Waith Announces Some Changes That Have Been Made After The Summer Retreat

We are most pleased to be in your vibration, and back from our summer retreat. Actually, it was Mushiba's summer retreat, and quite a retreat she had. She gave new definition to this word you call WHINING. ☺ The vibrational changes were not quite what she had been expecting. They were quite different from the others that she has experienced, and we are most anxious to talk in our special session with those who would be in attendance ~ the implications of vibrational changes, as The New Illusion rolls along, and comes to its head, if you will.

We have some changes that have occurred. We are now entering into a new stage of our own mission. Even though we have been in Mushiba's vibration from what you call this January 1st, or the end of this earth plane year, it was actually a number of months of earth plane time before we began speaking as we do now. And actually, this time frame in which we find ourselves now, is the anniversary of when we finally began to speak, and of course have not stopped since then. ☺

Thus, we mark now a new stage in our mission. We have indicated that there is much to our mission that we will reveal as time on the plane goes on, and there are still several more stages to our mission, some of which will occur after The Shifting. Thus, this stage that we enter into now, is one in which we will more concretely prepare entities for vibrational changes.

Upcoming Topics Of Discussion Will Be Meditation And Reaching To The Higher Self

We will be devoting the next earth plane year to the topic of meditation, and the reaching to the Higher Self. We will do this in two ways. When we enter in for our first time in this month, each month, we will give you concepts. We will give you abstracts of meditation, and far greater concepts than simply what the earth plane knows as meditation. In our second session with you, we will give you concrete application to the concept.

What we begin to do now is present to you more concreteness to the abstract. It is our phase of the mission in which we bring to you a greater understanding of the fine balance between the abstract and the concrete. It is not good to be strictly in the abstract without any concreteness. It is also not good to be completely in the concrete without any idea of its abstractness. One without the other creates an imbalance. Imbalance, of course, is necessary to bring about balance.

However, our mission in this coming earth plane year, is to bring you into a finer tuning of balance with meditation, and reaching of the Higher Self. And, the implications of reaching the Higher Self are manifold, for it is the only way in which you will understand your own vibrational changes. It is the only way in which you will understand your place during these Earth changes. It is the only way in which you will understand how to connect with the other kingdoms on the planet, and indeed to connect with the planet itself ~ not only the concrete planet, but the abstract planet, the energy of Planet Earth, and to help you understand the earth plane as an energy, and your place within it.

Reaching your Higher Self will also enable you to understand your role in The New Illusion, if that is to be, and if it is not to be, to bring you a sense of peace with the realization that you will leave at the time of The Shifting, only to return new and improved. For hopefully, that is what occurs each time you return into the plane, you have improved. That is not always the case. However, that is all right also.

As all of us as energies change, it brings about growth, and growth brings about change. It becomes all too easy to be complacent, and to think that it is flowing, and it is fine, and you are very happy with the way things are going for you. Usually, if you are on an accelerated path, especially, The Universe will say, "All right, you have had a nanosecond to relax, now it is time for something new." Many energies find change difficult. We will be helping you to adjust to change, for it accelerates now even more than it has been. And if you recall, in the session that we last had with you ~ not in the music meditation session, but in our last Public Session ~ we indicated that during the summer months there would be a relatively tranquil period of time ~ not very much in the way of upheaval ~ and that once the autumn season approached, in this geographic area, that there would be some major upheavals.

Discussion Of Upcoming Earth Upheavals And The Call To Be Of Service

There is about to be a very catastrophic earth upheaval. It will not affect this geographic area, but it is about to occur. It will bring about very strong changes. It will bring about collapsing of certain institutions within the geographic area in which it occurs. Before the end of this earth plane year there will be other catastrophic events, and we use that word as an emphasis, for we do not consider catastrophic as a negative. We consider catastrophic as a positive form of cleansing, and very necessary for the progression into The New Illusion. Some of you in this gathering will be called upon at earth plane level to assist in geographic areas not too far from where you are now. To assist in helping the energies, not just human energies, but also animal and plant and mineral.

Now in the spirit of change, we have a change that is occurring within Waith and Company. As our mission changes, we have made changes, for we have had to in order for this next phase to lock in. As a result we have had some personnel changes in The Company.

