PUBLIC SESSION ~ OPEN QUESTIONS ~ GENDER HARMONY ~ THE NEW ILLUSION ~ THE PYRAMIDS
AND THE BUILDERS IN THE NEW ILLUSION ~ DEVELOPING ONE'S OWN TRUTH

Waith: We bring to you all the very Highest of the White Light from the very Highest of the Kingdom of Amelius. Greetings!

Hello!

It is a fine gathering that has come together. We are very pleased at the assortment of energies that find themselves here! And we are, of course, pleased that you have heard the beckoning that has come from the higher sources in The Universe to bring you to, at least, hear some of the information that you are needing to hear at some level of Self. And we are here to be of that kind of service. For those of you who are new to our environment here, at least in the concrete ~ many of you have been acquainted with us in other dimensions ~ we would indicate to you that our mission through Mushiba and through The Community of Terra Lux is to be a provider of information.

We are here in a twofold mission currently. That is, first, to help in preparing for the coming Earth's changes that will bring this Illusion currently existing into transition and into what we call The New Illusion. Oftentimes on the plane now it is referred to as The Shift of the Earth's axis. We are here to help in those preparations for the transition, and then we will be here after that transition to continue in our mission, which primarily is to help entities to find their answers within Self.

We are not here to give you predictions for the future ~ we are not the fortuneteller. We certainly are able to do that, but that is not what our path is about. There are others on the plane who have taken that on as part of their learning and so be it. We are here to be of guidance. We like to have interaction when we come into a gathering. So we will not be doing all of the talking, if you will. We will, in many cases, help you to form your question mentally. You may not be aware that we are helping you form your question, but we will do that so that there can be an exchange of information.

You are all looking at us with great expectation. Perhaps we should be performing some kind of trick! ☺ ☺ This is not part of what we are here to do. We are not here to be the magician type of component that you might sometimes think of. We are not here playing a capricious kind of activity. We are in this for the long term, as you might call it, through Mushiba, and there has been tremendous preparation efforts made in the early years of our time through Mushiba that would not have been done unless there was going to be a commitment on both parts ~ hers and ours.

We often, by the way, refer to ourselves in the plural. Sometimes we will use the word I, but generally it is in the plural, so that if you are wondering who we are when we use the word we, it is I ~ it is the Universal type of nomenclature. With us are six others who are in varying stages of development in their own path and each serve a particular component of the mission in what we refer to as THE SEARCH FOR SELF.

THE SEARCH FOR SELF is where the material of Waith ~ us, is placed into certifiable categories ~ very certifiable ~ where levels of awareness of the Waith material can be achieved. There are six components to THE SEARCH FOR SELF, and each of the six in The Company ~ Waith and Company is our name ~ are responsible then for a particular discussion. There is The Webbing Effect, The Community of Self, The Healing of Self, Gender Harmony, Lightheartedness. Actually, the lightheartedness component, which is staffed by Farena, is considered, from our perspective of hospitality, the entity who provides the lightheartedness and frivolity that is so needed. Farena will be visiting you in a moment to say hello ~ she is the Ambassador, if you will, of the Waith and Company grouping.

We come here with the mission of seriousness and lightheartedness. We are very much concerned that entities currently on the earth plane take themselves much too seriously and that there is not enough lightheartedness ~ there is not enough play in your lives. And so, we are actually quite irreverent. We take what we do very seriously ~ our mission we take seriously ~ however, we do not take ourselves seriously at all. And Farena is the one who comes in to show the exaggeration, sometimes, of lightheartedness ~ we oftentimes call her Miss Fluffball.

Each of the other energies in Waith and Company have very distinct personalities, if you will, and each have their own purpose in disseminating information. And so, in THE SEARCH FOR SELF as a study component of the Waith material, there is exposure to the others in The Company. On occasion, one or two or several of them will enter in just to say hello.

Farena is ready to come in and say hello. Usually it is rather difficult to stop her because she becomes very excited and wants to greet and fluff the environment. And generally, when there is a gathering such as we have here ~ where you are all looking very intently at this Spook and saying, "All right, what is he all about?" You become very serious about this. Farena will come in and immediately change that environment. She has that energy that enables her to do that. So she will visit for a bit and then we will return to give you more information and to have a discussion, if you will.

