THE SEARCH FOR SELF, THE WEBBING EFFECT, WORKSHOP

Waith: We bring to you all the very Highest of the White Light from the very highest of The Kingdom of Amelius.

Thank you.

You are welcome. We thank you all for participating in this journey in THE SEARCH FOR SELF. You are, as they say on the earth plane, the charter participants and we are most pleased that you are part of this.

We would also, at the time of the break, be wanting to sign the books that you have, so you would have that wonderful little memento ~ the signature of Waith. Well into The New Illusion you may say that you have one of the ORIGINAL books, for Mushiba and The Metagers have replicated my signature in the form of a stamp ~ but, you will have the AUTHENTIC signature. ☺ ☺ You may even write next to it AUTHENTIC SIGNATURE OF WAITH. It would be most enjoyable to flaunt, as you would say.

In this discussion series that we have planned, each of The Company members will be a part of that which is presented, for they each have a particular mission in the Waith and Company journey and it will give you an opportunity to meet first hand and in some detail, then, each of The Company members.

So the first topic in THE SEARCH FOR SELF is The Webbing Effect. THE SEARCH FOR SELF has a very specific flow to it. And while you could certainly come to one of the discussions ~ or several of the discussions ~ and receive from IT the information that you need for those particular issues in your journey, in your path, being able to attend all of the discussions will give you a much greater understanding of the totality of the journey and THE SEARCH FOR SELF.

The searching for Self through Self is actually what this discussion is about, for there is nothing external to Self that can give you those answers. Each of the components that we have presented prior to these new series of workshops allow for an in depth look at particular components that make up the totality.

We hope that you will receive from this series the sense of levity that comes in THE SEARCH FOR SELF. Each of The Company members presents a particular type of balance in the totality of the journey. As well as the topic area, there is also the balance of lightheartedness and seriousness. As you all know, it is fine to be serious about your path, but it is also critical to be lighthearted at the same time ~ to not look at things in such a sense of dire seriousness. So we will give you ~ throughout this time ~ a lighthearted approach.

We want these gatherings to be comfortable for you and not for you to feel that you must be upright and you must be paying so strict attention. Part of our style is that you relax and that you enjoy, certainly, the food that has been provided. The chocolate, by the way, was our recipe actually. (Name given) fine-tuned our recipe. We gave the basic ingredients and the concept ~ it is important to do that ~ and she was able to bring much more polish to it. So, it has particular magic about it ~ if you eat it you become enlightened. You see how easy it is in a flash ~ just like that. Enlightenment is quite easy. You see an energy running over for her dose of enlightenment! ☺ ☺ (As someone heads for the refreshment table) Now all eyes can be focused on the energy to see, after one mouthful, what actually occurs ~ is there suddenly a glow of white light all around her that now says she has found The Truth.

The truth about chocolate.

The truth about chocolate, yes. There is a training ground devoted entirely to candy, and chocolate is one of these ~ The Candy Planet. It, too, has its issues that would be interesting to observe, for some of you.

So, as we will present each of the sessions with you, we will bring you into a sense of relaxation and a sense of feeling that you are all part of this same gathering. So while you are eating ~ you need not stop that, we see the munching away occurring ~ we are going to give you a very slight type of exercise for meditation that can, on one hand, bring you into a quietness within Self without having to go through all of the Ohm ~ and be in a particular position ~ and have the candles glowing ~ type of thing. We will show you the balance.

Being on the earth plane is a particular type of training ground that requires the ability to balance between that which is the abstract and that which is the concrete ~ or the non abstract. The ability to be going about in your daily activities with that sense of balance is what it is all about. Often, you are not able to stop what you are doing in mid-stream and go into a meditative state. It may not be convenient. You may find that others would look at you rather strangely ~ stranger than they look at you already. ☺ ☺ You would then begin to feel a bit of unbalance. We give you, then, a very easy technique that will allow you to continue doing what you are doing without having to make any major changes in your position. You could be in a meeting in the place of employment ~ you could be talking face to face with an entity ~ and still be able to use this technique without their being the sense of you going off into La La Land. So it is quite easy.

You are now all seated, are you not?

Yes.

Good ~ one who does respond to a question. You are all seated and you are paying attention somewhat ~ to me, somewhat. Quite typical that you might be in a meeting and you are listening and you have to take notes, for you will be tested at the end of the meeting on the information that you have received. Thus, you cannot drift away and yet you are feeling very tense. You are feeling the room, perhaps, is not what you want it to be ~ you are feeling that it is a bit out of balance for Self.

TECHNIQUE ~

All that you do, then, is to take one hand ~ it could be the right or the left hand ~ take one hand and simply place it on the opposite shoulder. It could be the right or the left hand.

Do this now. Place one hand on the opposite shoulder and simply pretend that you are scratching this shoulder ~ ever so slightly, you are scratching the shoulder.

What you are doing, however, is sending a thought form that says LIGHT, LIGHT.

The light, then, is sent throughout the encasement and you are visualizing LIGHT, LIGHT.

You scratch your shoulder and then you take your hand down.

You are not disrupting anything. You are certainly not drawing attention to yourself for when you scratch your shoulder, this is common behavior.

Use the opposite shoulder to the hand, however, for this enables the flow of your own energy to come from one source ~ the fingers ~ to the opposite part of the encasement. This then allows the flow of energy to go throughout the encasement, for you have sent it in the opposite direction to which it is coming from. And that is all that you need to do.

You can do this as many times as you wish. You can go to the other shoulder. No one is going to really pay much attention to this, unless of course you go continuously and you scratch your shoulder and you begin to make a big deal about this.

You know, this is a very gentle type of situation. You can be meeting one on one with another and simply do this with your shoulders. It looks as if you are scratching but, in fact, you are caressing your own energy field.

The moment that you do this, it then allows you to refocus and ever so slightly take yourself out of the heaviness you are feeling in this particular meeting or environment or group of entities. Then, it allows you to refocus upon your own lightness and to bring your encasement into a sense of fluidity ~ quite an easy technique.

Are there any questions about this little technique?

Does it only work shoulder to shoulder?

What other area would you like it to work on? You could certainly touch any other parts of the encasement, but you may draw more attention to that if you were to utilize that particular portion of the encasement. 😊 😊

Every time we go through that motion, then that's a new burst of energy?

Yes, it is.

Great. No limit.

No limits at all! There are never any limits on the amount of energy that you can burst into Self. Light ~ the availability of it ~ is limitless. A more advanced portion of this technique would also entail calling upon the Angelic Protector to also come in and give you a bit of a burst. However, for some of you, that may be too much to be doing in one particular time frame. Thus, to go quickly to the shoulder is what you would do ~ rejuvenation on a regular basis.

Are there any other questions about this technique?

Can we do both at the same time or is it better to do one?

