oh, we had not planned it quite so soon." At the higher levels ~ understand and always keep in mind that the energy operates with many levels of awareness ~ the Soul is the one in control. And then, there is the Higher Self, and then, there are the various levels of awareness that bring you finally into whatever illusion you happen to be playing in at the time, at a conscious level.

Now. All of the issues that go with the way in which an energy departs are part of the ways in which growth occurs, and learning occurs, and teaching occurs, for those who are involved. It is quite, quite judgemental on any entity's part to assume that an entity who supposedly chooses their own time of departure has done something bad. They have not ~ not from the higher levels. Nor has any entity who has assisted in those departures done anything what you call bad. There is no bad. There are simply levels of awareness and points on The Spectrum of Light. And if one is seeing through a particular veil of the degree of Lightness that may then alter their perceptions than if they were to see through a lighter veil. This is the best way to describe it. Your perceptions of your own energy are seen through veils, if you will, with varying degrees of Lightness from very, very, very Light unto very, very, very dark.

Now, with this particular topic that you raise, we are aware of it being one of, what you call, the hot topics on the earth plane currently. Many would say that an entity has the right to choose when they depart, and others would say that they do not have that right, and that anyone who would assist them should be punished. Well, you must understand then from the perspective of The Universal Consciousness, each energy chooses when they will leave any incarnation, at the higher levels, and so, there is no infringement. There is no other energy who is forcing YOU, YOU, YOU, YOU to leave when it is not the time.

There may be illusions presented such as you would call killings ~ random killings. There is nothing random in The Universe, my loved ones. There simply is not. Nothing is random. Everything is set up in a scenario to happen for reasons of learning or teaching. And while it may appear that the energies involved were strangers to each other, you must understand that the Universal Energy Flow is no stranger to any energy. You are all known to each other at higher levels. You may not be known to each other in the physical illusion, and that for whatever the reasons, one needs to learn or teach others, scenarios are set, like plays on the stage.

So, this particular situation that you question has in its development on the earth plane the setup of very intense lessons to be learned and lessons to be taught. For example, there are lessons of imposition and judgement. Who has the right to impose upon another is part of this. Who has the right to judge? But one cannot reach the higher levels of understanding without going through the lower levels. You cannot get into eighth grade unless you have gone through kindergarten and all the grades in between, or at least to have acquired the knowledge that brings you into a certain level of understanding.

And as you go into higher levels of understanding, it becomes clear then, rather than when you are in the beginning of, oh, let us use an example ~ you are just learning how to count. You are told here are the numbers, ONE, TWO, THREE. And you learn your numbers, and you are very happy. You are very secure. You think this is all there is. "I have learned everything I need to know." And then you go into the next level of awareness, the next grade, and the teacher says to you "Now that you have learned those numbers, we are going to show you how to combine them and make equations out of them." And one then learns that there is an infinite scenario relating to numbers.

And you reach a certain level of understanding, and you may say, "This is all that I want to know about this," and you cut off at that point what your lessons will be. Others will want to achieve the very highest of understanding and will therefore continue their searching. Thus it is when you take on a lesson, shall we say, in learning about imposition. On the earth plane you may indeed only be wanting to learn to a certain level, and another may want to learn at a higher level of awareness. And you will be sharing the same life, and therefore, the lessons and the awarenesses will differ. And part of what we are here to give guidance for is in the understanding of another's perceptions and the understanding that each entity has their own path. We are not here to tell you what to do. We are not here to tell you what the truth is, for you each have your own truth.

If you return in perhaps two to three thousand years, and you have implanted in your mind, in your soul memories, that you heard the words of Waith coming through in this purest form, and two or three thousand years from now you read the words of Waith, you will not recognize much of what we have said, for it will have moved through many translations and many interpretations. And this is the way of religion. This is the way of spiritual growth. And so, you will each have your own levels of awareness, and the information that you receive is meant to go to that level of awareness, for you will not be able to understand information at a higher level until you have understood that at the lower levels, as in numbers. You cannot do equations unless you know how to count, though some would probably try to skip through certain levels of knowledge attainment.