Farena: Hiii! Hiii! Hiii! Fluffy! Fluffy! Hiii! ☺ ☺ ☺ Look what Mushiba got for me! My color is purple and I like fluffy! (Farena is wearing a purple feather boa) So I helped her find this because she was not going to go look for it unless I did! And we found it and it is the way I am going to fluff everybody tonight. It is night, is it not? Say yes! ☺ ☺ ☺

Yes!

Farena: Fluffy! Fluffy, fluffy, fluffy! Fluffy! Who is the lucky one who gets the feather? (A feather falls off the boa and someone picks it up) Fluffy! Fluffy! What is the cosmic reason that you have the feather, my love?

Just because.

Farena: Just because can be a reason! Just because! Fluffy, fluffy, fluffy, fluffy, fluffy, fluffy! Fluffy, fluffy! Fluffy, fluffy! Fluffy, fluffy! Fluffy, fluffy, fluffy! Come here! Fluffy! You're hiding! Fluffy! Fluffy! Fluffy, fluffy, fluffy! Fluffy, fluffy, fluffy! Fluffy, Fluffy! You get the final fluffy! Fluffy! And you, too! Fluffies! Ah-h! I am going to trip over everything ~ but that is okay because tripping is fun!

It's not your body! 😊😊

Farena: You have a point! 😊😊 That is all! I am going! I am going to leave this on, though, so when Waith comes back ~ 😊😊😊 Bye! See you all later! Fluffy, fluffy, fluffy! Fluffy! Fluffy, fluffy! Bye!

Waith: So now you have met Farena and she has indeed left the fluffy reminder. She indicated as she was leaving that this should be the recipient for the evening of fluffy. (Waith puts the feather boa around someone's neck) Yes indeed! When the evening is over the rule that Farena has established is that you then return it to her Harmony Basket. She generally favors bestowing the boa on a male encasement. Indeed!

So now then, this is an Open Session, which means that we like to respond to questions that you might have. They can be on any topic, as long as they are not personal. If you have personal concerns you can speak with us personally. The arrangements can be made through Terra Lux. So let us perhaps have a question.

If you believe in gender harmony, why do you have to take a specific gender? Why aren't you just a spirit with no gender assignment?

Actually, I am without gender. However ~ and this question has been posed in the past ~ the purpose is for presenting of illusion. Mushiba's encasement is female and purposely designed as to appear any way as a fluffy type of female encasement, and the perception that females are not particularly given serious attention for their opinions on the earth plane currently. We would then come in, in the illusion of male, to present a rather interesting contradiction.

And part of our mission in the preparation of The New Illusion is to bring about a smoothing of gender issues, for in The New Illusion the gender issues are very different then they are currently. And what is currently considered normal ~ and we highlight that quite emphatically ~ where it is opposite genders in relationships ~ will be the abnormal in The New Illusion.

We present ourselves as male within a female encasement to show that there is a, as best as we can use the language, bias, a stereotype and a prejudice that must be eradicated. And, as it currently exists on the plane, the male of the genders has more credibility than the female, whether you want to openly admit that. The female must work very diligently, much more so than the male, to achieve credibility simply from the stance of being male or female. And thus, we like the contradiction. We present a very strong male image, if you will. Mushiba, on first glance, presents what many would think is typical female. Of course, unless you start talking with her you realize quite a different situation. So we bring in the strength and the combination of the strength of Mushiba, and our strength brings about an ability to be nonjudgemental and smoothing out of gender differences.

There is also the issue that every energy has ~ what is called a dominant energy. For this particular training ground of the earth plane, there are two genders ~ male and female. In other training grounds there are other kinds of genders, more than two. Now, the interesting thing that happens when you journey out of The Universal Consciousness is that you want to take on the roles of the opposite gender and to know what it feels like to be male or female.

We often will make reference to the male encasement or the female encasement ~ for what you see is the gender. However, the energy encased may not be male or female. It may be the opposite. So that it may be that you, my love, are a female encasement but actually, may be ~ we do not give away any secrets here ~ a male dominant energy experiencing the female.

