Diseases Or Afflictions That Appear To Be New, Or Transferrable ~ Balancing Issues

I was wondering about this new disease that eats away the flesh. It is a staph infection.

You speak of a disease, as it is called. It is not really. As all afflictions of the encasement, whether they are called disease or by any other name are simply physical manifestations of certain lessons to be learned by energies. Now if a particular energy takes on a particular affliction with the encasement, let us say, in this case the skin, then it is an indicator of deeper issues unresolved. In some instances, certain types of encasement afflictions are easily determined to be recognized as particular balancing issues, that if an individual has that particular affliction, then they are truly balancing in terms of patience or judgement. In most cases, however, it is not easily determined to make that generalization, but rather, to simply acknowledge that such an affliction of the skin is meant for lessons to be learned which are known only to the energy to whom it is pertaining.

What is important for you to know is that it is part of the cleansing that is occurring in the current illusion, and that as the cleaning of this illusion and the energy in it comes to very fast closure, there will be exaggerations of bodily afflictions. And it is very easy for those on the earth plane to say it is this, that and the other thing, and you know, in medical terms, those are the words that are used, and to dismiss it as something that need not be discussed. You need not be concerned of catching anything. If you are meant to have this particular affliction as part of your own balancing, then you will surely have it, whether someone gives it to you or not, you see.

Each of us takes on ourselves what we need to have for lessons through the comfort or the discomfort of the encasement, you see. So, you do not need to fear that even looking at this particular affliction could cause you to catch it. Nothing, actually, that is part of the body can be caught from another. Nothing is contagious, my love, from a spiritual standpoint. If you have something, and you appear to have received it from another, it is because of balancing that is occurring. You and another individual could be, for example, with a very, what you call infectious individual of some type of ailment, and one of you catches the ailment and the other one does not, you see.

Depending on if you are balancing.

Yes, indeed. If it was meant for you to have that particular affliction as part of your balancing.

But this appears to be something new.

Oh, nothing is new, my love.

Where is it coming from?

Well, you know, it is not to be concerned about, for if you are going to have this, you will. If you are not, you will not. Do you understand?

Then what is the cure for this?

It is not a concern whether there is a cure for it or not. If an entity is to no longer have that affliction, it means that they have balanced and it will go away. If they have balancing remaining, or if they are teaching or learning from this in some way, it will remain, regardless of the antidotes that may be developed. The cure may not cure one individual and it may cure another, you see. It becomes very, very concrete when you speak of it in terms of catching it, or what is the cure, or, "What if I will get it?" Be not concerned. You become obsessed, Many, not just you, my love, but many on the earth plane become obsessed with all of the afflictions that currently persist on the earth plane. You do not need to be obsessed with these particular afflictions, for if you will get them, you will. If you will not, you will not. And no amount of what you call physical prevention or nonprevention will make any difference, you see. This is a rather difficult concept for many on the earth plane to accept, or to even understand, that all of the physical afflictions are what you each have taken on for yourselves.

Self-created.

In a sense, my love, yes. It is self-created. You plan before entry onto the plane what the issues are that you want to deal with, and then you are given many different alternatives, ways in which you can learn that lesson.

So they chose this before they entered the plane.

Yes, indeed. It was not imposed upon them. It was their choice.

At this time.

At this time. Yes. And understand that for those not afflicted, as well as for those afflicted, there is always the issue of judgement, for as you become more aware of your spiritual path and more aware of Universal concepts, there becomes a tendency then to look at another and judge and say, "I know why that person has that particular affliction."

It is because they are balancing, because they killed somebody in another lifetime, or they did this, or they did that, you see. And you immediately fall into the trap set by The Universe, JUDGEMENT. It is an ongoing test that all, including us in The Angelics, are faced with ~ issues of judgement ~ for only upon return to The One is the issue of judgement finally completed, you see.

What you are saying, is that those who have been afflicted with this disease, they have made judgements?

Not necessarily, my love. What we say is be very careful yourself of making a judgement on why they would have it. It is none of your business, you see, essentially, just of any of the afflictions that you have in your physical encasement, why you have those, is no one else's business, except yourself, you see. If you care to share with another, then it becomes your decision. If you gain insight, for example, into why you are dealing with a particular affliction, a physical problem, shall we say, and you have gained the insight from your own meditations as to why you have taken on a particular affliction, and that you are attempting to balance and resolve it, and that if you want to share that information with others, it then becomes a tool for teaching as well as learning, and you become even stronger in your balancing. But it is entirely your decision whether to share that information or not, you see.

