World Trade Center Attack of September 11, 2001

(THIS TRANSCRIPT IS AN EDITED VERSION OF THE WAITH CLASS OF SEPTEMBER 13, 2001)

Waith: The way in which energies learn is by having lessons presented to them. Is this not correct in your formal schooling? You go into a classroom ~ that is the earth plane. You are in a particular class level ~ first grade, second grade ~ that is your level of awareness for the particular learning that you have taken on.

Lessons are then presented to you ~ information is given and you are tested on those lessons. You would not learn anything if you did not have lessons. And, you would not know if you had learned anything if you were not, in some way, tested for those lessons that you have been studying.

Since you entered the earth plane in this particular life, there have been a series of lessons being presented, testing occurring, and you determining at a higher level of Self if you have, indeed, learned what you wanted to learn or if you need to be retested ~ take the lesson over again, study again and be retested.

In the course of learning you have guides ~ in the classroom you have what is called a teacher. And you have other types of energies who help you to learn. However, those guides cannot learn it for you. Nor can they do anything to prevent you from undergoing the test.

When it is time to learn, it is time to learn because you have indicated as such. And when it is time to test Self, it is time to test Self. The guides already have learned what it is you are learning because they have experienced it. That is why they are your guides for they have learned what it is YOU have yet to learn. You have all chosen to be at this particular time on the earth plane ~ it is the end of an illusion. We have spoken of the ending of this illusion since our first time speaking through Mushiba. The end of an illusion means that it is an accelerated time of learning and many, many entities take on this acceleration and, thus, the lessons are intense and the testing is intense. At the end of an illusion, everything is an exaggeration of itself.

The question is on the mind of many as to why, if the higher sources of light know that something is going to happen, why do they not prevent it? The lessons would not be learned if we stopped them for you would say, "Why bother giving the lessons if the testing did not occur?"

That which has occurred on the earth plane is not to be looked at with anger and fear. Rather, look at it as another opportunity being presented at the end of an illusion for the sending of light and for energies to unite ~ to defend rather than go on the attack.

There is a significant difference between ATTACKING and DEFENDING.

The dark attacks ~ the light defends. And, yes, the light oftentimes will do little irritating things to the dark so that the dark will attack which then enables the light to respond. It is not a bad thing to be attacked ~ it is, indeed, the MOTIVATION for the light TO DO something and to diffuse the dark.

What has occurred on the earth plane in this city of New York is simply a playing out of an implosion, literally and figuratively. It is a testing for many, many, many entities, for THE CALL TO BE OF SERVICE comes from The Universe when you least expect it.

Some of you will hear the CALL TO BE OF SERVICE in this particular situation and some of you will not. Being called to be of service is not something YOU determine ~ you are called upon by The Universe.

When you are called to be of service by The Universe, you have the option to say YES or NO. And if you say YES then that is a way in which you are being tested for the lessons that you have learned. If you say NO, it simply means that you will be asked again at another time until you have been tested to the satisfaction of Self.

Sending light is what this situation needs.

Attacking is a tool of the dark. Defending is a tool of the light. Attacking comes from fear and anger and hatred. Defending comes from love and a sense of bringing unity and community. Defending means helping and being of service to the dark.

Defending can be for many, many entities a difficult concept when they are attacked, for many, depending of their levels of awareness, would want to strike back in equal proportion to that attack. This only reinforces the dark and makes the dark stronger.

Rid Self of anger, hatred and fear for those are powerful tools of the dark.

There has been much activity on the earth plane since this attack that has brought thousands of humans together in prayer, in circles of light, all meant to send the light ~ this is a positive response.

The light continues to be sent ~ and needs to be sent ~ to those who are in the highest of decision making as to what the response will be at the highest national level.

As sad as it is for the loss of people who you know, and other energies encased in other forms, attempt to keep the following perspective ~ EVERY ENERGY LEAVES WHEN IT IS TIME FOR IT TO LEAVE.

An energy leaves when its work is finished ~ when it has finished what it came in to do. This is the higher perspective and yes, whenever there is a departure under circumstances such as this, there is sadness ~ normal, human emotion ~ for the departure, because it is you who is left behind. It is you who still has work to do. Those who have departed have finished the work they came in to do. Think of it in that respect.

Look at it from the perspective of graduating from school ~ whatever it was that you took on in this lifetime and you finish it, you can go ~ soon enough to be back on the plane, in another class learning other lessons. ☺

However, you are living the experience and, therefore, you must FEEL THE EMOTION. At the same time, and this is the challenge, trust in The Universe and feel the emotion ~ feel it, live it. The only way that you will learn how to bring balance into the emotions that you feel as a result of an attack such as this, is to live through it.

Gather with those who can bring this situation into balance and keep a perspective of why it is occurring. Seek out spiritual havens, such as Terra Lux, for they can help you to bring the balance that will help you to keep in perspective the higher purpose of your life and the world in which you live.

You are learning ~ that is what this is about. And, if you do not succeed in understanding the higher purpose and you are dragged down in its emotion that is also part of your learning. Relax about your journey, my loved ones.

We send to you all the very highest of the white light from the very highest of The Kingdom of Amelius. Farewell.
