Earth Changes And The New Illusion, Continued

Be joyous. It is a joyous occasion for us now. We understand the sense of loss, any departure, from a training ground gives. However, your loss is our gain. Thus, we continue in the next stages of our mission now, and we continue in full vigor, actually, with a renewal of energy coming into the total energy of that which is Waith and Company. (Waith is speaking of the departure of Garrett Oppenheim, PhD)

We are now prepared to share some information with you regarding Earth changes, for that is the task at hand now. There is no time, as you would call it, to dally and to think that there is now a stoppage to any type of activity. It is quite the contrary. It is accelerated now.

We give you cautions, first of all. As we are giving you information during this coming earth plane year, and the time that is needed after this year, to prepare for The Shifting, you must be most, most careful of taking a strict interpretation of what we provide as a general flow of activities and earth plane changes. It is all too easy to be asked when a specific event is going to occur and when a particular type of activity is going to present itself in relating to the earth plane changes, and for you to want us to give you a very specific response.

We have indicated to you that we give you what appears to be a flow in the time frames. What we may say as very soon, from our perspective, could be several earth plane months, or even a year or two on the plane. When we give you events that are occurring, we are not giving you definitive time frames. When we say that there is upheaval occurring, it means that this is an ongoing, constant type of situation and not something that we would say is going to occur in a particular month and during a particular day. But rather, it is the flow.

We had indicated several sessions ago that there was about to occur massive disruptions within the planet physical. Those indeed have occurred, and in very disruptive ways for the earth's energy, and will continue. We can say to you with as much certainty as is needed without giving definitive times and dates, that in this earth plane year, as the flow of vibration presents itself to us and to those at our level who give through information, will be very dramatic Earth changes.

The shaking of the earth, as you call it earthquakes, has only begun to present themselves. The effects of major portions of the planet having the shaking will be felt throughout the planet and will have its effects in the form of what you call tidal waves and in the form of what you call volcanoes. While, on one hand, you would take it with what you call this grain of salt, for it is happening predictably, it is also a time of healing for the planet. It must be taken from a spiritual perspective.

Giving Much Needed Light To Earth

We have given the theme for this earth year as give Light to Earth, and that is something that many need to be reinforced in doing. We must remind you on a regular basis that while you may view all of this as, "Well, Waith was predicting this, and it is the Earth changes. And yes, there are extremes. And yes, it is hot today and tomorrow it is cold," and be joking about it, that is all well and good, for the Lightheartedness is most essential. The flipside of that, the balance of being cavalier about this is in understanding that each event that occurs is a form of the cleansing that the planet is undergoing, and the planet needs Light. The planet needs your healing. It is not just the physical planet but all of the systems that exist ~ your political systems. There is upheaval throughout the planet in political systems, some more dramatic than others, some you are not even aware of.

When we tell you that certain upheavals are occurring, you may not know about it. It may not be publicized, as you would call it, for it may be the rumblings underneath. Just as when the earthquake occurs, and you do not see a tidal wave as a result of it, there is still very much the rumblings underneath that will erupt in some other way. This is what is occurring now ~ all of your social systems. All that you have come to know and understand is coming to an end. Some of you will be able to go with it, and some of you will not. Regardless, you are all here at this point in time, and therefore, are responsible at this moment, wherever you are in the plane, to assist the earth. In assisting the earth, you assist yourself, for you are a guest on the planet.

The weather patterns are most interesting now. It does not take a high-level spook to give you these kinds of discussions about weather patterns and their extremes. We become rather tired after a while of talking about the fact that there are these extremes occurring in the weather, and that you would want to know when exactly is it going to be cold, and when exactly is it going to be hot. It does not matter. The point is that it is going to be hot when you expect it to be cold, and cold when you expect it to be hot. It is as simple as that. When you least expect something within the systems that you have come to know, and in some cases love, those too are crumbling. It is not to be panicked about. It is simply to acknowledge and work within those crumbling. Those who are not able to work within the crumbling are those who will not be in The New Illusion. It is as simple as that.

