A Gathering For The Earth Basket

We sense the rather large circle of energies. As we are so apt to do on occasion, to bring more closeness to the circle and the gathering of energies, we have an activity that we will engage you in. It will also be part of the vibrational exchange for the seasonal change that is upon the earth plane now in the Planet Earth, and the joy that is felt in The Universe when the vibrational change, from what you call season, occurs ~ one season to another. And we will also be asking you to continue the tradition that Terra Lux has begun with the basket.

Waith Leads The Group Into An Energy Circle

My love, would you perhaps get ~ you would place it, my love. Yes. This basket now begins to become crowded from the many seasonal changes that it has been participating in, and soon will be ready for expansion. This represents the earth in the various locations, first of all, that the Community of Terra Lux has been located, and the vibrations from the earth that it represents. It also represents far more importantly the connection of The Human Kingdom with the earth at the particular moment of the inclusion into this energy basket.

And what we will do then is to ask each of you to go out into the land that surrounds the Terra Lux vibration and to simply find something from the earth that calls to you. Most of you know that it will call to you. You do not have to worry about going out and finding just the right thing. And that, as you will notice in most of this basket, there is the earth symbolisms, but that there are some items that seem not to be from what you typically refer to as the earth. Rather, something else that you might think has no energy, but of course this is not true. And thus, whatever you would find laying out on the ground, shall we say, is fair game for this energy basket.

Before we do this, we want to develop a particular harmonic energy with each of you in this gathering. It is a celebration with the earth, as a symbol of the support that The Human Kingdom gives to the earth in its time of cleansing, and to aid in the healing that the earth has asked for from all of the kingdoms who are a part of that earth. Now we would ask you all to stand. That was very good. You did that very well, all of you. Now, the next task can be undertaken, for you have done the first one so well. Now, I will step back and will be outside of the circle. You form now, my loves, a circle. Close in, surrounding the basket. And take hands now.

Ariate (The dog) wants to be a part of the energy. She still does believe that she is in The Human Kingdom. This is all right. Allow her simply to stand where she may.

Now. Relax your bodies. We begin the energy infusion with (Name given). We place into the energy of (Name given) the infusion energy, the energy of protection, so that any in the circle who may be so inclined to present darkness will not be able to do so, and there will be no attacks made upon others in the Energy Circle. It is protected now, and this is witness to those of the dark who would want or think that they could disrupt this Energy Circle. The highest of the Light from Amelius is now in the presence of the Energy Circle that now forms.

Beginning with the right hand of our love here, you begin now to send the energy that has been infused into your Energy Center down through the right arm and into the left hand of the energy beside you ~ this energy we touch now. And we will move around the circle as we help to infuse the energy. And, my love, now, feel the energy moving up through your left hand and up through the highest Energy Center and down now through that which is the right hand and into the left hand of the energy next to you. Take then the energy from the right hand into the left and move it through, and up over, the highest Energy Center and down through the right hand and into the left of the Energy Center next to you.

Feel then the energy, moving through you through the highest Energy Center and down through the right arm and into the left arm of the energy beside you. Take the energy now, my love, from the right hand into your left and up through your highest Energy Center and down through the right, and now into the energy next to you, and the left hand receives it, and it goes up through the highest of the Energy Centers and down through the right.

And now it moves into the energy beside you, from the right into the left, and now up through the Crown Energy Center and down through the right into the left of the Energy Center and down, and up now to the highest of the Energy Centers and down into the right, and into the left of the energy next to you, up to the Crown Center and down through the right. And now, into the left of the energy next to you and into the Crown and down through that which is the right hand, and into the left, and up through and over the Crown Center. And now down through the right, and up through the left into that which is the Crown Center down through the right.

The energy that is now harnessed in the center of the hands between the left and the right here now move up the left and into the area of the Crown and down through the right and into now the left hand and up through the Crown area and down through the right. A challenge. Most fine, my love. We place on hold momentarily the energy. It now is ready to move again, through the left, my love, over the Crown Center and down into the right. And now, it moves up the left and over the Crown Center and down the right and into that which is the left over the Crown, down the right. It moves now up the left over the Crown and down the right into the left of (Name given). It moves now, back into the focal point.

