INTRODUCTORY INFORMATION FOR THE INITIATOR LEVEL ~ ACCESSING THE ANSWERS WITHIN YOURSELF ~ THOSE IN THE COMPANY TALK OF THEIR MISSION IN WAITH AND COMPANY

Waith: We bring to you all the very Highest of the White Light from the very Highest of The Kingdom of Amelius. (There is a silence) Speak! We are not to be held in awe. ☺ ☺ The blessings to you. We are pleased to be here. We welcome all of you.

We have quite a bit of joy filled activity planned for this gathering. This is not a serious gathering by any means. Some of our gatherings have been serious, but one of The Company members eventually comes in and lightens it up a bit. However, this is planned as an event to bring about the beginning of a new type of energy field for the information that we are presenting in this phase of our mission.

This is the phase in which we will begin to teach in depth the information that we have been giving ~ and to begin a certification process. This is the word that is used on the earth plane to signify that an individual entity has received a certain validity for knowledge of a particular subject and is able then to spread that information with the guidance of higher sources ~ be they dimensional or interdimensional. So, we are going to provide an interdimensional source of validity for the information that you will have as a result of any number of these studyings that we will be presenting.

You know, the words teaching and learning are very strong words on the earth plane and they have come to signify, unfortunately, a hierarchical perspective that the teacher is the one who has the knowledge and the student is the one who is less than ~ who seeks the knowledge. During our time in our first phase, we have used the words teaching and learning as a frame of reference, primarily to enable those who have heard our words to understand more fully the concepts that we were presenting.

However, we now will not use those words of teaching and learning, for from our perspective it is inappropriate. There is no entity who truly has to learn anything, for all is known ~ it simply needs to be accessed. There is nothing that anyone can teach to another ~ there is simply guidance that is given. There is no hierarchical order here. There is the circle ~ it is the neverending circle. It is part of the image that we project through our own words ~ the neverending circle, where an entity is simply going back to its own source to gain the information necessary to return to The One. That is all that it is.

All along the way you have other entities who you meet up with who help you ~ who guide you. We are one such source. We cannot teach you anything. You already know what it is you need for information. You simply have placed it in a priority of accessing. When it is time in your path to bring in that information, you seek out those who can help you to access that information.

There is nothing we teach you ~ you have learned it all. We all have learned what it is that we have come out of The One to do. The journey is in finding that information again and bringing it into the vibration. Part of the journey outside of The One is through a very complex passageway of energies ~ lifelines, splits of those lifelines ~ so that each energy is connected ultimately, of course, to The Universal Consciousness. There is The Webbing Effect that brings each of us further and further away from The One, yet still connected. It is this Webbing Effect that provides the fun in the return back. It is the reason ~ this Webbing Effect ~ that we each need assistance, for it is a maze, this Webbing Effect.

Thus, what we are here to do ~ throughout our entire mission through Mushiba and Terra Lux ~ is to bring you into a sense of your own Self discovery and a sense that you ~ and you alone ~ have the power to bring in the information that you need for your own growth and development. We are very strong in our message ~ there is NO ONE OUTSIDE OF SELF that can give you that empowerment. Others may guide you. Others may be able to facilitate and, indeed, that is what healers are about ~ to help as facilitators.

They cannot heal you. Only you can heal you. They can facilitate ~ help through the web, help to find the way to where the information is. But, only you can find that information ultimately. They are the light ~ they provide the way for you to see your own path. But, even the best of light is limited ~ it is only each of you that can take the light and use it to your fullest benefit.

Thus, we begin this phase of our mission with the discussions, not of teaching and learning, but of EMPOWERMENT AND ACCESSING INFORMATION. We are here now to guide you in your own accessing of information. Do not look to us to teach you anything. Do not look to us for the answers, for if you read any of our information, you will see we give no answers ~ we give information. You apply it to Self as needed.

No one entity is any better than another ~ or any worse than another, for that matter. No one is superior and no one is inferior ~ it is not hierarchical. And, any who would claim that to you, be aware of them. Be wary of any who would claim to have superior abilities to you. Each has the ability of each other. It is simply that you have not accessed it ~ either for this particular lifetime or for a series of lifetimes ~ or, perhaps not yet. Do not ever be intimidated by those around you ~ as we call them, the spiritual elitists who would claim to have some type of power over YOU, especially. Be wary of that. Look only to Self for the answers. And, when you feel that information coming to you is inappropriate for Self, discard it ~ do not hold onto it.

For some, the information that we give is not appropriate to them. That is fine. We are one source of information. We do not claim to be the definitive source ~ we never have. We are a very high source, of course. ☺ ☺ We are not definitive, however. And, there are many sources that have been deliberately presented to the earth plane to reach certain audiences ~ certain levels of understanding and awareness. Not all entities are at the same levels of awareness. All are equal as energies, but all are at different levels of awareness. This is the difference ~ this is the distinction. This is where the growth occurs.

You may look at another and see a certain level of awareness in that individual and want to achieve that level of awareness. Well, you can. But you have to work hard. Awareness is not simply given to you, "Here ~ it is the platter ~ we put it on and you are aware ~ you are enlightened." Enlightenment is not one of these magic moments that occurs.

Each of you, as you sit here now in this gathering, are gaining in your own enlightenment, for you are on a training ground and you are participating in your own growth. That is enlightenment. So, you each leave this gathering with a new level of understanding ~ ever so infinitesimal perhaps, but nonetheless it is a growth. It is, actually, quite impossible to be on the earth plane and not grow. Even though there may be regressions in one's growth, ultimately it is impossible to leave the plane without having achieved some new understandings. No matter how dormant your particular scenario for the life has been, there are always growth modes.

So, what you are being introduced to, my loved ones, is a new way of thinking about your own journey. You are not students. You are not teachers. You are guides, each and every one of you. We are all guides. We all have something to help another entity with. No matter who you are, you have something to give to another. You may do it consciously ~ you may do it at a higher level. You may be very aware that your path in this lifetime ~ your mission ~ is to guide others, to help others, and that is what you do very consciously. Others simply are living their life, and it is that living that serves as an example to others. Many entities simply have a life that has no FOCUSED spiritual path.

