Open Questions Session

We are here in this gathering with you to take questions of a general concern that you would have rather than us focusing on any one particular issue, and as long as you do not try to sneak in a personal question, we will accept your questions now.

Questions And Discussion Of The Recent Event Of The Oklahoma City Bombing, 04.19.1995

(Without question, Waith refers to the Oklahoma City Bombing which occurred April 19, 1995, as the predicted event previously discussed.)

Yes, it was. The changes in the earth are not just physical Earth changes. They are, as we have said so often, systems, as you know them on the earth, your social and political and economic systems and all of those industries, as you call it, that are developed to support those systems. Your lawyers, your accountants, your doctors, all are now beginning to feel the ripple effect that has come and will continue to accelerate as the coming months on the plane progress. This particular disaster, as we called it, was one that is affecting your social systems and your other types of systems. There were massive departures of energies that occurred with this incident.

This, however, is what you call the tip of the iceberg. You will find the ripple effect of this incident also affecting the physical earth, for the shaking of the earth, as a result of this particular incident, has yet to be felt, that will come. There will be other incidences of this type occurring. Would you have questions?

You Said Bodies Of Those Who Do Not Say At The Time Of The Shift Would Be Dissolved. Is This What Is Happening Now In Certain Cases?

You indicated quite a while ago that at the time of The Shifting, the bodies that are left would be dissolved, and that that would be allowed at an illusion change. Now, some of these accidents that are being reported by the media say that the bodies cannot be found very often. Is this a beginning of what is to come and tied into that thought?

There is a distinct difference in encasements in this time frame and at the actual time of The Shifting. At the actual time of The Shifting, they will simply go into another dimension and essentially, as you know it, be dissolved. That is your frame of reference for what would simply be the disappearance of something concrete. As it occurs now, there is really not that disappearance that is happening, but rather, simply, the inability to find the encasement, thus setting up the frame of reference for dissolution of an encasement. Those who remain after The Shifting will not have to bury their dead. It will all be taken care of. It is a neat and tidy situation that occurs. The encasements will simply be gone, and those who remain will simply begin anew.

Will that also be true of the animals?

It will be true of all. When you come out of, whether it is dimensional shelters or physical shelters, the work of The Builders in the twelve areas on the planet will have been completed. Part of that work is simply the energy dissolution of all that is not needed for The New Illusion. It will be what you might call a fresh start. However, it is not quite as cut and dry and as simple as that, but that is in essence what will occur.

A Brief Discussion Of The Underground Community

Sometime ago, you mentioned that The Underground Energies like to be referred to themselves as Uranta. You mentioned that they had a name that they liked to be called. Is it that name, or is it something else?

It is something else now. They were attempting to, at the time we gave that information, to create a sense of identity. We had talked with them about giving out that information that it was perhaps too soon, that it would not be understood, nor even given attention. Except for a few on the plane, that is what has happened. There has not been any seriousness given to those who work within the dimension known as The Underground.

Thus, upon further evaluation and consideration, they decided that they would begin a slow process of those in other dimensions having a respect for them. Thus, they decided to start with, simply not wanting people to call them THE LITTLE PEOPLE OR THE GNOMES, or that type of thing, and to simply begin to think of them as those in THE UNDERGROUND COMMUNITY. When it seems appropriate that the masses intend to work with this grouping of energies and is able to properly identify them and respect them, then a name will be given.

I am assuming they have been assisting with the situation in Oklahoma.

Why did you assume that, my love?

Because they help out in different times throughout the earth with things that happen, you said.

Be most careful of your assumptions. It is dangerous. It is most dangerous. It is something that we cannot emphasize enough to all of you, to be careful of making what you call assumptions, to think that because a particular incident occurs that there will be a particular behavior response to it by certain types of entities. That is a form of judgement and it is most critical to take judgement out of your behavior, as much as you can. Of course, it is not going to happen in a perfect manner. Judgement exists on the plane and you must learn to work within that balancing ~ judging and non-judging ~ unconditional.