Breathe deeply, each of you now. And now envision the energy moving through the circle and forming a Circle of Light. Feel it moving around and infusing around and around and around. And now, with your own thoughts, give energy to the basket in the middle of the circle that represents the earth's energies, sending the earth your vibration of love and healing and support. And now, say the words after me. (The words are repeated)

We send to you, beautiful Earth, our love and our healing in support of the cleansing that you undergo. Aid us also in our cleansing and our healing as the transition of the earth plane continues and accelerates. We send you love. We receive your love. We are One Energy. We are Love Energy

And now, slowly break the circle by gently and slowly releasing your hands from those beside you. Not abruptly. SLOWLY. And as you do so, bring your hands down to your side and shake the energy out of your fingers. Now breathe deeply. Once more. And now we ask you to return to a position of comfort for yourselves as we speak a bit. We will speak a bit of the earth. And the conclusion of our time with you, when we have finished, would then be appropriate for you each to go out and find that which calls to you. In that time which is part of the social time, after we have left, you can bring in and place into the basket that which you have found, so that you will be sharing with future energies who come into these gatherings your energy. You will leave your energy behind if this is your one and only time with us, or if it is a time that will be short with us, understanding, of course, that time in The Universe is not measured and that all energy is always with each other. Maybe not in physical but certainly in other dimensions.

We understand that there are questions relating to the earth and its healing, and we would like to have those go on the record so that we may then respond to those questions.

Multiple Questions Relating To The Earth's Healing, The Shift, And The New Illusion

In this area, is the earth doing a quicker healing than it might be in other areas?

The question is based in a very good place, my love, that you would ask if there is a faster healing occurring. There are points in the planet where there is a more rapid healing occurring than in other points. This particular vibrational area is undergoing accelerated cleansing, even though it may not appear to be, and is healing a bit faster than some of the other areas on the planet. However, it is dangerous to look at, for example, the climatic occurrences in an area and see some as very tumultuous and say, "They must be going through much more than this other area that does not seem to have much tumultuous activity."

The severity of weather patterns, for example, and Earth Changes within an area is not an indicator of the depth of the cleansing of a particular area. Understand that the cleansing is more related to vibrational than physical. The vibrational cleansing occurs and then the physical manifestation of it presents itself, as you see it with drought, as you see it with heavy rains, as you see it in the three areas that we have indicated ~ the tornadoes, the hurricanes, and the earthquakes ~ as being the three major changes that the earth undergoes.

This particular geographic area appears to be relatively calm, comparatively speaking. However, it is not so vibrationally, and since this is a vibrationally safe area for The New Illusion, it must prepare itself more rapidly and be in preparation before The Shift. There will be certain areas that will not be completely cleansed until The Shifting, and they will remain as part of the physical planet. So, in response to that, there are major areas that are vibrationally becoming cleaner faster. However, the flipside of that, as there always is, is not to think that "our area is cleaning faster than your area," and beginning to feel rather arrogant about that. Some entities might say, "I live in an area that is all clean now."

Once the cleansing has occurred, other types of responsibilities are then given to those entities who safeguard that area until The Shifting. And vibrationally then, there become greater responsibilities. You are called upon for greater service to The Universe and for greater service to those who would come into the vibrational area for healing, for protection, for safety. So, you are ready, but that means now you must be even more prepared to help those who would come to you.

Some trees are dying at a faster rate. Can a tree energy also be a walk-in?

But of course. You know, we have a very elaborate energy exchange program in The Universe. And what you call birth and death are only one of those manifestations of the Energy Exchange Program. It is done in many different ways, some that we talk about, and some that we do not talk about. And so, yes, the coming and going of energies into encasements is no big deal.

Is the dying of trees at this faster rate a part of the cleansing?