In The Issue Of What Is Called Siamese Twins, Why Would They Be In That Condition?

There are very, very specific teaching lessons occurring in this particular physical bonding that does not have a general response. Just as we have said, none of the afflictions have a blanket response. However, there are some generalized Universal reasons why an entity would physically bond the encasement to another, and it relates to issues of an incompleteness of spirit within the energy field itself. It does not mean that they are twin flames. Some do manifest, the twin flames do manifest in this particular condition. However, most do not. It is simply for very strong teaching of those who are on the earth plane.

Most who are allowed to have that type of physical binding together have a significant ~ they have a significantly advanced level of awareness of their own spiritual path, and that they come in, in most cases, to aid in those who have chosen the healing path on the earth plane, to aid them in their own issues of judgement and to assist them in developing a sensitivity to separation of energy. It deals with many energy issues, looking at energy in a way that is different than most of the doctors on the earth plane currently look at energy. And that is sufficient for now, for what we would give you for that information. It is a very strong teaching tool used by energies who have been asked specifically to provide that type of lesson.

Why Waith, At Times, Is Unable To Give Out Information About Specific Concerns

Regarding the comet hitting Jupiter. I understand that you are not permitted to give any information about that at this time.

That is correct.

At what point would you be able to give information?

That is a very good question. ☺ That is a new twist to trying to get information from us. That is very good. That is very good. We enjoy this very much. We have become bored with the traditional ways of trying to squeeze out that information from us. We are really, at this time, not allowed to give any information of any sort relating to this. The timing of our permission to give information is not yet in place. And there is much more to it than it appears. And you will perhaps find the wait worth the time when we do give the information. Perhaps not.

Will you be able to give the information before the event happens?

No, we will not. We will not. That is all we can say. We know you tried to find out why we cannot give the information before the event that would be part of giving the information, you see.

I realize that. Thanks.

Indeed. Understand something, my dear ones here, that we have available to us information but are not able oftentimes to give that information at a particular time. It is not because we are being coy, or we are being tricky, or trying to pull power plays, if you will. Think of it in terms of your own lives where you have perhaps younger entities to care for, and you have information and they ask you questions and you know that it is not time to give that information for they would not understand until they have learned other information. It would only confuse, and in some cases, may even cause them to behave in a way that would be different than if they waited and had the information.

And that sometimes for you it can be frustrating, can it not, to want to tell your child, for example, that they should not do a certain thing, for you know that such and such a behavior will occur, but you know that they must go through it in order to see the bigger picture and to grow. And this is oftentimes what we are faced with when we are not able to give information. We generally do not discuss it to any great degree that we are not giving you information ~ that we have information and we are not giving it to you. Usually, you are not aware that we are not giving you information, but this is a lesson to be learned for all. Even for us, you know, Amelius has information that he does not give to us, you see. It goes all the way through the line, if you will.

So, experiencing this event comes under the heading of a lesson to be learned?

Indeed. In ways that you may not anticipate. Pleasant perhaps. Perhaps not. Depending on your perspective. What is pleasant to one may not be pleasant to another.

When Souls Go From Kingdom To Different Kingdoms In Their Selected Paths

Do Animals Have Souls And An Afterlife, And How It Is Different From That Of Human?

Oh, indeed. Energy exists in all, IN ALL. Everything has energy. Some encasements manifest themselves in ways that appear to be more alive than others. But the pillow, my love, on which you sit, has energy, and is no different than the animal in terms of energy from a Universal perspective. In terms of its purpose and the service that it provides, that is where the differences come in. All energy has a connection to The Universal Consciousness and therefore has a piece of the Universal Soul. And an animal, such as the energy that sprawls itself out here, has a soul and has gone through many, many lifetimes, not just in The Animal Kingdom but in many other of the kingdoms. There is no hierarchy of importance in terms of encasements or kingdoms, as we refer to them.

The Human Kingdom is not at the top of the pile, shall we say, that you work your way up through and finally you are the lucky one and you become human. Some would dispute whether being in The Human Kingdom is lucky, when one would look at the type of life that this animal lives, you see. Mushiba, I receive from the memory banks, of food being prepared for this animal better than the humans, but this is fine. This is what is meant to be.

