The Final Official Public Session ~ Importance Of Giving Closure To This Energy

An intimate gathering ~ most enjoyable. We are here in this final, official public session, as we have come to format them, to respond to open questions and to generally tie up loose ends, as you might call it, in terms of particular energies that revolve around the energy known as public sessions.

So, we will first take questions that you might have. Then we will have a particular energy exercise that will be used for purposes primarily of the spacing in which you find yourself ~ of Terra Lux ~ to bring closure to the energy. We will also be doing this at The Anniversary Session. It will be a different kind of closing of energy. It will be a closing of energy of the First Phase of our mission. This energy closing is for Public Session, as it has been formatted.

It is always a good exercise to bring closure when something you have been doing for some time ceases, in order to allow the evolution, in order to allow newness, to be brought into your vibration. Energy needs to have the little bow tied, you see. We have on several other occasions in this First Phase of our mission done energy closures. And thus, you will be a part of that in this session. So then, let us spend a bit of this time together for any final open questions that you would have. (Silence)

Could You Lend Any Insight Into Closure With Relationships, Or When People Pass On?

You just described the importance of closure. Could you lend any insight into closure with people and relationships? It could go even into when people pass on.

Oh, yes, indeed. The closure of any Energy Circle, as you might call it. This is not, of course, the major Energy Circle that each of you has, but rather the forming of an energy grouping at earth plane level as it would pertain to all of you. When that comes to closure, it is very important to utilize the bow-tying technique.

What we will show you in this gathering is applicable for that. It is a very simple ~ quick, actually ~ technique, one in which, as a concept, many on the plane do not understand the importance. When something comes to an end, it is cause for celebration and would be best viewed as that type of celebration ~ ah, one particular grouping has now reached closure. That is a good thing. It means that whatever was set out to accomplish has been accomplished.

It also means that when an energy leaves the earth plane ~ or leaves any dimension to move into another dimension ~ that lessons have been completed. It is always a good thing when an energy leaves the earth plane, even though at concrete level you are saddened by the loss of the concreteness. It is, nonetheless, a good thing.

We will be presenting in workshop form, soon, a discussion of the Toy Box that we have presented and the ways in which the Toy Box, in conjunction with the ending of an energy's earth plane sojourn, can be used to strengthen those who are left behind on the earth plane. It is also a form of closure. There are many different types of closure that need to be given, and the energies associated with those closures, depending upon which particular type of behavior is occurring. So, when you finish, let us say, a phase of your mission, whether it is at earth plane level, or you are leaving the earth plane, or you are in another dimension ~ you have finished a predetermined phase ~ that would be one type of energy closure.

When an energy within your grouping leaves your grouping, be it at earth plane level or be it moving into another dimension, that, too, would necessitate some type of energy closure. When that does not occur, then disruptions can present themselves. It is good at concrete for you to be aware of these types of energy closures, even though at higher levels there is great awareness of it, so that those closures are occurring at higher levels even though at concrete you are not completely aware of it.

However, as can usually happen with the battle between the Higher Self and the Concrete Self, or the Higher Self and the Soul, blockages can occur, and those closures do not indeed happen. And then it opens up for an entirely different discussion, which we will address at some point down the road into our Second Phase.

So, my loves, in this session we will be giving a closure exercise that you could apply to an entity who leaves the earth plane. In the future we will give more specific kinds of exercises. You will see from what we give in this gathering what the concept is, and you can make up your own. There is no set way, "The Archangel said you must do it this way, and if you do not say it word for word and do every motion exactly as Waith indicated, then it is not a good one." This is ridiculous, of course. Understanding the concept is what is important and then applying your own, making up your own little ditty, shall we say.

Certainly, you have seen over time the many different meditation techniques that have come about and the sending of the Light techniques and all of these different techniques, depending upon who happens to be making them up at the time. Each of The Company members, for example, came up with different little ditties. Each one is applicable, or not, depending on your mood at earth plane level or depending on any number of things ~ your own sense of creativity.

You Mentioned That We Are Going Into Phase Two. How Many Phases Are There?