Yes, indeed. The observation is correct, not only for trees but for humans and for animals and for minerals and for plants and for all encasements. Those who are ready to leave, for they do not want to be, or cannot be, part of the vibration of The New Illusion, simply leave, and their encasements are left behind. For reasons that are really not important, The Universe does not want their encasement any more. So, a human, for example, its energy will leave the encasement. Sometimes another energy will come in and sometimes another energy will not. It is simply that there is no more use for the physical encasement. It has served its purpose and therefore will simply dissolve in its appropriate manner. So too with trees. So too with all energy. It is an accelerated time, however. Just as you see mass departures of humans on the earth, you see mass departures in all of the kingdoms, you see. And thus, it is.

From the way we know it, as it exists today, are we going to have a mass departure of the structure of the planet soon?

What we have been referring to as The New Illusion is a response to that type of question, that what you have now physically and vibrationally on the planet will not be in The New Illusion. However, unlike some who predict doom and disaster, this is not what is occurring. It is a transition from one type of illusion into another type of illusion. There will be very, very significant differences, for example, in the climate that is in this part of the planet, as will be in other parts of the planet, a very different climate. This will be what you call tropical in this area. Therefore, that which exists in that type of climate will exist in that climate. So, the trees, for example, will not be the same kind of trees that you are accustomed to now. They will be different. The plant life, the minerals, will all be different. The air energy will be different. All will be different.

The physical structures ~ you will have different types of structures in which you will live. You will have different types of tools that you will work with to communicate. It will be different from what you are accustomed to now, but not less than. You will certainly not be going back into caves and farming and killing animals for your daily food. This is another illusion. It is not this one coming up.

However, the one coming up is not what many people think it is. Computers that you have now are less than what this new illusion presents. Do not get too hooked into computers, my loves, for remember that when the earth shifts, there is a magnetic pole shift. That is something that appears to be lost on many who talk about the magnetic pole shifts, that there is a change in the magnetic field. It affects everything. But what it will bring instead is a much higher level of communication. This is quite primitive, what this illusion has at this point. But that is the way of this illusion. It is part of it. When this illusion comes around again, one million years of earth plane time, then it will once again be here.

And many entities would say, "I am going to leave now because I have developed my abilities with this illusion and its tools right now, and I will not come back for one million years until the illusion is back on the plane again, and I can pick up where I left off." This is very true. This happens. This happens. This is the way. You are not ready to go into a new illusion. You want to make sure that you learn the right one, the one that you are in. And some entities will do this over and over and over and over again until they feel that they are ready to let go of a particular illusion.

So, what you see now is not what you are going to see in the future. And indeed, there will be major disruptions when The Shifting occurs. As we have said, there will be no longer any McDonalds on every street corner. They will be gone. If you are looking for something concrete that will not be here, that is something very concrete

Is the information highway going to be around?

Well, there will be the traveling of information. The road that it takes will be something that will unfold. Those of you who are aware of this information highway are already aware of the many blockages that have occurred to prevent those who are so exuberant about this wave of the future, as they call it.

Do you agree with those who have said that this transition will be very soon, within a year or so?

Yes, we agree that it is very soon. We are smart enough to not give a very definite date. We have learned the hard way that time as we see it, and time as it is on the plane, is not quite in synchronization. We have given quite often the timing of the typical time of 2000, this year 2000. We give it a plus or minus four years. So those who are very optimistic in The Community say, "We only have about two more years before we have to go through The Shifting and it will be over." And others say, "Oh, let us hope that it is really only eight or ten more years away," you know. So, it is imminent. As we see it from our level and our vibration it is there. It is here. Timewise is very difficult to pinpoint.

And we have also cautioned in our discussions that you adhere to what some entity may say as a definite time, and that it sets you all up for ridicule ~ not that some of you do not deserve to be set up for ridicule. We all do. If we make such definitive statements that say, "Yes, this is the way it is going to be," when we know that The Universe ~ the minute you say that, even in the Angelic Level if we say, "This is the way it is going to be," then says "Excuse me, but perhaps not."