There is always assistance that comes from other dimensions. You simply do not always know from where that assistance comes. Just as you do not want to stereotype certain groups of energies, as we have talked of in the past, you do not want to have an assumption of, in this case, The Underground Community coming to help in the disaster that has just occurred. That, then, would stereotype them. You simply know that if you were not called upon to help, either in this dimension or through a spirit dimension, then there were energies who came to help. That is all that you need to know, to trust that all who need help receive it. Do you each understand what we give you in this response of assumptions?

Discussion Of The Significance Of The Oklahoma Bombing Occurring In The Heartland

I suppose this would be judgemental, but the thought of this explosion happening in the heartland of the United States might be that the heart of the United States is breaking up.

Well, you know, your media does like to bring these types of, what you call, emotionalism and sentimentality and all of that into an issue. The geographic location was such that it will have a vibrational impact upon certain vaults, as you call them, that create earthquakes. It has nothing to do with the heart of the country. It is quite egocentric to bring in that kind of analogy. But of course, that is expected at this time in the illusion with the media that is currently ravaging out of control. It is one of those institutions that we have said is established to support the systems ~ the social, political, economic systems ~ and will be affected dramatically in a short time. Catch up on all your favorite movies and what are they ~ soap operas.

Does that mean Murphy Brown's going to go? 😊

Oh, we could not allow that, certainly. We will allow one to remain. It will flash continually across the horizon by some unseen ether.

Speculation By The Media As To The Possible Reasons For This Explosion Event

The media has been speculating as to the cause of the reason for the explosion in Oklahoma City. And one of the suggestions is a backlash against the Waco encampment being destroyed by federal agents. Is this a realistic comparison of reasons ~ one-to-one retaliation like this?

We had indicated, when asked in our last gathering with you, whether it had happened yet, this disaster that we had talked of, that it had begun. It happened, of course, quite, quite rapidly after we were asked that question. The beginnings of this energy line that has led to this particular incident had begun, what you call, several years ago on the plane. There has been a series of human activities creating in the atmosphere a chemical imbalance as a result of certain combinations of chemicals.

That incident of which you make reference is one in a series of energy linkages. You have to understand that nothing happens without a higher source linkage. It is not just an isolated incident, or one incident happening because one person was upset that something happened, and therefore, they are retaliating against it. It is not the work of one person. Nothing is ever the work of one person. It is the work of a combination of many, many energies, many, many kingdoms working in combination, some in harmony and some in disharmony. It is best described as an energy line that links one event with another. In the ways in which this illusion is dissolving, this type of chemical imbalance in, what you call, your atmosphere, must occur in order for certain other types of collapses of systems and earth structures to occur.

In this instance in Oklahoma City, a great deal of fertilizer was behind the explosion, which is a chemical. Is this in connection with the use of cocaine in this country at the concurrent time? Is there a connection there with the plants?

You must understand that you cannot isolate incidences, such as you have just done, and give them an earth plane explanation. You must bring yourself to a higher level of understanding in that all of the kingdoms are connected. We have said so often that The Plant Kingdom, as you know it ~ The Animal Kingdom, The Mineral Kingdom, all contribute to that which is occurring with the planet now. Yes, there are connections vibrationally and energy wise. It becomes dangerous to put them into such concreteness as you have just done, for it then assumes cause and effect. That is not what an illusion change is about, you see.

It can be a difficult concept to not only understand, but to accept. We are aware that much of what we give for information is not understood. That is why it goes on the record, so that when it is time for those who need to hear it, they will hear it, and it will be understood. So, be careful of trying to make such earthly connections with something that is not earthly now any longer. It has been taken out of the earth plane and is under complete control by higher forces. On the earth plane now, in your physical manifestations, you simply play out the scenario.

Rather than cause and effect from specific sources, it is more of a synchronistic relationship now where all the things are coming together to an interplay for a final result.

That is close enough to understanding for us, now, to have with you. Yes.

Conflicting Information From Various Sources Coming Through

You have given us some frames of reference for our human life here on earth, and the changing of illusions every so many years. There is a lot of other information coming in right now, some in parallel and some contradictory. It can be confusing. Is it that it is all true, and we just do not see that it is all the same thing from a different point of view? Or are they giving us misinformation? Or all of the above?

