The Interconnectedness Of All Life Forms

(April 05, 1988)

Now, on Planet Earth you have many, many life forms, and each of the life forms has a function, a mission, regardless of the state of evolution. And just as you all have a particular function to serve, so too do those of The Animal Kingdom, those of The Plant Kingdom, those of The Earth itself, and those life forms of which you are not even familiar, or not even aware, exist below the ground itself. And the sensitivities of the cords that connect are so tremendous that while you may not feel it at your level, those who may be more attuned and more sensitive do feel the effects of infringement upon the energy form of another, whatever kingdom they happen to abide in.

We are not here to say that you must not destroy anything that lives, for all lives on Planet Earth, and you would not be able to exist, for it would mean not walking on the soil, for you would be interrupting the energy form. But rather, each energy level and each individual kingdom has its lessons to learn. Just as you do in certain activities, behaviors, that you involve yourself in to grow, so too do other energy forms that are of a lower level than yourself, and their growth is dependent upon an interaction with those of higher energy forms. As the higher energy forms begin to evolve into higher attunements there becomes a greater sensitivity to those of the lower energy forms. While on the Planet Earth it would not be possible for you to not in some way infringe upon the energy of a lower form.

What occurs is an awareness on your part of the effects of your behavior upon all energy forms and an acknowledgement that you are, indeed, helping lower forms to evolve. The difficulty that arises is that many now in human form abuse the power and do not see this responsibility as being one within a spiritual context and therefore arbitrarily pollute and destroy lower life forms. As you begin to evolve yourself spiritually and at higher attunements, you will have no desire, for example, to eat animals for you view that level as being so very close to your own. We do not suggest that in order to become spiritually attuned you must cease eating animals, for example. What we suggest is that whatever your level of advancement is will begin to determine your own sensitivities to the energies around and that you will begin to see the effects of your own behavior on all energy forms.

This is a most complex subject and one which many of you will have difficulty understanding, at least now. As your attunements increase, you will find an understanding of what is being said, as is with all information that comes through to the earth plane from many of the sources. Some of you, as I give you this information, have complete understanding of it and see the greater picture.

Visualize this oval once again. Visualize cords beginning to surround the oval, cord after cord, surrounding the oval. This is done as a way of showing a connectedness. For as the Light that ~ over on this right side as I have illustrated ~ becomes resolute in its path, it begins then to encircle the oval much as this caterpillar would encircle itself. Each of you is a part of the One and therefore you would be encircling yourself. As you grow closer and closer to becoming One you circle the oval, and as the evolvment reaches its pinnacle and Oneness occurs, the cord dissolves into the energy of the One and you are absorbed.

Do we have cords also within our luminosity? In visualizing us as luminous beings, do we have cords also?

Yes. Each energy form has a cord. It is the connector between you and The Creative Force and therefore is the connector between you and all other energy forms.

So those energy forms that are in the darkness, they are parts of us? So, we have responsibility to them as well.

Ultimate responsibility to each other. Those who are in the darkness do not see their responsibilities to those of other energy forms. As you move more into the Light, you begin to get a greater sense of your responsibilities, and thus you will attempt to help those who are in the dark. Remember, as I have said in prior sessions, that the Light and dark are degrees, and that when we look at very, very dark, there is still some Light. It is only those energy forms that are at the very extreme of The Spectrum that have no Light, and they are the ones who we, of The Angelic Force, who are at the opposite end of The Spectrum, must work toward pulling away from darkness and bringing them at least into some portion of Light, because once they are into a portion of the Light, all those others of you who are at varying degrees along this cord of Lightness, are then able to help by your meditations and the sending of your love to these energy forms.

It is the responsibility of all of you to help bring others out of the darkness. While it is true that by doing this you will grow in your own spirituality, it should not be the reason that you do it. It is certainly the reason many begin to do this, knowing that by very consciously trying to bring Light to dark they will be helping themselves. Ultimately what you hope to do is to not think of your own growth, but rather to automatically do this to Be of Service to Others. We only hope that many of you will begin to even be aware of your responsibilities, and we ask that you accept this responsibility, and it is quite all right with us if you do this out of a self-interest by saying, "I want to grow myself so therefore I will try to bring Light to the dark." It is a beginning.

For many of you, it will take many, many more lifetimes before you reach a point where it is not thought of in that respect but rather simply done in a selfless manner. You need to begin somewhere, though. And do not be distressed if you do not succeed each time the opportunity presents itself between Light and dark. It is all right. For it is the way in which you become aware, by growing. What we would hope is that you are able to recognize that you did not meet the opportunity presented to you and that you seek the answers from within yourself as to what to do about it and how you will handle the next opportunity that comes. It is a decision that comes from within each of you. We simply are here to tell you of the existence of it. It is up to you to decide what to do with that information.

Multiple Lives And Parallel Lives, Part I

(May 03, 1988)

We have been investigating certain areas for discussion for you, knowing that there are certain areas of concern that seem to dominate in your world now. And we understand that the entire discussion of what we would refer to as multiple lives, and often is referred to as reincarnation by many on the earth plane, is greatly misunderstood.

And so often, as you, who are finding your paths and traveling along, and opening up your own awarenesses, begin to talk with others about your new-found knowledge, and the excitement with which you find yourselves with these new awarenesses, and wanting to share these awarenesses with those around you, and that many will say to you, "Well, what are you, someone who believes in this reincarnation?" And immediately you feel a defense mechanism go up perhaps just by the tone of voice so often, or a particular book that is given to you by a soul who has not remembered from other times and is not as open in this manifestation as you might be, and you therefore feel so often at a loss as to what to say to these individuals.

Many times we realize you find yourselves in a position of defense for your beliefs and, in fact, not being able to adequately discuss what is perceived as this reincarnation ~ or, as we would like you all to begin really thinking of it, multiple lives, for reincarnation is an earth term that by its definition currently existing on the plane limits the true scope of the process and needs to have some expansion in regards to your own understanding, and therefore, how you might begin to explain to others what this process is all about, for there has been much misinformation over the many, many years in the current phase of the earth plane since the last cleansing, of interpretations of this process.

As happens so very often, a concept gets changed as time goes on as one generation of souls interprets and things begin to get a little muddled. It is a very complex process as is everything that occurs, as many of you are beginning to realize, that there is nothing simple in The Universe. It is simply levels of complexity that, as you open up your own awarenesses, you gain greater insights and become more closely aligned to the entire picture.

It is important, therefore, to begin to discuss some basic concepts regarding multiple lives. We will introduce you to these concepts during this session, and we will allow enough time so there can be a discussion and an interaction from those of you who might like to ask the questions. And we will continue, as we see fit, to add to the discussions and eventually to have presented to you as much as we feel you would be able to understand at this point in time, and then as awarenesses begin to increase, so too will the knowledge be given. So.

Multiple Lives, Part I. ☺ ☺ It begins at the beginning, which has no beginning. How is that for a beginning? ☺ It begins when each of the energy forms, all of us, for we are all One, spring forth from The Creative Force, attached, of course, by the very thin, thin cord I have described before. And each energy form has as its objective to grow and to learn and to return eventually to the One.

All Energy Forms Are Connected ~ Light And Dark ~ All Are Connected
(May 03, 1988)

What seems to be lost in the understanding is that all energy forms are connected. We have indicated this before, and we will reemphasize it now in this discussion, for it has significance and is basic to an understanding of multiple lives. The connectedness, no matter how fine-tuned it may appear to be and so distant it may appear to be to some energy forms, is nonetheless present at all times. Even those who we would refer to as being in the ultimate darkness, at that end of The Spectrum of Light and dark, are all connected. It is all connection. And certain energy forms are given from The Creative Force, very specific roles, and various Kingdoms are then assigned to energy forms. And know that this coming and going occurs constantly. It is a continuous process.

There are energy forms as we now speak who are bursting forth from The Oneness about to take on their task. And as you know from previous discussions of The Angelic Force, it is a very specific assignment that is given. And there are many of The Angelic Force, for example, who were assigned to this position, have never been in any other manifestations, except for some who may on occasion materialize for purposes of delivering messages. Recorded history documents those types of occurrences. However, there are the majority in The Angelic Force who have not gone through the process of birth to come onto the earth plane, so they have their very specific assignments, and the lessons that they need to learn are very specific and may, of course, be different from lessons that other groups and energy forms must tackle, nonetheless no more difficult or no less difficult, simply different.

So, there are Kingdoms or roles that energy forms are assigned, and each of these areas has a way in which growth can occur. There are millions upon millions, billions would be a better definition for you, of energy forms who will never come onto the earth plane, for their path takes them to other dimensions, other planets ~ planets that you are not aware exist, for they are not necessary to be known. They are in other parts of The Universe.

And thus, you begin your travel upon a path, and you have laid out for you those issues that you need to work on, those types of strengthening and growth that you choose to work upon, for you have left The Creative Force willingly. It is all a part of the fun of it, you see. ☺ It is not that you were thrown out of The Oneness. That did not occur. It simply was that it is all a game, my dear friends. It really is. It is quite fun. We know that when you are embodied on the earth plane in those horrible little shells that you really do not believe me!

No. ☺

And you think, "No. This is not real what he says, and I do not want to leave this body even though I do not like it, and I do not know what is coming next, and this is terrible, such long time." Or some of you, just the opposite, feel, "Oh, I love this little body. I do not want to ever leave." Many do whatever they can to avoid the leaving because they have become so attached.

Understand, first of all, that all of this is what you might look at as ~ I am trying to pull an analogy for you of games that you play on the earth plane that might ~ oh, it is all much like this game called Chess where you are out to play to others and conquer somebody else and become king of the mountain, so to speak.

And it becomes clear as you come closer to your own heightening of awarenesses that it is not this Chess game, but rather something that you are interconnected with every other energy form. You begin then to take on a different perspective. It is then that your progression changes and you begin to realize that you are a part of this total by choice, so that the Whole can be made stronger, not weaker, for when the initial bursting out from The Oneness occurs there is a sense of independence, and the sense of independence is what has become confused in the minds of many currently on the earth plane, and their understanding of how The Universe works. The independence is a part of the whole process ~ that feeling of independence is necessary, for it serves as a motivator. It serves to exhilarate each energy form, to begin this process of strengthening, and depending on the Kingdom in which you begin, will determine where you will go in various dimensions.

Now the earth plane is used by several kingdoms as a training ground and is set up with various types of experiences specifically geared to those issues that need to be resolved. Included on The Earth Plane Kingdom are various other planets, some of which you are already aware that circle the physical earth itself. When energy forms manifest on those other planets it is in a form different from that on the earth plane, Planet Earth. And then, of course, there are a myriad of other dimensions that have within them levels, which have levels within them, which have levels within them, to which you aspire as you move along.

Now, the purpose of the energy form, each of you, each of us, is to brighten and strengthen. You all begin with a basic degree of brightness, and once separated from The Creator, free will is instilled, becomes a part of the energy form. This is necessary so that the games can be played and the fun can be had. For you see, if we did not do this, we would really all be rather bored, for what would we do if we did not continually play?

Free Will Becomes Part Of The Energy Form ~ And Then There Are Testings (May 03, 1988)

And so, the free will, therefore, gives to each energy form the right to go in whatever direction they choose, and as happens so often, energy forms begin to choose areas that are not for their growth, for you see, those areas are presented at all dimensions, not just the earth plane, but in every dimension, in every level.

Depending on what is defined for lessons in a particular level, the tests are given, so that the free will can be exercised, and therefore you choose to go ahead, to stay where you are, or to move backward, if that is the best way to describe it ~ becoming lighter, staying the same shade, or getting darker. And that remains until the next test is given, and each test that is given to you is an opportunity to make that same decision ~ lighter, same shade, darker. Easy. ☺

And you then begin to say to The Universal Forces at that level in which you are, how often you want your tests. If you are happy at a particular level of brightness for the time being you say, "Do not send me any tests. I do not even want to have to exercise my free will." And this is fine. And then when you are ready, you simply say, "All right. Send me a test." So, the test is sent and you have the opportunity to make your decision. And so, you can move forward, back, stay the same. And you can move forward a few little tests, and then decide something comes along, and you decide, "Um", and you move back and you move forward and you rest. It is a continual thing.

Even the brightest of you when faced with a test will move back. ☺ It is all right. You see. It is all right. There is no pressure here. The only pressure is what you place upon your own soul, what your soul says, "Well, I have decided that I want to get back to The Creator in X amount of millennia". And so, decides to just take on all of these tests and move along and do all that, and actually those souls are rather boring because they just keep moving ahead and they just begin to take themselves so seriously. And they are no fun. ☺

We all like to play, you see, and all of the tests are brought on by each soul. It is a game that they have decided to play. And many souls choose to play the same games, and therefore they have many companions. So many of you are playing the game of ~ TEST MY PATIENCE ~ TEST MY SENSE OF WANTING CONTROL ~ TEST MY SENSE OF JUDGEMENTS TOWARD OTHERS. And so, many of you jump in to play the same game, and therefore can help each other, or you can choose not to help each other, and in fact not help and be a hindrance.

Parallel Lives, Lifelines ~ The Ability To Manifest In Different Places At The Same Time (May 03, 1988)

Now, I am going to give you one particular point here, then we will continue our discussion of it at another time, for I know that there are many questions that you have. It is important for you all to know that as energy forms, you have the ability to manifest in different places at the same time, and the more you are advanced, the greater the ability to disperse your energies and to do it in various ways.