We occasionally have to speak in rather strong terms, for while an illusion is simply another game that is played outside of The Universal Consciousness, it is nonetheless real. Therefore, you must work within that reality. The reality is that the earth is calling upon you now. The Human Kingdom has abused the earth more than any of the other kingdoms that are hosted by this training ground. This is true in every illusion. It is generally ~ not always, but generally ~ The Human Kingdom that abuses the planet. It is, generally then, The Human Kingdom that has the fewest allocations of energy slots for the beginning of each new illusion. There are only so many slots available on a training ground, you see, for each kingdom. It is not come hither, come whatever, when you ever feel like coming on, you can. It is not that way at all. It is all very planned and very organized.

Thus, we say to you that it is your responsibility, as you seek your own enlightenment, whatever that might be and however you would define that, that term enlightenment, that you use that definition for the betterment of the planet, to take yourselves out of Self and give Light to Earth. It cries out, "Not enough here." And not enough respond. There will be with Terra Lux, in the second half of this earth plane year, events occurring specifically designed to bring what you call ritual to the giving of Light to Earth. We work with Mushiba in this activity. You will know of it as it is needed to know.

In the meantime, it is very important that you as individual entities find your own sense of connection with the planet and to give assurance to the planet that you are available to assist in the healing process and to give Light when called upon. It is the responsibility now of all remaining on the planet. Think of what the earth has put up with. It has been its path, and it has taken on that path very willingly. But enough is enough. This next-to-the-last stage of the cleansing becomes so accelerated that it is difficult to even give you a response. Things occur in such rapidity now that it is not even measurable by your own standards of time.

Waith Gives A Simple And Quick Technique That You Can Use To Connect With The Planet

We have for you a particular technique, very easy, very simple, very quick technique that you can use to connect with the planet. In its simplicity, it is meant simply to tell the planet that you are a basket of light. As we had indicated at the beginning of this year, it is the gold light that we focus this earth plane year. You are a basket of gold light. If you envision yourself in this way, you will then also project the vision of gold light to those around you. You will feel the lightness that the gold light brings to an energy. It is quite easy. You simply pretend that you are seated within a basket that has a very big handle on it. It goes around, and it is gold, and it is light, and you are seated in this gold light filled basket. You emanate the gold light to the planet.

You say to the planet "This basket of gold light from me will always be filled, and you may take from it whenever you need it. You do not have to request it." Simply make it available now for the planet. Do not require the planet to ask you. Give the Unconditional Love to earth, and provide that basket of gold light for whenever it is needed. That is the highest essence of Unconditional Love ~ not requiring that another ask you, and not requiring that another thank you. Simply, that you are there as needed, without any strings attached.

This is what the planet needs now, for The Human Kingdom's existence on the planet has been so conditional. It has attempted to rule the planet, and of course, has realized that that is not possible. But in its attempts to do so, The Human Kingdom has tried to place conditions on the planet. It is time to recognize that that is not the case, and to give away that idea that you, as a human, control the planet. Flow with the earth and you will find yourself much better able to live on the earth. So, are you all little baskets of gold light now. It can be as big as you want it to be, or as small, depending on how long your arms are.

Would you have any questions now? It does not have to address specifically what we have just given you for information. It can address the general discussion of Light to the Earth.

Would it be a good idea to also picture ourselves as gold and light filled baskets and project that to our friends and family, too?

Oh, indeed. It would be a most delightful vision to have, my love. There is enough gold light baskets around. If you were to do that with all who you encounter, how truly beautiful and light filled the planet would be. Indeed, the more baskets that you can fill, and be in, and project, the much better your own life will be. You could actually have a little supply of baskets that you would envision that as you meet someone new, or new at least at the earth plane level, that you would give them a little gold basket. You visualize this. All those who you have been in relationships with, whatever the degree of harmony in those relationships, that you would visualize going around and giving them all a little basket of gold light. You could even tie a little purple bow on the top.

Why Is Water Such An Important Part In The Upcoming Events?

It seems that water plays a tremendous role in all this upcoming. It rains and rains, and everywhere everybody talks about water. So, it is more than wind and earth shifts or earthquakes. Why is the water such an important part in these upcoming events?

Well, there will be, as we have indicated, a fifty percent allocation of water and a fifty percent allocation of land at the beginning of the illusion, that that will gradually shift in its percentages. While the cleansing is occurring, there will at times be much more water allocated on the planet than land, and other times there will be more land as the balancing occurs. The Water Kingdom plays a very significant role in keeping the balance of what we call the abstract and the concrete. Water as a kingdom is considered abstract. Land as a kingdom is considered concrete. We will go into a further discussion of the kingdoms at some future time and give you indications of where they fit in the balance of concrete and abstract.