All paths are spiritual, by the way. You may not be someone like Mushiba who, in a very DEFINED way, is guiding. You may simply live your life and that life shines as an example of understanding that there is a higher source. You may not have a spook who speaks through you, and yet have very, very high spiritual understandings.

Give empowerment to Self. You are the only ones who can do this. We can talk of it ~ we cannot do it for you. But we will, in this next phase of our mission, be emphasizing that the journey is yours ~ you have chosen your own journey. You already have the knowledge. You came out of the Universal Consciousness with that knowledge. It was placed in what we call a TOY BOX ~ that is our analogy. It is in our material already. All that information was placed in a safe little box. As you need to use it to grow, you go into your Toy Box and you pull it out and you play with it. Those are the issues and the opportunities that each of you are presented with for growth.

Growth automatically implies learning. Growth does not occur unless learning has already been there. You cannot grow unless you have learned something. You already have the knowledge ~ you are simply realigning it now for your path back to The One.

We have a very particular process by which we will ~ at THE INITIATOR LEVEL ~ bring about this empowerment. Those of you who are interested in each of the categories ~ as a totality ~ will have available then a series of workshops with us that will bring about each topic. And, you will become certified in that particular topic ~ at The Initiator Level. This is the very first level. We will, over time, unfold the more advanced levels of understanding and certification. You, then, could come to each of those workshops and receive the Initiator Certification for THE SEARCH FOR SELF ~ or you could select one or two or three or four or five. You will, then, be able to choose if you would want to focus on one particular component of THE SEARCH FOR SELF.

We will unfold these components in the coming earth plane years ~ for this is a long term process and not an overnight success type of thing or a quick fix. If you choose, for example, to focus on The Healing Of Self ~ which is one of the components ~ you could come to that workshop and have the Initiator Level of information presented. Then there would be an outgrowth of that ~ many other workshops being presented, just on The Healing Of Self ~ and, The Webbing Effect, The Community Of Self, Group Balancing, Gender Harmony, Lightheartedness. Each of these are the components.

Each will also have its own track of information and levels of awareness within it. Eventually, you will be able to represent the information that we give, to those around you. You would be able to represent the Waith and Company material in that particular topic area. And, you would do so with our blessings. We would do a pookey-pookey, give you blessings and say, "Yes, you are certifiably prepared now." And, you may use that in whatever way you would want! ☺ ☺

There is no ritual involved in anything that we do, my loved ones. You will notice that there are no candles burning, there is no incense burning. There is no ritual that indicates that if you do this a certain way you will gain enlightenment. This is an appropriate venue for many other groupings, for that is what they must do to bring focus to themselves and to their journey. We do not discourage anyone from using ~ as we call them ~ props, for focusing. What we give, however, is information, and information does not need props ~ at least from our perspective.

As you go about bringing that information into your own levels of awareness, you may need props. We certainly give concrete ways of understanding information. We give concrete meditations, for example ~ ways to help you to understand information. But, burning a candle is only a prop ~ and focusing on that candle or clanging bells, or whatever, are props to help you to focus. Ultimately, you need nothing. Ultimately, you need not see the visions. You simply know ~ you understand ~ you have a sense of it.

Seek out those arenas that give you comfort. And, seek out the concrete that you need in order to bring yourselves into the abstract. We, by design, are very abstract in what we present. But, we are now about to bring in more of the concrete ~ without the bells and whistles, of course. We occasionally might do a little pookey pookey, as it is called. However, there is no need for us to do that. If you understand the information and it feels right, then you will continue in the seeking of that information through our arena. If the information does not ring through to you, then you will go elsewhere ~ this is the journey.

We now want you to meet ~ for some of you it will be the first time, for others of you it will be simply meeting again ~ the others in The Company. Each one of them is charged with a particular responsibility for information dissemination. There are six and they assist my efforts. I am the Head Spook ~ as it would be said. Each time that we enter in through Mushiba, my energy enters and prepares the vibration and it is my energy that departs from the vibration. Everything in between is open for any of the other six to come in and discuss with you.

They each have very distinctive personalities ~ if you want to use that earth plane frame of reference. Jenjura is charged with The Webbing Effect and he is referred to as The Librarian in The Company. He is the one who you can go to ask a question regarding your path. He will go to The Universal Consciousness and attempt to smooth the path for you, for that information.

After Jenjura, there is Francis, who is charged with The Community Of Self. After Francis, there is Jacques, who discusses The Healing Of Self. After Jacques, there is Group Balancing, which is the responsibility of Teetee, followed by Boopsie ~ they have given themselves these names ~ who is charged with Gender Harmony. And then, finally, the emissary of lightheartedness ~ Miss Fluffball herself ~ is Farena, whose mission is to bring lightheartedness. Many of you have experienced the vibration of Farena and the lightheartedness that she brings to the total mission.

Each of these energies are at different levels of awareness ~ they are not all at the same level. Some are in The Angelic Realm, some are thinking about going into The Angelic Realm ~ they have not decided if they want to take that path, for it is a decision. Some are in Guide School ~ as we would say ~ teaching, but they are simply facilitators to others who would be wanting to become formal guides. So there is quite an array of understandings.

They each have a symbol and they each have a color ~ which are concrete manifestations for focusing. And, as you go through each one of these components in the workshops, you will be introduced to their symbol and their color and the way in which it can be used in harmony. Their symbol and their color are already on the record and have already been given wording for usage in meditations ~ which will become available with information coming from Terra Lux quite soon.

So, what we will do now, then, is open up the energy field for each of the six to come in. They will enter in the order in which I have introduced them. Be prepared that they will move you around, ask you to stand up, or do any number of things. You would also feel comfortable in consuming the food, especially this surprise from Boopsie and Farena that they are quite proud of ~ the fluffiness of it all, and as we understand, the sugar of it all.

What many do not understand is that on the one wing, being on the earth plane can be very difficult ~ it is full of trials and tribulations. But, on the other wing, you have all these addictions that we do not have in The Angelics ~ sugar and caffeine and chocolate and those other things! You know, addictions are not all that bad if you enjoy them for what they are rather than looking at them as negatives ~ look at them as positives. When you are not in concrete, addictions take on an entirely different form.