There is a concept that has already been presented on your memory banks, if you will, and in the knowledge that is currently available on the earth plane. There are many who are beginning to discuss this, and it is what is referred to as parallel lives in which your own energy form is, in fact, manifesting in some other part of the earth plane, be it Planet Earth or another part of the earth plane simultaneously. Not all energy forms choose to do this. It is an opportunity for those who do choose to take this path to truly accelerate. It is acceleration on an already accelerated plane.

Now, when an energy form decides that they will do parallel lives, and a good estimate is perhaps twenty-five percent of all energy forms decide to take this path, the issue of multiple lives then becomes rather interesting, for you might think of it as two or three different kinds of lifelines, each having their own set of lessons being learned, and energy forms interacting with almost as if it were two or three or four different lives that have their own little stories, and each has their own set of manifestations, you see. And often, for this small number, twenty-five percent who choose to do this, the lives sometimes will overlap, and sometimes the same souls in one line are the exact same souls as in another life, and then there may be another lifeline where you have an entirely different group of souls who you are interacting with.

And so often, when we are asked by any of you about past lives, and you ask about a particular person who is in your life now, for example, right now in this consciousness that you are aware of, and we must then look at the total scheme of things. And so often there can be confusion, for if we are being asked a question like this by an entity who has many different lifelines, some of which may be crisscrossing and some of which may not be crisscrossing ~ you can be doing both, you see ~ then we may, in fact, sometimes get the lifelines a bit confused.

We might be looking at two intersections, two different lifelines, and there may appear then to be a confusion. While you said that this person did this, and this, and this, and now you are saying that this person did something else ~ while it is therefore the result of a crisscrossing depending on the kind of lifeline that is being followed. As more and more energy forms, all of you, reach a higher state of advancement, you are beginning to choose to do parallel lives. So, to say reincarnation, really does not do the process justice, for yes, you do come back to the earth plane, and to many planes, but in far greater complexities than many would even want to think of.

We understand that many of you here, and many who would read the transcripts of this session and those to follow, will be utterly confused and frustrated, because just now you are beginning to understand coming back, so to speak, just beginning to feel comfortable with what you would perceive as one lifeline. And now, to present something that is far more complex, for many, will be almost a short-circuiting.

However, we know that there are many who are not only ready for this but are anxious for this knowledge ~ for it means their ability to advance even greater. There are several of you in the vibration during this session now who have become rather stymied in your growth, needing to have some greater awarenesses presented to you so that you could then begin to examine yourself in a far more in-depth manner ~ knowing for many of you, that there is much more to all of this than was being discussed ~ and that now you have the opportunity when stretching to reach your Higher Self, knowing that you have at least another lifeline, perhaps three or four more. Some of you here ~ there are two in particular ~ who have five lifelines. Ooh! Much to explore, get to know the total energy that you are.

I promised Mushiba that I will not discuss her lifelines. She gets very upset with me when I start discussing it, and I would encourage you all to not talk to her about it. Do us all that favor.

Now, with that bit of information as a finale to PART I, we have some time for possible questions. We understand that some of you may not even know what it is you do not even know, but you want to ask. We understand that. There are also some of you who may ask a question that we feel will be far too complex in its answer to provide to you at this point. We will try to keep this first session as simple as we can so that those of you who are hearing it can digest it, and those who will be reading this in the future can also digest it, step by step. So let the questions begin.

Relating To Parallel Lives ~ How Can You Describe Individual Energy Forms?

(May 03, 1988)

Could you give us a more graphic description of individual energy forms so that we can visualize better how there can be parallel lives?

Each of you is an energy form. That means individual. Barnabus (the dog) is an energy form. He is an individual energy form in and of itself. The fish here (in the fish tank) are individual energy forms. They are contained within themselves. We have not, and we have not done this purposely, discussed twin flames and their separation. That will come at another time. So, each energy form, a rock on the earth plane is an energy form, everything has life in some form and therefore has its own level of energy, and depending on what that level of energy is determines where you fall within the scheme of life. You see? Does this answer your question? We are confused as to what you are confused about.

How can we be in two places at once? Is that what you mean?

Ah, yes, indeed. This is an area that we know will be confusing and not understood by many of you, for it is the process of energy itself that allows splits, the energy itself. Think of yourselves as a piece of dough for bread, a little ball, and if you are a little ball and the yeast is in it and you keep that ball as it is, it will expand. It will grow. Bigger and bigger. If you take that piece of dough and you divide it, it does not harm the dough, and each piece then becomes its own little piece and it grows. And if it is kept close together it can fuse back. And you can cut that dough again and again and again. It is still a part of the whole. It has come from the whole and at any point can be brought back into the whole, so that the ball becomes one again, for it is all from the same ingredients, you see. And it can go its separate ways, knowing that it can come back.

So, too, is energy able to be split. Each individual energy is a ball. Think of it as a ball. I have described to you so often that you are all little Lights, little flashing balls of brightness in varying degrees, and that can split, you see, and go and form a particular manifestation. The difference, of course, between you and a piece of dough is that when your energy form splits, the thread of which we all know connects us to the One is not severed. It is simply spread out so that there is this connection. The thread connects so that there is never the danger of the energy splitting and being severed from its main source, and this enables the energy to take on different manifestations. Does that make it any clearer?

Yes. I guess I was thinking, too, about connectedness of consciousness, but of course that would always have to be there, too.

The thread is what keeps the connectedness to The Universal Consciousness.

One Of The Conditions Of The Earth Plane Is Time, Which Is An Illusion (May 03, 1988)

Is it safe to say that there really is not any time because that is our invention? There is only eternity. So, these coexistences that we might have, could we say we are living one life in 1988, and one life in 1066, or another lifetime in the future, all simultaneously because time is really an invention of ~

That is correct. And it is an area that many will be unable to grasp. You have a basic understanding of it for you know what question to even pose, you see, or that it does in fact exist. There is no time, you see. One of the conditions of the earth plane is time. It is part of everything set up for this particular dimension, so that there are, for example, different lifelines that you can be living in ~ let me see, I will give you some dates just as a reference point. Let us say you have a particular life in which you live until 1900, and you have another life in which you were coexisting in 1900, and you left one manifestation in 1900, and the other manifestation you left in 1920, and you may have started that manifestation while ~ let us say you started one manifestation in 1900 and ended it in 1950, and another simultaneous manifestation began in 1920 and ended in 1930 or 1960, or began in 1890 and ended in 1920, you see.

It does not mean that your parallel lives run exactly according to the time frames that you have on the earth plane. It is simply that there are certain manifestations that need to be worked out. Also, the whole issue of past, present, and future on the earth plane is of a very limited scope, but we will not go into that at this point. However, your question, your observation rather, is correct as posed.

Along the same line, I would like to question a little further on that. We know we have had, let us say, times that existed thousands of years ago. Now what you are saying is that even though we say we existed thousands of years ago in the different form, our same soul had a continuity through all of this. You are saying that thousands of years ago could be happening simultaneously with the life we have right now, which is two thousand years in the future.

That is correct.

Do We Have One Soul Or Does That Soul Get Split Up Between All These Lives?

(May 03, 1988)

Ah, good question. No, you have one soul. The consciousness of the Soul is imbedded into the thin cord. This is the constant. The energy itself that surrounds the cord is what has the ability to split. It is not the Soul that splits, so that the Soul remains constant in whatever manifestation one takes on. You are not separate souls. This is true of the twin flame phenomenon. The Souls are one. So that whatever the Soul has mapped out for itself for lessons, it decides then how it is going to meet those lessons, and if it means manifesting on the earth plane in one lifeline and taking two thousand lifetimes to do it, to get through a few lessons, and then knowing that it might take another ten thousand lifetimes, that is up to the Soul.

The Soul can, however, decide that it will take four different lifetimes, or two different lifelines I should say, lifelines, and split up these manifestations so that rather than following one lifeline and having to take ten thousand manifestations, for example, I just pick a figure, some are less and some are more, it in fact could only take five thousand because you are doing it simultaneously with a plan of action. "While in this particular lifeline I will learn certain lessons," and "In this other lifeline I will learn other lessons." Do you understand?

It becomes much easier to understand if you look at it like ~ Well, I guess no one has trouble understanding that we have lifelines connected to the Universal God, or The Creative Force. Now, since we are One and are just like The Creative Force really, in a separate location, there is no reason why we cannot have five to ten lifelines, almost like connecting our own little Creative Force down here.

Oh, absolutely.

And I guess the question I had was, how do you keep all these records together so that they are being written in one soul? 😊

Ah, indeed. We would expect from you that kind of concern. 😊 You have a strong imprint upon your soul for record keeping, keeping it all in order. This is why your manifestation, what you are conscious of right now, is in this field of computers. It is all very natural to you. You do have several lifelines, my son, that you are dealing with, but you already know that. We wish you luck. 😊 😊

I need it. 😊

And the games will begin now with your Higher Self as you begin to sort through them. Yes, there are many ~ when you view a particular energy as being a powerful soul, being advanced and having great enlightenment, the chances are quite good that that entity has several lifelines. You should not view these individuals with trepidation or fear or jealousy ~ jealousy being, of course, an earth plane test. Rather, you should view these individuals as helpers, for if you are an entity who at this point does not have multiple lifelines, it does not mean that you will not have them. It just means that you have chosen until this point not to. You are free at any time to embark upon that particular avenue.

Do Each Of Our Lifelines Have Basically The Same Characteristics?

(May 03, 1988)

Yes. You are looking perhaps for ~ characteristics being probably the best earth plane word to describe it, similarities of philosophy and similarities of mission. There is a common ground since the Soul, of course, is the same, that each lifeline takes on a certain characteristic, certain principles that the Soul adheres to. There are, however, differences, and these are necessary so that the full scope of the plan can be implemented for the advancement and the learning process, so that if you were to, for example, take two or three lifelines of the same energy form and spread it out on the table, you would see commonalities within each lifeline of the personality of the Soul, which is what is manifested on the earth plane. It is a part of that manifestation. You would then see others that were dissimilar but, when put together, make the whole.

Lifelines Can Choose From A Portfolio Of Skills And Talents Available, With Percentages

(May 03, 1988)

Let us say being able to sing, or not being able to sing. Is that something that you come in with?

It is a decision that is made by the Soul. It is one of those areas that is a common one that energy forms have available to them, to develop. There is a whole portfolio of skills and talents that are available, and you can pick and choose from them.

And so, certain energy forms will decide that they want to develop singing, for example. So, they will map out a strategy for developing that. And it might entail development through two lifelines, or one lifeline, for singing, and another lifeline for dancing, or percentages of both, perhaps placing a greater emphasis in one lifeline on singing, and a little bit of an emphasis on dancing, but not too much. And in another lifeline, having a greater emphasis on dancing and a lesser influence on singing, or in any other skills, in developing the psychic abilities, and in being able to heal with the hands, being able to use crystals.

All of these skills and talents are those that The Universe provides, and you can pick from as many as you want. You have an unlimited choice. Some souls choose many, many and others choose a few. It is entirely up to the energy form. It then becomes, the more you choose, the greater the tests that will come with each talent and ability that is chosen.

Discovering Other Lifelines Through Meditation

(May 03, 1988)

If we are an energy manifesting here today, can we get glimpses of our lifelines that are occurring in other times? If we have an affinity for a specific period in history perhaps, is that like a soul memory attached to this lifeline?

To answer the first part of it, you can begin to develop an understanding of lifelines that pertain to you by your meditations. You will find the answers from within by seeking the connection with your Higher Self. And if you, in fact, do have multiple lives, parallel lives, then you will begin to be given that knowledge. The first step will be if you are ready to know this in your current consciousness. Then it will be given to you for information. It is like everything else. When you are ready to know something then it will be shown to you. Once you begin the search for understanding what might be other lives, other lifelines, you will then be given the information as you are ready to accept it on what those lifelines are and how they connect and what they mean to your soul.

For the most part, this knowledge is kept at a minimum while you are manifesting on the earth plane, for it would be so very overwhelming to the majority manifesting in a particular form now to comprehend the enormity of the lifeline, and in fact, it may not even be necessary to be consciously aware, for it may interfere with your conscious manifestation. You see? There is a difference between conscious manifestations and unconscious manifestations.

So those parallel lives that many have are unconscious manifestations. So, when I refer to conscious manifestation to you all, it means the one in which you are aware right now, what you are, who you are, right now sitting in this environment with your friends, with your acknowledged mission, your work that you do. It means that for some, while you are sitting here you may be out in another manifestation and doing something else. That is an unconscious manifestation, and for the most part a soul allows only one conscious manifestation.

To have awareness of an unconscious manifestation comes only with a level of advancement that is able to take it on, for it could interfere, and many times if you are having one or two or three unconscious manifestations simultaneously with your conscious manifestation, they will, in fact, be affecting how you behave in the conscious manifestation.

There are connections, you see, of course, so that if you get particular thoughts that you do not know where they came from, it could be that you are receiving a message at some level from one of your unconscious manifestations. If you are feeling unexpectedly unhappy, for example, or unexpectedly happy, it could be that one of your unconscious manifestations is having that emotion, and at some level it is being transferred to you.

Can One Part Of You Be More Advanced Than Another? (May 03, 1988)

In discovering what is going on in parallel lives, does this mean that when segments of ourselves are in other dimensions, and manifesting themselves, do they in their own way, are they vibrating at a different level or a different advancement than other segments? And do we become whole with the combination of vibrations?

