Topic Of Conversation ~ Earth Changes And The New Illusion

We bring to you all the very Highest of the White Light. We welcome all of the beautiful energies gathered and are pleased that so many new, at least new to the gatherings at concrete, not new to the energies, by any means, are here with us in this session. Since our discussions for this coming year will revolve around the changes that earth now undergoes, we determined it to be appropriate that this year also have as its focus to give Light to Earth. Thus, we have provided to you the balancing of certain components of earth.

Our gift to all who have been with us in our celebration of the anniversary of our mission with Mushiba, and to those of you who are gathered in this session, is simply a symbolism. It is a reminder to you of the focus for the coming year on the earth plane, and that is, of course, to give Light to Earth.

We have provided for you The Mineral Kingdom and the opposites in The Mineral Kingdom. There is the gold crystal that you find in your gold encirclement placed on the symbol of fluffy White Light, and the rock that comes right out from this parking lot. It is to show you that energy exists in all types of encasements and that each of you come into an encasement that looks a certain way. It does not mean that your energy is any better or any less than another energy because of the way that you look. Thus, The Mineral Kingdom plays a very significant role in the cleaning that earth undergoes now. And thus, we give you the symbolism of the opposite ends of encasements from The Mineral Kingdom.

The color that we emphasize in this coming year of Light to Earth is gold. Gold is the light of illumination and the Light of the Highest. We have given you the gold stars as a symbol of illumination and brightness. And a further part of this gift will be given to you now. In our celebration, each of the others from The Company, the other six, entered and gave part of their purpose in this coming year. That will not happen in this session. However, the significance of what you see in front of you with the candles is a representation of the light that comes from the focus of gold, and the six other colors that represent the others in The Company and their particular mission within the overall mission of Waith and Company.

What we have here is a gold candle that each who have received the gold circling will also be able to have, and to light from the gold candle. It has been energized, as well as all of The Mineral Kingdom members, in this last session that we had. This gold candle can then be lit by you throughout this coming year, on occasion, as you call upon your own resources to give Light to Earth. And it is simply a symbolism. There is no mystical power in all of this. Remember that. Mystical power comes only from Self, nothing external. This, however, will give you a concreteness in which you may then be able to focus to bring yourself to your own abilities to give Light to Earth and to visualize gold

Light to Earth, as earth calls upon you for its own healing. The earth now will be doing that. It is at that staging in its own cleansing where it calls upon all from other kingdoms to give assistance as it goes through its final cleansing.

What we will ask each of you to do, who were not here in our last session, is to quickly come up and take one of these gold candles and to light it from the gold. And we will give you the same energy that was given in our Anniversary Session, and then we will continue on with the session for this gathering. So, please now come forward. More than one can do this at a time. And return then to that where you were seated.

These candles will be lit, that you see before you, for each of our Public Sessions and will serve as an added reminder of the Light to be given to Earth. As you all focus upon the light that you hold in your hand, envision that light moving into the beauty of Self. You are bright golden lights, lights of healing and lights of love. As you need renewal through this coming year, for light to the Earth, call upon the symbolism of the candle. Visualize the unity of Self with the gold light. You have received the energy now and the circle is complete. You may gently extinguish the light now. We now are ready to have discussions relating to The New Illusion and the changes of the earth that are upon all of you now, and we would take questions in that endeavor.

Jenjura indicated that he could answer more specific questions about what was going to happen and when, as I understood. Am I correct in that?

You are correct. The earth has given permission to Jenjura, the Librarian in The Company, as well as others who share his similar type of responsibilities from the other kingdoms, to give out information of a more specific nature relating to the path of the earth, as well as its own cleansings and specific responses. So, there may be some responses that we are unable to give when the question is asked because of incomplete activities. As many of you know, behavior must have a certain degree of completion before information can be given so that it does not in some way influence outcomes.

Question And Discussion Regarding The Earth's Polarities, Now And After The Shift

As we know the earth, we are east/west, north and south. Where would we be in relation to the earth tipping? As an example, how far south are we going, or are we going northward, or in the rocking motion, at what point do we stop?

Ah, indeed. You know, we love to have questions that are asked based on your very concrete frame of reference to polarities. Polarities on the current plane run north/south, as you know. As we have indicated, the polarity changes will be east/west, and that those polarities have already begun to shift about and rock, if you will. Would it seem logical, then, that if polarities are going north/south, and they are going to go east/west in The New Illusion, that there really is not going to be that kind of a difference proportionately to distance from a particular pole? If you are east and west, as poles, and you are still in the same geographic location, then you are still proportionate in distance east/west as you would be north/south, you see.