So, we will return, however, when they have each introduced themselves, and you will be able to ask questions. As each of them are talking, they will give you an opportunity to ask them questions ~ as you will be able to ask us questions when this has been completed. So, think up any questions that you might have ~ reserve them for the end of our gathering.

They come and go quite easily, by the way. It is not any process at all of allowing them to enter ~ they are already in the vibration. There are times when they work in such harmony that it would appear that you were speaking one-on-one with them ~ simply having a conversation, several at the same time. So, we shall return in a while.

Jenjura: I am Jenjura. I am called The Librarian ~ a difficult name, you know, because people think that all I do is sit in the stacks and read books. It is pretty much what I do! ☺☺ My responsibility is The Webbing Effect, as it is called. It is this circle that is neverending ~ neverending circle. We shall present this to you. None of us, by the way, are very good at drawing ~ you must understand this. We asked Waith if he could bring in that artistic energy, and he said no. He can do that ~ he is an Archangel!

This is our symbol ~ the neverending circle. It is The Webbing Effect ~ this view as a web. All energies outside of The Universal Consciousness are wrapped around and around within Self. If it were this straight line, there would be no journey ~ there would be no reason to be outside of The One, for being inside The Universal Consciousness is wholeness. Being outside of The One is a neverending circle. It means that the journey is never complete. It is never complete until that point of unification ~ The Universal Consciousness.

Some energies decide that they will stay out of The Universal Consciousness indefinitely ~ if eternity has a component of indefinite. Others decide that they will come out for a very short time ~ do some very quick types of activities and return back ~ and then come back out again ~ do the same thing ~ go back ~ come back out. Some may decide that when they enter out of The Universal Consciousness, into the training ground of The Universe, that they will take ten particular issues to be learned ~ it is a number that we CHOOSE. Another may decide to take two issues ~ complete those two issues ~ go back in ~ come back out ~ take two more ~ come and go five times. Another entity decides to come and go once and takes ten issues. It is all in the way that you want to design it.

Once you are out, you become fragmented as an energy. It is a requirement ~ it happens to all entities. That fragmentation, then, means that there are splits and then there are splits to the splits. There are lifelines that have lifelines that have lifelines ~ and this is the original energy of you. This, then, is The Web. And, if your level of awareness happens to be HERE, then you have to go through all of these little webbings in order to reach your complete understanding of Self. So, all of your information is housed in a spot ~ all there. You are at some other webbing point and you must find that information. It is diffused ever so slightly through your own webbing effect. As you make your journey back ~ around and around ~ you keep meeting yourself until you reach the end of your journey, and that is The Universal Consciousness.

Our mission, and our duty, is to help you through your own web ~ the meditations and the focusing within Self that you can do. We are here to guide you ~ that is our journey with you, and what we will be presenting to you. We are the first ones up for the workshops, but if one is truly to go within Self to find the answers, there must be an understanding ~ at least at a basic level ~ of The Webbing Effect that each has. Now if you want to journey with another and be part of their path, they, too, have a webbing effect and their web, then, would look like this and another's web would look like this and another's web and another's web ~ until all of those relationships that you have become tangled within each other's webs. You cannot get out of each other's way.

It would be much too simple if all we had to think about was our own web. We could return back to The One in a nanosecond. But, that is not what the journey is about. The journey outside of The Universal Consciousness is about relationships ~ it is about interactions. There is no reason to be outside of The One if there are no relationships ~ no interpersonal, interspecies, interkingdom, interdimensional relationships. Thus, you become webbed with others by choice. Sometimes the choices are made kicking and screaming ~ however, they are choices.

To understand others, you must understand Self, first and foremost ~ and this is what we are here, as part of our mission, to help you with. We are able to research The Universal Consciousness ~ you ALL are able to go to The Universal Consciousness. But, if you are somewhere mired in this web, to go to The Universal Consciousness seems to be much too difficult ~ and, so we are a facilitator. We will help you to clear the way, ever so slightly, to understand Self and those with whom you are interwebbed ~ interwebbed, is that a word? 😊 😊

Now it is!

Jenjura: Indeed. This will be what we present to you in the future. We have the color ~ which is yellow ~ used with our symbol, that we will be giving more information about in terms of focusing as we move through our own workshops.

Would there be any questions?

When you say that we journey with another, is that like the circle that we come in with ~ The Energy Circle?

Jenjura: That is one component of it, yes. It will be discussed in the series that will be presented in THE SEARCH FOR SELF. Waith has given much information on The Energy Circle. It is not just The Energy Circle ~ for energy circles are webbed with energy circles. It is an advanced discussion that will be presented to the appropriate audiences when they are ready for that discussion. For many, it is enough now just to understand that you are interwebbed with another energy form.

On The Web? 😊😊

Jenjura: Yes, indeed, on The Web.

We will depart now and Francis will enter in and give you a discussion of his arena. Francis is lovingly referred to now as Frank. He has lightened up considerably, thanks to Farena. So we bid you farewell now. We are hoping that you call upon us ~ visualize yellow and our symbol for The Webbing Effect. Farewell.

Farewell.

Francis: I am Frank. Orange is my color. However, you will have to wait for our symbol until the workshop.

We are charged with Community ~ it is our prime responsibility. We have a sub responsibility of The Animal Kingdom, which is discussed within the realm of our responsibilities of Community.

The Community of Self. After The Webbing Effect you recognize that there is a community ~ not just of others, but within Self. It is where the discussion is elaborated upon of The Energy Circle. We are here to help you to understand the interconnectedness, not just of The Human Kingdom, but of all that is out of The Universal Consciousness ~ not just human and certainly not just animal. Anything that you can SEE breathe, anything that you can SEE is alive. If humans cannot SEE something concretely, they determine it does not exist. Humans believe that life only exists if you can SEE it move, you can SEE it grow, you can SEE it change ~ the operative word in all of this is SEE.

Life and consciousness are not the same ~ this is part of our discussions. Everything has consciousness. Everything in this gathering has a consciousness. The rug upon which you sit, the paint that makes up the wall, has a consciousness ~ it is an encasement for energy. It is far more complex than most human minds can comprehend ~ the interconnectedness of consciousness. Not all consciousness has what is called LIFE. There are many among you who have consciousness but no life ☺ ☺ ~ a little Angelic humor.