The vibration is common to the Soul. It is connected to the Soul and not the energy itself. There is a difference between the energy form and the vibration. An energy form has a vibration. The vibration remains the same. The energy form may split, but the vibration is the same, so that if the energy form is in various dimensions, it is connected. The thin thread that connects the Soul, as I have said the Soul is the cord, that vibration remains the same. We have not really given you a discussion of vibration. There is again a misunderstanding of what that is all about, but that is for another time. So, yes, your level of advancement, if I am understanding this, you are wondering if one part of you can be more advanced than another.

Correct.

That is not possible. Advancement is vibration and that remains constant regardless of where a part of the energy form happens to be manifesting, and as the parts begin to increase so too does the whole.

Well, it is time now to depart. We are most appreciative to all of you for the prayers that you have been sending to Mushiba and the Light that you have been sending to her. It has helped her in the lessons that she has taken on and the test that has been given to her. As always, prayer means the union of other souls to helping each other in the accomplishment and the meeting of tests, the accomplishment of lessons. And what you do for Mushiba, you do for yourself and for those around you. It is the interconnectedness, and you have helped very much in her attempts to deal with this, and we are all very pleased at the efforts on many of your parts and we thank you, for it brings her closer to us.

Being In Several Places At One Time ~ The Ability Of Energies To Subdivide (August 23, 1988)

I have a question concerning your ability to be in several places at one time. I had read in the Urantia Book that Gabriel was quite busy, and he was assigned a lieutenant because it said that he could not be in two places at one time. So, I was questioning, is this a definite ability, that you can only be in so many places and then after a while you do need help?

It is a rather complex issue. The energy, every energy, has the ability to divide into an infinite number of sub-energies, as we would call it. Each time that the energy subdivides it takes ~ it is not as strong and vibrant as the whole. Nonetheless, it is able to function. What occurs is that depending upon the strength of the energy, and each energy's strength varies depending upon their own attunement, there is the ability to determine how many divisions they can go into without it affecting that which they do.

Even though, let us say, an energy divides in half, there is very little noticeable difference in the strength of the energy when it divides in half. When those halves divide there will begin to be a noticeable lessening of the strength of the energy, so that some may subdivide into hundreds of little energies, others may only perhaps subdivide into ten energies without it affecting its overall vibration.

When the information is given that an energy cannot be in more than one place at a time, it is actually an oversimplification, meaning that there is only so much subdivision that a particular energy can accommodate without it becoming diluted. So that, for example, Gabriel is at the Highest of The Angelic Force and in charge of a kingdom and has in comparison to most energies the ability to subdivide into thousands of energy forms. However, even Gabriel reaches the point of saturation. And when that begins to occur then emissaries are used, or as might be termed lieutenants.

I have mentioned that one of my special emissaries is Bathusela who is part of Waith and Company, and Bathusela has been called upon by me in several occasions when I have reached the point of saturation. And yet there is still a calling upon my energies, and Bathusela will go and attend.

So that what is actually occurring is that when it is stated that you cannot be in more than one place at a time it is actually a reference to the point of saturation. So that point could be thousands for one energy, and three or four subdivisions for another energy. It is stated in that way that you referred to for simplification, as symbolism, to understand that there is a point of saturation and that help is then called upon, and it is help that comes from The Angelic Force. And that those of you other energies have the ability to subdivide.

We have discussed what is referred to as parallel lives, simultaneous incarnations. This is in reference to the ability that each of you has to subdivide. Whether you choose to do so is entirely up to you, and we have mentioned before, of course, that in numbers we look at approximately twenty five percent of all the energy forms choosing to do simultaneous incarnations. This is in reference to the earth plane experience. It is much easier to subdivide in other planes. The earth plane experience has a level of difficulty for subdivision that is part of the earth plane experience itself. And so, while we ourselves as what you might say an energy, one energy, cannot be in more than one place, we can subdivide.

You see, The Creative Force can be anywhere anytime. It is all. It is permeating. It is complete. There is no subdivision. It simply is, you see. Energies subdivide. That is the difficulty that many would have, and thus it is with caution that even the explanation that I give is presented for confusion in thinking that that which you have been given as The Creator being able to be everywhere at any time, that is of course valid, and that we are a part of The Creator, each of us, as energy forms. We are The Creator. However, when we are apart from The Creator we can only subdivide. Once we become One with The Creator, we become infinite and therefore simply exist forever and everywhere.

What Is The Purpose Of Entities From Other Planets Visiting Here On Earth?

(August 23, 1988)

I remember that you were talking about UFOs before. It seems to me that these creatures from other planets approach mankind in a way that frightens us on Earth. What is their purpose? Are they trying to contact us, or to get in relation with us? Are they trying to experiment with us? Are they trying to frighten us?

First of all, remember that the earth plane consists of not just Planet Earth. We have given out this information in previous sessions, that it consists of many planets and many dimensions. Those energies who now come onto Planet Earth are all part of the earth plane. They are not coming from any other experience. They are the earth plane experience.

Now, for the most part, they are benevolent. There are, of course, some who are not, just as there are on Planet Earth, those who are good and those who would seek to destroy. Part of the problem that exists is that those on Planet Earth, those of you as part of the experience of the earth plane, find yourself enveloped in fear of the unknown. Because of that you create scenarios of disruption, takeover, control, and this is not necessarily the case.

There are many now coming from other dimensions of the earth plane experience who are here to interact, for their places of abode are also going to be affected by the cleansing. You see, this is an earth plane cleansing which does not exclude the other planets. It is not just Planet Earth. And as I have mentioned in a session not long ago, Planet Earth is the pivotal planet. It is the center and all those from other planets and other dimensions on the earth plane experience are now being drawn to the center, many of whom are here to help in whatever way that they can for the overall cleansing experience.

However, it does not eliminate the fact that there are some who are malevolent. They would seek to disrupt and, in fact, destroy the progress that has been made at the spiritual level. As we speak so often about, the realm of dark versus Light exists at all levels in all dimensions, not just on the earth plane experience. And therefore, all are susceptible, and you simply learn through your own meditations and your own experiences how to deal with those who would try to disrupt you, remembering also that what may be disruptive for you may not be disruptive for someone else. It is dependent upon your own progress upon The Spectrum of Light and dark, so that an energy form that might disrupt you may, in fact, have no effect upon someone else, depending upon Light and dark.

Also, what occurs in this phenomenon, which is distastefully called UFOs ~ and I would interject here that I have given quite a bit of information on this subject, and you might refer to the subject index that is available, perhaps avail yourselves of the readings ~ these beings should not be thought of as foreign, for they are all part of you. And for some of you, not anyone currently in this vibration, but in other areas, there are simultaneous incarnations occurring.

Discussion Of Parallel Lives ~ You Just Might Have A Lifeline That Is On Another Planet (August 23, 1988)

That means that an energy form currently on the earth plane and its experience has subdivided and one of the energies is on Planet Earth and another is on one of the other planets, and naturally, that dual energy is visiting the Planet Earth ~ parallel lives, so that it is conceivable and that one of you has a simultaneous incarnation occurring on one of the other planets and comes and visits yourself. ☺ ☺ It happens.

Susan Discusses The Lifelines That Someone Is Experiencing In Their Dreams (November 07, 1988)

I try to listen to my dreams. The impression I get out of a lot of my dreams are like double realities and double dimensions. Is someone trying to tell me something?

Susan: That which you refer to in your language as a double reality is in actuality a connection with another lifeline that you have. Waith has discussed the topic of lifelines, and you have three lifelines as an energy form, and at varying times you will make connections with a lifeline. It is an opening up of soul memories that are helping you to solve particular problems in this conscious manifestation that you find yourself in now, and you are going to the other lifelines to help you, and therefore you see what you might call a double reality, for you have three different realities depending upon the lifeline that is being worked on.

In your particular case, you have another simultaneous lifetime occurring, and of the three lifelines, therefore two are simultaneous now and one is not. It is in the Soul memory. And it is the Soul memory lifeline that you are seeking out information to help you in the merging of the lifelines, for the simultaneous lifeline currently is in need of merging, and you seek out the techniques for that merging, and it will make this physical manifestation that you currently are in much stronger.

I do not know if my husband can handle that! ☺

Susan: Ah, yes. We will be having a session very soon on a special topic, Waith has indicated, the role of the female energies in helping the male energies. It has been touched upon by Waith in other times, and we know that it becomes an issue of great concern recently. The female energies seem to be gaining in strength and finding relationships with the male energies to be deteriorating in some cases simply because of the fact of their being, and so this will be a special topic where we will give you guidance and it will be one in which Bathusela and I will come through with Waith.

It will occur after this current cellular change that Mushiba goes through, for after this particular cellular change, we will be able to occupy simultaneously the vibration and we will be able to carry on conversations as if we were all just sitting here, and so the three of us will be able to speak without pauses to come and go. It will be after this cellular change which will be the first of what would be the New Year. We will in the meantime give you some guidance in how to interact, male and female energies. It is not for this particular time, for Waith will set the stage, shall we say, for this by providing certain types of information. It will begin, he tells me now to tell you, with sessions beginning perhaps next time or the time after.

As Far As Truth Of The Soul Goes, How Does That Reflect On A Parallel Life? (November 29, 1988)

The issue of parallel lives when there is an interaction at the earth plane level, first there needs to be the understanding of who is the parallel life to whom. This is part of the lessons that the Soul has taken on in allowing a parallel life to coexist and to know of each other. It is part of extreme accelerated learning and there is always what we refer to as the dominant parallel or the dominant energy in the parallel life situation.

There is, as in all parallel lives, a splitting up of the tasks. The Soul has X number of issues to deal with in its sojourn on the earth plane and these tasks can, of course, take on one lifeline, or in the case of entities wanting to accelerate they will split up the tasks among several lifelines, and, for example, if an entity has chosen to have three lifelines, then the tasks are divided among those three lifelines.

Now the issue of truth and Unconditional Love are major tasks that have subdivisions in them, and when there is a parallel life occurring, regardless of how many there are at a particular moment in time, there will be different issues being dealt with. The parallel lives, of course, are the same entity and therefore are at the same point in the path. There is not a difference in that. However, the issues to gain a greater ability to have Unconditional Love, for example, will be split among the lifelines to work on particular minute specific issues that, when the merging of the lifeline occurs, there will be a greater understanding. There will have been one lifeline wrapping up some issues and bringing them back into the dominant energy.

So, the truth for one lifeline still may not be the truth for another?

That is correct. That is usually what will be the case, for the reason for having more than one lifeline is to be able to split all the tasks.

With those lifelines interacting with each other, is the Soul building karma within itself?

Not at all. Not at all. But it is far more complex than it would appear to be. When an entity decides that it will, in fact, have conscious interaction with another lifeline, this takes great strength of Soul for the dominant energy, and there are other types of issues that would need to be discussed. The lifeline that is not the dominant one ~ when realization of the relationship becomes clear, in some cases, can create some problems, but it is part of the lessons that the Soul has taken on in developing strength for itself.

And know that lifelines, as we have discussed, are unique for earth plane incarnations only ~ they do not occur in other dimensions ~ and that the dominant energy will, in fact, know that it is the dominant energy and will, in fact, be the giver of the Light to its own soul, another lifeline. Remember that it is, as I said before, the sign of very dramatic and very, very intense accelerated growth and is to be viewed as such by the dominant energy and the lifeline.

Waith Discusses The Subject Of Lifelines, And That Lifelines Can Have Lifelines (January 31, 1989)

I have been reading Exploring Atlantis. I have gotten a better understanding of lifelines. I did not realize that there was a Core Soul that ~ the way the book explained it, is at One with The Creator and projects Souls from this Core Soul, and then we project more, if I understand it right. One question I have is, do our lifelines project more lifelines?

There was a session quite some time ago in which I gave you all a description of what you would call in this vernacular, the Core Soul. You will recall that I was trying to illustrate it by using my hands and giving you a discussion of very thin, thin lines and the cord that was projecting from this. What I was describing to you in that session was the beginnings of a discussion on a very, very complicated issue, and one that for many requires an acceptance of other concepts before an acceptance of that which is called THE EXTENSION OF THE CORE.

The Oneness we speak so often of is all of you and all of us and every energy. The One is the Core, yes. Out of the Core comes all of the little energy forms, and energy forms have the ability to break into as many little energy forms as they want, and those little energy forms can break into energy forms. It is an infinite ability, though not always done by an energy. There are situations, and we have discussed that the lifeline issue, that approximately twenty five percent of any number of energies currently out of the Core, out of the One, are taking on lifelines. This, of course, means that about seventy five percent of the energies choose to be the one energy that comes out of the One.

But this is at any given time. Once an energy who has taken on many, many lifelines merges the lifelines and/or becomes back with the One, then others decide that they will take on lifelines. It is not that only a select number of energies are able to do lifelines. It is that by some decision made among all that only a certain percentage will do it at any point in the game, shall we say.

Now, we have also indicated that for the most part we like to see no more than ten lifelines for a given energy. However, this has not brought into the discussion that the lifelines can also have lifelines, you see. And that the lifelines of the lifelines can have lifelines. It becomes fewer and fewer percentagewise where this situation occurs, because it entails a great deal of energy expenditure and it does require an advancement of soul. There are currently, of all the energies now out from the One, those who are having extended lifelines to the lifelines, make up perhaps one to three percent, a very, very small amount.