You certainly could do both ~ if you are in a situation where doing that would not draw attention to you. The technique we give is meant to be subtle so you are not having others suddenly stop what they are doing to look at what you are doing. Of course, if the way you present it is normal for you, then of course no one would be stopping to look at what you are doing. You can utilize this technique when you are driving in your automobile ~ if you want a quick burst of energy. We would not advise that you use both hands when you are in this situation. 😊 😊

Other questions about this particular technique?

Any particular visualization that would help it?

Light ~ whatever light is to you ~ it is a burst, it is a sparkle, it is smoothness ~ whatever you visualize light as being. As we sense the energy coming from this field here ~ the sparkling light, as we would sense it ~ is one form of light visualization. (Waith refers to a plant with a string of white lights wrapping it) You could visualize it as smooth movement. You could visualize it as fluffy. You could visualize it in whatever is appropriate for your visualizations.

The focus in all of our teachings is that you find that which is appropriate for Self through meditation ~ the way that feels appropriate for each of you, rather than some particular way as determined by another. So, visualizations can be quite custom in their design. Others may find a particular technique of the candlelight as a good way to visualize light. It depends on your own desires and what feels comfortable for you.

Other questions?

My feeling is that what is really important is to stop oneself in that moment and to just call upon and bring the higher dimensions in.

Yes, if you are able to do that. We give the concrete and the abstract in our examples. The concrete is the touching ~ and for most who would be employing this, there is the need for some type of concrete reinforcement ~ for others you may find that you need not even employ this technique. If you do not need to bring the touch to the shoulder, it is possible that you have already achieved the abilities to bring balance into your environment. For most, however, there is a need for a concrete reinforcement.

Sometimes, you know, you can get so caught up in the earth plane ~ as Mushiba calls it, it is an earth planey day ~ and it gets very, very concrete. Mushiba even will use concreteness to help stop her in the midst of what might appear to be the pulling in of the energy. The earth plane is meant to be that way. It is set up to drag you into mire sometimes. So, when you are feeling all very light and happy and wonderful, it is generally quite easy to say, "Ah, I have balance ~ I bring myself back into balance." Sometimes, it is difficult ~ even for the most advanced of entities in the ability to visualize. So, if Mushiba finds concreteness very useful, then we would recommend that you also think in those terms when you need that concreteness. Earth planey days ~ especially in this what we know as a busy time on the earth plane for activities ~ can catch up with you.

In the journey of THE SEARCH FOR SELF, it is all right to use concreteness. We recommend concreteness to bring you into that abstract and at the same time, to allow the abstract to come into the concrete. We counsel all in the use of the balance. You do not want to be in the abstract all of the time ~ in this La La Land. We understand that some of you lost a little track of time, as you measure it on the plane ~ this is part of the joy of living on the plane, you see, to be in the abstract.

The daylight savings group! (Some were an hour early because they did not change their clocks for day light savings time)

The daylight savings group! But you see, it was a group ~ it was not just one. So you can see that it is all right to lose track of time, but it also has its consequences, you see, and this is the concrete. And, this is why it is not good to be so grounded all the time that you do not understand the higher purpose. And, it is not all right, also, in the long term for you to be in such abstractness that you are not plugged into the groundedness ~ it is the fine balance.

Many of you have lifetime after lifetime after lifetime~ that is part of a string of lifetimes in which you are completely in the abstract ~ you never have real groundedness in a lifetime. And then you have a string of lifetimes in which you are completely in the groundedness ~ not able to be in the abstract. Then, gradually, your lifetimes will bring in more balance of the abstract and the concrete. This is an important component in THE SEARCH FOR SELF. What you are searching for in your meditations is where you are in your own balancing.

If you are in a lifetime of complete groundedness, you would not be listening to our words ~ they would have no meaning. You would have no attraction to our words. So the mere idea that you are listening to our words means that you are in some way attempting to bring the balance into the abstract and the concrete. You may be very much in the abstract, which would bring you to hear our words. It is a given that you each are attempting to balance abstract and concrete in this particular lifetime.

So THE SEARCH FOR SELF through meditation means, then, for you to find where you are in this balance. In order to do this, we start with the very basic concept in THE SEARCH FOR SELF and that involves what we refer to as The Webbing Effect. For who is each of you? Who is each of us? We are extensions of energy ~ which are extensions of energy, which are extensions of energy, which are extensions of energy. You know not where you are in your positioning outside of The Universal Consciousness.

Jenjura is charged in Waith and Company in what we refer to as The Librarian. He is the one who goes to this computer in The Universe. It is the record maintenance where all of the information is stored about all entities. You each have the ability to go to this computer. However, as in any good type of organizing ~ and The Universe is a very organized energy ~ you give, then, to certain entities certain power to be the one to gather the information to bring to you in your meditations. Eventually, you will be able to go directly to that highest of high sources for the information. But until you have developed those skills ~ and that takes lifetime after lifetime after lifetime ~ you use intermediaries. We are an intermediary for that particular journey ~ we simply give you information. We do not give you the answers ~ we give you the information that you seek.

Jenjura, in Waith and Company, is the Emissary for the emissaries, if you will. So when you ask a question, there is often a need for him to go into that bank of information for any of us in The Company to answer your question ~ for you are so webbed in your energy that it is difficult at times to immediately respond to a question because of all of these webbings. Now, Jenjura will be entering soon to give you a bit of a discussion on The Webbing.

In the book you have been given, this is the beginning of the information. With each session there will be additional information given. You have The Webbing Effect that was given during our final year of Public Sessions ~ The Webbing Effect as a concept and The Webbing Effect as a meditation technique. What we give you is supplemental to that information. We will not repeat that information, for what we give you now will simply fill in some of the information that is already in the printed word.

Jenjura then will give you additional information. He will also give you an additional meditation technique to help you in going through the energy fields of Self and eventually giving you the ability ~ whether it is in this lifetime or a future lifetime ~ to go directly to the source of all the information, which is something higher than your soul.

Your soul contains all the information that it needs for this particular training ground journey. Additional information of other journeys that you have had in other training grounds is housed in The Universal Consciousness ~ easily accessible to you, to your soul. But the Soul does not house ALL of the knowledge of ALL of your journeys as an energy form for it would get too crowded ~ a joke ~ you are SO serious. How could the Soul get crowded, you might want to ask. That seems almost a contradiction in terms ~ if it has no boundaries, how can it get crowded? Does anyone know the answer to that?

If it's open it can't get crowded.

But we have just said that it gets crowded.

You lied!!

Lied? An Archangel lie? 😊😊 Stretch the truth a bit.

In our consciousness certain things are not necessary for daily operation and we just do not go there unless we really need to.

Well, you know The Universe likes things to be kept in order and there are levels of awareness ~ that means layers of information. Some are important to have easily and quickly available. Others are not needed and so they are placed in storage ~ and you have different levels of storage, do you not? Many of you are organized to the point where you would have different levels of storage ~ long term storage, short term storage, immediate storage.