The important thing to remember is that all of us are connected by a Universal Consciousness. This is the phrase you hear all the time ~ “Ah! It is The Universal Consciousness ~ we are all connected.” And yet, some seem, according to the elitists, to be more connected than others. The elitists would claim to be on the top of the pile, when in fact there is no pile to be on top of. It is a circle ~ it is a neverending circle. It is Self meeting Self, meeting Self, and interconnecting The Community of Self and The Community of Others.

We are here in our journey with Waith and Company to bring more awareness to the interconnectedness of consciousness ~ the food that you eat, the plate that you hold, the tea bag. What is this called, a scrunchie? Is that the vocabulary word that we find? The scrunchie has a consciousness. No one is ever alone ~ it is impossible to be alone. You may not have another human being ~ and that could be a good thing ~ but you certainly have consciousness all around you. There is never a moment outside of The Universal Consciousness that we are alone. It is not designed that way ~ it is an impossibility. Rejoice in that.

It is what we are here to help you with ~ to understand and rejoice in the interconnectedness. We are not here to tell you that you must like and love all consciousness. That would be foolish. The journey is to attempt to ultimately feel harmonious, for liking and loving are concrete manifestations of harmony. Attempt to become harmonious. You can be harmonious and not like someone ~ we will explain that in our discussions.

Loving of Self automatically makes you love others to the same degree to which you love Self ~ no more, no less, only the same degree. So what you project to others for love is what you feel for Self. It is our mission with the others in The Company to bring you into a stronger place within Self for loving others. It is a journey ~ you will move ahead and you will move back and you will move ahead, and gain, and you will move back.

Regression is not a bad thing. Regression is meant to catch the breath and perhaps step back from what one has done for growth to determine if it is indeed the path, or whether there should be another direction taken. So regression, in fact, is growth ~ ultimately. That is what we will be here to help you with.

Do you have any questions?

(There is a silence)

Ah, you are saving your questions for Waith!! Jacques will enter in now. We bid you farewell.

Jacques: I am Jacques. The blessings to all of you!

Thank you.

Jacques: You are welcome! You are healed, my child!! ☺ ☺ You said thank you, we healed you!!

I feel better already.

Jacques: See, it worked ~ if you beg us, we will heal you some more!! ☺ ☺

We are here to guide you in the discussions of The Healing Of Self. It is not Self Healing, it is Healing Of Self. I write these words ~ HEALING and HEAL SELF.

There is so much out, now, on the plane about the healing ~ “Go and heal thyself or go to someone who will heal you ~ this person is a healer.” There is much misunderstanding about this. This is the arena where most of the spiritual elitists jump in. This is where most of the ones who are going to take your money, will do it. ☺ ☺ That is an all right thing, you see. You give your money away, then that was part of the journey. We do not speak disparagingly of this ~ we simply bring it to your attention as part of the path. The Healing Of Self means just that ~ heal Self.

We are on record now for saying, FORGIVE SELF FOR NEEDING TO BE HEALED. It is not a bad thing that you need to be healed. We all need to be healed. We are all out of The Universal Consciousness ~ that was a crazy thing to do! ☺ ☺ But, you see, as Waith says, it gets very boring in The Universal Consciousness. When it is boring, there is no challenge. We need something to challenge us, and so we come out and we play ~ it takes a bit of insanity to do that. Not all energies come out of The Universal Consciousness. There are many who are in there hanging out, happy with the way things are ~ and then there is this group that has come out.

So, being outside The One necessitates the need for healing. It is as simple as that. It is no big deal, as you would say on the plane. It becomes a big deal when you make it such, when you moan and groan and say, “Ah, what will I do. I must not be spiritually complete if I cannot heal myself. There is something wrong with me. All those around expect that I use herbs to heal myself and not traditional medicine.” This is ludicrous. Everything on the plane is a tool for The Healing Of Self, for the growth. Healing is growth ~ if you heal, you grow. If you do not heal, you do not grow ~ it is as simple as that. And, so what ~ you have eternity! ☺ ☺ What is the rush? “I have to do it in this lifetime, or else.” Or else what? What happens? You get yanked back into The Universal Consciousness? Oh, wow! ☺ ☺

All of us are simply facilitators along the way in the journey that each of us has to heal Self. We, in Waith and Company, are here as one of those facilitators to guide you in the journey within Self, to heal Self and to relax about it and to be able to identify clearly those around you who are meant to be facilitators, to help you ~ for you are not meant to do it alone. Ultimately, we heal Self ~ alone. But, it is at that final moment that aloneness takes place. It is the journey to that final point, however, that is meant to bring all the tools available ~ others who are on their own path of gaining awareness, who are on their own path of Self Healing.

As you heal a component of Self, you are expected to help another heal Self ~ to show them the way. It may not be the way for them, but it will be the way that you travel, and you SHARE that with them ~ that is what healers do. Healers do not heal you and cure you from your ills. There may be, as we have acknowledged, what appears to be a miraculous healing on the earth plane. The minister is there ~ the raising of the hand ~ the person falls down, miraculously cured. Medicine says, “Yes, this person was cured.” It was not the other person who did it ~ it was a joint effort that said, “It is time now for The Healing Of Self to occur ~ let’s do it in a dramatic way.” ☺ ☺ That is all that it was ~ for by doing it in a dramatic way, it brought attention, which is part of the path, perhaps, of the entity or those involved.

Everything happens for reasons. Do not mock or make fun of those who would do certain things that appear dramatic. However, our caution, as always, is to be aware of the spiritual elitists who say to you that only they can give you the answer. YOU are the only one who has the answer. Now, if you find yourself with one of these spiritual elitists, fine ~ this is part of the path. We draw your attention to the phenomenon. You may journey that road for this life or many lives, but eventually you come to the discovery that you heal Self.