It is a very difficult path to take when one takes on what can be in so many cases a simultaneous manifestation, not only for the energy expenditure itself but for the earth plane experience of meeting a lifeline, for example, and dealing with all of the issues that go with that particular phenomenon. And thus, it is that an energy will choose to do this when they feel they are ready for it. It is not something that is required. There are many energies who never take on a lifeline. Lifeline simply means that you are able to play the game much faster, and then return to the One more rapidly.

Now, if I were in spirit, I could still have lifelines on the earth plane? Or on another planet?

Oh, indeed. The lifelines go all over the place. They are not necessarily limited to this plane. In fact, so often there may be only one or two of the lifelines on the plane of earth, and others are on other planets, in other dimensions, all with their assignments with their types of issues to deal with. For many of you here on the earth plane, your manifestation represents a very small part of your total energy. And for others, the manifestation represents the total energy. And for the most part, you would be unable to tell the difference, which is as it is, of course, to be.

Do Lifelines Share Guides?

(May 16, 1989)

In some cases, they do and, in some cases, not. It is determined by what the mission of the particular lifeline is. As a general rule, they do not share guides. There may be a host of guides assigned to the dominant energy and out of that host of guides there is a dominant guide that, shall we say, directs the others, and thus it may be that one of the host of guides would be assigned to one of the lifelines leaving, then the dominant energy for the time that is needed. There may be occasions when a particular lifeline has taken on a mission that requires a special type of assistance, and the guide then would request assistance or it would be determined from whoever was responsible ~ whichever of the energies and guides were responsible for monitoring a particular energy's guides.

Was I Correct In Thinking That My Lifeline Was Draining My Energy?

(May 16, 1989)

Oh, indeed. This is a very common phenomena when you are experiencing parallel lives, and for many of you in this gathering you have a number of parallel lives coexisting with you in this manifestation and there can be a drain on the energies. There can also be a surge of energies. It works in both directions. It is a function of attunement as to how this is controlled. If you are aware that you are, for example, being drained from one of your parallel lives, you have a very particular technique that can be used to help you protect yourself and prevent this drain, as you would feel it. Many of you will feel this, and if you feel a drain on your energies, you may want to determine if there is a pattern, as you did, my dear ~ a particular time of day perhaps, a particular day of the week, particular kinds of behavior that you may engage in, or incidences that might occur that pull on your energies. It might be that it is a parallel life that is doing a particular activity that requires more energy and would automatically go to its own energy source.

A Technique For Blocking A Drain On One's Energies By A Lifeline (May 16, 1989)

The technique that you might use that can be very beneficial to you is to place yourself in a seated position and to close the eyes and center your attention upon the Third Eye. Bring your hands up to the Third Eye as such (pyramid position with fingers pointing out from the Third Eye, tips of thumbs meeting and forming the base at the forehead), and what you want to be doing is to connect with the Solar Plexus and the Third Eye, for it is through the Solar Plexus that the energies come and go and it is through the Third Eye that there can be control of the energies, you see.

And so, you will have your hands in this particular position and with your eyes closed and your thoughts centering on the Third Eye and having Whiteness ~ the White Light in the Third Eye, you take this Light and as you move your hands down, you are bringing down a stream of White Light ~ much like a thread, you see. Perhaps visualize something of this thickness. You bring this down, down, down, down like this into the Solar Plexus area, and you visualize this thread actually sewing up your Solar Plexus, thus preventing escape of energy and withdrawing of energy.

This will last for as long as you determine that it is needed, you see. And this is where you will experiment perhaps. You may say that you need this for one earth plane hour and at the end of that time The Universe will know that it is time for the Light to release and it will do so. If the parallel life has not gone its own way in getting its energies, then it will then be able to take energy. If it has finished, then you will know this. So, if you begin to feel an energy drain again, then use the technique once again. It does not take very long for you to do and can be done with a minimum of attention being given to you.

What I have been doing is ~ when I fill myself with the White Light, I try to envision my lifeline and surround her with the Light also. And when I am communicating with her, is she aware of it at Soul Level? Is it getting through?

At Soul Level, yes. Yes, indeed. Understand that each of you in dealing with a parallel life ~ those of you have this to deal with in this manifestation ~ are aware at Soul Level of what you all have to do and what your missions are, and one of you may be more aware at conscious level than the other that the other exists.

Can Depression Be A Symptom Of Energy Drain?

(May 16, 1989)

Oh, indeed, it can be. Yes. However, it can also be an indication of an attack from the darkness. It can also be an indication of a balancing that is occurring at Soul Level with a particular issue. It is not one of these categorical situations where one could say that such and such a situation is a direct result of something else. It is why meditation is so critical for each of you so that you are able to learn from your Higher Self that which is causing a particular situation.

Can A Parallel Life Be On Another Planet ~ Because Another Planet Is The Earth Plane

(May 16, 1989)

Indeed. Indeed.

So, it does not have to be on this Planet Earth.

Indeed, it does not, and in many cases, is not on the physical earth but on one of the other physical manifestations that are part of the earth plane.

Special Topic Session ~ Parallel Lives, Part II

(July 23, 1989)

Thus, we begin with The Universal Consciousness as The One. It is the energy of One. It is that which has many names. It is known as God on the plane, it is known as The Creator, it is known as The Creative Force. It has many, many names which give its definition relating back to that which is The One. In the spirit world there are no names per se, you see. We do not go about calling each other by names. We refer to another energy as simply the vibration by which we know the energy. It is a communication that is not known on the earth plane as it, of course ~ is not to be on the earth plane. Thus, we begin with The One.

Now there is order in The Universe. What might appear to be randomness by many simply is not so, and in order for The Universe to maintain its balance there must be organization, as you would know it on the earth plane. This is the word that would best illustrate it for you. Thus it is, that in our prior discussions we presented to you the concept of what you would refer to as an organization chart. We now elaborate on that.

The Hierarchy Of The Universe (July 23, 1989)

Out of The One there comes what is referred to as lead entities or lead energies. They comprise one percent approximately, if we were putting percentages on them, of the total energy force. It is these lead energies who then produce what are called dominant energies. The dominant energies comprise approximately ten percent of all the energy forms. From the dominant energies then become splits, so each of the energies out of this ten percent dominant energy split. Some of the splits may split. But out of each of these splits there then becomes the beginnings of lifelines, and a lifeline can have a lifeline, who can have a lifeline, who can have a lifeline, who can have a lifeline, etc. This means that ninety percent, approximately, of all the energies are lifelines of either another lifeline or directly to the dominant energy.

The dominant energy is connected directly to the lead energies. The lead energies give their direction so that order is maintained within The Universe. All are connected. Regardless of where your particular energy falls within The Spectrum, you are all connected by what we have referred to in the past as this very, very thin thread. ALL energy is connected. We will speak in this session only of that which is known as the human entities, for you are all now part of the human entities. We will not direct any of our discussions toward The Animal, Mineral Kingdoms and other Kingdoms and the way in which they are connected also to all of you. We will discuss that at another time.

Now each of you, then, is an energy form in and of itself unique to yourself and yet a part of The One, and that the order is maintained so that as you progress along your path you are directly connected to a line of influence, shall we say, that goes directly back to the lead energy who goes directly into The One, the lead energies taking their direction from The Universal Consciousness which is all of you. So, you, on one hand, as energies, take your direction from the lead energies and on the other hand you give your directions to the lead energies. How does that one grab you?

Now, you give direction through The Universal Consciousness to the lead energies in trusting these lead energies with the responsibilities of maintaining the balance in The Universe as you as separate energies go about doing what it is that you need to do in order to grow. So, what you have done is give over the responsibility to one percent, if you will, these lead energies, for helping you to go through your path, for challenging you, for the lead energies give their direction to the dominant energies. The dominant energies report back to the lead energies. So, we have these dominant energies, and it is from the dominant that the lifelines begin to present themselves.

Now, many of you have the ability to have simultaneous energy projections. Remember that there is no time, except in the illusion of the plane, and thus, you have manifested yourselves on the plane placing a particular series of events occurring with the illusion of the plane. It does not mean, however, that that is it. Many of you have chosen to take on a number of lifelines.

The largest that we allow would be ten lifelines. This is all that any one energy form can maintain. Approximately twenty five percent of energy forms take on lifelines. There are many energies who have come from the dominant energy force and have established ten lifelines and perhaps those ten lifelines establish ten lifelines and they have left it at that. It can be that the dominant energy is, in fact, not giving out lifelines but simply splits and that is that ~ it does not have any lifelines. It is all organized, if you will, by the lead energies.

Now it becomes complicated, therefore, when you as an energy would want to know something about a past manifestation. It is not quite as easy as you think to get to that information. It is not like a computer where we push a button and we find a particular item of information, as you would identify it on the plane, but rather we deal with a webbing effect where lifelines overlap lifelines which overlap lifelines which overlap lifelines. It becomes very complex.

Jenjura And The Webbing Effect (July 23, 1989)

Part of what Jenjura helps us with is to unravel a particular lifeline so that when a question is asked it is his responsibility to go to the records where this is all maintained and work his way through the mesh in an attempt to sort of straighten it out, you see, so that there can then be an understanding of the directness of the line rather than it taking a turn here or there. The problem occurs, of course, when many who are attuning themselves in this lifetime and in past lifetimes, and are referred to often as psychics or others who would give information from this dimension into the plane, would in fact give you a misrepresentation, for they are not able to tap into the fine tuning, that which is exact, you see. Even for us at times when we have given out information, we have given information of overlaying lifelines, you see.

The accuracy factor is not one hundred percent as much as we attempt to make it completely accurate. It will not be inaccurate, it will simply, perhaps, be confusing, for we may give you information about one lifeline and then another time when a question is posed there may be information coming from another lifeline that has overlaid it and we have not smoothed it out. We have on occasion in private sessions been asked particular questions by an entity and we have smoothed out the lifeline, and while it is smoothed out, we are able to give the progression. Once that is back in its webbing then it is not the same. Too many other things, other events, begin to make the webbing fluctuate.

Now, each of you then has the capability and the ability to have lifelines. For whatever your reason, only twenty-five percent choose to do this, and this is fine. There are many of you in this gathering now as we see the energies who have simultaneous lifelines occurring. They may be on the earth plane or they may be in other dimensions. They may be in other planets of the earth plane. They may be in other types of physical encasements, different from what you are accustomed to in this illusion.

Connecting With One Of Your Simultaneous Lifelines

(July 23, 1989)

What occurs when you are running simultaneous lifelines is that your energy is affected by the energies of the simultaneous lifelines, and thus, you may begin to have certain drains on your energy or you may feel spurts in energy where you gain energy, or you have certain insights. You wonder where something came from, where certain knowledge came from. It may not necessarily simply be soul memories ~ it may simply be that you are connecting with one of your simultaneous lifelines. Many have the ability through meditation to reach their other lifelines by reaching the Higher Self ~ you are able then to go to those other lifelines and communicate and help each other at the Higher Self level. And many of you will not be able to do this, at least in this incarnation, but would be advised to attempt the beginnings of doing this so that when you return in another incarnation you will have increased your own abilities to do so.

The Running Of The Universe ~ Balance Must Be Maintained At All Times

(July 23, 1989)

The running of The Universe is not easy. The balance must be maintained at all times, for if the balance were not there then there would cease to be ~ all that is would not be, and thus it is, that the balance is there. Now many of you think that once you have finished on the earth plane and you go out into other learning and you learn other lessons and you are then able to return to The One, that that is it.

Well, first of all, you must think of the return to The One as the closing up of lifelines. So, the very final lifeline, wherever that happens to be for the lead energy that has produced the dominant energy must fold up, must finish. And when that one is finished there is a merging and that merging takes place and then it merges the next, it merges whatever branches have occurred. All must merge and move its way back up until finally there is the joining back with the dominant energy. The dominant energy then takes its direction from the lead energy and the lead energy either puts the dominant energy back into The One or brings it back into its own energy. At that point, you see, you are now One again. What to do? To stay there for eternity? Hardly. Many do decide to stay and be a part of The Universal Consciousness and to stay as One but most do decide that they would then want to do something else.

Remember that the earth plane is one very small arena in which energies play. It is only one playground. However, it does offer much, and as we said before, when you enter the plane experience you have a Menu of lessons from which to choose and you select your Menu, your items from that Menu, leaving much that you have not dealt with, and thus, once you return to

The One, you may decide that you would like to come back and have more. Thus, you begin the experience all over again of coming out of The Universal Consciousness through the lead energy, through the dominant energy and then through a series of lifelines.

Now, you may then decide that you want to be a part of the dominant energy. You want to be a dominant energy. This is possible. You may have taken on the role at one time of going about and being twenty-fifth in a series of lifelines. My! Next time around you may, in fact, become a dominant energy. It is not that all those who are the dominant energies are always going to be dominant energies, that it is a locked-up society, shall we say, but rather all energies have all possibilities.

