ENERGY CERTIFICATE ORIENTATION

Waith: The blessings to all of you. Energy is the word this evening, is it not?

We're not sure.

Do you think that we would want to change such a word as Energy?

Yes!

How little faith you have in us! ☺ ☺ Would we do that?

Yes.

Yes. We would! Do you want us to?

- ☺ Sure.
- ☺ Not necessarily!

How many of you have to live with Mushiba? If we change the word Energy to something else, will you all run to the hills as you so like to say? ☺ ☺ ☺

Yes!

Indeed. Well, we are not going to change the word Energy ~ at least for now. Remember that our sentences do not have ending punctuation ~ always something to keep in mind.

So, then, my loved ones, we welcome you! The energy flows well in this gathering.

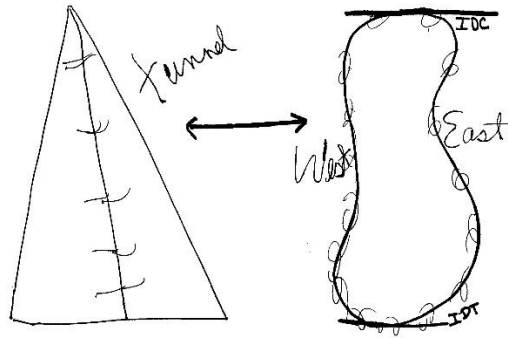

We are very pleased that the moment on the earth plane has come now for the introduction of a course of study in Energy, beginning with a certificate and leading up to, of course, a degree in THE SEARCH FOR SELF.

Just as the CERTIFICATE FOR SELF AWARENESS ~ our new word for Meditation ~ is also going to lead into, eventually, a degree in THE SEARCH FOR SELF, then Energy will do the same. These are the two corner stones, if you will, of our SEARCH FOR SELF. The learning of information within the Energy flow and within the Self Awareness flow are meant to be beginning components of THE SEARCH FOR SELF.

One does not need, however, to think that they have to do the SEARCH FOR SELF degree. The certificates can be done in and of themselves. But the degree cannot be done without those two certificates, but the two certificates will fit right into the degree ~ so you will not have to be taking extra courses.

We give to you two shapes. (Waith draws on the board. See illustration below)

ILLUSTRATION
FLOW OF ENERGY

(THIS ILLUSTRATION APPEARS AS IT WAS DRAWN BY WAITH)

This is the new, to come, energy ~ the flow of energy ~ an energy form. Do these all mean the same thing? What is the quick answer?

- ⊗ Yes.
- ⊗ Maybe.
- ⊗ No.

Yes, No, Maybe! ☺ ☺ They all do work, do they not? And, they all, actually, are correct. One of the confusions on the earth plane now is the use of the word Energy. It is going to be up to Terra Lux, among others currently disseminating information, to help clear up the use of the word Energy ~ and more importantly, to demystify the use of the word Energy.

Even within the realm of Terra Lux, it can be an elitist word, for what does the word energy mean? You might say, "You are an energy form," or "The flow of your energy," or "Everything has energy." To the uninitiated ~ and even to those who are initiated ~ that is confusing.

Our Certificate in Energy Management ~ we do not like the word management. That is why we have Metagers instead of Managers. Rather than a Certificate in Energy Management, it will be a Certificate in Energy Fluidity. This is a new term that is really being given out now as part of the lexicon ~ fluidity. This is a Certificate in Energy Fluidity. Energy, then, will be defined in very specific ways that we will unveil as we give more information for this Energy Certificate.

The basic component that all on the plane are dealing with now is a flux in energy within Self and external to Self ~ that which is the Earth as a physical, the Earth as an abstract, the Earth as an Energy ~ and all the layers of the Earth. For most of you this is simply a little bit of a refresher course. For others of you it may be new.

Chakras. What does the word Chakra mean?

Wheel or disk.

How do most people, when they hear the word Chakra, respond? Do they think of it as a wheel or disk?

They think of it as colors.

Yes, indeed, colors. What else?

Energy Centers.

What is an Energy Center?

An area with a lot of energy in it.

Oh, there is defining something with the word itself! 😊 😊

Like revolving doors, in and out, in and out, that kind of wheeling.

Indeed, doors. Plus, they can open and close.

And go both ways.

Indeed. What else about Chakras is prevalent with those who would know what Chakras are?

States of Consciousness.

Yes. What is the movement of Chakras?

⚙ Up and down.

⚙ Vertical.