Waith Announces Some Changes Within The Spirit Group Of The Company

What has occurred is that Susan and Bathusela will no longer be speaking through. They go into a different phase now of the mission, and will not be speaking through Mushiba any longer. They have been replaced, and you will meet their replacements in this session. Their replacements will tell you a little bit about themselves.

The role that Susan and Bathusela had in the mission remains the same with the two new energies. Susan's role was Group Balancing. That mission will remain the same. Bathusela's role has been expanded. It was initially for female energy alignments and understanding. It has now been enlarged to include all gender issues, for in The New Illusion, gender issues will be quite different than currently in this illusion. So, we will now have the two introduce themselves to you, and they will speak for a bit of time, and then we will return. So, enjoy the two who now join Waith and Company, and welcome them in their mission. One of them was recruited specifically by Farena. You can figure that one out for yourself. ☺

Boopsie, Bathusela's Replacement, Comes In To Speak And Introduce Herself

Boopsie: Hello, I am Bathusela's replacement. My name is Boopsie. My color remains pink. However, it is a different shade of pink. We have not revealed that shade as yet, for it also has gender implications for The New Illusion. It is a New Illusion Pink. We will give a formula, as you call it, that will bring about the color pink. Boopsie is my name.

I understand I have a puppy at my disposal. You would help, loved one. Thank you. (Help is given with the microphone wire) I would enjoy now to move through and feel the energy. It is important for me now to understand this concept of dominant gender energy in the opposite encasement. This is a very interesting concept that applies to very few training grounds, the earth plane being one of those training grounds. I simply now will go through to get a feel for the crowd, as you would say, to determine if I am able to do this. And if I am not, then I will have to learn. We all have things to learn.

(Boopsie moves through the gathering of people) Ah, yes, indeed. Yes, yes. You are a very dominant male, ☺ and from what we can gather, a very fluffy female encasement. Indeed. Very interesting. Very, very interesting. Very female. Very female all the way around. Yes, my love. Puppy! Puppy hides her gender. ☺ Female, and very male in the encasement ~ Mm-m. Oh my goodness, yes, this is most interesting. Thank you, my love. We would go through this energy opening. Yes, most interesting. Would you have a question?

Could you tell us a little more about yourself, Boopsie? How long have you been in The Company actually?

Boopsie: I have been in The Company in a training mode. I had my training wings, if you will, for perhaps what you would call ten to twelve sessions ~ these gatherings that you have. I come from a realm that has involved Guide School, and have been in the Guide School training realm for quite some time. I have finished my time on the earth plane as a training ground. I have done my hard labor.

I understand being on the earth plane, and I bring into this mission an understanding of recent experience of gender identity, and gender issues as they relate to the earth plane. I have done the dominant gender in different encasement scenario, and all of the sexual implications, and all of the issues of gender and sexuality. In Guide School now, I am involved in advanced training of gender, as it relates specifically to the earth plane. I have taken a specific course of study, and it is that, that I bring into the mission of Waith and Company.

What are the new issues that will be brought after The Shift regarding gender?

Boopsie: Oh, that is for a very interesting discussion. We have much time, as you measure on the plane, to talk of this. The predominant accepted relationship is male and female, and the abnormal is same gender. That all switches. Is that enough of a teaser?

So, you will probably be doing some spiritual counseling in that?

Boopsie: Oh, yes. We will be having much through Waith where this issue is concerned. The ability to meditate, and reach the Higher Self must be the groundwork first. And in this coming year, as Waith has described, as part of the meditation, gender issues will be very much an integral part. We look forward to this. It is time now for us to bid farewell, and for Susan's replacement to enter in. We look forward to spending time with you in these gatherings. Farewell.

Teetee, Susan's Replacement, Comes In To Speak And Introduce Herself

Teetee: Hello, I am Susan's replacement. 😊 She is mine now. (Refers to the one helping with the microphone) My name ~ I will spell it for you T-e-e-t-e-e Teetee. Guess who recruited me? 😊

My mission is to assist in Group Balancing. I have taken the name of Teetee to bring humor and Lightheartedness into all the difficulties of Group Balancing. You become so serious about the balance of groupings. You know you are with others, and there is conflict, and there is harmony, and there is conflict, and there is harmony, and you take it so seriously. You can then begin to think of Teetee, and Teetee will bring Lightheartedness into your Group Balancing. My color remains blue. However, it is aqua blue, and not the green aqua, but the blue aqua ~ aquamarine. It will not be quite as elaborate as Boopsie's New Illusion Pink.