It is simply that climatic activities will be different. The weather, as you know it, will be so different. We watch with great humor the changes that occur, and the scientists who try to explain why the Earth changes seem to be so abnormal, and yet they try to fit it into normalcy. The drastic weather that occurs brings about, at the same time, a rather major swinging of polarities, but it will not be until the final shifting that you will find the polarities changed completely. You will only have components of that now. You will remain where you are geographically, wherever that may end up being, whether it is land or water, and you will be in the same proportionate distance from a pole that you currently are in now.

Would You Talk About How Our Bodies Might Change For The New Illusion, And Water Living?

Well, your water wings have begun to sprout, my son. You will soon be floating away in some deserted waterlude. We have indicated, of course, that the encasements will be altered. This will not be a dramatic type of alteration in which you will one day look as you do and wake up the next day looking fishy, with scales and wings of sort. The encasements currently on the plane are undergoing adaptations already. What you call the genetic pool has already begun, and began indeed three hundred to five hundred earth plane years ago when The Shifting began its initial workings and the cleansing began. The genetic pool, as you know it, or the energy lineage that brings entities into alignment for their balancing, began to undergo alterations of a very significant, yet very limited and unnoticeable mode.

There is, with some entities, a much greater ability to function within water than for other entities to function within water. As the cleansing has occurred over these past three to five hundred earth plane years, there has been a gradual increasing of this adaptation. There are some on the earth plane currently who have reached the final stages of adaptation to water living. They simply do not wear a sign that says, "I am a future water inhabiter." It is not something that needs to be shown, for when the time approaches for the need to inhabit within the water, the capability will simply be there.

The ability to function within water, as a human encasement, is different for this coming illusion than what you think of currently ~ the capability of any encasement to live within water. You think of fins and you think of scales that breathe, and you think of certain frames of reference. You must be cautious of thinking in those old ways. We are here to help you break out of the old frames of reference and to bring into your thoughts the new frame of reference to allow yourself the freedom to expand in your own Awarenesses, to not be held by those that are of the old. As we give you information in this coming year, especially, we will, what you would say, wean you into certain descriptives so that we help you move out of your old thought patterns and help you to prepare your own insights for a much more expanded awareness.

Being Careful To Not Give Definitive Dates And Times, For Energy Movement Flows

In the book Edgar Cayce on Prophecy, the year 1998 is stressed several times as being a particularly important one. Is there any significance to that?

As we have so often said in our discussions, that we are careful not to give definitive dates and times, for energy movement flows, and at the time that Cayce gave out the information that he was given, it was appropriate to give definitive times. It was appropriate from that standpoint, from that frame of reference, that this year would have a significance. What has occurred, however, from that time in which the information was given, and now, is that there is a greater latitude, and the realization that definitive days and times are counterproductive in light of each entity's own advancements toward the cleansing. The cleansing is going to occur, plus or minus four earth plane years, around the year known as 2000. This has been given out by many, many from other dimensions. Most are very careful in giving out a definitive date, but rather say, in the flexibility of time, plus or minus, for many activities must occur before the final shifting occurs.

It may come much sooner or it may come much later, depending upon many, many circumstances. What we have indicated, however, is that the earth now is in its next to the last stage of cleansing, which, of course, then means that The Shifting is upon the earth very, very shortly. We have not, however, given a time frame of when the final stage will be entered in. Those of us who give through information have a certain amount of information that we have been charged with giving. We must give that before the final stages will occur, and that could be several earth plane years. So, the year 1998 is significant in that it is part of the plus or minus component of The Shifting and really not to be given any stronger significance than any other year, beginning with the next earth plane year that you know as 1996.

Discussion Of The Training Ground Of Humans Living In The Water

For those humans who decide to live in the water, will they choose to build cities under water?

Well, how would they live?

I do not know.

That is a very good question, my son.

I was going to ask it and I thought you would laugh at me.

Yes. Well, you know, they will have elaborate little dwellings. Entities develop communities and groupings ~ energy groupings that can be very small or can be very large depending on what is needed. The abilities to live within a particular type of vibration simply come with the territory. It is part of it. It will not be a difficult endeavor. For those who will be living within water, some may live completely within the water and some may live partially on land. It will depend on a number of situations.