And therefore, we simply say that what our sources from The Universal Knowledge gives us is that in conjunction with the earth itself, which is the communicator of its own healing to The Universal Consciousness, that it is now imminent, and that everything is accelerated. All cleansing, all that collapses now, accelerates. And as it collapses, it rebuilds simultaneously. It may not be quite what you were expecting, but it certainly does rebuild. So that is the way in which we respond. So, depending on your perspective and your wishful thinking, it is going to happen very soon, or it is going to take a few more years. And it does not matter anyway for it will occur and you will be prepared for it if you are to stay. If you have determined and you are ready to stay for The New Illusion, then you will and there will be no big deal about it.

Will the transition be very rapid in a physical state, or will it take a transition stage?

The Shift itself will be very quick. It will be a flip flop. In time measured on the plane, it is moments. It is not this event that will take years of flipping back and forth. It is already doing that, you see. In minor ways it is already swaying back and forth. That is why the weather patterns are so unusual and things are happening with the climate. It is already doing that. It is much like, you know, you would be moving back and forth like this, wanting to flip over, but you have to gain momentum in order to do it, and so you do this back and forth, back and forth, and finally, the flip occurs, and it only takes a moment. It shakes everything up that was left. And then it settles back down. And it begins again to move back and forth.

However, it moves back and forth slowly once it settles itself. It is moving rapidly now. It will flip quickly. It will have several earth plane days, and this is what we have given in other times, of reaching an equilibrium in which it is not moving rapidly back and forth. It will then begin to slow and gain a sense of complete balance. The beginning of an illusion is the only time in which the vibration comes as close to perfect balance as The Universe can allow. And then it will begin again. And so, the time frame on the planet of being in shelters is only a few days, depending on the type of shelter, whether it is a physical under the ground shelter or if it is a vibrational interdimensional shelter.

Will human life on the planet would be able to compensate for some of this very rapidly, if not immediately?

Yes.

What about animals?

Oh, they also.

Are they prepared to make migrations to the different climates?

Yes. Yes, they are. Indeed. Just as the humans are acclimating to the changes in vibration and climate, so too are all of the other kingdoms. The animals ~ you will notice many who you would think would not be able to acclimate to the heat for they have much fur, they are acclimating. And just as gradually your human encasement changes with the climate, so too does the animal. There will be some animals that will not stay in a particular geographic area for The New Illusion. They are not part of that illusion. They will leave. And their encasements go on the shelf, shall we say, of that illusion, so that when it comes back around again, it is taken off the shelf and brought back out, and energies are allowed to go back into that type of encasement.

So, it is the encasement and not the energy that works toward acclimation. There are many that are accustomed to very warm climates that will find themselves now living in very hot climates. They, just as their Human Kingdom friends, will acclimate or leave, to come back in another encasement or to wait until the next time the illusion comes around. So just as each of you in your own way prepares for The Shift, so too do the animals, for they are being guided from The Universe, and those who guide The Animal Kingdom, in the ways to prepare. And they too must be vibrationally aligned with the new vibration of the earth, just as humans must be vibrationally aligned, in order to remain during this transition.

Recently, we have observed that the migration of Canada Geese has changed. They are not traveling south as they have in the past. They seem to be remaining in this area, instead of going all the way to Central or South America.

Indeed. As many of the lake dwellers will attest to, the Canada Geese now make their home and other peripheral effects to large numbers of Canada Geese living in the area. They are part of the changing climate. They know that this is going to be a tropical area, and their patterns have begun already, well beforehand, to acclimate them so that they would be in the right place at the right time. Some of them have chosen not to remain in this climate and continue to go into warmer climates. Chances are that they will not remain, those particular families of energies that come into Animal Kingdom groupings.

Many of you, if you are observant enough and know the changes in The Animal Kingdom, such as the question that you raised suggest of understanding of the changes, can notice that there are different types of animals now in this area, and that some that used to be here are no longer here. They have their own order by which they acclimate. They have their own way of communicating with The Universal Consciousness. Just as you each have your own way as humans in the kingdom to communicate and to have understanding, they also have that understanding. In their own way, they have their little group meetings like this and they have an advanced animal energy come in and talk to them like I come in and talk to you, and give them great insights. And then after it is over, they sit around and munch on their favorite foods and commune and have a wonderful time.

Then that would account for the exotic flowers, scientists say are coming into this area? I have also noticed the past few years that there are a lot of cardinals around here.