Vertical and up and down ~ two ways to describe it. Multi-syllable, and not ~ both needed, depending upon the audience to whom you are speaking.

Chakras have colors assigned to them ~ and indeed crystals, by some audiences that would relate to the Chakras. They move up and down ~ they are vertical. They exist, so called, in a tunnel that runs North to South in the encasement. They are limited in their movement and their movement is determined by what is commonly known as the pyramid shape.

The pyramid shape, the three points, are the parameters in which this tunnel operates ~ restrictive, specifically determined to be so for this particular illusion. This was the way it was setup. The flow from North to South ~ South to North. This is the way in which the planet Earth currently exists on its axis ~ North to South. In The New Illusion, soon to come, there is a new flow of energy. We call Chakras, Energy Centers ~ they both mean the same.

We like the words Energy Center because it seems to flow a bit more. It has a smoother sound when it comes of the mouth, as opposed to Chakra, which has a much harsher sound. Energy Centers, then, in its own flow of wording is representative of the fluidity of the new flow of energy that will begin with the planet itself as well as with all encased ~ not just human. All that are encased have a flow of energy ~ a bit different from kingdom to kingdom, but nonetheless, a flow.

There is no top or bottom to our new flow in The New Illusion. However, we give frames of reference only so that the understanding Interdimensional Communication and Travel, as a learning mode, is the setup for The New Illusion. We use the initials IDC and IDT for top and bottom only for the frame of reference that communication is done at the head, if you will, and travel is down with the feet, if you will. However, this flow of energy goes East and West and all of its so called energy circles ~ centers ~ are throughout ~ they flow completely around in what we like to call a peanut shape. (See the illustration shown above)

Right now, currently on the earth plane, there are some who have switched in their polarities to this new flow of energy. There are some who are still very much using, to their benefit, the current, and there are many who are flip flopping ~ back and forth, just as the Earth is flip flopping on its axis as it prepares to move into the new flow of energy

Many people take energy with such seriousness ~ it is something mysterious to them. They say, "It is only something that only certain people know about ~ certainly not anything that I, lowly human being, would know about." We must be very serious about this, then, must we not?

No! (Multiple responses)

We are here for this orientation to the Energy Fluidity Certificate to emphasize the need to lighten up!

When studying about focusing techniques to Gain Self Awareness, there is almost a built in ability to have lightheartedness because of the different focusing techniques that can be used to lighten up and to fluffy up. But, with Energy, "Oh, a Certificate in Energy Fluidity ~ that is a very serious topic." Well, it is not a serious topic! Nothing is a serious topic. The way in which you pursue your own learning of any topic is serious, but your attitude must be lighthearted.

Each of you has very high levels of understanding of energy. How can we say that?

We're living proof of it!

Indeed you are! 😊 😊

If I didn't know about energy, I would be dead!

That is exactly it! You see, there is the lightheartedness to it all. See how easy that was? You are all here ~ more or less. 😊 😊 😊 So you already are experts at energy. All you want to learn now is how to better utilize your Self, and the way in which you live and the way in which you learn what you have come here to learn. There is nothing mystical about it ~ it is not designated to the elite few. There are those who can help you to learn more about the flow of your own being ~ your own Self ~ and to learn how to live within the levels of your Self.

There is the challenge ~ living within Self. Only then, as you live within Self are you able to live outside of Self. You live within Self, you experiment outside of Self. You bring back what you learned outside of Self into Self, mix up the equation a bit, bring it back out for testing, do something, "Oh, I liked that. Oh, I didn't like that," bring it back into Self, evaluate it, bring it back out. This is energy ~ this is you ~ this is us.

Energy is fluid ~ energy moves all the time. Energy cannot be still, even when you think you are stalled in learning a lesson and think that your energy is blocked, blockage is a movement. "Oh, Waith, how can you make that kind of statement?" ☺ ☺ Blockage is a movement. If you want to know what that means, then sign up for the course! ☺ ☺

There is much to know about Self. Understand that our definitive guidance is called, THE SEARCH FOR SELF. All of our dissemination of information and all that you would learn formally from Terra Lux revolves around THE SEARCH FOR SELF ~ you cannot get away from it. No one else learns it except Self. And so, it is important to understand your own energy ~ that is all that there is to it. It really is as simple as that.

If the future is fluidity, what is the current state?