*Many, many of you who gather here now, and who may read of our information in the future, may not have actual connections with those who inhabit in the water, nor will they have connections with you. Yet, as The New Illusion moves along on its own path, and those of you who stayed for The New Illusion leave the life and then return, of course, at another time, may find yourself in the same illusion in which you just left, but now, you are living within the water. And thus it is. It is the training ground.*

And rather than be so concerned about whether you will be living in the water, or living on the land, and all of that, be more concerned with your own vibrational attunements. Be more concerned with the growth that you will bring about for Self. Be more concerned of Self and the ability then to strengthen Self so as to be of greater service to others. You will be called upon, be it those from water or those from land. We have not even begun the discussion of within land, not just on the surface of land but within the land. If you have strengthened within Self, you will then be able to Be of Service to any entity who would call upon you, and to have a greater awareness of that connection. You may, perhaps, be asked to help in the building of their communities, for they will need assistance.

*There will be a time in the beginning of The New Illusion in which Interdimensional Travel will be easily achieved and will be given as a gift to many entities who ordinarily would not have the ability. In the short term, you will be asked to travel within different dimensions to help in the building. However, that gift will be given to those who have truly sought within Self their own growth and their own strengthening, and more importantly, their own attitudes toward Unconditional Love.*

They will have particular houses that will have a little peaked dome, you see. Domes usually are round but this will be peaked. A new frame of reference for you, my son. ☺

Environmental Changes ~ Colors Of The Sky And Water ~ Traveling And Playing In The Water

What will the weather be in this area after the shift?

Oh, but that is quite, quite a bit on the record. It will be, as you know, tropical in this particular geographic area. The frame of reference, again, is a bit different. However, that which you know as tropical now is primarily what will occur in this part of the, what you call, hemisphere. It will have its own type of weather patterns, what you call storms and what you call calm. The color of the sky, as you now know it to be blue, will not be. It will be a color that you do not have a frame of reference for now. Many are able to see that color in their meditation.

The water that you now know. the color when it is clear and pure, will not be that color. It will be a different color and a different frame of reference than you currently have. The trees that you have around you, and all of the other earth components, will be different. There is already the beginnings of the new plant life and the new trees coming onto the plane. In this geographic area that you find yourself, there are new birds, if you will, coming in, and new other animals whose kingdoms have been adequately prepared for their entry into the final stages of this illusion and this vibration, that will then carry them into the new vibration of The New Illusion. It will be very, very hot in this particular vibrational area. So, if you plan to buy this skiing equipment that has a lifelong guarantee, you might want to rethink that a bit.

Water skis.

Perhaps. There will be ways of traveling and playing in the water that will be presented that is different from now that you currently know.

This Is Harmonious Overlapping Of Different Dimensions, Vibrations, and Energy In Helping To Set Up The New Illusion

It sounds like not only will there be earth entities that stay, but we will be getting entities from other earth plane planets to inhabit this plane with us. You spoke of different more advanced levels, and like we are getting everyone together on the earth plane.

Well, you know, everyone is together already. When we say, my love, that all are already together, the dimensions all exist simultaneously and interconnectedly. It is simply that some dimensions are not aware of other dimensions. You are all gathered Interdimensionally with many, many different levels of understanding and abilities. You are aware of some dimensions, and some dimensions you are not aware of.

In The New Illusion, for the beginning of that New Illusion, there will be a greater awareness of other dimensions. There will be other dimensions charged with the responsibility of helping to build in The New Illusion, in the very short term. It will not take that long to bring into a foundation The New Illusion. Thus, what you feel perhaps is a sense of confusion and perhaps a sense of all these entities coming from all these different places. And what is one to do with all of them? And what will you do with them? They have come to visit. Do you have to give them a room? Do they find their own hotel?

You know, it will all flow as it occurs. There will not be the concern, for there will be much guidance in the setting up of The New Illusion. Understand that when we speak of the setting up of The New Illusion, we talk also of transition. And there is much that has already transpired, and much that is currently transpiring, that creates a transition, an overlapping, if you will, of vibrations, an overlapping of energy, an overlapping of dimensions. And all work in harmony.

Many of you are not aware, oftentimes, of your own help that is given and received interdimensionally. When you go into the sleep state, as you call it, you are simply going into an altered state. You are going into another dimension. Sometimes you remember and sometimes you do not. Your meditations are another form of an altered state. Many entities work interdimensionally while they work at the conscious level here in this illusion. They do not need to go into an altered state. They are in essence in an altered continually. There are perhaps many you know who you think are always in an altered state. ☺

Is There A Special Training Ground In The Angelic Realm To Help With New Illusions?

Oh, indeed. We have quite a training course that goes on. It has been going on for hundreds and hundreds and hundreds of years. And grades are given. You know, you get a good grade if you have been good and a bad grade if you have not been. And you are not allowed to move into the next level of training until you have passed certain information responses. Even though we would give you that humorous response, in all seriousness, at an illusion change, there is a strengthening of the realms that are charged with the responsibility of seeing any training ground through an illusion change.