An energy chooses to go into as many or as few kingdoms as they would want to go into when leaving The Universal Consciousness, and may decide to take on two or three kingdoms, and once they have completed that, they could say, "Well, I think I will take on a few more kingdoms." Or, "I will go back to The Universal Consciousness." It is self-chosen. You may indeed go into The Human Kingdom first and then go into The Plant Kingdom, or The Animal Kingdom. There is no defined order. The purpose of each of the kingdoms is for specific lessons to be learned ~ which you would determine upon leaving The One ~ that you wanted to learn.

And so, you have this entire Menu set out before you. And you can choose what you want to learn, and where you want to learn it, and how you want to learn it, and you are then given an Angelic Protector and guides to help you through all of this, who then guide you and say, "Well, perhaps you should not take on all of this in one lifetime. It might be more than you can do in one lifetime." And you may listen to them or you may not, just like you would do to others who would guide you here on the earth plane. And it may turn out all right after all or it may not. And the guides and The Angelic Protectors have been trained to not say, "I told you so." It is part of their training, even that they may think it and say, "We told you not to take on all those things. You see, it was much too much difficult."

But, you see, it is a game. It is to be looked at on one hand as very serious. This is lessons very seriously to be learned. On the other hand, the Lightheartedness, that it is all an illusion and that all is as it needs to be, as difficult as it might appear ~ the life that you are living ~ it is as you have chosen it to be. You are not being imposed upon by another. You have selected what you are doing. It is taking the responsibility for your own behavior that is the true growth of a spiritual path and not to blame another for your afflictions, for there is no one else to blame but yourself in the Universal perspective, if blame is even the word, for we do not consider it blame. We consider it simply lessons to be learned.

And your soul, then, will go with you from lifetime to lifetime and from kingdom to kingdom. And thus, the animal goes through a series of lifetimes in The Animal Kingdom as you would go through in The Human Kingdom and takes with it the memories from each of those lifetimes and stores those memories, just as you do, to be used when appropriate. And when not needed in a particular lifetime, they are stored away. Never gone, simply in storage, ready to be opened up and used when needed, you see.

The Significance Of The Number Twelve, The Pyramids, And Timing of The Shift

You talk about dates, and not giving out dates, and yet I was just listening to a tape where the date 1212 was mentioned as a time of world ascension? And I wonder if you could speak on that. And also twelve was mentioned a lot, or multiples of twelves, and that I think it was said that twelve ~ the number twelve would connect into the vibration of Earth? And what does that mean?

The number twelve is a vibrational number. We have discussed this in a session quite a while ago regarding the twelve builders currently on the earth plane who are charged with the responsibility of constructing the new structures that will replace the twelve major pyramids that currently exist on the earth plane. The twelve builders will select twelve who will select twelve. It is the way in which the vibrational webbing is maintained for the earth plane. The current vibration of the earth plane is held together, shall we say, by the energy that was put in place ten thousand years ago when this illusion that you are currently in was new.

The pyramids, the twelve major pyramids, and untold numbers of minor pyramids, store energy and store knowledge and are vibrationally attuned to keep the illusion together, essentially. With The Shift of the earth plane, of the planet itself, the pyramids are going to then dissolve as the new structures are constructed. The new structures will be in different locations around the physical planet than the current pyramids. There are twelve. The area in which you are now located, and part of the responsibility of Terra Lux, is the construction of one of those structures.

Part of the mission of Terra Lux and part of our mission is to aid in the vibrational changes coming with The Shift. This geographical area is one of those areas that is part of the webbing outline, if you will. There will be twelve who will be assisting Mushiba in the construction at the time of The Shifting. It takes place very, very quickly. So that twelve is very significant, and there has been a rather consistent flow of information from many different dimensions ~ that are giving information now ~ that hold with the number twelve. It is one of the few consistencies, if you will.

In terms of giving dates, we do not give dates. We find that because of the way in which energy moves, that to be so specific can be dangerous on the earth plane. We have said, for example, that The Shifting of the axis will occur plus or minus four years, the year 2000, but it could be anywhere from four years prior to this 2000 or four years after the year 2000, or any variation in there.