So the Soul houses the information that is necessary for the current sojourn that an entity happens to be on. The other information is put into long term storage ~ easily accessible but certainly not needed to fill the level of awareness ~ so that you would not pull out information that was superfluous to the journey at that particular time. However, this is something that can be done ~ you can pull out superfluous information, something that is fun to know but, perhaps, not all that necessary and may delay you a bit in your journey. Ultimately, of course, that is all right.

However, energies like to be organized. Some of you at this level eschew that particular concept. ☺ ☺ Others of you personify that particular concept. Understand that at the very highest of the running of The Universe is organization. And because of that it allows any entity, at any point in their path, to be completely disorganized, for there is the sense of the HIGHER bringing in the organizing ~ it is what makes The Webbing Effect so interesting.

So, then, we bring in for you Jenjura, who will give you some insights into what he does concerning The Webbing Effect. He is the one you might want to call upon in your focusing and in your meditations to learn more about your own Web. We will return shortly.

Jenjura: We greet you all.

Thank you.

Jenjura: We are most pleased to be here. We are rather shy as an energy. We have been relegated to the stacks of the library and do not come into the public arena all that often, but we are most pleased to perhaps share with you some of the insights we have relating to The Webbing of Self.

We go to each of you in greeting ~ and enlightenment apparently has found itself in the corner ☺ ☺ ~ it was Waith's recipe. (Jenjura refers to the chocolate dessert) We simply become reacquainted with each energy and simply a smoothing of energy as we give you our greeting. What we are able to do with this very brief scanning of energy is now pull your record from The Universal Consciousness. It does not make it smooth, by any means, but we simply have pulled it from the files. You are each able to do this ~ eventually ~ ultimately.

Let us look a bit at this thing called The Web of Self. Think of The Universal Consciousness as a ball. (See Illustration A at the end of this transcript) This is The Universal Consciousness ~ The UC, as we would refer to it. The Universal Consciousness is made up of all energies. Out of The Universal Consciousness comes energies that are referred to as Lead Energies. The Lead Energies, for any particular illusion of The Universal Consciousness, are the ones that sprout off other energies.

This particular illusion that is currently playing itself out of The Universal Consciousness has given out five Lead Energies. Out of the Lead Energies, then, come all other energy forms. Energies beget energies which beget energies ~ remembering we are all part of one energy. But yet, we now begin to split in an organized manner from this one energy. This splitting enables us then to develop an identity, to develop a personality. We take that identity with us throughout our journey outside of The Universal Consciousness.

Let us take one particular energy line and track it a bit. (See Illustration B at the end of this transcript) Let us take this energy out of the Lead, and we are saying then that this energy out of the Lead has split. When we say an energy has split, what does that mean?

It has divided to make new energies.

Jenjura: It has divided to make new energies. It is on the earth plane, so often, referred to as twin flames or twin energies. It is the same energy, but now it has split. A soul consciousness is given to each of those energies. It is a separate soul consciousness from that which is The Universal Consciousness and yet it is the same soul consciousness as The UC. This then is split ~ for simplicity we say twice. It is a twin, not a triplet, not a quadruplet ~ it is a twin.

You, then, have a new soul consciousness. So, we take the twin, and the twin then splits. So, the twin now has twins ~ could even have triplets, quadruplets, quintuplets, sextuplets, etc. Those, then, have the ability, each of them, to split into twins, triplets, etc. ~ which have the ability to split into twins, triplets, twins, triplets, etc. Do you see how this tracking occurs? Splits.

So if all an energy form did was split ~ different soul consciousness ~ this is how all of the energies develop ~ it is infinite. The ability to split is infinite. One energy line can split infinitely. We could not even give you a number, for that would be linear in its interpretation. Now then, this begins to show a part of what we call this Webbing Effect. You, as an energy, are somewhere in this particular chain of events. Remember that there are five Lead Energies ~ but infinite numbers of energies able to split.

Is there a significance to the five? Do they have different names or something?

Jenjura: The only significance is, it was a number chosen for the sense of order for this particular running through of the illusions outside of The Universal Consciousness. At other runnings through of illusions, there have been fewer than five and there have been more than five. There have been, in the scheme of things, as many as ten or fifteen Lead Energies and as few as two Lead Energies ~ remembering that it is eternity that we speak of. What you deal with then is your frame of reference for NOW. You are outside of The One ~ you are all part of this particular illusion of energy splitting. So there is no significance that five was a particular magic number, as you might say.

Each of these five Lead Energies are responsible to a higher source that is the intermediary between The Universal Consciousness and the Lead Energy. You have heard my reference to Amelius. Amelius is one of those intermediaries who serves between The Universal Consciousness and the Lead Energy. And so there are five energies, or, as we say, five who lead The Universe ~ and Amelius is one of them. It then becomes what we refer to as five kingdoms. Each of you is a line into one of these five kingdoms. You all coexist within the kingdoms. It is simply given for order's sake, and not for discriminatory issues. So all of you gathered here come from different kingdoms. You do not all come from The Kingdom of Amelius ~ nor do you have to. It is simply a way of ordering.

Then, we have the splitting. This is where the fun comes in, for the splits can have, what is referred to as, lifelines. (See Illustration C at the end of this transcript) So we have splits, which occur first ~ the splitting occurs first. And for each split ~ for each energy that exists ~ are what we call lifelines. A lifeline also has a soul consciousness, but it is directly connected to the split.

Generally, a lifeline is given a particular job to do for its dominant energy line. It does not have the same type of mission as its dominant energy line. It is simply a split of a split. We will reiterate. A split is the dominant energy line. The lifeline is a sprout from a particular split. Lifelines do not split. This is one of the major distinctions. A lifeline does not split ~ only an energy line splits. You are ~ as a lifeline, then ~ part of the totality of the mission of a particular energy line.

Energy lines sometimes do not choose to do lifelines. They simply want to take on their journey in and of themselves. Other times, a split or an energy line wants to have as much help as it can ~ and thus it sends out its own little worker bees ~ as you might call it ~ with a soul that is a part of the energy line. So here is ~ in this diagram ~ an energy line ~ and lifelines. (See Illustration D at the end of this transcript) A lifeline is no less in importance than an energy line. An energy line is not superior to a lifeline. A lifeline is not inferior to an energy line ~ for a lifeline is a part of the energy line. It is simply given out as little jobs to do. The energy line has its job ~ its main job. A lifeline takes on one particular task and could be appearing simultaneously with the energy line in a particular lifetime ~ this happens quite frequently.

Twenty five percent, approximately, of energy lines take on lifelines ~ so it is not a high percentage. Taking on a lifeline ~ while it does speed up the process of finishing the work outside of The Universal Consciousness ~ places an energy into such an accelerated mode that it sometimes can create what you would call burnout. Most energies do not feel the need to bring themselves into such an accelerated path. Or, they may say, "I'll take on one or two lifelines."