The earth plane as a training ground has longer illusions than other training grounds. The reason for that is that the earth plane is such a severe and accelerated training ground that we would just finish getting an illusion set up and it would be time to do it again. And, quite frankly, it is rather exhausting to get the earth plane through an illusion change. We have been in preparation vibrationally for the same equivalency of three hundred to five hundred earth plane years that we speak of.

The forces of dark and Light, of course, begin to align more strongly, and we simply are in a different type of training mode where defense is concerned. At an illusion change there is the highest probability of the forces of dark overcoming some of the Light. Even though they never win, they may take some of the Light into their camp and hold them captive, if you will, to give it a concreteness as an analogy ~ it is not quite that simple. Thus, we send out the call to The Angelic Kingdom to those who would perhaps want to join The Warrior Camp, for not all of The Angelics are warriors. Only a certain few are warriors, if you will, few ~ and we use that term very loosely. Few, in your mind, would be millions and millions and millions.

There are other Angelics who are charged with guarding ~ your Guardian Angelic. There are others who are Messengers. There are others who are all of those. They take on all of those responsibilities. When they reach the level to which my responsibilities are charged, we must have that training from all of those levels in order to guide. So, The Warrior

Camp, if you will, has been reinforced. However, The Messenger Camp has also been reinforced, for now The Messengers are larger and larger in number.

You know, The Angelic Kingdom really has made quite a name for itself on the earth plane without any evidence of us, if you think about it. There is no real concrete proof that we exist, and yet look at the frenzy, all about you, where angels are concerned. There must be something to it. You know, as Mushiba calls in her professional jargon, we are good marketers. ☺ We have managed to get you all convinced of our existence, and that is due to The Messengers who manifest themselves, who give you the information. They have been very specially trained, The Messengers.

And The Protectors, they have been very specially trained. And they protect now at an even greater level. And their abilities to protect have been given greater latitude, so that while Angelic Protectors, traditionally, and for the most part, are not allowed to interfere in their charge, certain latitudes are given during an illusion change, to protect you from yourself sometimes.

And so yes, the entire Angelic realm, in all of the five kingdoms that divide up The Universe, are all at a higher level of operation now, simply for the earth plane illusion change. When another training ground changes its illusion, there is another type of preparation. And Guide School, as we refer to it, also has special courses. It is the symbolic way of explaining it to you, special courses for guides who will Be of Service in The Messenger Angelic mode, who have been specially trained.

It does not just happen automatically because one is in The Angelic Kingdom or one is in Guide School. You could be in first grade in Guide School or you could be in twelfth grade in Guide School. You would have very different awarenesses. A first grade Guide School entity would not be given the same responsibilities as a twelfth grade Guide School entity. However, there would be certain levels of training given at even the most elementary grades at an illusion change so as to prepare them from grade to grade, since illusion changes occur periodically and predictably.

When Messengers come in, can they just manifest in bodies, or are they illusions?

Poof!

Are they real?

What is real, my love?

Really, reality is an illusion.

Really, reality is an illusion. Your body is an illusion.

It should be. ☺

Oh, now, now, this was a most derogatory remark made of Self. One must be careful even in jest of making derogatory remarks about Self, for you will then believe it in another level.

The Angelics, when they poof in and poof out, is not, of course, the same kind of illusion that the encasement that most of you have in this gathering. The illusion that comes through the birthing cycle has a different kind of energy and vibration than a poof-in and poof-out encasement. And that is all. They come in very quickly, serve their purpose. It could be five minutes, it could be five days. It could be five weeks, whatever time is needed. And then they poof-out again.

A Question About Alien Abductions

There are some individuals who have claimed to have been abducted by aliens and taken to spaceships for some biological purpose. If that is true, is the biological purpose in creating new bodies for us for The New Illusion?

That particular discussion would best be held for another gathering, my son, since there is much that goes with this as the laying of a foundation. It is not a hostile act that occurs. There may be forces of dark that have entered in, as with all behavior. However, it is not them again you, as is so often presented, the UFOs. We have talked at some length on what you call aliens and do plan to bring that back into a discussion, perhaps at a time at the beginning of a session rather than at the end of a session. So hold that and perhaps then bring it up at a future time within this earth plane year. Not the next session, however.

Mutations Of Humans, Plants And Animals

The plants and animals that you talked about coming in at this time, are they manifesting from another dimension, or are they coming from concrete, through mutations, to this other new species?

Both, my love, just as the human form is mutating ~ and that is a positive word, not a negative. Mutation is very positive, for it brings about change which eventually brings about difference, which eventually brings about newness and growth. There is the mutation component, and there is also the interdimensional component. There are human encasements that are currently receiving energy from another dimension that comes in and merges with the energy. This is all done in a cooperative manner. There, again, is nothing hostile occurring here.