The Universal Consciousness Is Divided Into Five Kingdoms (July 23, 1989)

What results, however, is that again ninety percent of energy forms choose not to take on the responsibility that goes along with being the leaders, shall we say. Those who are involved in the dominant energy assist the lead energies in the running of The Universe. It is not easy. The dominant energies take very specific energy forms who are lifelines and, shall we say, groom them to help run the various kingdoms that compose The Universe. The Five Kingdoms at any moment have a series of entities managing it, so that The Universal Consciousness, you see, is divided then into Five Kingdoms. All is quite ordered here, shall we say, that those of you who have chosen to come in through the sign of Virgo would appreciate the order in which we discuss this. ☺

Thus, The Five Kingdoms are, shall we say, divisions of the dominant energies. It is all quite fun actually. Those of The Angelic Force ~ as you know, The Angelic Force is comprised of two types of energies, those who have been of The Angelics from the beginning and those who earn their way into The Angelics. Those who were of The Angelics from the beginning come directly from the lead energies and take their direction from that source. Amelius is a lead energy. I report directly to Amelius.

So, you are a dominant energy?

No. We do not fall under that category. We do not go through that process. We are, as I have mentioned very early in the time that we began here, that The Angelics are of a separate support system, and thus, we come directly, we bypass. We are not ~ we do not have lifelines. The only ones of The Angelics who have lifelines are those who have not originally started as Angelics.

Now, remember that given all that I have told you, that those who would come directly as Angelics, for example, once we have finished our time, as you refer to it, and decide to go back into The One, that we could come back out again and go through and be a lifeline. Also, any of you who have gone through and have been lifelines, once you get back into The One you can come out again as an Angelic, you see. Remember that we talk about eternity. What is, is, and that this will give you new, shall we say, food for thought about judgement and judging others, for you know not what they have been before or what they will be in the future, whatever that is, for time overlaps ~ there is no time here. It simply is.

You are all a spot in the illusion, and other events occur as you ground yourselves in this illusion that you find yourselves. It is a story. The pages flip, and in this particular illusion of separation from The Oneness, you find yourselves in varying roles, for your belief in being separated from The Oneness is an illusion, for we are all in The Universal Consciousness. We are all not separated but yet we are, for you believe it to be, and thus, all that I have just told you is an illusion. ☺ I will take questions now.

With those lifelines, I picture a spider plant, and from the main plant there are offshoots of little ones. Would this come close to what lifelines are about?

Yes.

And if I unravel or want to close one lifeline, I must begin with the last one?

Yes. You must begin at the bottom. You cannot do it in the middle and leave the rest behind. It must all be ordered up, up, up.

Now those single extensions, do that all have extents of Self, individuality, uniqueness?

That is correct. Absolutely. Every energy has its Self and its uniqueness and its own soul that is connected to The Universal Consciousness as one soul.

Situations Relating To Someone Having Feelings Of Detachment (July 23, 1989)

You mentioned lifelines existing at the same time as we do. I personally am having a hard time grounding myself. Last night, I felt I was somewhere else while I was working. Am I crossing over to another lifeline? Is my energy being pulled from me by a simultaneous lifetime?

What many of you will experience here and those who will read the transcripts, can be several different issues. There may simply be the fact that you are not grounded in this lifeline. You may, in fact, not have any other lifeline occurring and yet have a sense of not being completely on the conscious level, and this occurs quite often. It means that you need ~ now, this may sound a bit contradictory but you need to meditate and reach your Higher Self in order to ground yourself, for you are going into what might be an uncontrolled movement of spirit from physical into spirit, not keeping yourself fully anchored in the illusion that is necessary for you to be in, and thus the meditation will help you to ground.

On the other hand, there are those situations where there is a connection occurring with a simultaneous manifestation and that you will have a sense of being on the plane and in and about your responsibilities with the illusion and yet not be there. You need to not fear this but understand that you need to keep this under control, and what may be occurring is that your particular simultaneous lifeline may have a stronger energy than you do, for when the lifelines are granted out there are allocations of energy, so we look at the whole and you as an energy.

You are an energy, and you may be, let us say, twenty percent of another energy. However, you then become one hundred percent, and you have a lifeline, and that lifeline you have given of your total energies, you have given, let us say, twenty or thirty percent energy. That energy, if it wants to take on a lifeline, would then have one hundred percent energy but it would give out maybe one percent of its energy to another lifeline.

Now what occurs here then is it is determined by the percentage of energy that you have been given by your lifeline that has provided you the stream as to who controls whom, shall we say, in the energy world. So, if you have more energy than your lifeline then you are able to take control over this energy attempting to interface with you during this simultaneous time. If, however, this energy is the stronger, has more of the energy than you have then that energy would be able to control, you see.

Do Our Lifelines Have The Same Soul's Purpose As We Have, Or Different Ones? (July 23, 1989)

Simultaneous lifelines will be given a particular mission. Lifelines are given a particular object in terms of what they are to accomplish. A lifeline may be given, perhaps let us say, one percent energy to go out and do a particular task which could encompass many, many incarnations and lifelines of its own. It is then called back into the energy that maintained ninety nine percent of the energy. That energy who maintained the ninety nine percent would then be ready to be called back into its energy line. That who maintained the ninety nine percent may in fact only have been given fifty percent energy from its source. That is very complicated. We told you it would be.

As I understood you, your soul adds up with one hundred percent. However, it could be that you have given sixty percent of your original soul energy into a simultaneous life and taken sixty percent from someone else? Does it mean that you can split your energy into certain percentages, whatever you want to give away into simultaneous lifelines?

That is correct.

Could that be the answer to schizophrenia behavior of people?

There is a role in that, yes. That is an issue which will eventually be brought out into the open as to what that is all about. But yes, there is a connection there.

Could You Tell Us The Difference Between A Lifeline And The Twin Flame? (July 23, 1989)

There is no ~ they are not of the same issue. You must remember that an energy will split and when an energy splits it is therefore what is called the twin flame. Now each of the energies that have split can then, in fact, have their own lifelines. It then becomes much more complex, for if you are dealing at a lifeline level then you have a lifeline that splits. Now that lifeline that splits before they form lifelines may split again, or as has been the case in situations, the energy rather than splitting into two may split into three or may split into four. It then is possible that each of those split and have twin flames. There is a difference between a split and a lifeline. A lifeline is part of an energy and an energy can split.

Now can a lifeline split into twin flames?

Yes, most definitely. This is why it is so complicated, for the lifelines will split and the splits will split and the splits will have lifelines and those lifelines will split and then those lifelines could split and form their lifelines. This all quite ordered. This is all quite ordered.

Can The Dominant Energy Split In Lifelines, Being In A Particular Situation At The Same Time? (July 23, 1989)

Yes, indeed. This is part of the role of the dominant energy. It gets its direction from the lead energy so that all is ordered. It is organized. There is a little chart, shall we say, if you would look at it in that respect. It is all planned out, you see.

So, if there was a particular need for a concentrated effort in one area, you could then pull all the energy into a specific purpose.

That is possible, yes.

You said that when we come in, we have certain lessons to work on. When we are ready for more lessons that we send it out to The Universe. When that is happening are we giving instructions to the dominant and the lead energy, saying okay, I am ready for more lessons, or slow up the lessons?

Yes. It automatically goes up through the line.

The chain of command?

Yes, the chain of command, and it goes to the dominant energy, and if the dominant energy is not quite sure what to do with it, it goes to its lead energy for advice, shall we say, and then it immediately is sent back. It is a process of ~ instantaneous, you see. Now there are very rare situations in which the lead energy takes on the function of going through at the dominant energy and comes onto, shall we say, the earth plane to learn certain types of issues, to learn things or simply because they do get bored. The lead energies can get bored! ☺ The lead energies do not as a general rule take on earth plane and other types of situations. However, in rare cases that does happen and that is quite an interesting phenomenon to watch.

Do Some Lifelines Take On A Role Of The Darkness In Order To Counterpart Something Else? (July 23, 1989)

That is correct.

So, it is just a role. When they finish that life, they go back and become whatever they want?

It is not quite as simple as that. It is not quite as simple as that at all. And that is an area that we will not go into in this session for it is of its own discussion as we give you more and more information about the Light and dark. You are being given enough to comprehend in this session without complicating it more with that type of information.

Can Some Lifelines Take On A Lifeline To Balance From Another Lifeline? (July 23, 1989)

Indeed. Yes, that is possible. Again, that is for more advanced discussion of lifelines, for that takes on even more complications.

Must The Lead Go Through The Dominant, Or Can The Lead Go Into Any Point? (July 23, 1989)

The lead can go into any point, absolutely ~ any point at all. It can go into the lowest level of lifeline in order to influence if it feels it is necessary.

When the lead does go down into one of the lower types of lifelines, would that be what you would call a walk-in?

No. Not in this particular case. The lead ~ what you refer to as walk-ins is something that is capable from many, many different levels of attunement. What we refer to now as the lead going in at any point is a separate type of situation. The lead would not walk into another energy form. The lead would take on a physical incarnation.

A Question Of How Jesus Fits Into Amelius, The Lead Of This Kingdom (July 23, 1989)

In the case of Jesus being part of Amelius, Amelius is the lead of this Kingdom. Jesus was what?

That entity known as Jesus was a, shall we say, Ambassador to the Lead Energy of Amelius and was trained very specifically on the earth plane in many, many incarnations to serve a very particular function and is a part of the Lead Energy known as Amelius. However, it is far more complicated than we would want to present at this point in our discussions.

So, you say he was a lifeline?

It is not quite as ~ saying that he is a lifeline would be given out only for simplistic reasons for understanding. It is more complicated than that, which you will learn in another time, my love.

An Avatar is the Sanskrit name for a God incarnating, a master. Would an Avatar be referring to the dominant energy going to the end of the lifeline? Jesus was an Avatar?

He was considered to be. You must remember that as the question was posed, "What was the role of Jesus in relation to the lead entity?" Those who you would refer to in this way, my love, are Ambassadors, as we would refer to them ~ as best to illustrate who serve a very particular function coming out of the lead energy. They do not come out of the dominant, they come out of the lead. And those who have been on the earth plane in your recorded history now have been such. Those who have taken on very significant roles, those who have started, shall we say, major religions, who have been instrumental in the giving of information.

Moses, for example, was one such Ambassador who is the same energy as Jesus. They are coming out of the Lead Energy for this Kingdom. A number of Ambassadors who have taken on varying roles of significance, not just in the area of what you would call religion but significant roles in the areas that each Menu item represents, music, painting, dancing, healing, all of those major Menu items will bring forth at the necessary time an energy coming out of the Lead Energy to help move along the progression of that particular Menu offering.

A Discussion Of One's Guides And How That Can Fit Into Lifelines (July 23, 1989)

Guides are simply advanced entities who have gone to spirit form and take on helping others.

So, a lifeline does not necessarily have to be manifest?

No, no, indeed not.

Are you saying that we can be a guide in another lifeline?

It is possible.

Also, can we have a guide from more than one kingdom?

No, that does not occur. Kingdoms are quite distinct in their responsibilities. The Universal Consciousness divides up into five parts ~ The Universe ~ and allocates what kingdom will do what in terms of the balancing, and they do on occasion, the lead energies, may consult with each other and ask permission to enter into the realm of another kingdom for various reasons. I have done this on several occasions going through Amelius to learn information about another kingdom.

A Discussion Of Five Lead Energies And Five Kingdoms (July 23, 1989)

When we talk about lead energies, there must be many lead energies in The Kingdom of Amelius, so He is not the only Lead Energy? There are other lead energies taking care of other parts of this particular kingdom?

If it were that simple.

Is there a dominant lead energy?

There are five lead energies. Now I have indicated that approximately one percent, however, it becomes far more complicated, you see. There are five lead energies and the lead energies have ~ how shall we say this ~ they manifest ~ they take the form of five because at this point there are five kingdoms so this is a total mapping ~ it is an energy that is One ~ it is one percent. And it splits into whatever is needed to maintain the balance. So, in this particular scenario, this story of which we give you, there are five kingdoms and therefore the energy has split into five lead energies. If there were six kingdoms, there would be six lead energies, The One percent would split into the appropriate number to run the kingdoms. If there were only two kingdoms, or whatever there would be, two lead energies, yet it would be making up one percent of the total. Do you understand?

How do these energies relate to the Soul?

Which energies do you relate to as these?

There is The One. So, The One is the main soul?

The One is The Universal Consciousness of which all are a part.

I am getting into the definition of the Soul because you say that as energy splits and lifelines form that each lifeline has its own soul?

That is correct.

Because I am picturing the correlation of the plant, the spider plant having its main soul and that each little shoot that branches off has its own soul.

That is correct.

So as the lifelines come in as the Soul is moving, as the entity or energy form is moving closer to The One, then each of these separate souls merge into the main soul? Of the energy form.

Eventually. They merge into that which is the lifeline and then that becomes a merging into a higher, into another lifeline, or a branch comes and merges in so that eventually each little piece merges with the other and moves all the way up and becomes once again a part of The One. The Soul is a part of the major soul, The One Soul, you see.

Does the amount of lead energies change? Do the number of kingdoms change?

Oh, indeed. Yes, indeed. The storybook now is five kingdoms.

So, it is an illusion?

Yes, indeed.

So, you cannot always specify. It could change?

It changes when the duration of this particular storybook is completed. Look at time, you see. The earth plane is so hung up on time, the illusion of it. The time of five kingdoms could be on earth plane time two trillion/zillion years and then that story is over and then we start with another one. They go simultaneously.

At some point at the end of the story, everything goes back to The One.

Perhaps not. Only if there was an end. Forever and ever and ever.

When one chapter is over, does that mean that we can go back to The One and then there is another story?

It is not quite as cut and dry as that, but for purposes of the frame of reference, this is how we present it to you.

Those of Waith and Company who are not always of The Angelics, maybe working toward it, or have earned their way in, where do they fit? Are they dominant energies under the lead, or are they other people's lifelines?