Many who are able to heal Self do it very quietly ~ there is no fanfare for it simply is done. Something may happen to the encasement or to the physical psyche ~ and we call it a physical psyche as opposed to a non physical psyche. There are two different levels of psyche and the physical psyche is what others around you see. Ultimately, an entity is quiet and reserved about The Healing Of Self ~ does not feel the need for others to know that they have healed Self. Until that point is reached, it is all right to be dramatic- it is part of the journey. It is part of what you give as guidance to others who may be less sure of their own abilities to heal. This is what we will be here to guide you with ~ the understanding, the control that you take within Self to heal Self.

Would there be any questions?

(There is a silence)

No questions ~ from such an auspicious group! You understand everything ~ every word.

I have so many questions that I was just going to wait for the workshop.

Jacques: Ah! A very good answer, my love, a very good answer. We would hope, then, that many of you will have your questions for the workshop.

Well, it is time for us to turn over the gathering to she who is charged with Group Balancing. The Healing Of Self, The Community Of Self, The Webbing Effect, all lead up to this wonderful, wonderful behavior that you have all come to know and love called Group Balancing. Teetee is responsible for Group Balancing. We bid you farewell for another time. Farewell.

Teetee: The girls finally come out to play! ☺ ☺ How many of you here are in a group balance situation right now? Every one of you should have your hands up ~ group balancing.

Our color is blue. We had to make do with blueberry ~ the colors over there. (Teetee is referring to the food provided to those in attendance) All the food had a color except me, because the other two females in this group are little more aggressive than I am!

They grabbed the best colors, huh?

Teetee: No, they got in before I did. I was on assignment when the two of them came to (Name given) and said, "This is what we want." If I had been around, there would be some blue over there. (Referring to the table with the food on it) ☺ ☺ However, is that not the way it is in group balancing? Somebody else always seems to be more in tune with the group than you might think you are. Well, get over it ~ that is the way it is ~ that is what happens ~ that is group balancing.

Group balancing is wonderful ~ it is the most wonderful thing around. And, we are going to help you to appreciate it, to enjoy it and to seek it out. Now, you might say, "Seek it out ~ I think not." Well, yes, you must, for without group balancing, your Webbing Effect is unidimensional and will not get you back to The One.

Here is The One. (Teetee draws on the board) There are these little webs ~ little webs all over the place. See how they are all surrounding The One? All of these are intermingling with groups. Each Webbing Effect has an infinitesimal number of group balancings, and in order for the straightening out to occur, they all have to play together until finally they go back into The One. And then they go back out again, and they go back in, and they go back out, and they go back in, and they go back out ~ it is a neverending process.

Group balancing has such negative publicity. Think about this. "Oh, with that group!" It is joyful to be with a group. It means that you have come to a point in your path where you can bring added growth to Self. At the same time, at higher levels ~ sometimes very, very high levels ~ you are harmonious with each member of that group. Remember, very, very high levels. ☺ ☺ But that is the purpose. The higher the level you have to go to for harmony, the greater the growth opportunity. Bring it more and more and more into concrete ~ it is THE SEARCH FOR SELF.

You will not find Self in and of Self. You will find Self only through others who, ultimately, give you your own sense of Self. It is the paradox. We are only Self, and we find only our answers within Self. However, we cannot find Self without others ~ they are reflections, for they serve as the mirror to Self. And that is the difficulty sometimes, for we do not want to admit on one hand that we need others, "I can do it myself. I do not need this group." It admits then that, "I am in a group balancing." Well, yes, if you are in a group, you are in a balancing ~ and a group by our definition is two. So we are here to help you then.

We chose the name Teetee, by the way, for we are new to Waith and Company. We replaced Susan, and Susan is doing other things now. She is still part of Waith and Company, but not at this part of the mission. Teetee is double ~ Tee Tee ~ we are a group! By using the same name twice, it signifies that a group is two. So do not think that you can get away with saying, "It's just the two of us." It is a group ~ a group by any other definition, but nonetheless a group. Just as you need to forgive yourselves for needing to be healed, ACKNOWLEDGE YOUR PARTICIPATION IN A GROUP AND REJOICE IN IT.

We will help you to understand that, and more importantly, we will help you to understand how to integrate an acceptance of group behavior into THE SEARCH FOR SELF. It is as simple as that ~ it will take lifetimes to understand, but it is as simple as that.

Are there any questions?

When we are in group balancing with another person, are our guides also in a group balancing because they are pulled into the situation?

Teetee: Not necessarily. Part of our discussion when we come into the workshop ~ sometimes it is and sometimes it is not. There is never an easy answer. There is never, "Oh, yes, by all means, all the time!" or, "No, by no means, ever!" ~ Never quite as simple as that. Some of the guides and some of the Angelics are in group balancings that have all come together to group balance in multidimensional, but not always. And by the way, Angelics do need to group balance. They are not immune from it ~ just in a very different way than any of earth balancing occurs.

You were talking about the connection and how we group balance and go back to The One, then we come out of The One. Is that our soul's decision to come back out ~ that we need to do more work because we haven't reached that circle or we're bored over there?

Teetee: We were perhaps a bit unclear. There is not a return to The One when there is a group balance, but when there is a balancing of the entire Web Effect that you find yourself in ~ meaning that your life outside of The One is over. But, then, there is the coming out again of the energy. It is, however, a decision made STRICTLY by the soul. You come out with a different soul, however. You come out new and improved ~ or maybe not. But all activity outside of The One is group balancing and, ultimately, in order to return to The One, you must have completed all of your group balancing.

Our soul knows when that happens but we consciously ~

Teetee: We certainly hope so. Oh, yes, indeed, my love ~ we are flip in that manner, you see. The soul knows all ~ is that a movie?

The Shadow.

Teetee: We knew there was a reference from memory banks that we work with.

The soul is the connector and understands when that balance has occurred and brings closure to it. That is an entirely different discussion ~ not meant for this introductory gathering, but certainly one that will be expounded upon. We are now ready to turn over the discussions to Boopsie, who is charged with Gender Harmony. We send you blessings.

Boopsie: Hello! I am Boopsie. I am pretty fresh off the plane. ☺ ☺ That too!

Gender Harmony ~ he said, she said, they said, we said, them against us.