I come, also, from the realm of Guide School, and have been involved in the teaching of other Spirit Guides for their own work with their charges in Group Balancing. I teach how to recognize another as part of a Group Balance. I teach the guides how to communicate with you in recognizing Group Balancing, and how to work with it, and how to bring balance. We will be doing many sessions in the coming time frame on Group Balancing. There will be one special session in the Meditation Year devoted to Group Balancing techniques of meditation. Teetee is my name ~ Group Balance is my game. ☺ Would you have a question?

Do you have any tips on how to balance within a family grouping?

Teetee: Tips on how to balance within a family grouping ~ that would take an eternity. ☺ We will, however, give you some techniques to recognize, and to hear the communication that comes from your Spirit Guides on what to do. Recognizing what the balance is, is the most important component. We are not here to give quick fixes. Waith does not give quick fixes. We are here to give you tools to guide you in your own search for the answers.

There is no entity on the earth plane who is not involved in a Group Balance of some sort, and a group only needs to have one other person in it, or one other energy ~ it could be an animal, it could be a mineral, it could be the plant that grows in your home as an energy. And perhaps the plant does not want to thrive, and it is because you balance from another time with this plant. Balance in groups occurs within kingdoms, and it occurs with all entities. So much for the tip. ☺ We are most pleased to be with you. We look forward to this. We enjoy the feel of your energy. And, we depart now. Farewell.

Waith: What did you think of our new additions?

Cute!

Cute! That is a good description of them. ☺

We Will, During This Coming Year, Be Showing You Techniques On How To Look At Your Own Energy Field, Many Know Them As Seeing Auras

We also during this coming year will be showing you techniques on how to look at your own energy field. Many of you know it as seeing auras. We do not use that kind of parlor trick in our presentations. It is an important component of growth, for many energies. to be able to see energy that surrounds others, for it is part of the healing path that many take on.

We are not concerned about who sees other's auras, and what they see. We are concerned more with helping you to develop the technique to see your own energy field, to be able to sense how your energy field is fluctuating, and how that affects the way in which you live day to day on the plane. It is part of our component of giving you concrete application to abstract concepts.

The concept of working with energy is one in which many entities feel almost inferior. They think, oh, that person can see auras ~ they must be very advanced. There is nothing advanced at all about seeing energy. It simply means that you have developed a technique, much like skipping rope, and riding a bicycle. It takes practice. Anyone can do it. That is the easy part. The more difficult part is what you do with it once you have learned the technique. Do you use it in the spiritual context, or do you abuse it? For truly, there is abuse on the plane by those who work with energy ~ those who are able to sense energy.

Some sense energy, some feel energy, some see energy, and all The Spectrum that goes with that concept. Some of you may actually look in this mirror, and see your energy field. Some of you may never see your energy field. However, you may feel it. Some of you may never feel your energy field, you may simply sense it. Whatever comes is appropriate for you ~ not appropriate for someone else. And as we always give caution about what we call spiritual elitism, we give this now.

Working with energy is powerful. And the degree to which you have the ability to work with your energy, or another's energy, is also dependent upon the path in which you follow, and the level of testing that accompanies your abilities. We will help many of you to blossom in the work with your energy. We will show you. We will use one of you, in a Public Session, to show how you can begin to develop your own abilities. And while we certainly do not use parlor tricks, we may on occasion show you some energy fields.

Some Teasers For The New Illusion ~ New Colors ~ Trees With Mineral Kingdom Members Hanging From Them

There may even be new illusion colors ~ little teasers for The New Illusion. "What will The New Illusion look like, Waith?" There will be trees that have Mineral Kingdom members hanging from them. But if you think they call out to you now, wait until they hang from trees. ☺

Will trees be growing them, or will they be growing on them?

It is good to be back, my love. ☺ What would a session be without a question from (Name given)? Will they be growing? From the frame of reference that you know now as trees growing, no they will not be. But they will be growing in the frame of reference of The New Illusion, which will be very natural to those who are in the planet after The Shifting. It will be different, but it will not be different.

So, you are telling me that they will look like flowers do now ~ all in there, like flowers?

How did you hear that? ☺ That is not what I said. But you seem to have interpreted that.

Correct, my interpretation.

Yes. Ah, yes, indeed.