There are many issues currently on the earth plane where gender is concerned ~ of not feeling as if they are in their right encasement. You hear the quote, "Ah, I have always felt like I was a female but I am in a male body. " Or, vice versa. Well, that is exactly what it is! And, oftentimes, when an entity finds themselves feeling very upset that they are not in the encasement that they feel that they are, it is a general indication ~ and this is a general indication ~ that this is perhaps one of the first times that they have tried this switching. They are remembering that their experiences have been in the male or the female as gender, and this is new to them. And they may go through the life with that experience ~ never resolving it ~ but, at the end of the life when it is time to evaluate the life, they have learned, and they have then been able to bring more comfort into being part of the experience of the opposite gender.

The goal of all energy is to eventually be harmonized in way that when it is time to return to The Universal Consciousness, they have the sensitivity of what it is like to be another gender, you see. And this is why you will see such conflict on the earth plane now, for there is this inability to feel sensitivity toward the role that the opposite gender has taken on.

And when there are same gender relationships, that is simply an indication that there is different dominant energies occurring and they are attempting to smooth out their vibration and to learn what it is like to be in a same gender relationship versus an opposite gender relationship. The norm in The New Illusion will be same gender. So we are preparing in our own small, little way for the joys and the implications of that as it already has begun.

We also have a greater sensitivity to the female role coming in through Mushiba. Mushiba and I have only been together on the earth plane on a few occasions. We are as an energy not bound to the earth plane. We come from The Angelic Realm without having the commitment to the earth plane. So we have only come onto the earth plane to help Mushiba. We drew the short straw millennia ago when we got her for our safe keeping.

Does that answer your question? Perhaps more than you anticipated! ☺ ☺

In The New Illusion, when it does come, what's the chances of families that are now being together in The New Illusion and knowing that you are together in whatever form you are?

Those who will move into The New Illusion are in the process now of deciding whether they will go into that new vibration. There may be family units that will go together and there may be families that will not have all of their members going into The New Illusion.

Primarily, what you can expect with The New Illusion is that, more than likely, most of you here will not even know that it has happened, because it will be a New Illusion, and illusions are presented in a way that it seems absolutely normal. And so you will wake up after the shifting has occurred, which is really only a short period of earth plane time ~ several days in which there would be the smoothing out of the physical planet, during which time the illusion is recreated. And it will appear as if you have gone to sleep one night and the predictions were for bad weather, much as you are accustomed to now. And you will wake up in the morning ~ earth plane time it will be several days after the fact ~ and you will get up and go about your business not realizing that it is an entirely new illusion, because it will seem normal.

There will be, then, that group of entities which will make up the majority, who will not even realize that anything has happened. It will just seem the way it is. You get up and go and do things, for the illusion will have been set for you. You will be doing different things. You will have different surroundings ~ everything will be very different ~ but it will not seem as if anything has changed.

There will then be the other extreme ~ those who are charged with the building of The New Illusion. They will be the ones who will partake in helping with the pyramids ~ which are currently the energy forms that encircle the earth plane for its vibrational upkeep. They will help those pyramids in their dissolving to then create twelve new structures that will take their place, that are part of the new vibration that the planet, both physical and vibrational, will have. They are called THE BUILDERS.

There are twelve Builders who will have twelve Builders each. Terra Lux is a site for one of those structures. They will remember everything about the old illusion, the one you are currently in, and that there has been a transition, for they will be part of the building of The New Illusion and the breakdown of the current Illusion. And then there will be another group in between who will have vague memories, "Ah, there is something different. I'm not quite sure what it is, but something different."

Part of the setup of The New Illusion then will be that the majority of those who choose to move into this new vibration will simply be going about their business as normal, except there will be a higher vibration. There will not be the conflict that is evident now, the exaggeration of the social systems, the political systems, economic systems. The Earth will have calmed down in all of its activities. The Earth is shedding itself of its illness ~ it is vibrationally out of balance. And therefore, it is much like you would have yourself, vomiting if you are not feeling well, until all of it comes out ~ ah, and then you feel better again ~ until all the energies on the plane start creating an illness, and by the end of The New Illusion that is about to come, there will be again the Earth out of balance.

And so, in this new startup phase, there will be those who remember everything and are charged with the responsibility of bringing a thread, if you will, of information from this current illusion into The New Illusion. This is what happens from Illusion to Illusion ~ the entire portfolio that takes approximately one million earth plane years to complete.

