WORLD TRADE CENTER ATTACK OF SEPTEMBER 11, 2001

Waith: We have just returned from The Portal and there is, as you can imagine, great activity occurring. It is not just human energy that is returning ~ there is a tremendous number of energy returning, coming from various encasements.

We want to reemphasize that which we have spoken of over this entire time that we have been speaking through Mushiba. First of all, most importantly, all energy comes out of The Universal Consciousness to learn, as we call it, to play. Our definition of play is oftentimes different from those on the earth plane. However, we are well on the record for play. The way in which energies learn is by having lessons presented to them. Is this not correct in your formal schooling? You go into a classroom ~ that is the earth plane. You are in a particular class level ~ first grade, second grade ~ that is your level of awareness for the particular learning that you have taken on.

Lessons are then presented to you ~ information is given and you are tested on those lessons. You would not learn anything if you did not have lessons. And, you would not know if you had learned anything if you were not, in some way, tested for those lessons that you have been studying. What has been going on ever since you entered the earth plane in this particular life, has been a series of lessons being presented, testing occurring and you determining at a higher level of Self if you have, indeed, learned what you wanted to learn or if you, indeed, need to be retested ~ take the lesson over again, study again, be retested.

In the course of learning you have guides ~ in the classroom you have what is called a teacher. You have other types of energies who help you to learn. However, those guides cannot learn it for you. Nor, can they do anything to prevent you from undergoing the test. When it is time to learn, it is time to learn for you have said thus. And when it is time to test Self, it is time to test Self. The guides already have learned what it is you are learning because they experienced it ~ that is why they are your guides ~ they have learned what it is you have to learn.

We come down, then, to this particular time on the earth plane. It is the end of an illusion. We have spoken of this ending of the illusion since the beginning ~ our very first time speaking through Mushiba we discussed the changing of the Earth into a new illusion. It means it is an accelerated time of learning and many, many entities take on acceleration of the acceleration and therefore the lessons are intense and the testing is intense.

At the end of an illusion, everything is an exaggeration of itself.

We have indicated that currently the earth plane is in the next to the last phase before the final phase of the shifting of the Earth and that there would be, indeed, an occurrence that would signal the end of this next to the last stage. And, we had indicated that it would be an Earth occurrence in that which is called The Middle East. That is going to occur ~ it has not occurred. However, the setup is in place for it. Everything is imploding and that is both figurative and literal. Social systems are imploding, political systems, economic systems and actual physical systems.

The question is on the mind of many, for we have plugged into this through Mushiba and through our own other sources, "Why is it if the higher sources of light know that something is going to happen, why do they not prevent it?" As if we had the right to prevent it. The lessons would not be learned if we stopped ~ it would mean, "Why bother giving the lessons if the testing did not occur?"

That which has occurred on the earth plane is not to be looked at with anger and fear but rather to be looked at as just one other opportunity being presented at the end of an illusion for the sending of light and for energies to unite ~ not to go on the attack but rather to defend.

There is a significant difference between attacking and defending. The dark attacks ~ the light defends. And yes, the light oftentimes will do little irritating things to the dark so that the dark will attack so that it enables the light to respond. It is not a bad thing to be attacked ~ it is, indeed, the motivation for the light to do something ~ to diffuse the dark. What has occurred on the earth plane now in this city of New York is simply a playing out of an implosion, literally and figuratively. It is a testing for many, many, many entities for the call to be of service comes from The Universe when you least expect it.

Some of you will hear the call to be of service in this situation and some of you will not. Being of service is not something that YOU determine you will do. You are called upon by The Universe and you have the option to say yes or no. And if you say yes, then that is a way in which you are being tested for the lessons that you have learned. If you say no, it simply means that you will be asked again at another time until you have been tested to the satisfaction of Self.

Sending light is what this situation calls for. Attacking is a tool of the dark. Defending is a tool of the light. Attacking comes from fear and anger and hatred. Defending comes from love and a sense of bringing unity and community. It means helping and being of service to the dark.

Defending can be for many, many entities a difficult concept when they are attacked, for many, depending of their levels of awareness, would want to strike back in equal proportion to that attack. This solves nothing ~ it only reinforces the dark and makes the dark stronger. You must rid Self of anger, hatred and fear ~ those are powerful tools of the dark.