At the risk of mixing you up, I will not say anything.

Mixing me up! ☺ There is a contradiction in terms! What (Name given) has highlighted, however, is something we have talked of so very often, and that is how easily information becomes misinterpreted. The Bible has been translated over, and over, and over again, and its essence has been misinterpreted. There is much in any body of work that, as it goes through time, and others say, well this is what it really said, or this is what it seems to have said, it becomes misinterpreted.

We have indicated that the work, and the information that we give out now, if you were to come back on the plane one thousand plane years from now, it would be very different from what we have given. And she has now, in the very moment of my giving out the information, interpreted it in a different way than what I actually said. You see how easy it is. Thank you for allowing me to use you as an example. ☺ You always do hear those messages of the questions to ask.

Thus, my loved ones, we are back now in our new stage of the mission, and as we had promised you, we are new and improved. We have very good additions to our mission. We have added in now, components of concreteness to the abstract that we give to you. Questions before we depart?

Helping People After The Shift ~ Is It On The Physical Plane Or The Spiritual Realm?

As is always the case, at spiritual realms there is the call. The bell is rung for entities who would be willing to come and assist at the portal. But more importantly, yes, you will be called at the physical level. Some of you are in positions in your work place or in your jobs, as you call them, that make it a natural fit that you would be called. Some of you may find yourself geographically close by, coincidentally, having traveled on a vacation. You find yourself there, and you simply help. Some of you may not get involved at all in either the altered dimensions or in the current dimension, but that would be just for this time only. There will be plenty, and plenty of opportunities for assisting.

When you say it will not be in this vicinity, do you mean the immediate vicinity of this part of Connecticut, or the northeast, or the eastern half of the United States?

Yes. ☺

All of the above. We are talking the West Coast now, right?

Oh no! You see once again there has been misinterpretation of what has been said. How quick one would be to assume what one wants to happen so badly. When we say immediate vicinity, we are talking of the Vibrational Zone that Terra Lux is responsible for, and a bit beyond that. But, not to exclude what you have indicated as the larger portion of the coastline in which you all reside. The West Coast will happen eventually. That is a given.

Much of what occurs now is really a teasing from the higher realms, for you know it is going to happen, and they are just quite arrogant about it happening. Thus, there is a bit of playing going on. We of course do not participate in that type of playing. We are much too pure for that! ☺ It does get boring. Summer retreat was really boring! No, quite the contrary! So yes, it is quite near geographically, this particular one. There is a much larger catastrophic event about to occur. As we are in the energy field, we are feeling the disruptions of energy in a distant location that will have upheavals within the water system of the planet.

A Question About What Is Referred To By Some As The Three Days Of Darkness

I was wondering if you could give me any information about this October Seventh and October Eighth. There seems to be an eclipse coming. Does that have anything to do with the three days of darkness?

Ah! She is new to the discussions in which we go to concept rather than to the use of terminology that excludes others from understanding. The issue that you bring to the discussion is one that we would like to discuss further. However, we are not in a position to do that at this time. The concept of what you refer to as the three days of darkness has been brought about ~ all that we can say ~ by some who have a spiritual elitism in their projection of information. And, spiritual elitism, and that is the way we describe those who would perhaps abuse what they do, is at play here. Be careful of being dragged into this as some type of activity that you would be involved in. There are many who will need to be involved in this activity for their path. Be careful of this.

This was something that I read in a magazine. It is someone else's perception that I looked at. I did not quite own it.

Yes. That is what we would say on this now.

A Question About Aliens

Yesterday, on television, there was a showing of a long-hidden film concerning an alien body. It was proposed to be a victim of a crash landing some time back, some forty years. Is it true?

I do not know! Is it true? Could be. Interdimensional travel occurs as we speak. Sometimes they make it. Sometimes they do not! ☺ Could be!

On that note we must depart, I am feeling the energy coming from our timekeeper saying, "It is almost over, it is almost over! The tape's almost over." We will talk more of this in our future. Aliens! Yes, aliens among us.

We return back into our realm now, and as we return focus yourselves. We will see you in our next session for the season change, and the celebration of the season change, and the music meditation with Farena. Feel the energy of Self moving into the Heart Energy Center. Caressing the Heart Energy Center with the love of Self. Send the energy of the love of Self into the greater gathering to mingle with each other.