There is a threading, so that you take part of what was from one Illusion and bring into the next Illusion, and it becomes part of the history and the mystery, "Ah, look at what was so long ago. They seemed to have greater skill than we do now. How did they build those pyramids? Oh, they had one million slaves and they used these devices and they built those pyramids." Well, we have created that illusion. In actuality, it is a power that is given temporarily to The Builders ~ where everything is simply done through vibrational energy work. But, we do not leave that on the record, for it would take all the fun out of the playing on the earth plane that exists.

So what you will find then is that when The New Illusion begins, if you are part of the building group that is going to remember everything, then you will remember that perhaps one of your family members is not with you any longer. But if you are part of the larger group, you will not even know that there is anyone missing. It will be normal. So there will not be the sense of loss and pain, "Ah, I came into The New Illusion and my spouse did not." There will not even be that kind of recognition. You will be simply be, "Ah, here I am. Get up, go to work!" Shaving will still be a part of the illusion about to come! ☺ ☺

Are you suggesting that the transformations in The New Illusion will be accompanied by catastrophic forces?

Well, as viewed by the earth plane, catastrophic ~ we do not consider it catastrophic. The planet will shift its axis and it will change vibrationally from a vibration of North to South going East to West. When that happens, there will be a redistribution of land and water on the planet, bringing it back into a fifty, fifty distribution. This is what happens at the beginning of every new illusion. This is one of the constants from illusion to illusion, that some illusions have more land than water at the end of its time, and others have more water than land at the end of its time.

So in terms of that redistribution it will appear that it is catastrophic, but it is simply a smoothing out so that land that is currently under water will redistribute itself, and where there is land, there will be water, and where there is water there will be land. And, in some cases, it will remain the same ~ where there is land there will remain land ~ where there is water there will remain water.

In terms of it being catastrophic, however, no one will know except those who are in charge of that building process ~ for, when you go to sleep, as we call it, you are simply going into an altered state, and all those in other higher dimensions charged with protecting the energies on the earth plane will bring energies into another dimension. You will not even realize it. When you go to sleep, you go into another dimension.

Sometimes you remember and sometimes you do not. So that while the physical redistribution of the planet occurs, there will be safety ~ no one will be hurt. However, at that time of shifting there will be a mass exodus of energies who say, "We are not ready to go into The New Illusion. Vibrationally, we have more to learn and more to grow before we can go into the startup of The New Illusion."

Once about five hundred years has passed in the illusion, the planet begins to accept vibrations that are inharmonious to its own vibration. This is all part of the setup so that the planet is a host, if you will, to energies that are incompatible with it. At the end of the illusion, such as you find yourselves now, that incompatibility reaches extremes and everything is about to implode, as you might say. We have indicated that the major earth patterns that will create the final shifting are hurricanes, earthquakes and tornadoes. And certainly we are not predicting that there is a new illusion coming ~ that is simply a statement of fact.

It does not take a high level Spook for you to know that there is something going on. ☺ ☺ The domino effect will soon be felt when the Earth presents its most cataclysmic event that will be the downfall of what you call the insurance energy grouping which will then be the domino effect for all the other groupings that currently exists ~ the social systems, the political systems. All will be imploding. But this will all happen as it is time then to create the new systems. It is as simple as that. So yes, on one wing, it is catastrophic, on the other wing it is not ~ for you will not even know that it is happening.

So the transformation of energy could just be on a spiritual level rather than physical plane.

Oh, it is both. For you cannot have one without the other. Energy is actually physical.

But the physical form may not be the same as it was prior to The Shift.

That is correct. You may find yourself in The New Illusion in a different form. We had alluded to this many, many earth plane years ago when discussing that humans would be living in the water and that the form that was taken on would be compatible to the water. It will be very natural and normal, and there will be a human form that will be compatible to living in the water and it will seem very normal and natural. You will not be saying, "Ah! I have fins where I used to have legs!" It will simply be normal. So yes, in many situations the form will change, but it will be normal and natural. Unless, of course, you are part of that small group that is fully aware of everything that has happened, and then you may indeed say, "Ah! What are these things hanging off of my encasement ~ this is new ~ this could be rather fun!"

Does that answer your question? There is still a little bit of questioning there.

I'm inquisitive!