Into The New Illusion, Gender Harmony will be much different than it is now. In fact, Gender Harmony will not be a contradiction in terms as it is now. Now there is so much antagonism between the genders ~ there is so much exaggeration. That is as it needs to be at the end of an illusion. Moving into The New Illusion brings a cleaning out of attitudes toward gender. Each new illusion has a different setup at the beginning for its illusion.

We have just begun our part of the mission in Gender Harmony. Our work truly begins now. Our mission is meant to begin now and move into The New Illusion. It is meant now to help in the understanding of the changes that will be occurring in gender orientation and gender understandings. There will be a brief period of time in The New Illusion ~ at the beginning ~ of harmony. And then it will start over again ~ this disharmony between the genders.

The journey is for each to understand the other's perspective. It is why you come into a particular encasement ~ male or female ~ to understand the life. You may be a dominant male energy and come into a female encasement ~ or the other way around. Same gender orientations, opposite gender orientations ~ these are all up for grabs now.

There is no easy way to explain why anyone has any type of orientation. nor should it be. This is what we are here to bring you as a message, and to help you to understand that there will be a dramatic switching of what the norm is for The New Illusion. And, while it is considered now to be evil to have same gender orientation, it will be the norm in The New Illusion. And, what you consider the norm now ~ opposite gender orientation ~ will be considered evil in The New Illusion ~ not for a few hundred years into The New Illusion. But, nonetheless, that is the setup. Each illusion has its own setup.

There continues to be two genders. On other training grounds there are more than two genders ~ that makes for getting a date much easier! ☺ ☺ There is altogether too much seriousness about this gender thing. The way you reproduce in The New Illusion will be different from the way you reproduce now. It has already begun. But, you have not even begun to see the way reproduction will occur ~ the way harmonies will change between the genders. Gender differences were deliberately set up to be DIFFERENT ~ not to be the same. The goal is not to be the same ~ THE GOAL IS TO UNDERSTAND THE OTHER AND TO RESPECT THE OTHER.

Somewhere along the line confusion developed ~ "I'm supposed to be like a man ~ I can do anything a man can do!" Or, "I have to find the feminine side of myself." All of these types of situations, now, have all led up to the final cleansing where attitudes simply say, "You are you ~ and you are you ~ and you are you ~ and you have your path and you have your journey ~ maybe you are supposed to reproduce and maybe YOU are and maybe you and maybe not you." And that is all right. Then the fun begins again ~ "I'm better than you ~ we have more abilities than you have ~ no, I have more abilities than you have." All of these kinds of things that people say. We are here to help you understand the differences and to rejoice in the differences ~ rejoicing, not conflict.

Feel harmony. Do not try to be like someone else ~ male or female. Try to be better within Self. You are meant to do what you are meant to do. If your soul wants you to do something, you will do it. If it is meant to do in this lifetime, you will do it. If it is not meant to do, you will not. If you are meant to wear a tool belt in this lifetime, you will. ☺ ☺ Otherwise, do not worry about it. Do not worry about, "I should be doing this, after all I'm a liberated person," male or female.

Concentrate only on the opportunities that are presented to you as who you are, and do not focus on what you cannot do. That is the problem. You have taken on a particular encasement, male or female, for reasons. Revel in those reasons ~ rejoice in those reasons. Seek out from the Higher Self what those reasons are. Do not sit around complaining that you are not able to do something that the opposite gender is able to do, "They get a better job than I do." They get a better job because they got a better job. It was meant for them, and for some reason you did not do it. You can, if your soul says that you can. You can lift a table if your soul says that you can. If your soul says no, you do not ~ it is as simple as that.

The genders are at each other's throats now ~ each one not happy with itself, not to mention the other. We are here to show you the joy of being the gender that you are ~ to relish the gender that you are ~ and at the same time to understand the perspective of the other gender. Everyone has chosen the body that they are in. You have chosen it ~ "I'd never choose this body." ☺ ☺ You have chosen this body. We all have a choice. There is a menu up there ~ a menu of noses, a menu of ears ~ Mr. Potato Head. There is a menu of hair ~ curly, straight, color ~ and we go and we pick our body. It is a limited selection, but the combinations are infinite.

Do we choose the little body when we come in or the ultimate, bigger, older body?

Boopsie: We choose all along the way. Periodically we go back and redesign it. We are allowed to do that. Some say, "Nope, that's it ~ I don't want to worry about my body anymore." So we do not. It just goes on its normal, evolutionary way. Others say ~ and each person can do this, "Every ten years on the earth plane I want to go back and look at my body." And some people do. Then they change it. The same thing goes for gender. You can change gender ~ every year if they want it, every day if they so choose. The possibilities are limitless. ☺ ☺ For those who have chosen a path like that, and they have, it has proved to be a very tormenting life. Switching genders back and forth within one lifetime is a very difficult path to take. It has been chosen, though.

Are you referring to people who cross dress?

Boopsie: No, who physically change their gender ~ their encasement. Cross dressing is easy. We had a life where we were cross dressing. I will not go into this now! We have just recently come off the plane. However, we ARE in Guide School.

In any event, our mission is to be of service to you in the lightening up of the gender issues. We are here to bring more understanding to Self, and the gender that Self has chosen, and to be comfortable with that chosen gender and, at the same time, to be comfortable with the other genders.

There are more than two genders on the plane currently ~ they are just hiding ~ it is for The New Illusion but at the END of The New Illusion. This is a little tease for some of you who might want to come in at the END of The New Illusion ~ the introduction of more than two genders. It takes a full illusion to develop more than two genders. More than two genders is true of many illusions in the portfolio, and is for the illusion coming up after The New Illusion about to present itself.

The color for Gender Harmony within Waith and Company, until my arrival, has been pink. In spite of the fact that pink on the earth plane is considered female, we are not here strictly for female ~ we are here for gender. We add our color now. (Boopsie writes on the board) Pink and blue equals ~ what does pink and blue equal?

Lavender

Boopsie: Not quite purple. Must be careful about treading on anyone's other color! What we are leaving up to The Metagers to do is to bring the right color to the pink and blue combination without treading on you know who ~ coming up next. It does not have to be a complete merging of the colors ~ it can be a combination. Mushiba will help you ~ as she always ends up having to do anyway! Just another little joke.