Fluid ~ as is the past. Time is an illusion. Time is linear for this particular earth plane training ground. But, even in its linear form, it is still nonlinear, and thus, it is simultaneous. And so, yes, you would say that there is a past, a present and a future. And indeed, many attempt to bring that into some type of definitive moment along a scale ~ beginning and end ~ but, it is not. In reality, it is completely fluid.

You are here, in this concreteness but you are also everywhere else. It is not just the Archangels who can go and be in different places at the same time. That is no trick. That is nothing that has been given out as some type of gift or high end ability. It is the ability that all energy has. It is simply whether or not you have developed the skill. And certain training grounds are meant to help you develop the skill of becoming more fluid.

The New Illusion will have a new definition of Time ~ it will be more fluid. And there will be then a greater understanding of Interdimensional Travel and Communication. And, yes, the earth plane is designed ~ is setup ~ to have linear time. The Mass Consciousness demands it of the earth plane because of the training ground rules. But that is simply an illusion.

You are all living, right now, simultaneously in the past, the present and the future, and not just on the grander scale of things, as yesterday, today and tomorrow, as all together, for the brain on the earth plane cannot usually comprehend that concept. Think of it that as you are right now, here, this nanosecond, moved into a nanosecond, moved into a nanosecond, past, present, future. Energy exists ~ past, present and future ~ is in all the same. But, from a linear perspective, it is not. And indeed, on the earth plane, as a training ground, if you were all living, simultaneously in the consciousness, it would be pretty boring. 😊 😊

It is much like we have talked of being back in The Universal Consciousness, where everyone is One. It is boring. Think about it. You would not have the pressure to rush to get to work on time. You would not have the pressure of, "Oh, I must make this appointment by such and such a time. And how many appointments can I fit into one day? How many people can I see in one day, without driving myself crazy? And what if someone messes up and they're not on time and I'm on time and they're not!" 😊 😊 😊

What other questions?

Regarding your drawing (See illustration above) ~ when you say that energy flow goes East, West, is it like a spiral as in horizontal East, West, or right, left ~ is it round or is it back and forth?

Yes.

Both.

Indeed. It is discussion at an advanced level of understanding. At the beginning levels of understanding for energy fluidity, The Certificate, there will be this discussion of the current and then moving gently into a discussion of the new, and just those particular points, my love, that you raised.

This current flow of energy is, by definition and by design, very fixed and very limited and does not take into account Interdimensional Travel and Communication, because this current illusion was not designed to do a great deal of adventuring into Interdimensional Travel and Communication ~ as a normal process of living. The New Illusion is setup for just that and therefore the flow of energy must be more conducive to flexible movement, which is what Interdimensional is all about ~ very flexible.

This illustration we place in this particular position (Waith refers to the peanut shape) only so that it is a companion piece to this one (the pyramid shape). This does not have to stand up ~ it can be on its side. It can be tilted ~ it can be any way that you want it to be. Initially, when we gave out this information, and we have given it out in other sessions preliminarily, we placed it into this positioning because it would have been much too overwhelming or confusing to have gone into anything in depth and to have even ventured into what we have just said now. But it is time to place it onto the record that this will be seen in any number of ways.

How fast does energy go?

It actually goes in two different ways. It goes in the speed in which your own encased energy is moving ~ and that varies from individual to individual as well as within yourself. And then it moves within an energy flow outside of Self, which may or may not be in the same harmony or in the same speed with which Self is flowing. Therein lies some of the challenges. Self is flowing from an energy perspective in a different way than the flow of energy external to Self. That does happen a bit with the current energy centers, but because of the rigidity factor of the pyramid shape, it is not felt quite as much and the challenge is less than it will be in The New Illusion.

Can an energy lose some of its energy?

No, actually not, my love. When all energy comes out of The One ~ think of yourself as a little ball of energy ~ everyone is given the same amount of energy ~ it is equal, which is why we have emphasized over the years that all energy is equal. No one energy is better than another ~ no one energy has more than another. You may feel like you have lost some of your energy, but you have not ~ it is hiding, resting, perhaps. The differences among energies is simply levels of understanding, and that still does not make any energy better or less than anyone else ~ simply different levels of understanding, different levels of awareness.

So, energy can't die?

No. Energy does not die ~ ever. Energy may leave an encasement but then it goes into another encasement. You may not see that encasement ~ it may not be in your physical dimension, but it is in another dimension. Energy never dies ~ and it does come back to haunt you! 😊 😊

The peanut shape is multidimensional as opposed to the Chakras that are two, maybe three dimensional?

Yes, multidimensional

So, energy will flow ~ not linear, but multidimensional?