The largest number of lifelines that we allow is ten. There are some entities among you who have taken on ten lifelines. All of their lifelines are working in different dimensions ~ some of which are in this dimension with you, but you may never know them at a concrete level. In fact, it is generally not a good idea to know that it is a lifeline with whom you are dealing. When it is known, it brings about wonderful issues of ego ~ you can imagine that.

What does this have to do with The Webbing Effect? Well, think about this. Where exactly are YOU as an energy? It does not matter WHERE you are. What matters is that you have particular work to do ~ wherever you are in the scheme of all of this. The Webbing Effect means that you are attempting to find your way back to The Universal Consciousness. And each time one of the energy lines completes its work, it merges back into the energy line that it came from ~ that is what it is all about.

You, as an individual energy, when finished with your journey, do not just go running back into The Universal Consciousness ~ it would be chaotic, for we would have all of these energies trying to merge at once. It could not happen ~ it has not happened in eternity. Instead, it is a very orderly process by which if you are a lifeline, you finish the work ~ you go back into your energy line.

If your energy line has finished its job ~ all the lifelines have finished and have all merged back into that oneness ~ the energy line then has the consciousness of all of its lifelines. It is now stronger and may decide that it is time to merge back into ITS energy line. Or it may, before merging, do a bit more work. But it has all of the strength of the lifelines that it sent out. When it is time for IT to move back into ITS source, it merges into that energy line. And when THAT energy line has taken all of its lifelines ~ if it has any ~ and has finished all of its work ~ it then merges into ITS energy line.

Eventually all of these merge back until we are back and are left with a pretty small group of energies. The Lead Energy says, "Work is done." And, the Lead Energy then goes back into The Universal Consciousness and that particular game is over. Everyone has merged back into The Universal Consciousness. Then it is time to come back out and do it all over again ~ and we do ~ this is a basic concept. There are shortcuts and there are qualifiers. This is the basic way in which energy moves out of The Universal Consciousness and back in to The Universal Consciousness.

There is the discussion of The Energy Circle which comes into this particular concept ~ which adds even further complexity to your own Webbing Effect. Each energy line has a whole group of energies around it ~ it being part of an Energy Circle that comprises all different types of kingdoms. In this sense we use the word kingdom to represent different encasements that are taken on ~ The Human Kingdom being only one of many millions of encasements that house energy.

An Energy Circle is composed of a selected group of energies that travel with each other from one training ground to the next. A particular energy line that is connected ~ as you see, we can track this back to the Lead Energy ~ can have as its own destiny a very short time or a very long time. (See Illustration E at the end of this transcript) So the Lead Energy may only call back one particular energy line ~ sort of like taking a thread that makes up the canvas and pulling it. It is part of the whole and yet it is separate. And it can be pulled all the way through and taken out ~ and in this case put back into The Universal Consciousness. The Universe then simply closes up that space. So at any point in time, your energy line can, in fact, move very quickly back to The Universal Consciousness. But it must be done in conjunction with all involved in The Energy Circle.

Waith mentioned many, many times ago what he referred to as the abort button that ~ no matter where you were outside of The Universal Consciousness ~ if you wanted to forget it all and go back to The Universal Consciousness, all you had to do was hit this abort button, say "I want to go back." It is all an illusion anyway ~ all of this sense of order. However, everyone in The Energy Circle must agree. And, therein lies the challenge ~ therein lies the balancing.

So here we are, my loved ones, each of us a part of a greater web. You are all webbed within Self. You are all webbed within the scheme of The Universal Consciousness. Your journey is to clear your own path, to understand where you are in this webbing. That, then, will give you a sense of clarity of your own journey and clear the way for your soul to find its own path back. This can only be done within Self, and once you have done it within Self, you are able to reach out to a higher energy line.

Before we go any further, are there any questions?

Is it just an illusion that we are outside of The Universal Consciousness, because I always think that there is nowhere I could go where The Universal Consciousness is not. So I'm really not outside of it. It just feels like it, or I'm pretending that it is, but how can I leave something that I'm part of?

Jenjura: Ah, yes, it is the great illusion. The Universal Consciousness is an illusion ~ it has been set up that way. Each time there is Lead Energy reconfiguration, it means there has been a major change in the illusion. And part of the game of coming out of The Universal Consciousness ~ or forming concreteness ~ is to accept the illusion that we each are outside and separate, when in actuality, that is not the case. We are not outside and separate ~ we are all together and One.

So we are playing make believe.

Jenjura: We are playing make believe. However, as Waith has said so often, it gets so boring inside nothingness, doing nothing. We say very consciously, "Yes, I want to have the illusion ~ I want to have the belief that I am outside and separate and therefore have all of the toys to play with.

PLAYTIME ON THE EARTH PLANE, as Waith has given as information, discusses this enigma ~ almost. At any point in time ~ as you measure on the plane ~ you can stop the illusion *within your own Self and say, "That is it ~ there is no Energy Circle, there is no abort button, there is no lifeline, there is no energy line, there is no Lead Energy, there is no Universal Consciousness ~ I can go back to my source, now, without any repercussions."

Few do that, for you see, regardless of what level of awareness you have right now, ultimately, all of our levels of awareness are the same, for we come from the same source. There is no progression ~ there is no regression. There simply IS. And we have accepted the rules of the game, all of us. If you do not want to play the game anymore, you can leave ~ you can go back into The One. The One is the ultimate illusion ~ and it is an illusion ~ for our Oneness is nothingness and nothingness is an illusion. The illusion is nothingness.

It is boring to think that at the very highest of the levels, one must bring concreteness into the experiences. And that is what all of us do ~ not just each of you, listening now to the emissaries from Waith and Company. Waith and Company are illusions. Waith and Company are in the same situation as each of you. We are just in different training grounds. We are in a different dimension. That is all. We see things in a different way, just as you each see things in a different way from others around you because you have different levels of awareness than others around you ~ no better, no worse, simply different.

And so, given the fact that you have all bought the ticket and therefore have agreed to play by the rules, we present to you this rather concrete diagram that says to you, "Ah, here is something substantial into all of this that seems to make no sense." And yet, this being as ordered as it is, can be crumbled like that ~ with a thought form. And, why does it not get crumbled? Why do we continue to play by these rules?

It is fun to play the game.

Jenjura: Yes, it is fun to play the game, but who made the rules? All of us made the rules. They were not made by some external source that said, "I am the leader and I make the rules and you abide by them or else." They were made by The Universal Consciousness. The rules were made in The Universal Consciousness as an illusion and given to the Lead Energies as the ones responsible for initiating and controlling the flow. That is all that it is. It does not make them any better. It just means they have a really tough job trying to control the flow and help to set up illusion.

Imagine what it is like to keep the illusion going. It takes a great deal of energy ~ not only for the highest of the levels, but at every level of Self. It takes a great deal of energy to continue to believe that you are concrete. It takes a great deal of energy to believe all that goes on around you. Think about how exhausted you feel at the end of an earth planetary day. So much stimuli has come your way, and you have believed it and you have played it. You are exhausted. You have been playing. That is what you are supposed to be doing. That is the fun of it. Sometimes you are more exhausted than other times. It means you have played harder, you have believed harder ~ that is a good thing.