There are in total, Four Phases. We have finished the First Phase as of our Tenth Anniversary Celebration, which we do hope you are able to attend for we have wonderful little gifts and information to relay. We will move into the Second Phase immediately at the time of the closure of that energy in that gathering, so that when you come into the gathering for the celebration, you will come in at the end of the First Phase, and when you leave the gathering, you will be leaving at the beginning of the Second Phase. You will actually feel the change in the energy.

The Second Phase will begin in the current illusion and will end in The New Illusion. We, however, earlier in this earth plane year, indicated that there is no time being given to the Second Phase as was given to the First Phase ~ ten years was the First Phase. It is a Four-Phase mission. However, time will be different in The New Illusion, and we are not at liberty now to give out that difference, for there would be no frame of reference as yet ~ soon, but not at this point. Thus it is that when the Second Phase ends, we will all be with you in The New Illusion. We will end the Second Phase at that time and begin the Third Phase ~ that will go for its time, and the Fourth Phase will be the closure phase.

We have quite a journey ahead of us ~ quite a number of earth plane years yet to go. Each phase is designed for very specific purposes. Our First Phase was designed to bring in the database of information, as you have seen now. From that, then, in the Second Phase, will be the more intensified teachings of our information and discussions through study groups, workshops, and home study, and certifications, for information and the learning of techniques to work with the new energy that will come in through The New Illusion. Thus, that is where we are at this point. We have laid the foundation in the First Phase and now we are onward to the Second Phase ~ the Growth Phase. Does that answer your question?

Yes. Much to do.

Much to do ~ and plenty of earth plane time to do it, actually ~ just a little hint. Other questions?

A Question For Boopsie: What Happens To Your Twin If Your Dominant Energy Changes?

You said during your talk that your dominant energy can change. If your dominant energy changes, what happens to your twin?

Boopsie: Ah, very good question. That also changes. It is quite simple, because the levels are what change, so that in your Higher Self, you may have a dominant energy at one level that is male and a dominant energy at another level that is female. As your twin flame and you work through these levels at an earth plane dimension, they would work in harmony, controlled through the higher sources. But it is only a matter of changing within the levels, for at the very highest of the level of your energy is where the dominant is defined. And so, one is male and one is female, and then the levels all have predetermined layers of dominant gender. They simultaneously and harmoniously will flow appropriately.

Problems can occur if there is a blockage at one of the levels so ~ you knew this will not be easy, and Waith will be discussing this in workshop format ~ that you perhaps may have two varying levels of twin energy currently incarnated, and this would occur at the concrete where you could, in actuality, be of the same dominant characteristic. Characteristic is a very important word to keep in perspective here for the layers of Higher Self. So, indeed, you could be dominant female/dominant female, even though one is actually dominant male, you see. Eventually, however, it smooths out ~ perhaps not in the lifetime, but it does smooth out, and it is issue for our advanced discussions of Gender Harmony.

Waith: We have allowed you to present that question, as we so often do, for the teasing of future discussions, just so you will realize that the end of public session is not the end of new information coming in. It is simply the end of this particular format in which information is coming in ~ for information that will come in now will be of a much more advanced nature, and we will not be discussing information that is in the database ~ as we have been with public sessions.

If someone new came to a session and asked a question that had been asked four hundred million times, we often would simply respond to that question. Now that the database is in place, we would refer an entity to that database. Now, however, with that database in place, it allows us to elaborate with much more in depth information.

Gender Harmony is a category within the database, so we will be giving advanced information to many of the categories in the database ~ Gender Harmony being one of them, very specifically, since in The New Illusion gender is of a very different composition than it is currently. And Boopsie will indeed be giving a great deal of that information since that is her training, and she needs to practice a bit.

Can The Approaching Shift Cause Us To Experience A Lot Of Changes In Memory?

I am experiencing a lot of changes in memory, and I am wondering if that is generally happening with a lot of entities in association with the approaching shift?