Thus, the water is also creating an energy that helps in the soothing. As the vibration of the planet earth component becomes heated from the stress of the upheaval, the water enables there to be a cooling down. It is much like your own encasements, where water is used to help cool down and to give a soothing effect to the encasement. It also serves as a way of physically cleaning out and bringing certain debris, as you know it, into a particular vibrational dimension that takes it out of the earth plane. There is much debris that has been on the planet in this illusion that is gone now. Most have not been tuning into the fact that the debris is going. Where does it go? It goes into another dimension, just as you all are able to move into other dimensions. It is in another dimension now. It is stored, shall we say, and will come out again when it is time for it to reappear in another illusion. The water, then, is part of the mechanisms that are in place to move certain concrete debris into another dimension. You will see the water occurring in excess in parts of the planet, and there will not be water in other parts of the planet.

We indicated quite some time ago that the planet is now in the beginning stages of what you call drought. Even though you may think that you have water abounding, that you have more rain, as you call it, than normal, you must remember that the normal, as measured in this time frame, is contrasted from a frame of reference of only one hundred earth plane years ago. The cleansing was well in place before the frames of reference were even in place. So, normal, as you know it now, is actually normal for a cleansing and not normal for normal, you see.

You find yourselves now in a geographic area, where Terra Lux is concerned, of relative balance between dry and wet. It will very soon, however, tip the scale and go into that which is dry. In looking at the balance in the planet, there is more that is dry than is wet. Whenever there is water that comes, it is immediately absorbed into the storage facilities that are in place for the beginning of The New Illusion. All works in a very orderly way. There is much that occurs that is not within the realm of understanding by The Human Kingdom, and also not needed to be known by The Human Kingdom at this point. Some may never know it ~ those in The Human Kingdom. They may not have the ability to understand. They may not have the awareness to understand.

Water in every illusion plays a very significant role, for it is part of the balancing of the illusion itself and the planet. Water exists in concept in many of the training grounds. There is a Water Planet, as we have indicated, as a training ground. It is a very abstract training ground. We will discuss it in greater detail when it is appropriate.

Do We Need To Be Saving Fresh Water And Food For Months Or Years?

Do we need to be saving fresh water and even food for months or years as many groups advocate, if water will be scarce?

Water, actually, will not be scarce once The New Illusion kicks in, shall we say. There will be scarcities of all that you know now on the planet ~ until the time of The Shifting ~ in certain areas. In certain geographic areas there will be a scarcity of water. In certain geographic areas there will be a scarcity of certain types of food ~ vegetation, plants, trees. It will depend on the area and its scheme in the balancing.

For us to say categorically that you should be storing anything goes back again to what we stated when we first began this session, that you must be very careful of taking statements that are made from other dimensions, so-called predictions, and putting definitive criteria to it. What you must do is to have the sense of where you are in your own geographic area. We have indicated that there will be a drought occurring in this geographic area, and that it has begun. Water that has now been coming into this geographic area has been quickly absorbed. However, at this time, there is not a scarcity. We would not recommend for this geographic area ~ this is a vibrational safe zone ~ that you would have much need to hoard anything or to stock up on anything, for all will be provided as it is needed.

You must remember that as the vibrational changes occur at the transition time of illusions, that your own encasement's need for food and water changes. What you have been needing to sustain your encasement now is indeed changing. Many of you have already begun to feel that. Some of you may never feel that. You may continue to have the same needs that you have been experiencing for food and water.

There are certain areas on the earth that have extreme shortages. You are not there. Concentrate on where you are and do not be worried about shortages that are occurring in other parts of the planet. If you needed to have that as an issue in your own growth and your own learning, you would be in those areas where there are shortages, and you would have to be dealing with the issue of shortages. Trust us. You will have your share of shortages in this geographic area. It simply will not be to the extremes that other areas now face.