Does The Universal Consciousness serve as a buffer for us on this plane?

Jenjura: Oh, indeed ~ and on any of the planes. The belief in The Universal Consciousness as a concreteness is a commonality throughout all of the training grounds. The earth plane, being one of the more difficult of training grounds and a work training ground, has a different frame of reference for The Universal Consciousness. But every training ground has its frame of reference for this concept and it is the buffer for the belief system. It is where we say, "Ah, there is Utopia ~ once I'm able to return to The Universal Consciousness ~ that is my goal, that is what I seek ~ and it is the all good and it is the all wonderful." And yet it is the one that kicked us out in the first place.

Does that answer your question?

Yes. Thank you. At least I grabbed onto the right piece. I was trying to bring it all together and get a picture.

Jenjura: Oh, indeed. And it is part of the playing of the game, for each of you to have an understanding of what makes it real for YOU. Some of you may have a very instinctive understanding of this concept. Others of you may be seeing it for the first time, hearing it for the first time ~ and yet there is a ring of truth to it, saying, "Ah, that would explain this, that would explain that." Others of you may be in total confusion and fuzziness ~ and that is all right, for it is part of the journey.

Is there only one Universal Consciousness? There are so many solar systems. Do they all belong to that one?

Jenjura: Yes, indeed. Solar systems, as you know it from the earth plane perspective, are all considered what we would call training grounds, and they are all part of this Universal Consciousness. There are millions and millions and millions of training grounds. Some of them are concrete ~ planets and solar systems, as you would call them ~ that have not even been known to those on planet Earth that exist. They have very different ways of living, life forms, and yet there is the commonality of belief in the very highest of a source. They name it differently, depending on their language, depending on their belief systems ~ but all belief systems eventually, ultimately, have this goal of returning to the very highest of their source.

It could be called The Creative Source, it could be called The God, it could be called The Universal Consciousness. It has many, many names. Even within your own cultures that you know on the earth plane, think of the many different names it is given just within your own understandings. And, then extrapolate that into the many millions and millions of training grounds and other planets and their frames of reference. Then you begin to have an idea of the numbers of names that this concept is called.

Does that answer your question?

Yes.

The five Lead Energies ~ does that relate to the concept of the rays? I've heard there are seven rays.

Jenjura: One of the difficulties in giving information from any dimension into another is that certain frames of reference are used for the particular audience that a source of information gives. The frame of reference that you give ~ referring to rays ~ is given to particular audiences who would understand and identify with that particular concept. One of the missions of Waith and Company is to take the exclusionary language that so often exists on the earth plane now and bring it into a much more basic conceptual understanding. So referring to the rays ~ one of our jobs as The Librarian is to take the particular terminology and give the information to Waith so that he is able to translate it into a more common base of knowledge.

The question has been asked before regarding the rays. The rays are not referring to these particular entities. They are referring, however, to a particular dimension of understanding that each of these five Lead Energies has as its inherent level of understanding. Each of these five ~ be it the five in this time or ten in another time or two in another time ~ has rays of understanding. Rather than using the word RAYS, we would use the words LEVELS OF UNDERSTANDING that are a part of the job that they must do ~ that gives them a much higher overview of everything that is occurring at each of the levels of energy lines. So it is discussion for a more advanced session relating to energy which will be given ~ from our understanding from Waith ~ in the coming earth plane year. It would be an opportune time to discuss it even more ~ at a more advanced level.

This is a good question that you have brought into this discussion, for it sets the groundwork for the rays concept and the fact that each of the five then infiltrate certain energy that comes out of that ray effect into each of the energy lines. It is not quite as cut and dried as it has been presented on the earth plane ~ much more complex ~ and yet absolutely nothing to it.

When days get too earth planey, can we just choose to turn off the television?

Jenjura: Oh, indeed. Each energy has that ultimate choice.

And will you give us some suggestions?

Jenjura: How to turn it off! ☺ ☺ It depends upon whether you simply want to take yourself away from the situation, temporarily, or whether you want to zoom back to The U. C. ~ or whether you want to leave the life.

Some days there is just too much stimuli around and we have enough on our plate. I was just wondering about some ideas how we can, not change the channel, but just turn it off until the next thing.

Jenjura: You have on this television the mute button ~ you can visualize a mute button. Or, you could take the visualization of the plate and just scrape it off. Literally, take a plate and put things on it ~ at the very height of what you are feeling in the day ~ and as a concreteness say, "I scrape it off. And literally scrape it off and throw it into a garbage. That could work as one particular technique.

We are being given the word from Waith that it is time for a break, for you to stand and stretch and do whatever other bodily functions you may need. During the break time Waith will be in to sign your books and we will return with a meditation to help you in this Webbing Effect and to answer any more questions that you might have. We will be back with you soon. Waith will return now.

Waith: Well, my loves, Jenjura has given you quite a bit of information. We now are ready for the break time and the signing of your books. We will be seated here and one of The Metagers will alert you as to the time to return back into your positionings. So enjoy yourselves and I will great each of you.

BREAK TIME

Waith: You are all enjoying this food. When (Name given) makes this food, you see, there is a spirit from on high that enters into her encasement and it is the pookey-pookey that comes through and that is why the food is so good. ☺ ☺

Before we begin the final part of this gathering, are there questions from any of you regarding the information that has come through thus far?

When an illusion ends, the five Lead Energies ~ in this case for this illusion ~ will they incorporate into The Universal Consciousness in whatever form or process?

Yes, essentially. Understand that the end of an illusion ~ as we have been referring to it on the earth plane ~ and the beginning of a New Illusion, when the shifting occurs, is a short term illusion. The illusion that is currently projected for The Universal Consciousness with the five Lead Energies is a very long term illusion that oversees the illusion on the plane for many, many, many millions of earth plane years. What you would know as illusion change for these five would be millennia ~ that is the best way that could be described. So when this illusion changes, that you are currently in now, that does not mean that the illusion of these five changes also.

Indeed, these five remain constant and have been constant for ~ oh, perhaps as best as could be described, trillions and trillions of earth plane years and have quite a few more trillion of earth plane years before this particular illusion is over. The Lead Energies currently out, in control, must then take their place as the emissary. So before they can return back in, they must bring out another set of Lead Energies, and those Lead Energies ~ be they more or less ~ will be trained, as Amelius is training the Lead Energy that he is responsible for. So there is a great deal of time ~ all linear, of course, as you would refer to it, on the plane.

At the end of an illusion like we're experiencing over the next however many years it is, do the individuals complete lifetimes and energy lines in a way where things are kind of tidied up? If a lot of people leave the earth plane at the same time, it's not something to feel dismay about?