Oh, indeed. Exaggeration upon exaggeration upon acceleration upon exaggeration ~ just keep using those words back and forth ~ accelerated exaggeration that is exaggerated to be accelerated. Those two words are the words of preference for the end of any illusion. Everything is exaggerated. Everything is accelerated. It is exaggerated upon the acceleration. The acceleration is exaggerated. It becomes exponential ~ as you would refer to it in scientific terms. For some entities, it becomes almost what you call a rollercoaster ride ~ up and down, up and down ~ to the point oftentimes of feeling a bit nauseous. For other entities, they are holding on and riding quite well, for they have experienced the end of an illusion in other lifetimes.

There are many varying points in the path currently on the plane. Many who have never experienced the end of an illusion are here for the first time to experience such an occasion. Others are here, of course, to help. They have experienced illusion changes many, many times. It is nothing new to them. Then there are many somewhere along the way where it might be the second or third or fourth time of experiencing an illusion change.

It is always required, however, before leaving the earth plane sojourn that an entity experience at least one illusion change. You cannot get off the earth plane sojourn without having gone through at least one illusion change. For some entities, that is all that is required ~ the one, and only one, illusion change. Other entities, and they are around you everywhere, have gone through every illusion change that is in the Portfolio of Illusions. They have been at every one of those illusion changes. So, it is, of course, then, their responsibility, at the very ultimate, to Be of Service to those who may feel uneasy about the energy shifting and the energy movement at an illusion change.

Depending upon where you find yourself on the earth plane also will determine the extent to the effect you have within the changing energy. If you find yourself in an emerging energy vortex, you will have much more reaction to the energy changes. The vortex that is for this geographic area in which Terra Lux is responsible, is an example of that, being in the vortex ~ and those of you in this gathering are all within that vortex geographically ~ you will find yourself feeling all different behaviors.

If you live in an area that is not one of the twelve new energy vortexes, then your responses would be different to energy shifting. However, no one on the earth plane currently ~ no energy form of any encasement ~ is exempt from the feelings that are occurring with The Shifting. Total energy is being disrupted, and some feel it more dramatically than others, but all do feel it and have been feeling it, as we have indicated, for the last three to five hundred earth plane years.

It is at almost its peak now. We have indicated that the earth is in its next to the last stage of cleansing, and we continue to bring forward that. We have not moved into the final stage of cleansing. When it is time to move into that final stage of cleansing, we will so indicate, so it will give you a sense of understanding that the earth is still in its next to the last stage of cleansing. And when the final stage does come about, there will be very, very dramatic cleansings occurring.

It seems like a greater challenge for us to handle high energy areas we might be in. Is there a greater benefit, or should I take a train south? 😊 Why do I want to be here and go through this?

You would have to ask your soul that, my love.

My soul did this to me!

"My soul did this"! Your soul is you, my love. Remember that at concrete you are simply the physical playing out of your own behavior. Concrete is Soul ~ Soul is concrete. It is not something external, "Oh, my soul did this to me." Well, yes, but you are your soul. It was you who determined it. It is simply much easier at concrete to let go of the control of it and say, "Ah, of course, the higher level which sees a much broader picture enables me to be where I am ~ why am I here?"

Why are any of us anywhere? It is all part of a grand plan made by The Universal Consciousness in conjunction with The Lead Energies that are the controllers of the energy force field. So, yes, you are here. If your soul has it in mind that perhaps you want to leave this energy vortex, then that will happen. If not, you will be here. So, stay and enjoy the ride. We use that in a rather flippant manner, but nonetheless, every energy has a particular plan in the overall scheme, and every energy on the earth plane ~ every energy in The Universal Consciousness ~ is exactly where it is supposed to be at any point in time.

Now, that is controlled by The Universal Consciousness, the major controller, the master computer, if you will. But, since The Universal Consciousness is made up of all energies, it is then all of us who are in control ultimately. And so, there is nothing external that says, "You must stay in this geographic area." It is all in conjunction with every other energy form. It is the illusion of separateness that is what the game is all about.

Do you think we have a greater challenge ahead of us living in this area? Or do you think this challenge to us might be equal to someone else in a non-challenging area, depending upon what we are geared to handle?