Yes. ☺ We have really addressed that question quite a number of times, my son, and feel that at this point it does not need to be discussed further. Information is information. You take it. It either feels right or it does not feel right. It is meant for audiences of varying levels of awareness. If you continue to find contradiction in information, then it simply means that you must continue searching until you have found resolution within Self for the awarenesses that you are attempting to seek.

So, it is possible, even though we might find it contradictory, that somebody else might feel information was right for them, and they can be all different frames of reference at the same time for different people.

Yes, that is the idea. If we were all saying the exact same thing, it would not mean anything. We are unable to address every frame of reference and every level of awareness through one source. Thus, you have many sources giving you many types of information and referring to different frames of reference. You take the one that feels appropriate for you. That is all that it is.

(There is a long silence) I enjoy rocking. ☺ I can sit here and rock and rock and rock.

Have Other Kingdoms On Earth Been Polluting The Environment Besides Man?

Have there been any other ascension races on earth that have been polluting the environment besides man? I was thinking in terms of like dolphins or whales, or some other species that we do not normally associate with, with construction or use of the earth?

It is not just The Human Kingdom that has brought the earth, physical, to this current point. It is all who inhabit the planet. All work in harmony or disharmony with each other. It is man, as you call it, woman, child, Human Kingdom who has given the most severe damage because of the ability to create physical manifestation of negativity. The creation of physical manifestation of negativity is highly developed within The Human Kingdom, not as highly developed in other kingdoms. Nonetheless, it does not mean that it is not developed in other kingdoms. The Mineral Kingdom has done its share of creating damage to the physical planet. All of the other kingdoms ~ The Animal Kingdom, The Plants and The Air and The Fire and all of the forms that energy take, have contributed to where the earth now finds itself.

The earth is simply the overall encasement that houses all of the energies. The earth, as an energy, is the house for this training ground, and therefore, every energy in the house contributes to the appearance of the house and the health of the house. That is how you would perhaps view it, my son.

I was wondering if there were other beings, unaware to us, that have been contributing, not perceptible to our senses, and perhaps they exist and are doing so, as well. For instance, dolphins have ultrasonic capabilities manipulating matter under water. Perhaps they have been damaging the oceans.

We have just given you our answer, my son, to that question. We have indicated that all the kingdoms have had an impact upon the planet. That is the answer to that question.

What would The Mineral Kingdom have ever done to damage the planet?

Density, my child. Just because you love crystals does not mean that you would get upset that The Mineral Kingdom could possibly have done anything bad. All kingdoms have an effect upon each other. Mere density alone can create an impact upon the planet. If we refer back to the disaster of recent time, the sheer weight of the collapse created reverberations into the core of the planet. That collapse included members from The Mineral Kingdom. What you call concrete is part of The Mineral Kingdom for it is made from rock, crushed rock, sand and part of The Water Kingdom. Thus, the combination of the two kingdoms brings about another kingdom. Sort of what you would want as a discussion of cross-kingdom pollinating.

You tend to think of it only in terms of animal and human. That is your only ability to frame it. There are other kingdoms that cross pollinate, sometimes for the benefit of the planet and sometimes not. Whether it is beneficial or not is hardly the issue, for it is necessary. Being not beneficial is necessary. It is critical to not be necessary in order for things to become balanced. So, yes, perhaps your favorite crystal that sparkles in your hand and is a little friend to you, has in its current incarnation, been harmless. You see no effect that it would have upon the planet and the cleansing. But remember, that its other incarnations have had effects, just as your other incarnations have had different effects upon the body whole that it might not be having in this particular incarnation.

It is all right to defend The Mineral Kingdom. But, if you were to defend, then, The Mineral Kingdom, you would need to defend every kingdom, for then you would be discriminating, and it is not appropriate, for all kingdoms have had an impact upon each other. No one kingdom is exempt. Some kingdoms have had more of an impact than others ~ in this particular illusion.

The Mineral Kingdom in The Atlantean Illusion had more of an effect upon the final days of Atlantis than The Human Kingdom did. It is a reverse role, if you will. It was The Mineral Kingdom that was in control, and abuse of that control, in the final times of Atlantis. The Human Kingdom had a significant share in this ~ however, proportionately, not as great as The Mineral Kingdom. In other illusions, The Animal Kingdom has been the dominant abuser. It depends on the illusion. It depends on what the stage is set to play.