Oh, no, it is to feel great joy about, actually. Group departures are part of the balancing of groups ~ when those occur. And, as we have said so often, they are avoiding the rush at the end of this illusion ~ getting out sooner and therefore having a much easier time at the portal. They do not have to wait ~ it is like going during off time at the store. You get more attention from The Angelics. At the time of the shifting there will be so much attention needed by The Angelics that it will be like ~ come on through, come on through, come on through. Now, they can sit and chat a bit. That is the easiest way to respond to it.

At the end of an illusion ~ as currently is on the plane ~ prior to the New Illusion being started, there is accelerated opportunity for energy lines to do some merging. It does not mean that they necessarily merge back through the complete line into The Universal Consciousness. They, of course, can do that if they change their own illusion and create one that does not, as you say, buy into the illusion that is currently for The Mass Consciousness.

However, what you generally find is a great deal of cleaning up of loose ends. Many of you are in that process of cleaning up loose ends ~ whether it is for a series of lifetimes that you have been working through or it is, in actuality, the end of your sojourn on the earth plane. There are many currently on the plane who will be finishing their sojourn on the earth plane. And they choose to do that at the end of an illusion ~ and, indeed, are able to do that because of the acceleration that occurs for growth.

Yes, my love.

I was wondering how our ~ each individual ~ many lifetimes fit into the diagram?

Ah, that is The Webbing Effect. It does most indeed fit in and is on track. It is part of what Jenjura will address in his next component ~ the many, many lifetimes of a lifeline and of an energy line, which adds, really, that Webbing Effect. For you to simply have to work through energy lines and lifelines to find your way back and to learn information about Self is the easy part. It is all the lifetimes that the energy line ~ and the lifeline ~ has that interconnect that creates The Web. That is the working through that you will have ~ a preface to Jenjura's return.

Are there any other questions before Jenjura returns?

The different kingdoms of animals and plants and minerals and all the other realms, are they all interconnected? Are there different lines to different kingdoms?

Oh, indeed. It brings up many interesting discussions, for every energy line has the opportunity to go into as many of the kingdoms as it wants to. Depending upon what an energy line decides determines how many different kingdoms it has in its own energy line. There is The Menu, remember, that you can choose from and in that each energy can choose as many different kingdoms as it wants to be a part of. Each energy line has its own set of kingdoms that it works with and then they all interconnect and it adds again to The Webbing Effect. Your lifetimes are not simply isolated as human encasements, but rather within all of the other kingdoms that you have chosen as your Energy Circle.

Does that answer your question for now?

Yes.

Jenjura will return with some additional information and a bit of a meditation for you. Then, we will return to close out the energy.

Jenjura: We have been most pleased that the question was raised about lifetimes, for, as Waith just indicated to you, to simply have lifelines and energy lines would simply not be confusing enough. ☺ ☺ You would say, "What is the big deal? What is this Webbing Effect? This is much too easy. Why are we all here talking about webs? It is really not that difficult, after all." Well, it really is not that difficult after all. However, to add the component that gives it the challenge, that gives it the reason for you to have to work through a web within your own ~ either lifeline or energy line ~ means that you must find the rhyme or reason of all the lifetimes you, as an energy, have had and will have. The question of whether there are other kingdoms involved also enters in, for you have your Energy Circle and in that Energy Circle are all of the members of other kingdoms that you have decided you want to be a part of.

Some of you may have an Energy Circle that is made up of five or six other kingdoms ~ animal, mineral, plant, the common ones you all know of. Some of you may have an Energy Circle that is made up of twenty five or thirty or fifty or even one hundred other kingdoms. It depends on what you wanted to do when you came out of The U.C. It does not make any one journey more difficult or less difficult than another ~ it simply makes it different from. This is a very important component to keep in mind. The difficulty level of any journey is measured only in DIFFERENCES ~ not in superiority or inferiority. This is part of the message that comes from Waith and Company.

You will hear spiritual elitists speaking about how wonderful they are ~ how they have evolved ~ they see auras ~ they are able to do this and that and the other thing. They make it appear that they are old souls and have done this, and they have done that, and attempt then to make others around them feel a bit inferior. Of course, you feel inferior only to the degree to which you allow it. We are here to say that every journey is difficult. They are just different from each other, and whether you have taken on a series of lives that require many, many, many incarnations or just a few incarnations, it still makes it difficult. That is part of being out of The One.

Now then, let us look at lifetimes. (See Illustration F at the end of this transcript) This is not a balloon ~ this is The U. C. in miniature. And, this is one of the energy lines that has come out of The U. C. ~ so this energy line could be any one of these lines at any point outside of The Universal Consciousness. Now, in this different colored ink I am going to show you what the impact of lifetimes is. Surrounding the energy line is an Energy Circle. The Energy Circle has taken on, let us say for example here, ten kingdoms. That means that there are ten spots open ~ there are ten spots in The Energy Circle.

The Energy Circle, then, decides WITHIN ITSELF the order in which lifetimes are going to occur for this particular energy line. There can be The Animal Kingdom, The Human Kingdom. Sometimes, this energy line, in its Energy Circle does not include The Human Kingdom. Do you find that interesting? The Human Kingdom is not the top of some pyramid. It is not the superior ~ it is simply one of many, many encasements that are formed. Let us say for argument's sake, The Human Kingdom is in there ~ The Mineral Kingdom, the air, the wind, water, fire, carpet. The carpet is a kingdom. It has a consciousness ~ it is an encasement for energy.

They are all there ~ they are sitting around and they draw straws. They say, all right, the first series of lifetimes will be in The Animal Kingdom ~ the second series will be in The Carpet Kingdom ~ the third series will be human ~ the fourth series will be mineral ~ the fifth series will be fire. There is no sense of moving from one lower level kingdom to a higher level kingdom ~ that is NOT what exists, for it is simply whatever order the straws are drawn.

Each then sets up the scenario of things that they want to learn ~ so they have their Toy Box. This is what is used as a concrete example of all the lessons you take on. You have your Toy Box. Each kingdom has decided what it wants to learn and it puts it all into the Toy Box. So as human, you are part of the cycle of your Energy Circle and you have many lives available to learn the lessons.

So, you start. You come out and you play with your things and you do your lifetimes. You have one, and then you have another, and then you have another, then you have another ~ you start to have all these lifetimes. Then, it is time to take on another kingdom. And you start getting crisscrossing effects ~ those are lifetimes. And then lifetimes that go this way and lifetimes that go this way and back again, going horizontal, vertical, crisscrossing. Before you know it, as an energy form, you have all these lifetimes as an energy line. Then, in the middle of all this, you have sent out lifelines. Each one of the kingdom members can also send out lifelines. Before you know it, your lifelines are overlapping with each other ~ you have this web. And like energy always does, it does not stay separate ~ it merges within itself, within its energy line.