Very well stated, my love. That would be exactly what I would have said. Challenge is simply a matter of perception, and it is also a matter of scale. What you take on for a challenge is only that which you are able to deal with. And thus, some other entity's challenge may seem to be less of a challenge to you, for you may have already been that route. And so, yes, as you look back at your own challenges that you have overcome, you would say, "Oh, that was so easy," ~ in retrospect. At the time, there may not have been that feeling of easiness, you see.

And so, yes, if you are in an emerging vortex, such as Terra Lux, you are ready to meet that challenge. And if at any point your soul determines, "That is it. You have been in the vortex long enough. Time to go," you will. You will leave the geographic area, or any other number of variations. You can live in the vortex and not be a part of it. You have chosen to live in the vortex and be a part of the energy shiftings ~ to the degree that you would feel the upheaval. You would be sensitized to the earth as it does its cleaning. It is not just the earth that is cleaning, you know. We have emphasized this before ~ we will simply reiterate that. It is the entire force field of the earth plane as a training ground that is being cleaned ~ all energy is reshifting ~ redefining ~ repackaging.

Discussion Of The Portfolio Of Illusions ~ Energy Vortexes ~ The New Energy Structures

What Decides Where A Vortex Will Be?

That is coming from The Universal Consciousness. It was determined when The Portfolio of Illusions was designed by the current board members, as we have referred to them ~ the Five who run The Universe ~ Amelius and the other Four counterparts. We have had a great discussion on record about the running of the Five Kingdoms.

Thus, it is part of the grand plan that comes with each illusion, where those energy vortexes will be positioned. It is not, however, written in stone, as you might call it, when The New Illusion is about to unfold, when the time frame of closure to the current illusion presents itself ~ in this case, three to five hundred earth plane years ago. It is at that point that the potential vortexes are determined ~ they are looked at ~ are these still appropriate as had been planned, or do there need to be some types of changing?

Thus, at that stage ~ in this case, for the coming illusion, three to five hundred earth plane years ago ~ it was evaluated, determined where those vortexes would indeed be, and at that point, the energy was positioned. So, the energy exchanges began, actually, three to five hundred earth plane years ago, slowly weaving the energy thread from the determined pyramid ~ as they are in shape now ~ to the energy vortex of choice.

So, this particular geographic area has been set up as a vortex three to five hundred years ago, and during that time the energy has been coming in slowly from its sister, brother, mother, father pyramid. It is in storage in an energy encasement that, as the time now toward the closing has accelerated, so too has the energy exchange accelerated. So, at the moment of The Shifting, there will be twelve energy points on the earth plane that will shut down, and simultaneously, twelve new energy points will be set up. The energy itself will be in place. There will not be even an instant of non-energy.

The structures, the physical structures, will then be set up so that the pyramids will dissolve and the new energy structures will be built in the time frame in which all of the human entities, at a minimum, are in shelters. So, when you come out of the shelters, there will be the new structures with the energy housed in them, providing the webbing effect for the energy of the earth plane. It is simply a new energy.

The energy structures are an encasement, and just as you take on as an energy a human encasement, so too does energy take on an encasement of being a part of a vortex. Think that if you were humans and you were in one encasement living for ten thousand earth plane years in that one encasement, how you would feel? You would want to end it pretty soon and do something else.

This is exactly what is occurring, so that the energy in these vortexes have to switch because they get bored! After all, they have had a ten thousand year time frame on the plane. It is time to do something else, for their own energy to encase into some other form. And that is really all it is about. It is no different than any other energy finding an encasement. Time frames just differ. Roles and responsibilities differ. So, this geographic area of Terra Lux is an energy vortex. It has been forming now for three to five hundred years and it will be pretty much where you sit now ~ a new structure.

When energies, like ourselves, come and go, do we do that always through a vortex?