That we are not able to give to you. They are being trained for very specific roles.

When you energize a crystal for me, for example, do you have to go through the leads of either the crystal's lifeline or my lifelines and such?

Ah, how insightful of you. ☺ Yes. But we will not address that whole issue at this time, for it becomes time for me to depart from this session. However, you have opened the door for an advanced discussion of crystals. We must have the permission to do much of what we do. We do not impose upon any entity, and thus it is, when a crystal is to be energized it is an instantaneous situation, but we do go through the proper channels, shall we say, to gain permission to do that.

When the earth shifts will all five kingdoms be involved?

Essentially. For your limited abilities on earth plane to understand, yes, it would happen in that way.

Because I am very much impressed by Ruth Montgomery's version and as I understand she belongs to another of the five kingdoms.

Yes, she does.

Her information is very much the same as the information that you are presenting. So, is there some cooperation in communication?

Oh, absolutely. It is that each kingdom has its role in the balancing. All the information is the same ~ it coincides. It may sound different depending upon certain situations, but it is given out in different language ~ perhaps wording ~ reaching different types of people. However, there is for advanced entities in the kingdom the need to go to the other four kingdoms to learn the information that comes from those kingdoms in the way in which it comes so that there can be a total synthesis of information. We will leave you with this knowledge that you belong to one kingdom. However, as part of your path back you must have total knowledge of the other four kingdoms and interaction with those other four kingdoms.

We depart now on that note, leaving you, we know, with much to ponder and we will welcome in the future in Public Sessions any questions that you would have relating to this subject as you begin to synthesize, meditate and incorporate this information into your own Higher Self.

Contacting Parallel Lives (August 08, 1989)

I have a question about parallel lives. Somewhere in the transcripts, it talks about it would be good if we could contact, or try to contact, parallel lives. Is that good for everybody?

No. No, not good for everybody. If it is appropriate for you then it will be made available to you. If you are at the point of development where, and advancement where, you are contacting either through meditation or personally on the plane a parallel life or a lifeline, then that will occur, but it is not a particularly prevalent practice, for you have enough to deal with in your own manifestation, and it then takes on greater dimension when you begin to be in contact with a lifeline or coexisting manifestation. It can create difficulties. There are times when it is allowed to happen just so those difficulties can be encountered for lessons to be learned of a very strong nature.

But otherwise, unless something happens naturally, an effort to meditate the way we do, trying to get a vibrational name or something, that is not called for, or if we try and it does not work, forget it?

As always in meditation, in the reaching of the Higher Self, you attempt to go as high as you can and to gain as much information as you can, and if it is meant for you to have that information, if you are ready for it, then it will occur. Again, it cannot be forced, and if it is not right, then it will not occur. But to say that you should not do this in meditation goes against all that meditation means, you see. So, one would hope that you would evolve during a manifestation in reaching the Higher Self so that perhaps if you were not able to have direct contact with a lifeline in this manifestation you would have reached a certain evolvment that would carry itself through to the next manifestation that would bring you into a more receptive mode, shall we say, of meeting or contacting a lifeline or simultaneous energy projection.

If I understand you correctly, it is okay to go about attempting to contact through meditation. The caution is not to become obsessed with it.

Indeed. Indeed. It is as you would do anything in meditation ~ it is to allow the flow. If you attempt to say in your meditations, "I want this. I want that," it will not happen.

Main Topic of Discussion ~ Twin Flames (March 20, 1990)

You are currently in the phase of the Planet Earth in which it is called the new season. Understand that it has a certain effect from this dimension that we observe, and this new season will bring very interesting weather patterns, as we have indicated so often, that the weather patterns will be very, very changeable now as The Shifting grows near, and the scientists will be most perplexed at what will be occurring during this new season that has now begun. As you experience it, do so with a sense of humor, and you may perhaps say to yourself or to others, "Waith said so!" ☺ So be not surprised, my loved ones, when unusual events occur, and certainly do not be fearful or panic, as you might say, or any of those feelings. Simply enjoy it. It will be quite interesting.

We would speak with you in this session briefly on a particular topic that we feel will assist many of you in certain perceptions that you may be currently having, and it regards the issue of twin flames. We have much to tell you about this. We have only touched the surface in the past, and in this session, we will just give you a little bit more information. We hope this will help you in some misunderstandings or perceptions that you have that may in fact be hindering your abilities to deal with this issue.

So often there is the misunderstanding, first of all, of the difference between the Soul mate and the twin flame. They are two entirely different situations. The twin flame, briefly defined, is a split in the energy form. It means that the energy has split. It is not a lifeline. It is not to be confused with a lifeline. That is an entirely different issue. This is a definitive split.

Now an energy form can split in as many variations as it would want. When the word twin is used, it is to signify that this is the way it is done most commonly, that there are two that result in the split, but this is not always what happens. There are occasions when you could have triplets, you see, and that the energy form equally splits among three. You also could have each of those splits then splitting which would then split, which would then split. It is not done all that frequently though, that degree of separation. What generally occurs is one split.

It does not necessarily have to be, however, of equal energy. One split may be taking more of the energy. Let us say that it could be that in the split one part has eighty percent of the energy and the other part has twenty percent of the energy. The issue here is that it is a split. It is the same energy, but simply now divided, and the reason for this is to then divide up the roles, the tasks, the learning that needs to be accomplished, be it on the earth plane, be it in other dimensions.

Now, soul mate, on the other hand, simply refers to an energy who has a bonding with another energy where they have experienced beneficial relationships in other experiences, be it on the earth plane or other dimensions, and that a soul mate is not necessarily going to be forever on the earth plane. A soul mate may in fact join another soul mate for ~ it could be one hour on the plane ~ but it was meant to serve in some way to benefit both in learning and/or teaching. There is great thought given to all you beautiful forms on the plane now to "finding my soul mate," "finding my twin flame", as if this were going to be the ultimate, that all the problems would be solved once you found one or the other or both, you see. Now, it can be true that there would be much benefit, and there could be great joy and happiness in having a soul mate or a twin flame around, but it does not necessarily mean that that will be the case, for it could mean that you have set up a scenario before entering in which you knew you would be together in the experience on the physical, and that by being bonded at spirit, it would enable the work to be done at physical, to be easier.

Now, when it comes to the twin flame, and this is what we will concentrate on, the twin flame is the other part of who you are. It does not mean, however, that when you are in physical, and you are separate, that you would necessarily be harmonious. And it does not mean that you are harmonious even at spirit, for there can be the situation in which when the split occurred, one of the splits did not want it to occur, did not want to be separated from the total energy, and therefore is not happy. How is it, you say, "A Happy Camper"? ☺

Now, being aware that the twin is with you in physical gives you a very unique opportunity to work on issues and in fact to determine if there is any spirit antagonism about the fact that there was a split to begin with. This is of utmost importance. Many of you are with your twin flames. Some of you are aware of this and others are not. Many of you have your twin incarnated presently on the plane and the twin is not in the geographic area. You are not aware of the twin's presence and may not ever encounter the twin in this incarnation. Others of you who are aware of your twin must be especially sensitive to each other and in understanding that you are each other, regardless of what percentage of energy one has. If it is a fifty-fifty split or an equal division then it makes no difference as to whether it was an eighty/twenty, seventy/thirty split, you see.

What matters is that regardless of the percentage, you are the same energy. And if you would look at your twin and say, "I do not like what you do," you say that about yourself, and being incarnated with your twin and knowing this gives you a very, very special opportunity to see yourself. And isn't it rather disconcerting when you have seen an aspect of yourself, be it positive, or what you might call negative ~ though it is not ~ you would consider it something you would not want to know about yourself.

And thus, when twin flames are together, they can in fact be very disharmonious ~ so that you would have this disharmony, and unless you realize what it is about this could create more disharmony. But if you realize that in the disharmony, there is harmony, then you have the opportunity to truly strengthen the total energy and to understand that while you are each other, you each have certain tasks to accomplish, that you have looked at The Menu that is provided to you upon entering the earth plane and one part has said, "I will do this, and I will do this, and I will do this." And the other has said, "I will do this, and I will do this."

You must respect each other's selections, and that if you have finished with your particular task, or if you feel that you have energy to give, you can help your twin in their task, so that you can take on something for your twin, to assist. This is very, very acceptable for the twin flames to do, and they can do it without asking the other. Remember that we have said that you are not to impose yourself upon anyone else and that if you want to help another entity with their issues you must have their permission to do so. This is not necessary with the twin entities. This can simply be done and it is agreed upon at spirit, you see.

It is a very interesting phenomena this splitting of energies. What we find to be the most common, as we have indicated, is the one split ~ and it is usually done with one energy having more than the other energy percentagewise, that is more common. The next common occurrence is to have three ~ triplets ~ realizing of course that each of those entities would have varying percentages of the energy.

What is not so common is for a fifty/fifty split, and then for those fifty/fifty splits to then split. Usually, when that does occur, the two who have split in their splitting, usually will give a small percentage of the energy to that split. In the case, to give you the example of Mushiba and Abalma, they are fifty/fifty splits, and they have split, each of them, and giving one percent of their energy to their split, one percent.

However, what occurs, you see, then, is that each of these splits, be it two or three or whatever percentage, then can have lifelines. And a lifeline is not a split, but rather it is the projection of a part of the energy out, you see, a line, lifeline. It makes sense, doesn't it? And think of it as a sparkling energy form ~ and you see the thing shooting out from the energy, sparks, if you will. That is what a lifeline is, a spark that flies out of the main energy, and it has its own soul, which is a part of the total energy, and that lifeline can then have lifelines, you see.

Lifelines can split ~ how very ordered ~ and you all have your particular place within the scheme of things, for remember that we have indicated quite a while ago of the fact of the lead energies and the way in which there is a very small amount of lead energies, and that these then produce every other energy form. And thus it is that you are all somewhere within the general scheme, and that you have a twin perhaps ~ perhaps not ~ because not all energies split. Some decide that they want to maintain the total force and not to separate in any way, and they concentrate rather on doing, shall we say, lifelines. There are a number of you in the Community who have chosen to do lifelines. You are lifelines yourself, and you have lifelines, which then end at that point, you see.

Do not think that just because you are with your twin flame that all will be wonderful on the plane. However, remember that it is Self and that if you can truly accept that, that you will not feel threatened by this twin flame, but rather you will say, "Oh, this part of me is able to do certain things that I know I can do but have to put my energies into other areas, and isn't this wonderful that we can combine and truly be the one energy." And rather than fight the twin, work with the twin, even though there will be naturally disagreements, for Self looks at Self and sees what needs to be accomplished. And remember that within yourself you disagree with yourself internally ~ "Yes, I should do this." And "No, I should not do this. I am not sure what I should do." And you begin to have this conversation within yourself about doing something.

Just project this out into the larger picture, and thus, you would have disagreements with your twin flame. It is just that you are in separate encasements rather than in total. We enjoy very much seeing the tremendous growth that occurs when the twins decide to incarnate together and to be aware of their relationship ~ tremendous growth can occur. It can create problems if, as we said earlier, you fight each other. So, if you feel that you are with your twin, or have met this entity, or it has been confirmed in some way by some source, then you must first try to understand if you were both in agreement with the split and deal with that.

That is what we will give you for this session on the twin flame phenomena. We have given you actually a very simplistic description of it, and as time on the plane is progressing, we will give you more. We will take a few questions now.

Relative to the two not agreeing about the split, can't they reconcile that?

Oh, indeed. This is the purpose for determining if there is disagreement, for then the reconciliation can occur. Indeed. There must be a reconciliation before there can be the returning to each other.

Is there some way that you would know if you have met your twin flame?

This can be done in several ways. You may be fortunate enough to have a source confirm this such as myself, for I have done this with entities who have come to speak with me privately, and have asked, or I have given the information out voluntarily, knowing that it needed to be known. Another way is through meditation. If you come in contact with an entity who you have a strong sense about you may meditate and reach the Higher Self to receive the answer of confirmation.

There are reasons why you may not be allowed to know if your twin flame is with you. It may have been determined before entering between the two of you that you would not let it be known to you at physical that you were together, for that would not help in the lessons that you were attempting to learn or to teach. It becomes complicated, for there would be reasons why you would not be able to know, just as there would be reasons you would need to know. As we have indicated so often, it never hurts to ask. Seek it through your Higher Self if you feel that an individual may be in fact your twin.

Experiencing Accelerated Growth Through Split Energies
(March 20, 1990)

When the energies split, and there are different lifelines, and there are twin flames ~ does the experience of each ever come back together, to one, with the experience of accelerated growth of so many parts?

Yes. That is the purpose. Yes. You see, the lead energy could be very selfish and just decide to do it all themselves and not do splits and lifelines and all of that sort of thing, but then there would be no fun ~ there would be nobody to play with. ☺

Is It Possible In Meditation To Experience A Past Life Of One Of Your Lifelines?
(March 20, 1990)

Oh, indeed. Yes. That is what makes it so interesting and why we so strongly discuss the need for meditation and that you seek the answers from within, and that you learn to understand the Higher Self's message to you, so that you can begin to receive the answer from the Higher Self as to whether it was your actual experience or a lifeline's experience.

Speaking of the year would be insignificant. Is that true, because there is no such thing as past, present and future?

That is correct. Only on the plane is time measured. This is why when we are attempting to give information to one of you who would ask, that it creates difficulties, for there is no time, you see.