Discussion Of Moving From One Illusion To The Next Illusion

You mentioned that this illusion is ten thousand years old, and they have some documentation in history as to what has happened in the last five thousand years. What was it like on the earth during the first five thousand years of this illusion?

You do not know, do you? You know why? Because we have taken away that illusion.

The beginning of this illusion?

Why is that?

Just because we thought it would be the good thing to do. We can do that, you know. We can change an illusion as we stand here among you, and indeed, for some of you, we have created an illusion that is different from the others here. We do that. We get bored. We have told you this. It gets boring watching you all run around and play, and we want to play also.

Understand that there are illusions designated for the earth plane that take approximately one million years to run through. So, there is an illusion that you are currently in, and then there will be another illusion which may run for five thousand, six thousand, fifteen thousand, earth plane years. And each illusion then, as it moves through its energy flow, loses certain concreteness, for it is not applicable for information further down in the illusion. It is not needed, for example, at this point in the illusion to know that in the time of the illusion change between Atlantis and the current illusion ~ or what you call Atlantis ~ that there was a highly developed civilization. When The Atlantean Illusion left the earth plane stage, it did not simply drop off. It evolved into The New Illusion, which is the one that you are currently in ten thousand earth plane years ago.

Illusions simply do not move along ~ and they are moving along ~ and suddenly they stop, and they finish, and it is cut off, and then there is this space in between the illusions. How do we jump from this illusion into the next illusion? Well, we perhaps get a bridge and we walk over that bridge into The New Illusion. We do not do it that way.

You are all now experiencing the flow into The New Illusion. It is a transition, slowly, slowly moving. You are all in The New Illusion partially. It will have its finality when the earth shifts, and there will be a shaking out of the unneeded energy from the current illusion. What occurs then, as you move into The New Illusion during that transition, is much information that is transferred from the old illusion into The New Illusion that helps to then set up The New Illusion in its energy fields, in its experiences, and in what is to be the plan of action, shall we say, for the illusion.

The New Illusion then will have a time frame of building that will last approximately, in any illusion, approximately the first five to ten percent of the total illusion. So, if the illusion is to last, let us say, ten thousand years, then the first one thousand years of that illusion will be spent in the development of the ground rules, shall we say. Once the ground rules have been established, and the energies are moving in the direction that they need to, and the web that surrounds the earth plane is firmly in place and strength is in that web, then certain tools used to develop that foundation are simply gone. They go away. They disappear. And occasionally, as the illusion moves along, tools that are brought in to help strengthen the energy flow are then simply disappeared. We could bring in anything at this gathering and create the illusion and it would then go away.

Why don't you?

A Question If Waith Would Perform Parlor Tricks ~ And The Issue Of Ego

We do not engage in what you call parlor tricks. There is no need for it. If something of that nature would convince you of a higher power, then you need to go to those who use crystal balls. If that is your level of understanding, that is fine. We do not disparage crystal balls. We simply say that our own abilities are not at question here, that we are here to give you information.

No, we just thought that would be interesting to do it.

Yes, you would not think so. Understand that we do create illusions in ways that you do not oftentimes realize, to help in the progression of the plane, and in ways that you do not understand, as part of being sort of the one who levies certain behavior conditions into the Angelic arena. We are charged with keeping all of The Angelics in The Kingdom of Amelius with their jobs. This is what you do, and this is what you do, and that direction comes from Amelius. And the direction from Amelius comes from the five in combination. They send their orders down the line, and we implement what you call the orders. And thus, one of our orders is to simply speak, not to show. And there have been occasions when we have been allowed to show, and so, we may at some point in the future do that if we feel it is appropriate.

Do you ever do something that you just feel like doing whether Amelius says you should or not?