It is nice to know it is not all our fault.

Well, you know, we have never said that it was. It is no one energy's fault. It is The Universal Consciousness. Ultimately, it is all of us. All energy takes some role in any event that occurs. It just becomes a matter of how dominant the particular role is in a situation, you see. So, are you relieved?

I feel better. Yes.

Indeed. We sense that you still come close to our vibration even though you thought that by sitting close to us, we would pick on you ~ from our last time with you.

Well, I figure if I sit off to the side, I am less likely to get called on ~ the old school technique.

Oh, but there is another assumption. Yes, teachers are onto the tricks of what students attempt to do.

What Is The Next Big Event That Will Manifest On The Earth Plane?

Nice try. We were waiting for that question to be presented. There will simply be one after another now. As we have said, it is an accelerated time. This particular event was given to you ahead of time, that it was going to occur, only to draw your attention to something other than a tornado, earthquake or hurricane occurring. The focus has been on that, and you need to see what other types of cleansings are occurring that are not simply the pollution of the earth but all that affects the habitation within the planet. Energy. We speak of energy. The social and political and economic systems are energies as well as processes and systems. They are kingdoms in and of themselves. Some on the plane of course really do believe that they are kings and queens within the systems. Do they not?

Organized religion is going to, interestingly enough, have an unexpected role in this series of disasters that is occurring. They will, on one hand, help bring it to its final cleansing, and on the other hand, create the groundwork for The New Illusion. Some of those that are organized religions, as you know them in this illusion, will bring their concepts into The New Illusion. Remember that all organized religion has a spiritual root to it, and it is the same spirituality for each and every organized religion. It is simply the way it is played out that has differed and brought the differences. But the root is there.

Has There Been A Great Deal Of Healing In Oklahoma And Throughout?

Has a great deal of healing already begun In Oklahoma and throughout? I do not want to make it throughout the world, but has healing started? Have people begun to see a bigger picture?

There are some who have and some who have not. There will be large numbers who will not understand the implications and may make physical presentations of their emotions and say what a terrible thing it is, but will not have any understanding of its greater impact. And that is fine. There will be some, and many, who will see the impact and who already have seen the connection for that which is the cleaning out of the earth plane.

Healing is a word that is used too loosely now in this illusion and will begin to take on a more spiritual context as time in this plane is measured for this illusion. Healing is a spiritual activity. It is not a physical activity, even though there appears to be physical healing or closing up of physical wounds perhaps. Healing is simply the completion of a lesson learned, and thus, must take place at the spirit level. There is some of that occurring now. It is too simplistic to simply talk of healings occurring, for every activity that occurs has an impact and helps some energies to complete lessons, to balance lessons. It may appear to many that if an entity throws a bomb into a building, they have created negativity for their vibration. You do not know that. It may, in fact, be their final healing, their final balance. What appears to be a negative activity on the plane, may not indeed be that at spirit level.

You have no idea what the balancing issues were. Every energy that was affected in this disaster had one thing in common that took them out at the same time. You do not know what that is. None of you do. All who participated in that activity had something in common, including those who so-called perpetrated the disaster, and we use the word disaster for your own frame of reference. It was not. It was housecleaning. A little dusting here, a little dusting there. You know, you must lighten up about it, for it is not a bad thing that has happened. It is simply a vibrational attunement. Be careful of saying who has benefited the most, who has healed the most from this. Be most careful.

It is so important to keep the perspective of judgement within your path and how easy it is to look at a situation and think that you know what is going on. You think you know that because someone has thrown a bomb into a nest of children that it is a bad thing. We thought that was a rather nice touch, but, you know, we do not see age, but understand that the energy of the earth plane grabs onto age as a way of uniting. You must be most careful. For a child, for example, to come in and remain for ten minutes on the plane is a lesson to be taught and a lesson to be learned. You have no right to think that you know what it is about and that healings are occurring. You have no understanding of others in that respect.

Concentrate only on your own healing. As you balance and as you bring about your own healings that gives you a strength to be supportive of others who would come to you, to Be of Service to Others who struggle in their balance. Just as you struggle in the balancing of your own issues and you go to others who can perhaps help you in your own healing, so too will others come to you.