*Yes. We have not answered this question. It has not been posed in public session, obviously, because we have not wanted it to be asked until now. Thus, we have it on the record. It is of advanced information concerning the new energy structures that we will discuss in workshop form, for it will relate to the learning of how to work with your new energy fields in The New Illusion. Without the webbing that the energy vortexes provide to the earth plane, there would be no earth plane. That we have placed on the record. We have had discussions of the webbing of the pyramids, but we place it into a more generic sense now of earth plane vortexes. So, stay tuned for the advanced knowledge of that to come through, my love.*

When somebody passes on and they are not near a vortex ~ say they are living outside this vortex ~ are there certain entities who run that entity over to a vortex ~ quickly, go to this one ~ whichever is the nearest one?

*Toot, toot! Understand that all who inhabit the earth plane live within a vortex. Each of the vortexes create a webbing around so that one connects to the other. The intensity occurs if you are inhabited right within the vortex, as we have given the geographic area for Terra Lux as a vibrational area. That is the intensity of the vortex, but as you move away from that specific intensity, you are still within the realm of the vortex. You are never out of the vortex. You could not be. It does not happen on the plane. And this again is for future discussion. Never fear, you will never be left hanging out of a vortex.

An Exercise To Bring Closure To The Energy Of The Final Official Public Session

*We will give the closure now to our energy force field. It is a very, very simple thing. It is something that would be done through us for our particular closing. You are here simply to observe and to understand what the technique is. We would bring into our own closing, The Metagers ~ they may stay where they are, for this is not where you have to be in close proximity.*

What you will remember from this is the technique and how you can easily, then, apply it to your own situation. So, this is our situation that we apply this to.

Now then, Metagers, focus as best as you can with us. You bring yourself into a very relaxed position, whether you are sitting or standing or laying down ~ you could even be walking. You could be moving, as long as it is relaxed. You could be in water, swimming. You could be driving in your automobile. The essential component is that you simply relax your entire being.

You take in a deep breath and you bring into your energy field the very Highest of the White Light. For us, we bring in the very Highest of the White Light from Amelius, who brings in the very Highest of the White Light from his sources, for it is his mission that we are here for.

Breathe and envision the mission that you have just completed. And what we envision now is our FIRST PHASE OF PUBLIC SESSIONS ~ not our First Phase completely, but our FIRST PHASE OF PUBLIC SESSIONS. We envision the format. Originally, we met once a week and then we moved that format to twice a month. We envision the consistency of it and we envision the swirling around, now, in our energy field. It is swirling around the PUBLIC SESSIONS. It is moving now into a circle. There is no beginning and there is no end. The public sessions have no beginning and no end.

This is not the end of our public sessions, for it links into the beginning ~ the very first public session. The very first of anything that is done, and the very end of anything that is done, is now visualized as a swirling energy that is in the form of a circle. It moves around and around and it becomes One. There is no breakage in this force field. There is no beginning ~ there is no end. It is closed completely ~ it has been completed.

Fill the circle that you envision, with White Light ~ it fills the circle. And you see the circle now melding into the White Light. It is absorbed by the White Light. It returns back into The Universal Consciousness, for it has been completed. Visualize it moving back into The Universal Consciousness ~ all completed. And now say, "Yay!"

Yay!

Bravo, well done!

Bravo, well done!

Shake the energy from your bodies. And that is all there is to it.

So, you see, the concept is quite easy. You take that activity and you bring it into a circle, a swirling circle, and then it is absorbed into the White Light and it returns into The Universal Consciousness ~ quite easy. And then you cheer ~ bravo! Any type of thing that you would want to do.

It is one of many techniques that you can utilize. The concept is that you have completed something. You bring it into a circle, which is the eternal circle, and you eliminate any beginnings and endings so that it has become One. Then you send it into the White Light ~ you send it back into The Universal Consciousness. It is done, it is over with ~ let go. That is what it is about ~ let go. The public sessions and their format are gone.

So, now it is time for us to depart. We are not ever far away. We are most excited about the Tenth Anniversary Celebration, so we will see you ~ literally and figuratively, see you, feel you, touch you. It is time, for there is no more public session energy. It is time to depart. We will see you again soon. We send to you all the very Highest of the White Light from the very Highest of the Kingdom of Amelius. Farewell.