So here you are. This becomes your greater field of energy ~ all of the lifetimes are encompassed. And here you are now as humans. You could be any other kingdom member wanting to find out where you are in the scheme of your own existence, but, as a human you are now saying, "Oh, I want to find out where I am in this particular maze. When I find out where I am in this particular maze, how do I start spreading it out, finding out how I am going to clear the way so that I get back to my initial Energy Circle and its clarity?" This is what the journey is about.

We have talked about past lives ~ that has been the focus ~ but we have future lives. What makes it so challenging is that on the earth plane you live in a linear equation ~ goes from beginning to end. But, the universal system is not linear ~ it is continuous ~ it is simultaneous. So you are living the future ~ as well as the present ~ as well as the past. But because you are living in a linear system now you only see it as present ~ right now happening. What has happened was in the past and what will happen is in the future ~ three very distinct separateness issues. But in looking at The Webbing Effect, in order to understand Self, you must look at the flow of it ~ and look at what your future holds for you, as well as what your past has held for you. This is the more advanced information that comes out of The Webbing Effect.

So here is the totality ~ this diagram shows the totality of Self. If you are at the end of your journey on the earth plane, it does not mean you are at the end of your journey ~ it just means you are at the end of your journey on the earth plane. There is much more to this web than might appear. But you are on the earth plane now and you are having to work through the life you have now and the understanding of what has brought you to this point now.

You understand that there is a higher purpose, there is a higher understanding. But what do you do right now? How do you deal with all that occurs on the plane in your lives now ~ the issues that are facing you? You certainly would not want to gain all of the information that is contained within the Soul Consciousness of Self ~ it would be far too overwhelming. Indeed, that is why there is only the conscious understanding available to Self at any given moment ~ the higher levels of understanding come only when needed.

However, it is the blockages of the webs ~ these other lifetimes, the energy that is left over from those lifetimes ~ that fill the Soul, that fill the being of Self.

Our mission in Waith and Company in THE SEARCH FOR SELF is to help you understand that, first of all, you have this web and, secondly, how to start to clear it. Most will not clear it in any single lifetime. Some of you already have a cleared web or the strands are not close together ~ you have stretched them a bit so that you are able to see, to be free. You have resolved all of the other lifetimes. The web means that you have unresolved issues from other lifetimes. And the future means that because of those unresolved issues you have the future ~ it all blends together. You are in a lifetime to dissolve the past and the future, for the future lifetimes will happen only if you are not able to resolve certain issues in this lifetime.

While it is simultaneous in terms of past, present and future, it is also linear, for you live within the illusion of time. It is that illusion of time that you must first deal with. If you are able to get rid of that, then you are able to deal with the larger issues of simultaneous. Most who hear the words of Waith and Company are struggling with that dissolving of the linear and that is what we are here to help you with.

We have a meditation for you.

TECHNIQUE ~

- Relax in a way that feels comfortable for you.
- If you begin to fall asleep, that is fine for remember that the sleep state is an altered state ~ and an altered state is a good state!
- Breathe slowly and deeply in a way that is comfortable for you ~ whether it is in through the mouth and out through the nose or in through the nose and out through the mouth, whichever way is comfortable.
- Call upon the very Highest of the White Light to surround and protect you.
- Call upon your Angelic Protector to surround and protect you.
- Relax your body ~ relax.
- Feel the white light of protection surrounding your encasement and making your encasement feel warm and safe.
- Visualize yourself in the middle of a wide open field ~ there is nothing to be seen for miles around ~ it is wide open and you are in the middle of it ~ there is nothing in your way ~ you are free and open.
- Visualize that you hug yourself, for you love and respect Self.
- As you are standing there, begin to see others coming toward you ~ they may be human, they may be animal, they may be any encasement, but they are coming toward you from all around, and they carry with them a white light ~ it is a ball of white light that each holds in their hand ~ they are walking now toward you ~ closer and closer.

- They are beginning to surround you ~ you are in the middle of a circle, surrounded by different encasements ~ all holding a ball of white light ~ they are asking you to join their circle now ~ and you say yes.
- Each of them gives you a part of the light from their ball of white light.
- You hold a newly formed ball of white light in your hand. It is the combination of all the encasements that surround you.
- You now take a place in the circle and form unity with the circle ~ you may not see the actual encasement ~ you may just see energy ~ it is the identity of your Energy Circle.

MEDITATION TIME ~

- Visualize taking the ball of white light in your hand and raising it over your head ~ Place it in your palm, over your head, and drop it over your head ~ feel it disperse white light over your entire being.
- You are now one with your Energy Circle.
- Begin to feel all of the other white light from the others, infusing throughout your being.
- It is beginning to feel and look like a very soft web ~ it covers you and it covers your Energy Circle.
- The white light is the representation of lifetimes that all have shared.
- It covers you now ~ feel its warmth ~ feel the security of lifetimes finished.
- In this small opening visualize the word soul ~ it is your soul ~ it is clear and open.
- Go to that opening and bring yourself into the opening and look around you ~ you are in the higher levels of Self, free and separate from The Energy Circle.
- Rest now and talk to the Soul ~ ask the Soul for the information you need to help you in this journey you take.

MEDITATION TIME ~

- Return back from the Soul, thanking the Soul for information.
- See the clarity ~ See the opening ~ know that the opening is always there for you, as it now begins to be clouded over with the web.
- The opening is now completely closed over ~ but always there for you, opened when needed to gain the information.

- Visualize that the web is dissolving into being ~ your being and the other beings in The Energy Circle ~ you are filled with your own webbing ~ it is part of you ~ able to be looked at whenever you need to.
- Slowly, the others in the circle begin to move away ~ leaving you once again standing alone in an open field.
- You have come together and now you part.
- You will come together again whenever you need to ~ you simply need to call them.
- They all move away ~ you are surrounded by nothingness.
- Hug yourself in your visualization, for you are not alone ~ you are separate ~ and you are not separate ~ or alone ~ you are both separate and non separate ~ alone and not alone.
- Return from your meditation, feeling stronger within Self ~ bringing back with you the Highest of the White Light and your Angelic Protector holding your hand.
- Return back into the conscious state ~ slowly return ~ slowly return.

Ah, you have all returned ~ mostly. This meditation, as you know, can be as long as you want it to be. We gave you an abbreviated form ~ but simply gave you the flow of it ~ the visualization. You can stay in each one of those areas for as long as you want to before moving on to the next part of the visualization.

You are all feeling at one with The U. C. ~ and yet separate. What did you find in your Energy Circles ~ any surprises?

No surprises in your Energy Circle? Perhaps you need to work more on finding your Energy Circle ~ and then you will find surprises. Some of you doing this meditation over and over again will find the connection with The Energy Circle ~ this is the intention, to bring you into that Energy Circle.

In the discussion of the Community Of Self, Frank will give you more relating to The Energy Circle. This is a prelude to that, for The Webbing Effect is just the introduction to The Community Of Self

Are there questions?