Have You Spoken Of Multidimensional Selves Before?
(May 03, 1994)

Not in great detail, my love, but we have discussed the concept of multiple lives, often referred to as lifelines. However, there is a bit of a difference between a lifeline and a multiple life and multidimensional selves. Oh, it is a wonderful discussion to be having, and we wanted you to place the question on the record, for what we do in our session with you now is to create the topics for the coming sessions, you see, as we come in to speak. We want you to think it is your idea that you have asked the question and that is our little secret. And we thank you for placing it onto the record, my love.

Do Twin Flames Have Separate Souls?

(August 02, 1994)

A question about energies and lessons. When you split off from The One Consciousness, and you form two supposed twin flames, you have one soul with twin flames?

Two souls, my love. There are always, regardless of how many splits occur, a separate soul.

Even with twin flames.

Oh, absolutely. This is a misconception that the twin flame is somehow the duplication. It is not. It is part of your energy, but it has its own path. It has its own soul. It has its own memories. That is why when twin souls get together there can be so much conflict, as well as harmony, for they are in essence the opposites of each other and the complements of each other.

So, there they are, the twin flames, each with certain things to learn. Do they then have the choice of splitting again so that their splits can learn some of those lessons and bring it back to it?

Indeed. That is exactly what happens, my love.

And then the split-offs from the twin flame, is that called a lifeline?

This is where we get into certain technicalities that we have given a great deal of information on, and we would not want to begin giving more of that. They are two separate situations which we would not want to continue in this Public Session with this discussion. But you, in essence, have at least the outline of, conceptually, how this all works. The thing to remember that even in lifelines there are separate souls. Whenever an energy becomes its own, if you will, it has a soul. It becomes then its own Self, regardless of its relationship from whatever point it came. Ultimately, once the lifelines merge ~ and the twin flames and the triplets and all the others that have split and gone their way ~ and all have begun moving back into their point of origin, eventually, all goes back into The Universal Consciousness.

And lifelines are just lifelines. They are not twin flames.

They are not twin flames, technically. It is still a topic of much interest. And, you know, we have much more time to spend with you on the plane, as Mushiba, if any of you speak with her, will give you now the countdown as thirty-three years and twenty-seven, twenty-eight, days, for we have told her that she will be able to leave when she is of the age eighty. And so, when we told her that ~ of course, this is another reason to not know these things in advance ~ she began the countdown. And thus, just a little humor there.

And as far as the multidimensional selves, that breaks off from that in another whole way?

Oh, another whole way.

Which you will talk about.

Indeed. You know, we have all this time ahead of us, as you measure it on the plane. We will be here speaking in this way with you until it is time for Mushiba to leave. So, we are here to help you prepare for The Shift. We will be here after The Shift to help in the adaptation to The New Illusion. You have much time to ask us these questions of importance.

The Vibrational Webbing Of Illusions Have Distinct Differences And Distinct Similarities (January 17, 1995)

In the course of all these illusions, has there been another illusion in the past that was similar to the one that we are coming to now?

Illusions have similarities, each of them, with each other. They need to have a similarity in order to keep a consistency of the vibrational webbing that goes from illusion to illusion. But each illusion has its own distinctiveness. Thus, the illusion that you are now about to come into does have some strong similarities to The Atlantean Illusion, but as we had mentioned before, you must be careful in thinking that it is going to be just like Atlantis, or will have the same types of issues as Atlantis had. It will have similar types of situations presented as Atlantis did.

The illusion that it has quite a bit of similarity with, we cannot give you a description of, for you have no frame of reference for it. It is not in your current frame of reference. For some, it is in your soul memories, however. When you go into your meditations, if you were to seek out that knowledge from your soul through your Higher Self, you may indeed be given that information. You may indeed be given an image. It may be presented to you in the dream state, in which you would find, because you were in that illusion that has great similarity to the one coming up, that you would remember it. What you might remember, however, is being in The New Illusion when it was on the earth plane a million years ago. You see, the illusions come around every one million earth plane years. They come back. And most on the plane, currently, going into The New Illusion have been at some point in one of these other illusions.

The difference, and the major difference, in an illusion when it comes around again, is its vibration. So, there is a different vibration in the illusion coming now than it was when it was on the plane one million earth plane years ago. It has the same components. It has the same script, if you will, but it has a different vibration. That comes as a result of all the exchanges of the different kingdoms and the energy exchanges. Think of it as the play that comes back on stage but has different actors. It has, therefore, a different flavor even though the scenery is the same. The interpretation is different because of the entities who are now playing the play. So, illusions then have very distinct differences and they also have very distinct similarities.

Discussion Of Vibrational Webbing Of The Earth Plane Dimension ~ The Web Kingdom
(January 17, 1995)

At one point tonight you discussed a vibrational webbing that we carry over from one illusion to the next. Are there any biological or mineral counterparts to that on earth, like certain earth minerals that predominate, or whether, for example, trees are going to be very important as energy, a place to hold and ground the energy during The Shift.

You have raised several questions, my love. Perhaps for this session we will address the webbing, the vibrational webbing, and give a bit more clarity to that and take your other questions as time progresses, as it is needed to know. The vibrational webbing is multilayered. As we have indicated, it has an inner layer and it has an outer layer as its major components. The planets that encircle the planet Earth have a vibrational component to them that provides the outer webbing.

The structures that you know now as the pyramids, and which will be replaced by new structures, provide the inner webbing. There is, however, much other webbing. There are other layers in between the outer and the inner that are provided by many of the kingdoms that are currently inhabiting the planet. All of the kingdoms, in their own way, do have a part in the webbing. However, the webbing in and of itself is a kingdom and is charged, then, with a responsibility for keeping the illusion together. The webbing is an encasement, and it is, therefore, available for any of you to go into. You can be a web, you see.

It rather shoots down the theory of hierarchy of kingdoms, does it not, that The Human Kingdom might be at the top of some hierarchy. There is The Web Kingdom, as best as we would give a name to it, for we do not give names as such. All of that webbing is energy, and each of you is energy. You are in an encasement currently that has a very definitive form to it that you know and recognize and identify with. Energy takes on many, many encasements, many forms, and you are able to do that. In fact, some energy has to do it or else there would not be a web if there was not some energy doing this as their job. In the Webbing Effect, however, it is the kingdom that lasts for the duration of an illusion.

And so, if you as an energy decide that you want to enter into The Webbing Kingdom, you are there for the duration of the time. There is no such thing as walk-in web energies. ☺ The energy transference program does not do anything. Once the energy is in place, it is in place for the duration of the time between the structures.

So, for example, the webbing that is currently set up for this illusion is undergoing its transferences. All is being prepared for the exchange of that information and that energy. The new energy that is going to take over the webbing for The New Illusion is coming in gradually now and has been for the past three to five hundred earth plane years in a rather dramatic way. It actually was set up for this transference two thousand earth plane years ago when we discussed that type of reconfiguration. So, all of the new web energies are currently coming in. Some of them have been on other training grounds and are finishing their work there, and the spot has been held for them. They will come, as time on the plane is measured, when it is appropriate.

All of the web energies for The New Illusion will be in place at the time of The Shifting. At that very moment, when the new structures are constructed, and the pyramids simply dissolve, the energies, the web, will dissolve. The energies will go back into another dimension and the new web energies will take over. And they will be committed to work in the duration of The New Illusion and its time on the plane.

There is much to give you relating to energy and The New Illusion that is of interest. Some of you may find it very interesting. Some of you may find it to be not so interesting, not important to know. If anything, it is good discussion. This is part of what we are charged with providing as time progresses. The Webbing Effect is one of those that we will be able to give even more specific information as some of the new energy that is positioning itself, for the web comes in and allows information about it to be given.

Do The Webbing Energies Have A Mission That Has Other Types Of Lessons To Be Learned?
(January 17, 1995)

I assume that the webbing energies have a mission that is quite different from humans ~ some other type of lessons to be learned?

Yes. Without going into it now. It is a rather interesting discussion and one in which we would talk of another kingdom to you about. We would simply say that it has its own scenario of lessons and its own scenario of teaching that occurs. Teaching and learning occur. It is a kingdom, just as The Human Kingdom. It has a network of communication. It has a network of social exchange, as do all of the kingdoms ~ different from what you know in The Human Kingdom, different from what you know in some of the other kingdoms in which you have some knowledge. Nonetheless, it is a kingdom in which there are lessons to be learned and taught. We would be discussing that as time progresses.

What About Vigilance At All Levels Of Attacks From Negative Energies When Opening Up? ~ Lack Of Vigilance Within The Energy Field Creating Weak Spots In The Web
(February 06, 1996)

Does vigilance have to be maintained at all levels because of attacks from negative energies that may come because of opening up to that channel?

Jenjura: Attacks are certainly a part of it, but vigilance is meant in all arenas ~ vigilance of the integrity of the energy ~ vigilance for the purity of the energy ~ vigilance for its Lightheartedness. It is something that must be maintained throughout the energy field. You, at concrete, are a very critical component of that vigilance, for you at concrete have been given the responsibility of bringing into physical form a lesson.

You have been given your instructions by the higher levels of Self. If you do this lesson that you come in to do correctly, then the vigilance is maintained. But if you fight it, then there is a lack of vigilance within the energy field, which then can create open spots, much like you would think of a web that is starting to have dissolving points. The web is starting to break. That is a very real situation for any of us. If we do not maintain the vigilance, the web can begin to break apart or weaken. And when the web weakens, or breaks apart, it makes you susceptible to attacks. It makes you susceptible to many activities that occur in The Universe.

We are all, at some point, having a web that is a bit frayed, shall we say. Being on the earth plane, for most of you, means that you have a frayed web. You are here to pay vigilance to it, to give it strength, to mend it. That is the job that you take on when you agree to come on to the earth plane.

Why, specifically, the earth plane? Is it because it is such an accelerated growth that it strengthens the whole energy to have gone through the experience of being here?

Jenjura: Yes. As has been stated so many times, the earth plane is one of the most accelerated of training grounds and one of the most difficult of training grounds. There are others ~ not too many, but a few others ~ that are of equal difficulty and acceleration. This certainly is one of the most challenging of the training grounds. Certainly, however, it is not the only training ground, and certainly not all that there is in the learning outside of the Universal Consciousness.

It is not so difficult in other training grounds to learn. The concrete in other training grounds is not quite as concrete as it is here. It might, in fact, appear to be abstract by your definition, as you would have your frame of reference in this training ground. What appears to be abstract to you in this training ground may, indeed, be concrete in another training ground. This is the joy in trying to go to the root of your own energy ~ to move through the web, to find a clear passageway, as clear as you are able. And if you are not able to reach the root, there are many stops along the way, outposts of your Higher Self. And it is these outposts that we will help you to reach. So, you may not be able to reach your Higher Self in this lifetime, but you may, indeed, be able to reach an outpost in your journey.

Lifelines, The Webbing Effect, The Concrete Rooted Self

(February 06, 1996)

Your soul is in concrete in a particular training ground, and it is also having an abstract, which has a concrete, which has an abstract, which has a concrete, abstract, etc. ~ all of this connected with that fine energy line that you are all so familiar with that connects all energy. It is that fine energy line that you would attempt to plug into. Remember now, this ~ you have concrete that has abstract, that has concrete that has abstract, from one dimension to another dimension within Self. The concrete and abstract concept is infinite, my loved ones ~ within Self, within each of you, and then into the larger photograph. Each of you is webbed within Self, and your web then goes out into The Universe and becomes hooked up to other webs. The concept of lifelines ~ many of you having many lifelines ~ which then have lifelines, which then may have lifelines, or splits, all part of you. They too have a webbing effect. It is this reason, this web, that makes it so difficult to learn of Self, for unless you know the roadway, you will get lost. It is as simple as that.

Now, let us return then to the webbing effect and the roadway. You have all of these lifelines. You are living simultaneously in many different dimensions from your own energy field. You have splits of your lifelines, and those splits develop lifelines. It becomes an infinite possibility. You are somewhere in that web. You may not be the energy from which you sprung. You may be a part of that energy. So, you must find your way through the maze, through this webbing, back to your source. For some of you, that may be a very rapid journey. You may not be far from your source of energy, your root energy. For some of you, you may be way away.

However, the journey back to your root, your source of energy, can be easily achieved through particular techniques in meditation. This is what we will present when we speak in the second session of this month. We will be giving you Techniques to Work the Maze. So, this will be what we present to you. We would take any questions now that you might have of us.

Jenjura Gives A Technique ~ To Help You Get Through Your Own Webbing Of Self (February 20, 1996)

Jenjura: Blessings to all of you. It is with great pleasure we return in this session after our last session, and it will be one of the last times that we gather in such a grouping, for our work keeps us in the stacks, so to speak, of the library. We are most pleased now, then, to continue in our discussions of the webbing energy that surrounds each of you ~ each of us.

In our last time with you, we presented to you the complexity of the webbing effect. It is not as complex as it appears to be, however. It is quite easy to work through your own web. We will now, in this gathering, give you a very particular meditation technique to help you get through that web. We do not guarantee overnight success. Do not be looking for what you call a quick fix. This technique, for many of you, will need to be worked through, and in some cases, many earth plane years before you are able to adequately smooth out your web. However, this technique is designed to help you to move into one of the Way Stations along the way in your journey to find Self.