Well, you know, it is not even a question, for Amelius would not request anything that would be unreasonable, you see. It is all for the smooth flow of our jobs. We have agreed to do this job, you see. The running of the kingdom is not a privilege by any means. It is a responsibility that has been given to certain entities who represent the energies as a whole, you see. There may be things that we are instructed need to be done, that we would think that we would like to do something else, but there is the discussion, and it is an understanding that comes from the united purpose. And it does not mean that we are not our own entities ~ well, we are ~ and that we work in harmony with Amelius. Amelius would not ask us to do something that would go against our path, against what we have to learn. It would simply not be. There is not even that question ever in the thought process.

It sounds very serious. I thought maybe on a whim you might want to do a parlor trick.

Oh, indeed, no. No. For, you see, we have no need to do parlor tricks. When you feel the need to show your power, then it means that you have to develop your awarenesses a bit, that ego enters in. And if we utilize our abilities to entertain, then from our own perspective we denigrate ourselves, for there is no need to, you see. We have in other sessions cautioned you all in talking about how great you are and having the need to show others how great you are, and to tell others that you can read auras and that you can do this and you can do that. Well, when you do that, you know, you set yourself up for failure, for The Universe will test you then. You will be given a test of abuse of your abilities, for all that you gain in awareness is for the purpose of Being of Service, first to Self and then to The Universe. It is not to show to others how wonderful you are. But that is part of the balance. There must be those who extol their virtues and their abilities so that they may then see how The Universe responds to that and see the balance, for then they will be humbled most surely. All abuse of ego is taken care of by The Universal Consciousness.

But some of us are wonderful. 😊

And certainly, the humility is exceeded only by the Self confidence.

A Question Of Advancement, Or Regression, From One Illusion To The Next

You mentioned the advanced civilization that was in the previous illusion. Is there a regression in advancement as you go to a different illusion? It seems like, at least in our history, there was some sort of regression from the advanced civilization in Atlantis.

Well, this is the purpose of illusions, to present certain scenarios. There is no such thing as ~ from a Universal perception ~ regression or advancement, even though we have given much discussion on how an energy can regress in its growth. Understand that regression and advancement are concrete manifestations of simply an energy flow. And as long as it takes to return to The One is as long as it takes to return. And if one moves ahead a bit and then moves back, and then moves ahead a bit and then moves back, it does not matter. All that matters is that eventually you return. Well, some entities stay out indefinitely. They do not move ahead too much. They move ahead and maybe they move back a bit more than other entities.

Now, the purpose of illusions presenting the appearance of more advanced versus less advanced is to also give credence to the packaging, if you will, of learning. As an energy, you come into an earth plane illusion where you are living in caves. That presents certain scenarios for learning and teaching. And you leave that life and perhaps you do not return to the earth plane for twenty thousand earth plane years. In that time, another illusion has come along. This time, it is an illusion that has some advancement to it. Perhaps the entities currently in that illusion have advanced powers of the mind. And that last time that you were on the earth plane, you were in a cave, and here you are now in an illusion where the energies can do things with their mind, and they have built tremendous structures.

One possible scenario is that you have come into a very advanced civilization so as to give you perhaps a jumpstart into your own growth, for you see that this is overwhelming for you, this illusion. You know that when you depart from that illusion, that you will only have to wait around in the fluff that is the energy out there until another illusion comes along that has different scenario set up, different lessons to be learned. Different points of awareness are put into an illusion.

In The New Illusion coming, you know, as we have indicated, is not one in which you will all be farming off the land and living in caves. You will not be returning to the beginning of what you know as time, the beginning of humankind on the earth plane. There was a first illusion concept for each of you. You must understand that. Each of you had a first illusion concept. That is your point of reference for growth.

Now, we will address that in greater detail in a session in which we have more time. We always like to put in something that teases the brain, shall we say, and says to the Higher Self, "I thought I was safe. I thought I understood what he was saying, and now he has said something that is shaking what I thought I understood. Now I must go to the Soul. Higher Self, help me go to the Soul and find out what he just said." The answer to what has just been said is in Self. You each know your point of reference for your point of entry onto the earth plane.

Could Amelius Be Conceived As The God Of The Old Testament?