Ah, no questions for we are all so mellow. ☺ ☺ This is a good way to end ~ that you are mellow.

We are pleased to have been of service to you. Waith will return to give the conclusion. We send you the very whitest of light for your webbing journey.

Waith: We are most interested in the fact that some of you did see an Energy Circle that you are not even aware was your own Energy Circle. It will be a wonderful journey for some of you. As time progresses on the plane, you may be able to identify more with what came to you in this very brief meditation ~ for many of you were not expecting certain visualizations that came about.

What other final questions might any of you have relating to The Webbing or to THE SEARCH FOR SELF?

I seem to get tangled up here with the lifelines, and also on the concrete level, our own lifelines in terms of our children.

Oh, but children are not necessarily lifelines, my love. Indeed, you might be thinking of them in a way different from the definition we give to lifelines. They are certainly lines of life that have come from you. But for the most part, that who you produced is not a lifeline of Self. They may be energies very close to your energy line, but they are simply energies who have chosen ~ and you have agreed ~ to come through you. In many cases there is no obligation to them, or they to you. In some cases there is complete obligation on both ends ~ or just on one end.

The issue of children relates to lifetimes and the issues that go with balancing. When the discussion of The Community Of Self comes in for our next gathering in conjunction with Francis, then there will perhaps be more in that arena of discussion. But do not confuse children with being lifelines.

Does that address the question at this stage?

Yes. We are more like vehicles for the little entities to come.

Yes, much better to view it from that perspective, simply as the particular vehicle, rather than some monumental connection.

So it's no further flow or extension of energy?

Generally, no. It is rare that an energy line would give birth to its own lifeline. It is not to say it has not happened, but only under certain circumstances and with energies who have a very high level of understanding of the implications of that. From an energy perspective ~ not to mention from the psychological perspective of the concrete ~ thinking that you have given birth to yourself. That is, in essence, what it is.

Okay.

Yes, my love. (Waith acknowledges another question)

Am I to understand that the more one is to meditate, the easier it is to communicate with other entities in the circle?

It is certainly one of the techniques that you can utilize. There are many energies who find their own way of connecting with their Energy Circle. There are, however, the techniques given ~ such as we have just done ~ to start you on the way to find your own way. Most energies will find if they have a beginning ~ concrete meditation ~ they can use that for a bit and then they begin to modify it as they use it and they have a greater sense of what it can and cannot do.

As you begin to receive answers from your own Self, you hear the ways to modify it. Perhaps, one or two earth plane years from now you would be using the concept, but it looks entirely different. You need to start somewhere, and this is one of the techniques that could help you in that journey. Certainly, the more you use it, the more you are able to bring it about and have the experience of understanding.

So there is quite a good chance that you will get caught in your own web? 😊😊

Yes!

Any rescue squad? 😊😊

Oh, yes! You can visualize when a fly gets caught in a web. The little feet are there and it is going, "Help me! Help Me!"

That is the cosmic rescue squad.

That is exactly it, my love. That is what The Angelic Protectors are about ~ that is what the guides are about ~ that is what we have talked of for so long. You need only to say, "Help me! Help Me!" for we all get caught in the web ~ even the highest of awarenesses gets caught in its own web on occasion. The Angelic Force is there primarily to help unstuck you ~ so that you are not caught in the web but rather trying to maneuver your way through the web.

No one is forgotten.

Not in the long run. There may be lapses in memory, but eventually you are found ~ it could be several eternities, but you are found.

How do we know if, when meditating, we've received the answer, or if we are on the way to getting the answer? Sometimes it seems like it is relating but it could be something else.

This is the eternal question ~ and not easily answered in a sentence or two, and yet quite easily answered by simply saying you will know when it is the right answer. But reaching that point is, indeed, the reason why we are here ~ why many emissaries are here to assist you in knowing when you have reached that point. Talking with others helps, saying, "You know this feels like an answer." Or, you can actually work it out in concrete ~ what you received as an answer and seeing how it feels. Does it feel right? If there is any sense that it does not feel right, then it probably is incomplete in its resolution ~ not necessarily wrong, but maybe incomplete.

The issue of information coming from the darkness is part of the overall view that one must challenge them ~ the information. This will come through as we present the information in this series ~ in THE SEARCH FOR SELF. You will begin to have an interconnectedness of all the components to help you answer that very question. Ultimately, it is only the Self who can answer that question. We can guide you in terms of whether you are on the right track. We hesitate to say, "That is right" or "That is wrong." We could, but we have not found that to be an advantageous position.

I have a question of Self. It is a tremendous undertaking, I guess, but as we are in The One, do we know ourselves as a Self within The One or do we only become Self by leaving The One?

Outside of The One ~ outside of The Universal Consciousness ~ there is identity. There is the sense of Self. There is no Self in The Universal Consciousness ~ that is why it is so boring. Everyone is the same. Everybody thinks and acts the same ~ very boring.

But in our own journey now, let's say we trace ourselves back ~ lifelines and so forth. That who we identify with as Self changes thereby?

Yes, it does ~ with each energy line.

With each energy line we go, "Oops that was me, too." So we just kind of gather back what was all us ~ what we splashed out.

That is exactly it, yes. That is why you reinvent ~ as you might say on the earth plane ~ you reinvent yourself.

So as we go into meditation, the Circle Of Self can be different because each time we may have traced back to another point.

Yes, indeed. So your Energy Circle changes as you move from one level of energy line to another level of energy line. You can gain that knowledge through meditation. You may not, in a particular dimension, in this lifetime, move into the higher levels of Self. However, you can certainly gain access to that knowledge of what those levels are and what you have to work toward. When there is Higher Self merging ~ which we have addressed, and works on a regular basis ~ and there are very large infusions of Higher Self, then you have an altered view of the world around you and an entirely different energy grouping around you to work with. But Francis will address this in greater detail in our next meeting with you.

Is there sex in The Universal Consciousness? I know the answer is no because everybody is the same, right? 😊😊

Well, no, it gives new meaning to being with Self. 😊😊

Boring ~ that's why everybody leaves. 😊😊

Not necessarily. There could be situations when playing with Self takes on a very different meaning ~ but we will not travel that road.

Humor and lightheartedness are very critical.

It is time for us to depart now.

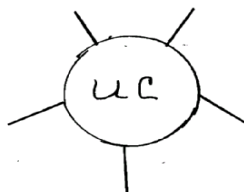

You each have an understanding of The Webbing Effect at what we call the Initiator Level. You have been initiated into the concept of The Webbing Effect. As we begin to give more advanced information in the earth plane years to come, we will present different levels of understanding that go beyond this Initiator Level. We are very pleased that you have been a part of this. You have provided most interesting questions that will be beneficial to others who study at the Initiator Level. So we thank you for your participation in that and the others in The Company also thank you and give you the very Highest of the Blessings from each of their realms.

We now depart, giving you all the very Highest of the White Light from the very Highest of The Kingdom of Amelius. Farewell.