The land mass that most recently was shaken from the planet, and had quite a bit of leveling done to its structures, is vibrationally sound now. It has gone through a major cleansing. We tell you this to give you an example of how the planet is gradually reconfiguring itself, and also, to give support to the position that we have given that many points on the planet are not yet sure of their own vibrational attunements. This land mass that you know as Japan, major portions of this will remain as land. It has gone through very significant vibrational cleansing, you see.

As we have indicated in the past, oftentimes, when there is an earthquake and there is no tidal wave, it means that there will be a rebuilding on that land mass. The water does not come and wash the land away. We have indicated that in this vibrational area that you find yourselves, there will be much leveling that will occur, but there will not be any water that sweeps over as in the form of a tidal wave.

What you need to survive, you will have. This geographic area has a major shelter that is part of the underground and it is in another dimension, and it is fully stocked. It has all your favorite Twinkies and chocolate and all of those necessities that keep you all going on the earth plane. It is fully stocked with those types of nourishments that would be needed to sustain your energy in that particular dimension for that particular amount of time. When it is time to come out of the shelter, then you will come back into the dimension and have all of the tools you need to survive. The earth plane always has provided the tools you need to survive.

All of the kingdoms work in harmony to help each other survive. It is when the balance becomes out of balance that kingdoms begin to find themselves with shortages, as you call it. You will not have that situation in The New Illusion. You will have that as it comes to a close ~ each illusion. You will find yourselves scrambling around perhaps. But it will be important for you in the maintenance of your own encasement and the growth of your own path to recognize that you will survive. If you do not, then you do not. It was time for you to leave. It is our way of population control.

Is The Population Increasing Or Decreasing?

Could you can help me to understand something? We all learn that the world population is growing because more and more souls want to experience the earth shift.

The population is not growing, my son. We have stated that the population is decreasing.

Well, that is totally contradictory.

Quite the opposite, my son. You must be careful of the frames of reference you go to in terms of who gives you the information and from what point of reference they make their predictions of growth versus decline. Their point of reference is very limited, and our point of reference is from a further point than theirs ~ your scientists on the plane.

While it may appear that there is growth, it is only growth that has a frame of reference of, at the most, one thousand earth plane years. Your scientists have NO, absolutely NO, idea of the numbers of energies both in The Human Kingdom and in all the other kingdoms that were on the plane prior, to their ability to even count, you see. From the proper frame of reference, the population has decreased tremendously in all of the kingdoms, but most especially in The Human Kingdom. The slots that have been allowed are still in existence. However, there is no longer expansion allowed in any of the kingdoms, and most especially in The Human Kingdom. There are fewer Human Kingdom entities coming in than leaving. It is just the way it is. You can believe it or not.

So, what you are saying is, for example, if we quote the statistics, the last ten years that more souls are leaving than entering the earth plane?

You misunderstand what we have just said. We are not using our frame of reference from anything that is currently known to your scientists, who would say in the past ten years, there are more leaving than entering. We are saying that from our frame of reference ~ which is many, many thousands of earth plane years ago ~ the percentages are decreasing. In addition, there are portions of the planet that are not subject to your statisticians' awareness in terms of counting. There is not an accurate account of any energies currently on the plane. That is impossible. You must understand that from a Universal Consciousness perspective, all is controlled by The Universal Consciousness. What you know, and what you do not know, the information that is given in to the earth plane, is filtered in as it is needed. When it is not needed, it is taken out. There is much that is not recorded. More is not recorded than is recorded.

You do not know all. The scientists do not have all the pieces of the puzzle. They think they do. We do that to play, you know. It gives us something to do. They think they know and have all the pieces and have indeed completed the puzzle, when they have perhaps one or two pieces of the puzzle, you see. It is exactly this type of attitude that exists on the plane now that is a predictable attitude at the closure of most illusions. It was most definitely at the end of The Atlantean Illusion and has threaded itself through this illusion in rather dramatic ways, this sense of The Human Kingdom knowing everything that needs to be known, and if they do not know it, then it does not exist, you see.

Are you saying then that it is true, or not true, as we have recorded, that two thousand years ago, let us say, there were a million human encasements on the earth, and at present, there are between five and six billion human encasements. That is not true?

Your information is based on an incorrect frame of reference. We have indicated that our frame of reference is several thousand earth plane years ago, and a frame of reference in which there is no accurate way for any human currently on the plane to have the knowledge of. There were what you call billions and billions of humans on the earth plane from the point of reference that we give, far more than currently exist. The decrease has been very dramatic in the past three to five hundred earth plane years. But the frames of reference are what are most important.