I believe you said that Jesus was a lifeline from Amelius. Is that where we get the concept in the Christian tradition of the only begotten son? Could Amelius be conceived as the God of the Old Testament?

That is not as easy a question to answer as you would think, for there is not so cut and dry a response. There is much more at higher levels of awareness to understand. You know, this concept of what is called the virgin birth needs to be understood a bit differently than it actually was, you know. And that perhaps we could address in the session of where the other question was raised.

We are talking about metaphor.

Indeed, metaphor. Yes, we know this frame of reference for a word. We use metaphor quite frequently. And indeed, if you were to read our metaphors two thousand earth plane years from now, it would be much in a same way as the virgin birth has come down as some type of miraculous occurrence.

A Question About The Solar System And The Comet Predicted To Hit Jupiter

A comet is predicted to hit Jupiter in July. Can you talk about any ramifications that might have for the solar system?

No. You asked. There are simply some questions we are not allowed to give answer to. However, we allow them to be placed on the record as questions for purposes later to be understood in our information dissemination.

Have You Spoken Of Multidimensional Selves Before?

Not in great detail, my love, but we have discussed the concept of multiple lives, often referred to as lifelines. However, there is a bit of a difference between a lifeline and a multiple life and multidimensional selves. Oh, it is a wonderful discussion to be having, and we wanted you to place the question on the record, for what we do in our session with you now is to create the topics for the coming sessions, you see, as we come in to speak. We want you to think it is your idea that you have asked the question and that is our little secret. And we thank you for placing it onto the record, my love.

The Moonies ~ Inhabitants Of The Moon ~ And The Moonies On The Earth Plane

Where were the Moonies when the astronauts landed on the moon?

That is a very good question. Where were the Moonies when the astronauts landed on the moon?

They said that there were not any people there.

And people, as you know them, were not. However, we must not confuse the Moonies, inhabitants of the moon, with the Moonies who would ask for your money and wear strange clothing.

And sell chocolate.

Is that what they do? They sell chocolate.

And they ask for prayers.

That is not a bad thing to do.

But they want money in return.

Well, one must make a living now. And one must not be judgemental, you see. It is so easy to fall into the trap. They are on their path and they have every right to be where they are, as you have every right to be where you are, you see. And it is important to acknowledge, first of all, The Oneness of all, and at the same time, the uniqueness of each.

Now, the planet known as the moon has some very interesting encasements for energy, which you would not recognize, and are highly evolved as energies. Those who go onto this training ground generally have already done ~ what you call done ~ the earth plane. It is not a prerequisite, if you will, to come onto the earth plane first before going into the moon environment.

Speaking Of The Moon ~ Lightheartedness And Giddiness To End This Session

⊗ You just have to develop a taste for cheese. 😊

⊗ Green cheese.

We allow the children to play at times. It is good to lighten the environment a bit.

That is right.

Yes.

What do they look like?

There is the predictable question.

Are they green and they have holes in them?

They are green and they have holes in them.

Do they look like crackers? 😊

You know, there is a point in any teacher's life when the realization that control of the student body has been lost and that it is time perhaps for recess.

I apologize.

It is not to be apologized, my son. You know, we are very tuned into Mushiba's energy and her memory banks and know in her profession on the earth plane that she goes through this very phenomenon now with her students, and wanting to go out into the spring air and not come to class. And when they are in class they are not quite as attentive, and wanting to play and giggle, and that is quite all right. There is a time for that.

And we illustrate to you the flow of all energy and would now say to you that it is time for us to depart and allow you to revel in your giddiness. And we say this in a most positive tone, that you feel lighthearted. We sense the fuzziness that accompanies the heat and would want you to lighten and fluff yourself to a point of temperature comfort in the body. And to go outside and enjoy the energy that comes through now in The Vortex in which you find yourselves.

We have enjoyed being with all of you in this gathering, and we send fluffy energy to all of you. And we now send to you all the very Highest of the White Light from the very Highest of the Kingdom of Amelius. Farewell.