Indeed! We enjoy that! We encourage inquisitive natures. Indeed, that is what we use as a tone throughout our message ~ that you must question every piece of information that comes your way. Do not take it at face value. Even us ~ we speak in sentences that have no periods.

It is very important to question, because you are trying to find the answers that are appropriate for Self, not for someone else. The information that we have is appropriate to certain audiences, not to everyone. Just as there are other sources speaking from other dimensions who have information for very particular audiences, and you may find in listening to another source that, "That does not ring true for me, it does not feel right." That is fine ~ you find another source of information.

If some of what we say rings true within Self, then fine. Use whatever it is that feels right. If none of what we say feels right, fine ~ throw it away, use none of it. We are not here to convert anyone to any way of thinking or belief. You can believe what we have to say, or not. It matters not to us whether you believe it, or not. We are here to give you information ~ we are like a computer. You go and you plug in and you say, "Ah! Search!" You search for information, and four million, five hundred thousand pieces of information come up. We could be one of those. And you, each of you, has to decide what is appropriate for your own path and your own growth at this particular point in your path. So we are not at all threatened by those who would ask us questions ~ who would be inquisitive.

I have a question where you were talking about the building and the structuring of the pyramids. Would Stonehenge fall into that same category? There's been speculation as to how those monumental structures could have been dragged from Wales with the technology, or lack of technology, they had then. So is that sort of the same idea as the pyramids?

This brings into the discussion which we have had over many gatherings in our time about what is called The Alien Invasion ~ as if anything is alien. You are all alien in one way or another. There certainly, however, are regular and ongoing visits from other training grounds. Other training grounds can include other planets that are known to those on the earth plane and other planets that are not known to those on the earth plane. The scientists on the plane, many of them, exhibit a rather strong arrogance about what they know without indicating that they, "Don't know what they don't know," much more than what they know. So indeed, there have been visits from other dimensions that have helped move the illusion along ~ this is all part of the game plan, if you will.

It brings into the discussion, dimensions. As you sit here now, you are surrounded by other dimensions. You are not aware of them because they are interdimensional, just as you may be aware of an energy that exists in one dimensional form. There are many encased energies on the plane that live in one dimension ~ you are aware of them but they are not aware of you. And you indeed can go into their dimension and place something into it. And to them it would have the same kind of impact as this structure that you bring up, this Stonehenge.

All energies are able to travel interdimensionally and to communicate interdimensionally. You all do it, all the time. You are simply not aware that you do it. And some have a greater skill that has been developed at travelling interdimensionally. Thus, structures pop up around the earth plane. The scientists will see from the sky a landing strip and draw the conclusion that, "Ah, we have been invaded by an alien force," as if this is a negative thing, when, in actuality, it is simply Interdimensional Travel that allows entities from other dimensions to help those in this current dimension to have greater insights, greater understanding, to have questions.

You know, the greatest accomplishment that any energy form can achieve is the ability to question ~ do not take what is given to them as, "Ah, that is the truth because such and such said it. It has been said that this structure was developed by aliens, or five million slaves dragging the stones over the countryside!" You may feel that that is appropriate to your belief system, and thus you will believe it, and that is perfectly all right. And at some point, you may then begin to question the validity of that particular truth that you currently hold. And growth with all energies is all about continually retesting Self and asking if there is still the validity of the current truth that Self holds.

And as lessons are presented, and you each achieve success in learning a particular lesson, the truth that you currently hold will be changed ~ very, very slightly in some cases and in other cases, very monumentally. So the way that you begin to see the world around you changes. Your truth has changed. And every one of you here has a different truth, and the important thing is that you respect the truth of others and not to feel that you must be threatened because someone believes differently from you. And that respect of another's truth comes first from Respect of Self.

We have THE GUIDELINES FOR GROWTH that we gave many, many, many years ago ~ the first of which is Respect Self. Only by respecting Self can you then Love Self, and only then can you respect and love others to the same degree that you respect and love Self. And that is what we are here to help you achieve through our message and through our guidance, to give you information to help you find your own truth. And, in the meantime, we have a little fun at it. It is as simple as that!

We are ready to depart now. We thank you all for joining us in this gathering and we hope that you take something from it. We send to you all the very Highest of the White Light from the very Highest of the Kingdom of Amelius. Farewell!

Farewell!