You must in your own search for understanding, each of you, take yourselves out of your own concreteness and your own arrogance in thinking that all that exists, that has ever existed, you know about, and that if you do not know about it, that it did not exist, and that there was indeed much life and much more advanced life at the beginning of this illusion than scientists would want to acknowledge.

We have stated quite emphatically that the building in Egypt with the stone ~ the pyramids notwithstanding, but the other types of structures ~ were done through the use of mind. There were not thousands of slaves constructing them over a period of years. Yet, the scientists, currently on the plane, cannot explain it, and therefore, they try to explain it through their own concrete frames of reference and do not want to acknowledge that they cannot explain something. "It must be able to be explained, you see. If we cannot explain it, then it did not happen."

The Validity Of Certain Historical And Scientific Discoveries

Well, scientists and archaeologists have based their theories on pictures that are in the graves in the underground tombs of various Egyptian nobles that have been uncovered. They show slaves, or workmen at least, pulling great stones on rollers, and so forth, and they expanded upon this for their theory. So, certainly some degree of building must have been done this way for the pictures to be there.

Oh, indeed, the pictures, as you call them, are there, and they were planted. Think of this in your own perspectives. Sometimes, if you have the opportunity to draw something and you want to perhaps make a story, and you know that those who will be reading it may not understand completely the higher concepts, you will bring it into an elementary level. If you are an advanced teacher, shall we say, and you have beginning students, you know predictably that they must have allegory in their understanding of concepts. They must have a sense of simplistic pictures.

Oftentimes, the teacher, sort of, glosses over the higher concepts because they know that the student will not be able to in any way understand the concept until a certain level of awareness is reached. It is, then, the responsibility of the teacher to implant certain images in the mind of the novice. That is exactly what has happened. It is not a negative. It is the way of teaching. It is the responsibility of the master teachers that come from other dimensions, at specific points in an illusion, to implant certain types of information, to keep the earth plane illusion, at that point, moving along, you see.

Would you also say that this is true also in the case of discovery of cave paintings that indicate that we had a barbaric period and an ice age? That would have fallen into the last illusion period, actually.

Oh, you know, you must come more often and perhaps read the information we have given out so that you will understand that we have stated so often, and it has come through from other sources also, that we plant things. We bring in and we put something in an illusion and we take it out. We have stated that we can date things so that it appears to be a certain date, as you would know it in your frame of reference.

Atlantis had a time frame that was quite different from what you understand now. There would be no information from most levels able to explain to you the differences in time. Time in The New Illusion will be very different from the way you measure it now. Thus, to use your own frame of reference, and say that this ice age must have occurred in the Atlantean time, or the time before that, or whatever, is inaccurate. It is not wrong. It is simply inaccurate. It is based on incorrect frames of reference and in, again, thinking that you have the correct frame of reference, you see.

It is all part of the setup on the earth plane. It is to keep you out of balance. Just when you think you know it all, a new piece of information is added that makes you then step back and say, "Oh, I do not know it all, and how arrogant of me to even think that I can know it all." No one knows it all, ever. None of us do. The frames of reference change. They change on us. We have higher levels of awareness that we report to, who are in charge of the changing of the frames of reference. They do it to us to keep us off ~ out of balance. It is our responsibility to pass it along, just as it is your responsibility to pass it along to those who would need that. It is not a negative. It is the way of learning. It is the way of expanding your awarenesses. We each ask for those awarenesses that are higher than ours to help us in expanding our own awarenesses by creating the disequilibrium ~ just when you think it is safe.

How many human encasements then will there be to start The New Illusion, or what percentage?

We have answered that question for you many other times, my son. It is time, now, that you would perhaps read some of that which we have given to refresh yourself. We have on more than one occasion given that out.

Why Are There Discrepancies In What Is Found And What You Say Really Happened?

I would like to come back to these pyramids. If, for whatever reason, somebody drew these pictures, which are totally absorbed by the time which did not occur, then I must say this is a wrong approach. I mean, it confuses us.

Oh, indeed.

It gets us to believe that this is the way they did this.