All around ~ there will be no set entry points as there are now in the tunnel where you go into a particular Chakra ~ the Middle Chakra and the Crown Chakra being the two favorite. The new flow will have any point of energy.

Can an energy get slow?

Yes, energy can slow down. That relates to the learning of lessons and indeed will be part of the learning of the Energy Fluidity Certificate.

In my plumbing difficulties in the house, do houses also now readjust? Basically, they have no flow in the piping ~ we have some capped pipes and nothing is flowing. Can you give me a quick self-help answer?

A house is an encasement for energy ~ take it from there. You work with energy, you work with encasements.

So, my house wants an East, West flow.

Do not say that Waith said ~ before the words even come out of our mouth they have been misrepresented. 😊 😊 😊

Does this mean that the Earth's axis is going to be East to West?

Yes, indeed, we have said that already. The axis flips and the flow becomes East to West, which is why the new Energy Centers are East to West as opposed to North to South, which is the polarity now.

Is energy everywhere?

Energy is everywhere! You are sitting on energy. You are wearing energy. Within your body are lots of different energies ~ your blood, your bones, your skin, your hair, your toenails. You just sent me energy when you did that, my love. (The person raised his hands and waved to Waith) Energy is everything, and everything is Energy. Once you understand that everything is energy, a greater respect begins to develop. The chair is an energy ~ do not hit it. You sit on energy now ~ it is being of service ~ you respect it. Everything is energy.

Why is there energy?

Why not?

Just asking.

Oh, it is a very good question. Why not? What else would we have, perhaps, to live, if we had not energy?

We could walk.

You walk because you have energy. Your legs encase energy. If you had no energy, would you be able to walk?

No.

Would you be able to see? Would you be able to speak? There may be a case for getting rid of energy!! 😊 😊 😊

Does electricity have energy?

Yes, indeed it does.

Are we made of energy?

Yes, we are. All of us ~ Angelics, humans, animals, minerals, chairs ~ all have consciousness ~ life, different from kingdom to kingdom, but nonetheless, consciousness. Ability to learn ~ that is what consciousness is about. The chair, which encompasses many, many kingdoms of energy, has much to learn and much to give in service ~ different from what a human has to learn and give of service. But when it comes time for you to be part of a kingdom that makes up a chair, you will have a knowledge of what you have to learn.

Do we breathe energy?

Yes, the air is an energy ~ the air is an encasement for energy. Nothing can BE without energy. We are all surrounded by energy. Energy takes on encasements. Air is an encasement ~ the wind is an encasement ~ everything is an encasement, for without it, there is nothing. Once you grasp that simple concept, it becomes much easier to understand the flow.

You mean there would be no world?

There would be no world and there would be no Universe

No stars?

No stars.

Nothing?

Nothing!

Is energy expanding, growing, in substance or in range? When we come out of The One, there is only one, call it a mound, for sake of another word ~ a mound of energy. But, as we evolve, as we expand, does that energy grow, or does it just kind of expand, keeping the same substance?

The energy does not expand ~ the energy illuminates. As you learn, you become lighter and your energy then illuminates more. It is the illumination of energy that creates the sense of expansion. A topic for advanced energy. We have already discussed at a beginning point when we talked of our Spectrum of Light during the Leadership Convocation, which will be part of the learning for the Degree in THE SEARCH FOR SELF.

Is the present energy North, South?

Yes. The present flow of energy.

The rotation of the Earth is East to West, so actually the energy is generated on an East, West plane.

The polarity of the Earth is North, South. That is the flow of energy now. When the polarities switch, the Earth will be going, in its polarities, East to West. Therefore, the flow of energy for the earth plane will go East to West.

Which will make it revolve North, South?

Yes!

That will cause quite a change in climate and temperatures! 😊 😊

Yes, that is why, what you call this geographic area now that Terra Lux is in, will become tropical.

Do dinosaur bones have energy?

Yes, they do.

Then why don't they move?

They do not need to ~ they have different lessons to learn ~ and they move when you are not looking! 😊 😊 😊

On that note, we will depart.

We are pleased that you all gathered with us for this discussion and we hope to see you again ~ we use the term loosely, see you.

Breathe in slowly now, in through the nose and out through the mouth or in through the mouth and out through the nose ~ relax yourselves ~ feel Self ~ tune into Self ~ surround yourself with the light. Relax.

We send to you all now the very Highest of the White Light from the very Highest of the Kingdom of Amelius. Farewell.

Bye, Waith. Thanks.