It is important that you be seated for this technique. To stand for this technique is not appropriate. The seating position enables the webbing effect to truly take on its own identity. By seating your encasement, you allow all of the nooks and crannies, as you call it, in your physical encasement to expand and allow all of the nooks and crannies of your energy field to fill all the nooks and crannies, as you would call it. If you were to stand straight, it would actually be disruptive to the webbing. Thus, it is important, then, that as we begin this technique, you are, first of all, seated, and that secondly, you have your legs in a relaxed, open position so that the ankles, as you call them, are not crossed. You may have your feet flat on the floor, or you may have your feet stretched out, as many of you have.

You would now place your hands in a very relaxed position beside you ~ yes, beside you. It is time now to slow down your vibration. You begin first by calling upon the very Highest of the White Light.

Repeat after me. (Repeated)

- I call upon the very Highest of the White Light.
- And I call upon my Angelic Protector.
- I call upon my spirit guides.
- I ask you all to gather now.
- And surround my energy field.
- With your protective and guiding white light.

And now, breathe in slowly. Breathing in through the mouth, take a very slow and deep breath and hold it, and breathe out through the nose. Allow the breath out through the nose ~ in through the mouth and out through the nose. Slowly, once again, in through the mouth and out through the nose. Slowly again, in through the mouth and out through the nose. You are relaxed. Your hands are by your side. Remember to keep your hands by your side. You are relaxed. You are clearing your mind. You are now beginning to visualize a long pathway free from any obstacles. The pathway is straight. It is your pathway. It is wide open. You are able to walk easily on this path. The path you see is your beginning journey. You begin to walk on the path, and as you walk, you are seeing your energy swirling around you.

Repeat after me ~ (Repeated)

- I see my energy swirling around me.
- Again. I see my energy swirling around me.

Enjoy the feel of your energy as it swirls around you. You are feeling covered by your own swirling energy. Allow yourself to feel the swirling. Enjoy the feel of your own energy surrounding you.

Repeat after me ~ (Repeated)

- I love my energy.
- I send my energy all the love.
- All my love from all my levels.

For a moment now, feel the love of Self ~ feel the love of Self. It is time now to begin working out of the swirling energy. Visualize a net in front of you as you begin to walk down your path. You walk into the net, and the net surrounds you. It is very light. It is white. It is filled with energy. It is filled with knowledge. It is your knowledge. It is your net. It protects you. It guides you. It contains all of the knowledge of your path. Feel it surrounding you. Envision yourself now, placing your hand onto the net and touching a very small part of the net.

Repeat after me ~ (Repeated)

- I call upon my own knowledge to give me enlightenment of my own path.

Feel the energy transferring from the net where your hand is placed and running through your energy field and through your encasement. The energy contains a very small piece of information about you. Allow the energy to flow into your Heart Energy Center and feel the energy focusing within the Heart Energy Center, surrounded by love of Self. Allow now that energy to flow slowly upward to the Crown Energy Center. It slowly moves up to the Crown and rests on the Crown Energy Center.

You are now able to access the information contained in this energy that comes from your net. It is information that only you will know and it will guide you in what to do next. Listen now to the knowledge. It takes only a moment for the information to be infused into that which is your Conscious Self. You have now been guided for the journey. You will slowly and very calmly relax to a much deeper level and receive greater information now. (There is a pause)

We bring you back to the Crown Energy Center ~ slowly returning to the Crown Energy Center ~ filled with new information. You slowly now, begin to envision the net that surrounds you, and you return your hand to the spot on the net from which you gained the energy and the information, and you close that spot with your own energy field. The net is smoother now, for you have taken the knowledge and placed it into your own vibration. Now it is time to return back into the Conscious Self, knowing that the knowledge you have gained is in your conscious awareness level, and you slowly return to conscious level ~ slowly return ~ knowing that you have gained knowledge of Self. Return ~ return.

Breathe deeply, this time breathing through the nose and out through the mouth. Again, slowly breathing through the nose and out through the mouth, releasing the energy. Thank your spirit guides.

Repeat after me ~ (Repeated)

- Thank you, spirit guides.
- Thank you, Angelic Protector.
- Thank you, Universal Consciousness.

Relax.

This is the technique. We will explain to you how you utilize this now. First of all, the technique of going to the net is one that can be repeated over and over and over again. Each time that you go to the net, you take out a piece of the webbing effect. That is the knowledge. And you bring it into Conscious Self. And when you return to the net to place your hand on the spot from which you have taken the energy, you are essentially, then, smoothing out the net. As you do this over and over again, eventually, you will have a straight line that used to be a net, for you will have taken the holes and the nooks and crannies out of the net. All of those envisions are knowledge of Self.

Some of you have a very, very wide net, meaning that not much smoothing out needs to occur. As you would look at a web, you would see wide distances between the threads. Some of you have very tight nets. The closer the threads are to each other in the forming of this net ~ or the web ~ the greater your challenge to smooth out the net. As we had said in our last time with you, some entities on the plane are just now beginning to work on smoothing out their own web, and others are close to the smoothing out.

It matters not where you are in this process. You do not go to another and indicate that you have envisioned a very wide net, and therefore, are highly evolved. The moment that you do some behavior like that, your net will close in around you and you will be back where you started from. Be most careful of boasting of your accomplishments. It is not important to talk with others of your net ~ your web. Talk only of what you, perhaps, learn from going to your own web.

We have one final comment. What we gave to you was a guided meditation. For you to utilize this technique, you could try a number of ways of implementing what we have given to you. You could have someone read the words for you onto a tape that you could use to guide yourself, and also to have the timing. We shortened the time frame. For example, when you go into the lowest levels of contemplation, we kept you there for a very short time. You could time this so that you stayed for many earth plane minutes.

You could do the tape yourself. You could record yourself, using your own voice to bring you into the meditative state. You could also simply know what the words are that we have given to you, and bring yourself into that visualization without the use of an external voice, but rather, to utilize your own voice. Or you may find another way to be easiest for you. This is a technique that could very easily be used in group meditations where you have a facilitator ~ such as when Mushiba conducts group meditations ~ in which you would then participate in a longer meditation.

We have given you the technique. This is the beginning. As each of the others in The Company come through to give you the SEARCH FOR SELF from their perspective, it will add to your meditation portfolio, as you would call it. For if you are to truly learn how to balance within a group, which is the responsibility of Teetee ~ and she will give you concept and technique ~ you must also have the ability to go to your net.

Going to the web is an integral part of the journey within Self. It is an advanced meditation technique, that when properly utilized, allows you to truly go into the depths of Self. That is the technique.

We have been most pleased to have served you. You now have a connection to Jenjura that has not been there before. It is quite easy to reach us in your meditations. You go to the web of Self and envision your hand holding onto the web, shaking the web and saying, "Jenjura, help me." And we will respond, if not personally and directly, we will send an emissary to help you as you go to your web. We are here to Be of Service. We send to you the Highest of the White Light. Waith will return now. Farewell.

Waith: Well, you are all quite fluffy now. We would indicate to you that in this particular technique, you would want to be as relaxed as you can be and also to not have pressing matters ahead of you, "We must be going out in one hour." Do not have those types of constraints upon yourself, especially when you first begin using this technique. This is a very simple technique and yet takes practice and can be most enjoyable.

We would recommend to you in the initial timing of the usage of this technique that you take the words that Jenjura gave to you and make a recording using your own voice so that you can pace yourself. Try this several times. In fact, you could have several timings, for the journey into the depths of your vibration, as you take the knowledge from your web, could be five earth plane minutes or twenty-five or thirty or fifty or sixty earth plane minutes. It is that particular component of the meditation that has the flexibility of relaxation.

So, you might then make several recordings that allow you to stay in the meditation for shorter or longer periods of time, depending upon where your own energy field is. You would use this also as a prelude to other types of focusing. Being able to go to your own web is the challenge here. Many will not be able, initially, to even visualize their own web. And if you find that to be a problem, it is quite simple to solve. Simply find yourself a web.

The World Wide Web?

Yes, indeed, we are most familiar with the terminology. Mushiba's vocabulary has begun adding, thanks very much to the bright energy beside you, my love.

Now then, when we say, "Find a web," you can go and find these bags that look like nets. Yes, we are aware on the plane of these types of devices. That may, indeed, help you to visualize as you try to focus and relax. Remember to relax, and if you are not able to sense your web, do not tense up and say, "I cannot visualize. Where's my web? Where's my web?"

You must be most calm in this arena. You may find that it takes many attempts to reach that point where you feel comfortable in going to the web that surrounds you. Once you have gone to the web ~ to actually place your own energy field on yourself ~ is an expanded concept of understanding the meditative process. It brings much more complexity and far greater dimension into the SEARCH FOR SELF, for you are capable now, through this technique, to truly search out all of the paths that you have traveled on and not just a simplistic journey into one dimension of Self. You have the technique. What you do with this technique is up to you.

We will build on this technique now in each of the sessions in which we devote time to meditation. So, in our next gathering it will be Francis who comes in to speak of the sense of community and the bringing in of other kingdoms. He has been charged with the caretaking of The Animal Kingdom. However, his focus is also more importantly placed on the gathering of as many other kingdoms into your community ~ your own life ~ to bring as much diversity into your environment as possible. The Mineral Kingdom, The Plant Kingdom, The Rug Kingdom ~ all that have energy, all that surround you ~ all is part of some kingdom, and thus, forms a community.

Your next part of the journey into Self is an understanding of where you are in the development of your own community within Self and what surrounds you and how to bring that about in a harmonious way. There will be a journey once again into the Self. So, it will be Francis who will give you the concept in the next gathering, and then in the gathering after that, as in this gathering, the technique. His time with you will be not as long as Jenjura. Each of The Company members will have shorter time frames with you than Jenjura, for Jenjura's job, and a fine one he did, was to lay the groundwork for the journey for this topic of meditation this earth plane year.

What questions would you have? We would seat the encasement now. Mushiba sometimes is startled when she returns in a standing position. Ah, you are all in a very mellow meditative state. This is good. This is very good. We will not disrupt the sense of meditation that you are mostly still feeling by continuing to talk. Enjoy the silence. It is important to have silence in your vibration. We will return to our realm now. Indeed, we sooth the energy. Relax and enjoy the companionship of each other and the sense of community. We will be with you again in our next gathering. We send to you all now the very Highest of the White Light from the very Highest of the Kingdom of Amelius. Farewell.

A Question For Boopsie: What Happens To Your Twin If Your Dominant Energy Changes? (December 03, 1996)

You said during your talk that your dominant energy can change. If your dominant energy changes, what happens to your twin?

Boopsie: Ah, very good question. That also changes. It is quite simple, because the levels are what change, so that in your Higher Self, you may have a dominant energy at one level that is male and a dominant energy at another level that is female. As your twin flame and you work through these levels at an earth plane dimension, they would work in harmony, controlled through the higher sources. But it is only a matter of changing within the levels, for at the very highest of the level of your energy is where the dominant is defined. And so, one is male and one is female, and then the levels all have predetermined layers of dominant gender. They simultaneously and harmoniously will flow appropriately.

Problems can occur if there is a blockage at one of the levels so ~ you knew this will not be easy, and Waith will be discussing this in workshop format ~ that you perhaps may have two varying levels of twin energy currently incarnated, and this would occur at the concrete where you could, in actuality, be of the same dominant characteristic. Characteristic is a very important word to keep in perspective here for the layers of Higher Self. So, indeed, you could be dominant female/dominant female, even though one is actually dominant male, you see. Eventually, however, it smooths out ~ perhaps not in the lifetime, but it does smooth out, and it is issue for our advanced discussions of Gender Harmony.

Waith: We have allowed you to present that question, as we so often do, for the teasing of future discussions, just so you will realize that the end of public session is not the end of new information coming in. It is simply the end of this particular format in which information is coming in ~ for information that will come in now will be of a much more advanced nature, and we will not be discussing information that is in the database ~ as we have been with public sessions.

If someone new came to a session and asked a question that had been asked four hundred million times, we often would simply respond to that question. Now that the database is in place, we would refer an entity to that database. Now, however, with that database in place, it allows us to elaborate with much more in depth information.

Gender Harmony is a category within the database, so we will be giving advanced information to many of the categories in the database ~ Gender Harmony being one of them, very specifically, since in The New Illusion gender is of a very different composition than it is currently. And Boopsie will indeed be giving a great deal of that information since that is her training, and she needs to practice a bit.

A Question About Positive And Negative Stimuli As It Relates To Twin Flames

(April 12, 1997)

I have a question as it relates to positive or negative stimuli for twin flames. Even though the energies are separate, they are similar. And if both the twins view a negative stimuli as such, would it affect both the energy lines? Maybe not to the same degree, but would it have an impact on both halves?

If you are both viewing the same stimuli as negative and not separate perceptions?

Yes.

Then it would further feed on itself. If both energy forms are feeling the same stimuli as being negative, it would become increasingly negative. The same holds true for positive. So, if you are able to bring it into a positive, then it further enhances your Flow of Energy. However, there must be caution if you both view negative, for that could then create difficulties if one of you wants to change it and one of you does not. If there is harmony and you both agree that this is negative and this is the way that it is going to be for the time being, then that is fine.

This premise, of course, is based on the fact that, A, you know who your twin happens to be, and B, there is agreement, and C, that there is even communication between you. So, there are many contingencies here. For the most part, most twin energy forms do not have that type of communication. So that presents an entirely different issue which we would bring up in another gathering based on similar energy forms ~ twin flames, perhaps.