Trust that as the cleansings occur, you will be called upon to Be of Service to Others in their own healings. It may not be what you call dramatic. You may not rescue someone from a falling building and be put on national television and hailed as a hero. You do not know what is occurring between those two entities, for example, who was balancing with whom. It is judgemental to think that you know why others do what they do. As you heal yourself, you become stronger to help others along their path. That is what it is about ~ to find your own depths of spirit and your own spirituality. That helps others. It does not heal them. It helps them to heal themselves. A simple concept.

How Does One Make Judgement Calls On Whether To Help Someone, Or Not?

I think it is very complicated. If you see something happening to someone, you have to make a judgement call on it, like you have to say, "Well, you know, maybe I should help this person, or something bad is happening to them. Maybe I should save them." And does that mean to say you should not help anyone if you see something bad happening to them because you might be interfering with the balancing? How are you going to know?

We understand your emotion in this. What we have spoken of continually is the importance of meditation and the ability to hear answers from the Higher Self, and also the Soul speaking through the Higher Self, to give you then the proper response to a situation. We have never said that you would do nothing, that you would not help, for each has to make their own determination as to who they help and what they do to help. It is your own balancing issues that come into play. What is not understood is that simply because a situation is happening does not mean that everyone must run to the rescue. There are millions of humans starving in parts of the world. Does that mean that everyone who is not should run and save them? No. It is not in their path. It is the path of some, however. Thus, they would go to the millions who are starving.

You were not in the vibrational nor geographic area of this collapse, this bombing. You, therefore, were not called upon at any level ~ and we can tell you that, that at any level, you were not called upon, for it was not part of your balancing nor was it part of your path. You will be called upon by those with whom you must balance to respond to. It is, then, up to you through your own Higher Self understandings to acknowledge what your response will be. You will respond, and it may be appropriate for the balancing, or it may not be appropriate for the balancing. But, even if it is not an appropriate response, it, in the end, is an appropriate response, for any response ultimately is appropriate. It is what you take from it in your own understandings of the issues relating to the interaction between the entity or entities with whom you have been involved.

Does that answer your question?

I think I just got laced up and down. Yes.

Not us.

Join the group.

Understand how we stress the critical importance of meditation. Each of you has your own responses to events around you, and you must go with those responses. They will differ from one to another, and you must not feel guilty that you do not rush to the aid of a disaster area, for that is not for you to do. It is for others to do ~ and there were plenty who responded. You may never, some of you, be asked to rush to the aid of a major disaster. But you may have one close to you, and in their own way they are in disaster, and they come to you for assistance. It is appropriate then to respond.

We have never said do not respond. We have said you must respond in the way that is appropriate to your path, and only you know what your path is. You must, in realizing what your path is, follow that and be adamant in the following of your path. At the same time, respect the adamancy that another has in the following of their own path, even though it may not be like your path. Does that soften it a bit, my love?

Yes. We want Farena!

You cannot have her.

Farena: Well, just for a moment. Just for a little moment. You know, remember what I have said to you before about Waith. Sometimes, you know, he has to say things like that to keep you all in track. And when he says things like that, just take a deep breath. (Farena takes a deep breath) We all do. ☺ Because he gets it too. You see, he gets it from higher levels and he has to take a deep breath. (Farena takes another deep breath) We all do. So take a deep breath. (Everyone takes a deep breath with Farena) Bye.

Waith: Yes, indeed. This is true what Farena says. And we lighten this up a bit now, you see.

You know that this is uppermost on our minds. You have told us not to be judgemental. That is one thing you have really gotten across.

That is one thing. What else have you learned? What is a second thing?

Well, we are helping ~ because we were not asked to help. It was not our balancing this time. And here I thought I was flying around and I was not. And to look at it as we are supposed to look at it, not just from earth plane stuff that we hear all the time.

We will close the session with the sending of energy of fluffing and soothing, an energy to bring you into a clearer perspective of all of the earth plane activities that occur and their spiritual connection, their higher realm connection. Keep that in perspective. At all times volunteer the sending of your Light to those who would need it, and if they do, they will take it, and if they do not, they will send it back. Be ever ready.