It is time for us now to hand over the discussions to Farena, who will discuss lightheartedness with you. We bid you farewell.

Farena: Hi! At last. I am always the last one now.

Keep 'um laughing.

Farena: Keep 'um laughing ~ la, la, la! They have all developed pretty much a sense of humor, have they not? (Farena is referring to the other members of Waith and Company) You can thank me for that. They are not as funny as they could be, but they are getting there!!

Lightheartedness. (Farena draws on the board) What is that?

A purple ball.

Farena: A purple ball ~ fluffball! A purple fluffball. You can read that, F-L-U- F-F-B-A-L-L ~ fluffball ~ purple. Here I am, a published poet. There are some here who do not know. (Name given), you are closest to my book ~ you would share this with the others. I think it is very important that the earth plane, unknowingly, has published the poem of a Spook ~ Farena. So it just goes to show you how much you can get away with ~ and how easy it is! You can make a joke about it and be happy and be fun filled.

Ah, sometimes my job in The Company is very, very difficult because everybody can get so serious ~ talking about serious things. Spirituality is very, very serious ~ it is serious business, "I'm on my spiritual path and I'm very serious about it. Don't you get in my way and don't you tell me to be funny and don't you tell me to laugh, because after all,

I'm on a serious mission here." And for a lifetime you may be. And you may be irritated as anything with somebody like me or someone who is happy and laughs all the time and is carefree and is irreverent and does not take themselves seriously. You may be very irritated at that, and that is all right.

Our mission is to help you understand the balance in the lightheartedness and the seriousness. It is an imbalance to be one or the other all the time. It might be that in a lifetime you are out of balance completely. But, by coming in contact with lightheartedness, or seriousness, your soul stores the memory so that when you are ready in a lifetime to bring in balance, you will have the soul memory. You will have been exposed to the information.

So I am an exaggeration of information to be stored in your soul memories. I have a very serious side to me ~ I am very serious. I wrote that poem, did I not, and I was able to have it published. ☺ ☺ It certainly was no effort of anyone here! Just a little joke.

The balance, my loved ones, is in understanding that what you do as a mission, the path you have taken on, is serious. But do not take it seriously. Take it lightly. Just as Teetee said, group balancing is wonderful ~ it is joy filled. Do not be serious, "Oh, this is terrible ~ who is balancing with whom in this group." And you fret and worry about it. Instead, say, "Ah, we are balancing." See, you have the spectrum. You have the very serious person who will not put lightheartedness into anything and then you have ~ La, la, la, la ~ a person in a lifetime who has no sense of seriousness of purpose. They are off in la la land, and that is fine.

The ideal is that you have a moment in la la land and you have a moment when you are very serious and eventually you bring in the harmony of the two so that ALL THAT YOU DO IS SERIOUS OF PURPOSE BUT LIGHTHEARTED IN ITS APPLICATION. It is so easy to say, and yet so difficult to achieve. For when the lessons are in your life ~ when you are confronting those issues ~ it can be painful. Pain can make us serious, until we experience it enough, this pain, that we say, "Ah! I'm having pain again. I know that I'm going to be happy about this at some point." And, eventually, when you are having the pain, you are happy about it. It happens. That is the ultimate blending.

It will not be completely achieved in this lifetime. It will not be completely achieved while you are on the earth plane sojourn. It will be completely achieved once you get back into the purple fluffball ~ The Universal Consciousness.

I thought it was white.

Farena: No, it is purple. Keep it straight, woman!

Nothing lasts forever, including color, and so when what's his name was here with the orange, that was the truth then ~ this is the truth now. It changed. Everything for each of you has changed since you have been here in this gathering. In some way you leave this gathering different from when you entered ~ we are not equating good or bad to that. You have changed as a result of this gathering ~ that is what THE SEARCH FOR SELF is all about.

That final looping of THE SEARCH FOR SELF is lightheartedness. So, when Jenjura is talking about The Webbing Effect ~ he's webbing it all around ~ we are meeting ourselves in our own Webbing Effect. It starts off very serious. But, in order for it to end, we have to be laughing ~ we have to be lighthearted ~ we have to be joy filled. It does not mean we go around like a little idiot saying, "Oh, isn't life wonderful," because people will look at you really strange. You may not get your point across in the right way if you are too flippant. You have to find the right balance. Even I must find the balance for flippant and nonflippant.

This was my choice to wear today. (Farena is referring to the clothing that Mushiba wears) I won. Even though there are seven in The Company, I won! They would have to live with me otherwise, so they know better. They could have worn something much less fluffy, but Waith won, ultimately, because it is white ~ no purple.

Do you not love our little surprise? (A special dessert served) How many of you have not had our surprise? All had? You have to because we want you to become addicted to sugar. That will keep Heavenly Edibles in business ~ we tried!

Our job in this mission is to bring lightheartedness and joyfulness into the seriousness of your path and to keep reminding you to be joy filled, to keep reminding you to be light, to flow ~ even in the midst of the most difficult points in your path. Find something lighthearted in which to exaggerate yourself, just as we exaggerate our self ~ fluffy, fluffy, fluffy.

Does anybody have any questions?

Where's your white feather boa?

Farena: My boa! I see my boa. It has to stay up there for now (Referring to the basket hanging from the ceiling) because Waith is saying, "Wrap it up, wrap it up!" Time for us to say bye bye ~ fluffy, fluffy ~ bye bye!

Waith: Well now, you have all met the infamous six, with Farena as the frosting on the surprise.

Now, my loved ones, would there be questions relating to anything that the others in The Company have said or anything that we have said?

Regarding gender. If we pick the body that we want to live in, why are some people unhappy with the bodies they pick? Have they chosen poorly?

Poorly would not be the word. It has been chosen at the soul level. There is the eternal conflict between the higher levels of Self and the concrete levels of Self. So, the concrete level ~ if it is unhappy with the body ~ is fighting with the Higher Self for the reasons for why a particular encasement was selected for the accessing of information for the issues that need to be addressed. "Oh, I have blond hair. I wish I had brown hair." It could be as simple as that. There are ways to change the encasement, of course. It is all part of the journey that all the levels of Self have taken, from the very highest ~ the very abstract levels that do the choosing ~ to the very concrete.