Indeed. And it does shake up your entire belief system, doesn't it?

Wouldn't it be much better than they would really draw the reality?

The reality. It would indeed, wouldn't it? Yes, and then you would not be confused, and you would have all the answers. Everything would be clear and you would not have any reason to be here, in fact. You would not have any issues to work through and struggle with. Understand that those who gave out that information found themselves in that position of giving that information only because they had been through it in other lifetimes in other illusions. They too had been in the same position, as many of you would find yourselves, in actually believing at face value anything that is presented to you.

That is rule number one on the earth plane. Do not believe anything at face value, for it is all subject to change immediately. You can make that change. You can create that change. The higher concept is that we are all connected to The Universal Consciousness. We are The Universal Consciousness. We make the changes. When you are on the earth plane, you are in a mode of what you call duality. Balance. When at the higher levels of The Universal Consciousness, there is Oneness ~ decisions are made instantly. You all make the decisions, but yet, you are in the concrete as individuals now, and yet you have made the decision for whatever is occurring. There is nothing outside of yourself making that decision. It is all done by The Oneness.

Then we call come out and play our role, you see. So, you come, my son, and your role in Public Session is ask these kinds of questions, to place them on the record, and also to create a perhaps reality check for you. Bingo. For all of us. There are none of us who are immune from reality checks, as you would call them. It is all too easy to become complacent in your own field of reality, in your own awarenesses. Just when you become complacent, something will occur that will shake you and shake that which you believe. If that does not occur, if you are not shaken, then you are not growing. That is all right also.

Thus, you must understand that there will be many who will be having constant shakings in their awarenesses as they continue to grow, and that is what their path asks for. There will be others who will move through the life in relative stupor, you see. It is all right. They can do that, for that in itself is part of the path. You must not judge any if they are not experiencing earth-shaking awareness changes. You must not say to them, "Ah, you must be retarded in your growth." That is most conditional, you see.

If you have taken on a path of acceleration, as many have now on the plane, you can expect constant shakings of your belief systems, challenges to what you believe. Accept, or not, what we say to you. It matters not to us. It is for you to make your own evaluations. We have said this time and time again. It is much more important to come to your own sense of understanding based on all the information that you gather than it is to block yourself into one particular mode of thinking, and therefore, not allow the freedom that comes from expansion of understanding, and the freedom that comes in knowing that you do not know anything. There is a sense of freedom in that. You can use it as an excuse, "I do not know a thing."

But in reality, none of us know anything. We do not know anything until we return to The Oneness. Then, it does not matter. You see, the quest to know it all is part of the journey outside of The One. There is no need to know anything. Yet, outside of The One, there is the need to know everything. It is in that contradiction that most find themselves frustrated. On one hand, you know that you do not need to know anything. The Universe flows and all happens as it needs to happen. Yet, the flipside of that is that you must know as much as you can in order to know that you do not need to know.

It is quite simple, actually ~ quite, quite simple, and yet quite complex. That is what it is all about. That is why you are on the earth plane. That is why you are here now at this particular time in the illusion change. The planet goes through the same situation as you do. The planet is intelligent. The planet knows what it is doing. It makes decisions, just as you do.

The Human Kingdom is not superior to anything. No kingdom is superior to the other. All are equal. It is just built into the human condition, as a kingdom, that humans think they are superior. It is why so many entities do not want to go into The Human Kingdom because they see it beforehand and they say, "This is really not a very nice kingdom. I do not think I want to be in this kingdom." But it is a kingdom that gives extremely accelerated learning ~ very, very accelerated. That is why The Human Kingdom continues. There are enough fools out there that we can convince to occupy The Human Kingdom. We came into the Angelic. We plan to stay in the Angelic and never go into any other kingdom.

It is time for us to depart. We have stated really all that we need to in this particular time with you. We would want you to concentrate on your gold basket of light. Make yourself a gold basket. You are a gold basket. You are unconditionally giving yourself to all who would need you ~ and the earth most importantly at this time.

Our purpose has been served. Indeed. We now prepare to return to our dimension. We ask you to gather your energies and focus Self on the gold light and the purple and the white, the colors of the highest vibrations, and feel the energy around you now as we depart. We send to you all now the very Highest of the White Light from the very Highest of the Kingdom of Amelius. Farewell.