The danger in giving a specific date ~ and we have said this before also, because your question has been posed in another time ~ if the event does not occur on that exact date, then much skepticism builds up, and that is fine. What is going to occur is going to occur, whether entities believe it or not. It is not our concern that they know an exact date, for to give any exact date from our perspective is impossible. We are only able to judge our time, for example, with you in this session because of our timekeeper here. And otherwise we would not have any idea about what you call time, even though we try to narrow it, as best as we can based on flows of energy.

We do not render any negative response to those who would give dates, for lessons to be learned are at issue here. Some entities are indeed given information from a particular level of awareness, that may in fact have a date, for they have perhaps not learned the hard way, as we have, that giving dates is not a good policy if one speaks from a dimension other than the earth plane. But this is how all who give information from other dimensions learn. Audiences who hear them are meant to hear them and are meant to respond, and that that is all right. And it is all right that if the date is not correct, that the source of that information is not given negative responses, for sources of information give you their information based on their levels of awareness. That is what they know.

We give you information based on our level of awareness, which is a very high level. It is not the highest level. Amelius is the highest level outside of The One for our chain of command, if you will. And thus, we have, if you will, our own limitations. But the more that we know for information, the more we know we do not know, and the more we are careful of giving certain kinds of specifics. For understand that the earth as a physical encasement, and the earth as an energy, and the earth as a training ground, has a soul and has its own consciousness. And just as each of you can change your mind, so can the earth.

Now, the earth is cleaning itself. When it is going to complete that is entirely up to it. It has said from an energy perspective when it plans to do the final cleansing, which is what your frame of reference knows as The Shifting of the Axis. It has given that information to The Universal Consciousness. And The Universal Consciousness then has responded in its own way by providing assistance, for example, in the form of twelve builders who will be on alert and ready to respond to the earth when the call comes for protection of the energy of the earth. Do you understand?

Twelve twelve, eleven eleven, ten ten, nine nine, they are numbers. For some they are significant vibrationally, and we would not deride in any way an entity's reliance on numbers and the vibrational significance to the life of an entity. Each has its own point on the path, EACH ENERGY, and each level of awareness is unique to each entity.

Did you say the pyramids, the twelve pyramids, are physical or not physical?

The twelve major pyramids are physical and also contain the nonconcrete component that is part of the webbing of energy that surrounds the earth plane ~ so it is a combination. The concreteness of it is necessary for the frame of reference on a concrete training ground, such as the earth plane, to understand that energy does not need a physical structure in order to exist. Energy can simply exist as energy. However, it is boring that way, you see, and thus, energy likes to go into encasements, and in this case, the pyramid is one such encasement for it.

And it then takes on experiences and it has a purpose. It has a mission. And the pyramids, or structures like the pyramids, exist for every one of the illusions that are part of the earth plane portfolio. For the past two illusions, you have had the shape of pyramids. For the illusion about to come, it will be a different shape, and we have not given the exact shape of that. While we have alluded to it, we have not given the exact shaping of the new structures. However, it will not be in a pyramid shape. It will be something that has been determined already by the earth itself to be vibrationally correct for it. It is much like buying a new item of clothing for your body. You choose something new to wear, and so the earth chooses a new way to surround its energy field, a new look if you will.

The pyramids that exist now, we can see them, and touch them, since they are concrete. And they are in twelve different locations around the earth?

Indeed.

Do we know where those twelve locations are?

Not all twelve. You know where some of them are.

Do they have a name?

Some of them do. Some of them you are very familiar with, as they are what you call tourist attractions. Some which you think of as tourist attractions are not the master pyramids ~ the twelve being the master pyramids ~ but rather, the minor pyramids, nonetheless, all part of the energy connection.

Can you give us one name?

Oh, that is too easy, my love, because you can look that up in an encyclopedia under pyramid.

Oh, you mean you are talking about the pyramids.

Indeed. Yes. You see, you do not need an Angelic to give you those names. You already have them. Yes, you see. Use us for more advanced information.

I read that they have found a body in one of the pyramids down in South America, and you said that they would be finding some bodies.

Yes?

I am just saying you said it first. 😊

Oh, indeed.

When you say we know some of them already, are you implying that there are some that we do not know?

I am not implying it at all. I am actually stating it.

Well, they are on the earth, and they have not been discovered because they are in some remote area?