So you may be, at concrete, not happy at all with your encasement. Part of the journey within Self ~ THE SEARCH FOR SELF ~ is to come to that understanding at the higher levels. "Why was this encasement selected ~ why do my fingers look the way that they do ~ why do my toes look the way that they do?" Each component is chosen very specifically, as Boopsie explained. So part of the fun of meditation and the journey within Self is to go to that drawing board ~ try to find it ~ and say, "Oh, this is what the picture looks like."

Concrete, as part of its ego, has so much difficulty accepting that the abstract levels of Self are truly Self. It is not someone outside of Self that has said, "I pick the body and you get to live it." It is not that way at all. It is that the higher levels ~ the more abstract levels of Self ~ were given that responsibility to choose it. The concrete levels were chosen to live it. It is all the same Self ~ you just need to understand it. Understand Self ~ that is the journey within Self.

It truly is exciting when an entity who has had difficulty accepting their body comes to the higher levels of Self and understands why ~ understands why they lost a fingernail or they understand why they have straight hair instead of curly hair. It is as simple and yet as complex as that. Each component of the encasement was chosen for a very specific reason. It was not a random choice, "Oh, this body was at the end of the assembly line ready to go in, jump in." That is not the way it works. Nothing in The Universe is random ~ nothing. It is all planned ~ and each of you plans it. It is just the concrete level that would not want to acknowledge, "Oh, I do not like this body ~ it is too tall ~ it is too short ~ it is too heavy ~ it is too light," all of those things.

Coming to an acceptance of the encasement is a wonderful closure in the journey for Self. It brings a great deal of strength into the entire path when one simply looks and says this is the body that was selected. Now, my job is to work with it and live with it and to understand the reasons. It has very specific reasons ~ utilize it. Do not demean it, but rather utilize it.

Does that answer your question?

For the time being. I'll think about that.

Indeed. Everything that we would say is meant for you to sit and think, to meditate upon. It is not the answer to your life. It is simply an explanation. What you do with the information is up to you. We simply give you the explanation for it.

Other questions?

What does one do when surrounded by a great deal of seriousness or negativity?

We would have Farena answer.

Farena: The best thing to do if somebody is after your energy ~ because they are serious and are after your energy ~ is to say to them, "Look, honey ~" ☺ ☺ No, seriously, we have talked a great deal about how to bring lightheartedness into your life by having a playful thing in your life, an item that brings you joy and lightheartedness, that you can PHYSICALLY have with you if someone around you is serious. Or, visualize a playful thing, so that when someone is being serious, you visualize lightheartedness. You may not be able to block their seriousness and tell them to stop it, but you can bring lightheartedness into yourself so that you block their seriousness toward you.

You cannot change another. You cannot say to another, "Stop. You are being too serious. You are interfering with my lightheartedness." You have not the right to do that. You have the right, however, to block yourself from their seriousness by envisioning lightheartedness ~ wearing something that is lighthearted. If you know you are going to be with someone who is very serious, then wear something that is very lighthearted. Exaggerate your own lightheartedness ~ it will drive them crazy. ☺ ☺

You can do it in small ways. You can go to a meeting with a pencil that has some kind of little fluff on it. Or, you can sit in the meeting and draw little fluffs yourself on a piece of paper. You can bring in your own lightheartedness. It depends on the situation as to how you want to exaggerate, or not. You may be able to say to someone, "Oh, lighten up!" because you know that you can say that to that particular person. To another, you cannot say that. Rather, you bring your own sense of Self into your lightheartedness energy field.

Waith: Very sound advice. Being lighthearted takes serious effort. ☺ ☺ It is your own responsibility, not another's. However, if you find yourself being serious when you do not want to be, seek out those around you who will bring you into lightheartedness. Know that there are some around you who will do that if you ask them ~ or even if you do not ask them. Simply their essence, their very being, is lighthearted and being in their presence will bring you the lightheartedness.

Thus, the issue of being lighthearted is one that is part of the growth process, and if you have those around you who are very serious, there are reasons for that. They either have come to you for their own sense of balancing ~ to become lighthearted ~ or they have something to share with you for information in your own journey. So do not dismiss those who are serious around you, but rather to look for the cause for their being in your environment, and you in theirs. Remember it is mutual ~ it is a group activity.

Sometimes it is important to be serious to get a particular message across. There have been many times in our Public Sessions where we have been very, very serious, for the attention needed to be focused on the information being given. Then, before we departed, either WE lightened up the environment or Farena came in and lightened up the environment. So, do not dismiss seriousness, but also, do not allow seriousness to impinge upon your own energy of lightheartedness. If you feel that it is, then bring yourself out of that environment in whatever way you can ~ through visualization or physically departing from that environment.

Does that answer your question?

Yes.

It is time for us to give closure to this gathering and to welcome all of you into our VIBRATION OF EMPOWERMENT. Some of you may choose to accept our invitation and some of you may choose not to ~ this is the way of the path. Some of you may bring others into the vibration ~ this is the way of the path. All who are meant to be in our vibration are here. Those who are not meant to be are not ~ that is wisdom from a very high source. ☺ ☺ We do not take ourselves seriously at all ~ you must understand that, and many of you do.

We are ready now, as the earth plane months continue, to unfold this Empowerment Series and to bring many of you into a level of understanding of Self and to share that guidance ~ to give you the information that may help you along that path and to share meditation techniques. We are looking forward to being in the vibration of many of you. Each workshop will focus on the particular topic and The Company member who goes along with that topic ~ along with our guidance. So, Jenjura and I will be your discussion leaders in the first workshop.

We are ready to depart. Are you ready to depart?

Yep!

That was a trick question. You cannot depart yet. We can depart ~ you cannot. You still have work to do.

We have been most pleased to have been in your vibration for this gathering, and we are pleased that you have accepted the invitation to be in this gathering. For those who we will see again ~ we will see you again! For those of you who we will not see again ~ we will not see you! 😊 😊

We send you a very calming energy to bring you into a sense of peace within Self as you finish your gathering with all in this wonderful energy. We send to you the very Highest of the White Light from the very Highest of The Kingdom of Amelius. Farewell.