The walk-in phenomena is also a part of this change, so that the newer energies coming into an existing body have the ability to make physical changes. The same is true of plants. The walk-in phenomena occurs with plants. It occurs in all of the kingdoms. You know, this carpet that you sit on has the potential of being a walk-in. We say that in all seriousness. There is energy in everything, and energy moves from encasement to encasement. It is not just the human energy or the animal energy or the mineral energies that you feel most connected with, and therefore can determine have movement. Everything that is concrete is an encasement for energy. Therefore, the movement in and out is easily achieved, whether it is what you call live or not, for life is a perspective that many of you do not understand as yet, which will be part of our work with you all.

Does Every Energy Pass Through A Universal Portal When They Pass Over?

When energies pass over, they go through a portal. You have referred to the portal and the necessity to have energies there welcoming them, helping them, protecting them, as they go through. Is this portal a Universal place from whatever dimension or whatever training ground energies leave, do they go through the same portal?

Oh, indeed. All energy goes through the same portal. It is the main portal. There are, what you would call, various tunnels that entities can take. It is not limited to, "Well, this is the human tunnel, and this is the animal tunnel, and this is the tree tunnel." It is not limited at all in that respect. They are simply placed vibrationally around the entire planet, for example, as a training ground, and other training grounds. The tunnels all help to just keep things in order.

Remember, The Universe is very ordered. And then it brings it into this very large waiting room where all of the tunnels have merged in and dropped off into this waiting room. And then, very slowly, those who are charged with helping at the portal, help to bring all of the energies into the movement through the final portal and into that area where The Angelic Protector then takes over and brings the energy into its evaluation place. It is very organized.

All these changes tell me that there is going to be tremendous amount of confusion in the future among scientists as to what is created, what is evolved, and you are contributing to that.

Oh, indeed. Yes. We have not even begun. The information that we have to give is going to shake up, shall we say, many with a certain status-quo. There will be many who will not. It will simply be, "Well, of course. But, of course." And there is information that we have given in the early days of our mission that entities thought was a bit silly and perhaps not accurate and has been proved for its validity. Our concern is not in proving anything to any entity. We do not need to do that. We are here to give information. You can take it or leave it. And we are here to help explain it. We are not here to debate the information that we give. We are here certainly to give clarity and to have discussions. And we are here to help you move along your path and to help you accommodate yourselves to the changes and to make it perhaps a bit easier.

The changes will occur. That is not the debate. That is not the issue. Whether scientists want to believe that or not is not our concern, for what is about to occur will simply occur. Scientists would want to give definition to it, would want to give concreteness to it, and yet, they fail to look around them at the changes that have already happened. And if their records do not show a history of an event occurring, then it simply has never happened, according to them. And their records of weather patterns, do not even reach back into the time frame when the illusion began its cleansing. Three hundred to five hundred earth plane years ago, the cleansing began. And your current scientific records do not even stretch back that far, so how do they have a frame of reference that is in any way accurate? They do not. But that is the fun of it all. You know, it is part of what we enjoy.

The weather patterns that you experience now, and the social systems that are being cleansed out, and all of your own vibrations that are undergoing cleaning, in some way or another, are all part of the higher force that brings about the periodic cleansing of an entire training ground, so that we can start it up again and get back to this point again, and clean it again, and start it up, and move along. And this is all that we have to do.

So, now, my loves, it is time for us to return back into our realm and to take our wings off and get ourselves a drink, a nice clicker, and start looking at all of your lives on the earth plane, like you do on this television. This is what we do. We click here and we click there, and we see who is doing what. It was (Name given), yes, who asked us what we do when we are not here?

You did not answer me.

But we did! We take off our wings. We settle into our easy chair. We get ourselves a little something to snack on. We have a wonderful time.

It is now time for us to depart. And as we prepare for departure, we ask you all to take a very slow deep breath in whatever way is comfortable for you, to bring yourself into the focus of the Heart Center. Feel the energy of the Heart Center filling the encasement with the beauty of love of Self.

Fill the encasement now, slowly and gently, feeling the protection of your own Light and the protection from The Angelics and the guides who surround you. Slowly now, allow the beauty of your Light to move out of your encasement and fill the gathering and mingle with the others. Feel the beauty of the unity of love of Self combined with all others in the gathering. Slowly now, as we depart, move about and greet each other and laugh and share the joy of the mutual paths that you all share. We send to you now the very Highest of the White Light from the very Highest of the Kingdom of Amelius.