"They have not been discovered," as you would say, quote unquote, for it was not their purpose to be a focus of attention. Some of the others that are very well known have as part of their path to be well known, just as some of you are well known and some of you are shy and retiring, and yet you all have a very specific purpose. No entity is more important than another entity. You only have different levels of awareness, but you are all equally important ~ we all are, as energies. And thus, the pyramids are all of equal importance, but some have different missions, and even though one of the pyramids that is a master pyramid, is a master, does not mean that it wants to be showy about it, you see. Some masters are showy and some masters are not. It depends on their style. It depends on their mission. It depends on their path. And that will also hold true for the new structures.

There will be some that will be very, very well known, just as the pyramids. They will have visitors and people climbing through them and around them, and around them, and others where no one will know that they are even in existence.

The pyramids now that are not well known, are they known locally, just to local people, or they totally remote and no one even notices that they are there?

Yes, and no. It is situational. Situational.

The Shift, The Underground Community, Other Dimensions, And Shelters

Will The Underground Community Dimension Be Affected By The Pole Shift?

The Underground Community, as we refer to them, are in a different dimension. They are charged ~ and we have also discussed this ~ for they manifest, The Underground Community members, quite often, with assisting in the particular shifting. Their dimension will not be affected. They are, however, in certain locations around the planet, helping to build underground shelters. However, they are not shelters as you would know them. They are dimensional shelters, and thus, many who would go into what you would call an underground shelter are simply being guided by The Underground Community into a different dimension, which is, as best as your frame of your reference knows, under the earth, within the earth, and will be safe there during the upheaval of The Shifting.

Understand that The Shifting, and all of its disruptions, will only be a matter of what you call days on the plane. Time spent in the underground shelters is very, very minimal. Depending of course on where you are located and other issues will also determine how long you will be in a shelter. And we have also given discussion on shelters in terms of different dimensions. We will not at this point go into the topic of, what you call, space ships and those coming, from your frame of reference, from other planets. They are other dimensions and they are arriving in great numbers now to aid in The Shifting.

Who are those that are going to be going in the other dimension? Those who have raised their vibration?

Yes, indeed. It is imperative that those who do remain on the planet after The Shifting be also vibrationally attuned to the new vibration of the planet. If you are not, you will simply leave. It is no big deal. You will come back again when you are ready, when your vibration is ready to accumulate its own energy experiences to then come back on the plane. You know, it could be, earth plane time, several hundred years, several thousand years, several million years. But while you are off of the training ground of the earth plane you will be in other training grounds. You will not just be hovering around hoping that your vibration will change.

It would be too easy.

No, you will have to work at changing your vibration, you see, on other training grounds so that you can then come back onto the earth plane and do it again.

Can you give an explanation of how the crop circles got formed?

Oh, we already have, my love. We are amused at all of the discussion of it, for it is quite simple, you see. When The Underground Community is building their structures around the planet, some of them are doing it in other dimensions, you see, as we have just discussed, but others are doing it very much in this dimension. Those circles that you see are simply the ceilings, if you will, of these underground shelters. And some of them actually show and some of them do not. That is all that they are. It is no big deal. Some of us have had discussions with some of those in the underground commenting on the great confusion, and all of the discussion that is being emanated as a result of it all, and all the mysterious explanations and all the earth plane explanations and all of these reasons why they exist and how they came about and all of that.

You know, we will conclude our time with you by again emphasizing how boring it gets in our dimension sometimes and that we like to play. And so, sometimes we get in cahoots with some of the others in other dimensions, and we say, "Let's create a little scenario that will get them all talking and get them all wondering." You see, they do it to us. Amelius and his board, the group of five, they get bored also and they like to play games. And that is what it is. Just as you create scenarios with those who you are playing with, you create a little game and it becomes fun and cause for discussion ~ however, it is also a way in which lessons can be learned. So, you see, it is nothing extraterrestrial as you have said. However, one could consider The Underground Community extraterrestrial. They are not on the earth. They are under the earth, in the earth.

With that, we will prepare to depart. And as we are departing, we would ask you all to gather into your Energy Center known as the Heart the energy of your own love, and surround that which is the Heart Center with the energy of Self and the love of Self, and fill your encasement now with the beauty of the energy of Self and feel the love of Self filling the encasement. And now slowly, ever so slowly, send the energy of love of Self out into the gathering and mingle the energy of Self with the energies of the others, and feel the greater love now as the energy of Self combines to form a larger energy of love. As we depart now, we send to you all the very Highest of the White Light from the very Highest of the Kingdom of Amelius. Farewell.