There has been much activity on the earth plane since this attack that has brought thousands and thousands of humans together in prayer, in meditation circles, in the sending of light ~ this is a positive response. The light continues to be sent ~ and needs to be sent ~ to those who are in the highest of decision making as to what the response will be at the highest national, as you call it, level.

Another reason why such events as this occur, where such tremendous numbers of energies depart is that they actually are the smart ones ~ they are avoiding the rush at the end of the illusion, and so they are getting a little bit of a head start. Some of you, in being called to service, have responded by assisting The Angelic Force at The Portal. If you have not been asked already, you may be, for we do not try to take up too much of the energy. But the organizing of the departures and the organizing them into The Portal and into the various arenas then, that they would be going to, takes a number of energies to do so.

And that is all that is occurring. We are planning to give an update on The New Illusion. Mushiba has posted the date on this website. By that time you will understand why we have chosen that date, for it was us who gave her the time flow, quite some time ago.

The time is very, very close, my loved ones. And if you are listening to these words ~ if you are reading these words ~ it means that you are part of the changing illusion, whether you realize it at concrete or not. And perhaps, just needed to hear, once again, the words of light. And as sad as it is for the loss of people who you know and any other energies encased in other forms, know this and try to keep this perspective ~ every energy leaves when it is time for it to leave. The energy leaves when its work is finished ~ when it has finished what it came in to do.

This is the higher perspective, and yes, whenever there is a departure under any set of circumstances, there is sadness ~ normal, human emotion, for the departure, for it is you who is left behind. It is you who still has work to do. Think of it in that respect. The lucky ones, as Mushiba says so often, are those who get to go.

But look at it from the perspective of, you have graduated from school ~ whatever it was that you took on in this lifetime and you have finished it, you can go ~ soon enough to be back on the plane, in another class learning other lessons. That is all that it is. But you are living the experience and therefore you must feel the emotion and you must, however, at the same time ~ and this is the trick ~ trust in The Universe, feel the emotion ~ feel it, live it.

The only way that you will learn how to bring balance into the emotions that you feel as a result of attacks such as this, is to live through it, gather with those who can bring it into balance and keep a perspective of why it is occurring. It is the learning ~ that is all that it is. And if you do not succeed in understanding the higher purpose and you are bogged down, as you would call it, in the emotion of it, that is also part of your learning. And it is the seeking out of spiritual havens such as Terra Lux that will help you to bring the balance that will help you to keep in perspective the higher purpose of everything. And, that is all that it is ~ it is as simple as that.

Would there be anything that you would want to put on the record? Comments, questions, concerns.

If the people who pass on ~ their choice, and they've been tested. The people who tested them, was it their choice? Are they at a higher level, or something, to take it upon themselves to test all these other people?

You bring into the discussion something that we would want to discuss within another context. It is a very legitimate question that you ask. It revolves around the issues of balancing and what you call in the earth plane, teaching and learning, and it is not necessarily that it is a higher level that is doing the testing.

But the testing is being guided by a higher level, and there is a distinction there. and there is a difference. Testing, as you might think of it, is not quite the way that it unfolds, for it is The Universe that actually does the testing, but it utilizes those who want to be part of the testing. And thus, those who test also have lessons to learn from being instruments of the test ~ those who actually do the testing.

We would not want to go in depth at this point ~ we are here to speak of meditation ~ but it is certainly a question that will be discussed, not too far into the future. We thank you for placing it on the record and for hearing the information coming through Self to ask the question, so that we could place it on the record. We are like that you know.

Anything else?

All take a deep breath. You are sitting in a circle. We would like you to place in the middle of this circle a vision of a very bright white light ~ and it is a circle of white light. In the middle of that circle you are placing all who have been direct participants and who have departed, and all from the arena of attack ~ all those who planned and implemented the attack, they need the light ~ they need the light far more than any other energies. Visualize the light, soft and gentle, surrounding them. The light is there for them if they so choose to use it.

Say after me, "I send the very Highest of the White Light to all the energies involved in this attack to use the protective light to bring a sense of harmony to Self and to others."

And, that is all ~ it is as simple as that. You can do this at any point in time ~ alone or with others who you would connect with. And this would be beneficial to do for some time now, perhaps several weeks of earth plane time.

Sending the light once is a very fine gesture, but reinforcing the light and sending it regularly and consistently over time has much greater power.

We depart now. We send to you the very Highest of the White Light from the very Highest of the Kingdom of Amelius. Farewell.

Farewell, and thank you.