Imagine that.

Why won't The Universe allow a perfect balance on the earth? You say it only comes close but not all the way.

The earth plane is a training ground of imbalance. With balance there would be no reason to come onto the earth plane. There is actually no training ground that is in complete total balance, for that means that you are in The Universal Consciousness. That is where total balance occurs. Anything outside of The Universal Consciousness is out of balance. It is not a negative. It is simply the way in which it is. Back and forth, back and forth, up and down, until we bounce ourselves back into The One. It is as simple as that.

But, you see, what The Universe does is tease us all, and they give us a little hint of what it is like to be in balance, total balance. It keeps us moving toward the goal of going back to The One. It gives us hope. Ah, indeed, this is what it is like. Some of you feel it in your own path. When you have gone through great turmoil, and you know that there is balancing, and up and down, and then suddenly, perhaps for a nanosecond, you feel complete balance. It is all right, you say. All equals. But then, of course, The Universe says, "Okay, time is up. Time now for another lesson to learn. More issues." Why else would you come onto a training ground, especially the earth plane, which is one of the most difficult and accelerated of the training grounds, you see?

It is part of, also, the reward for getting through The Shift, not that it is any big deal. Change can do that to someone, make them feel a little out of balance. And each of you who is prepared vibrationally to move in transition from the current illusion into The New Illusion deserves a little credit for the work that you are doing now vibrationally to prepare yourselves, the growth that you undergo at a vibrational level, your spiritual growth, if you will. And it is a little reward. That is what The Universe does to all of us. It gives us little rewards.

It is much like training other energies. You train them, you give them a little piece of candy, say, "Good energy," and then you train them some more, and the more that they learn, the more you pat them on the head and say, "Good energy, very good energy," and you do more. They more that you are rewarded, the more that you want to do. That is a very basic concept.

You know, when I was a Cherub, errant as I was, they continued to give me little rewards, and the goal to become a full-fledged Angel, not just a little Cherub running around, you see. It works. This is the way it works in every dimension outside of The Universal Consciousness. And balancing, that sense of balancing, is such a reward. The earth itself will have that sense of balance. And then it will begin, because all of the rest of the kingdoms on the planet are involved in their own balancing, and the earth is host to all of the other kingdoms.

And everyone begins to move back and forth. Some move back and forth together. Some are moving back while another is moving forth, in different rates of speed, and thus it is, until it reaches the point where you are now on the earth plane at the end of an illusion, where all the movement back and forth is so chaotic that you bump into each other and you get all out of harmony and create that final POOF, if you will, that final ENOUGH IS ENOUGH ~ flip over, start over again.

As we prepare to depart now, my loved ones, we will give to you all an energy that will assist you in certain climatic changes, for as we have indicated quite some time ago, the earth in this geographic area, as well as others, is at the beginning of dryness, as you call it, drought. And while it may not appear to be so in the vibration that you feel currently in this gathering, understand that the earth is very dry now and will continue to be so, and that it is part of your own acclimations to the new climate and to the new vibration. And thus, we send you off from this gathering with an energy that will help you. You may take this into your meditations and work with it within your own vibration to help you in the heat that comes from the dryness.

And we also want to reinforce one thing that we have said from times past of air conditioning, that you must not break yourself from air conditioning immediately and rapidly. You must do this gradually, as your body, your vibration, is able to acclimate. It does you no good to say, and we know this is being said, "Waith said not to use air conditioning." We did not say not to use air conditioning. We simply said that it will reach a point of being nonvibrational to a certain entity where you will not need that type of cooling for your encasement. But do that only when you are ready for it. There is no dogma that comes from us, only guidance for you to use as you need and as is appropriate to all of you.

We have given the energy. It is an energy that is protected from the very Highest of the Kingdom of Amelius, so that those of the dark that may try to infiltrate and work their ways with you will not be able to, for it is an energy that comes from Amelius. Enjoy your time with the earth after we depart. And we look forward to meeting with you once again in our gatherings with you. We send to you all now the very Highest of the White Light from the very Highest of the Kingdom of Amelius. Farewell.
